Two Senators Pay Visit to Kingston

By HUGH REYNOLDS

"Most Americans realize we can't get out of Vietnam tomorrow but they do want some indication of a beginning of the end to our presence in Vietnam," U. S. Senator Jacob K. Javits said at the dedication of Ulster County Community College in Stone Ridge, Saturday.

Interviewed by The Freeman after his speech Javits revealed that approval from the Department of Housing and Urban Development will be coming "within two or three weeks" on the $365,000 proposed Rondout Neighborhood Recreation Center in Broadway East. Javits also said approval would be coming on a $5,000 painting contract by the Kingston Urban Renewal Agency for rehabilitation of apartments in the UR area.

Elaborating on his speech published in The Freeman Saturday, the Republican senator from New York gave his definitions of "Hawks" and "Doves." "A Dove" Javits said, "is someone who wants to pick up and leave Vietnam, which we can't do. A Hawk is someone who wants to bomb Vietnam into a wasteland which we won't do. If we do destroy Vietnam we'll incur a tradition of hate for America which will endure in Asia for generations."

Javits spoke on the peace demonstrations in Washington terming it "understandable and entirely proper in this country." "Who better to protest than the young men who may die in the wars we send them to," Javits said.

Speaking of "the beginning of the end" Javits told the audience of some 600 persons that he felt the beginning,

RFK: Negotiated Peace

By CHARLES BERMPOHL

Senator Robert F. Kennedy came to Kingston Saturday night and claimed that he was for a negotiated settlement in Vietnam and that he favored the proposed New York State Constitution.

Kennedy read news and sports bulletins at the Community Chest Videothon and, responding to questions put to him by WGHQ's president Harry Thayer, said that he was "strongly opposed" to "pulling out" of Vietnam.

He further said, "We have to continue our search for a settlement (in Vietnam)," that "our commitments are limited over there," and "the struggle, as it is being conducted at the moment, will last a long time."

New York State's Democratic Senator did say that the United States position in Vietnam was fraught with "great risks and great danger."

On Demonstrators

Commenting on the peace demonstrations taking place in the nation's capitol and elsewhere, Kennedy said that such demonstrations "sometimes get out of hand" and "some (of the demonstrators) are harmful to their cause," but that demonstrations, generally, "are healthy."

The first-term Democrat also declared, "I am in favor" of the proposed State Constitution.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS — Dr. George B. Erbstein, Ulster County Community College president, is pictured addressing the audience at Saturday's dedication of the new campus at Stone Ridge. Dr. Erbstein presided at the event which featured a talk by U. S. Senator Jacob Javits and a performance by the Stewart Air Force Band. August Heckscher, of Stone Ridge, administrator of recreation and cultural affairs and commissioner of parks for New York City, introduced Senator Javits. 3 Die in Mishaps; One at Saugerties

By WALTER S. CLARK JR.

Traffic fatalities in Ulster, Columbia and Orange Counties during the weekend claimed the lives of three persons and resulted in injuries to several others.

Victims of the highway fatalities were: Edson Wolven, 80, of Route 2, Box 244, Saugerties; Donald Sienkiewicz, 31, Red Hook, and Donald Francis O'Loughlin, 25, of 31A Fayette Avenue, Wayne, N. J.

38th Fatality

Wolven was Ulster County's 38th traffic fatality of 1967. The 38th highway death in 1966 occurred on Aug. 12, when a 20-year-old Scarsdale youth was killed as his motorcycle slammed into a truck on Route 208 near the Wallkill prison.

Kingston State Police said Wolven was driving his car south on West Saugerties Road near Blue Mountain at 7:15 p. m., Saturday when the vehicle failed to negotiate a left curve. The car veered off the pavement and knocked down a utility pole, disrupting electric power and telephone service in the area until repairs were made.

M. A. Overfield, customer service supervisor of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., said the company was notified at 7:18 p. m. Saturday that the utility pole had been knocked down and that service in the area was cut off. He said crews of workmen were dispatched to the scene and service was restored to normal at 9:40 p. m. Customers in the immediate area were without service more than two hours.

Trooper John McMickle said Wolven was dead at the scene. A passenger in the car, Marie Parks, 70, of Route 2, Saugerteis., was rushed to Kingston Hospital by Saugerties Ambulance Service. She suffered multiple fractures and lacerations of the body, according to an investigation by State Police Sergeant Charles Bundschuh and Trooper Robert Mackey.

Authorities said the investigation would continue as troopers checked reports that the Wolven car was forced off the pavement by an unidentified vehicle which did not stop.

Death Accidental

Ulster County Coroner William S. Keyser ruled death of Wolven accidental. He said the man died of internal injuries and a crushed chest.

The Town of Saugerties fatality was the sixth highway mishap in the county this month that resulted in death. According to records each of the six fatal traffic accidents involved one car.

Claverack State Police reported Sienkiewicz was killed shortly after 2:15 a. m. Sunday when his car was involved in a headon collision on Route 9 at the intersection of the Stickles Gravel Quarry entrance in the Town of Livingston.

According to an investigation of the fatality by BCI Investigator James Savosky and Trooper C. J. Fuda of Claverack, Paul McVerry, 22, of New Zealand, was driving his car north on Route 9 when his vehicle apparently went out of control and crossed the center dividing lines.

McVerry's car was in headon collision with the southbound automobile owned and driven by Sienkiewicz. McVerry was taken to Columbia Memorial Hospital, Hudson, suffering a double fracture of the left forearm and multiple bruises and contusions. A passenger in his car, Tim Witlock, 20, of Buckinghamshire, England, sustained multiple lacerations and contusions of the face and a broken collarbone. He also was taken to the hospital in Hudson and admitted.

List Cause

Authorities reported the Red Hook man died of internal injuries and possible skull fracture.

Troopers said criminal action is pending. Investigation of the fatality is continuing.

Newburgh City police investigated a one-car traffic fatality which occurred early Sunday on Lake Street in that Orange County city. Killed in the mishap was Donald Francis O'Loughlin, owner of the car involved in the accident.

Lieut. Robert Jackson of the Traffic Division, who directed the investigation of the fatality, said O'Loughlin was a passenger in his car which was operated at the time by Philip C. Crist, 21, of Lake Hopatacong, Warton, N. J.

Crist was taken to St. Luke's Hospital, Newburgh, suffering a fractured left leg and other injuries. He was cited by police for driving at a speed not reasonable and prudent. The summons is returnable at a later date in Newburgh City Court.

Newburgh authorities reported Crist was traveling south on Lake Street in that city early yesterday when he lost control of the vehicle, as it careened across the pavement and crashed into a concrete bridge abutment before it overturned.

Police reported the car was demolished.

Israeli Mood Bitter

Sinking 'War Act'

Israel's angry mood hardened in bitter official statements today and Egyptian officials said they expect an attack "anytime" to avenge Egypt's sinking of an Israeli destroyer in what may have been one of warfare's first sea-to-sea missile raids.

Israeli Prime Minister Levi Eshkol called the sinking of the destroyer Elath Saturday "an act of war in open sea" and said "this despicable attack was launched without any cause." Egypt's Cabinet asserted the warship was in its territorial waters when missiles shattered it. The exchange came as Soviet Deputy Defense Minister Marshal Matvei Zakharov arrived in Cairo unannounced and President Gamal Abdel Nasser called his ministers together to discuss what the semiofficial newspaper Al Ahram reported were "the eventualities of the situation."

The purpose of Zakharov's mission was not disclosed but the commander of Israel's navy said he believed "Soviet missiles fired from Soviet ships supplied to the Egyptian navy" sank the Elath, killing 15 of her crew of 202, wounding 48 more and leaving 36 unaccounted for.

Former Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion, speaking at his 81st birthday party, said the missiles were not fired by Egyptians. He would not name, however, those persons he said launched them.

In Cairo, an Egyptian official told The Associated Press: "We expect renewed Israeli aggression anytime. Our armed forces are constantly on alert."

Eshkol reflected the angry mood of his countrymen in a broadcast to the nation. "It was a deliberate and unprovoked attack," he said. "The blood of our sailors, like the blood of our civilians and soldiers, will not be shed wantonly."

It was disclosed meanwhile that as late as Friday Defense Minister Moshe Dayan, hero of Israel's three victorious wars against the Arabs, had said the Suez Canal area is "likely to become once again the spark which touches off war."

Israeli and Egyptian troops face each other across the canal and have exchanged fire sporadically since the June 5-10 war.

New Conflict

Dayan warned that a new conflict would involve the major powers and said the Soviet Union's speedy rearmament of Egypt was encouraging its aggressiveness.

"The Elath sinking has made it crystal clear that the tasks of the Israel defense force are far from over," said the Jerusalem Post, which generally mirrors government views.

"Indeed," the newspaper said, "it has hardened the feeling that there is no real hope of achieving a peaceful solution in the area with the present Arab regimes."

In New York, Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban said he would be in contact today with representatives of friendly governments "to point out the extreme gravity with which Israel regards the sinking of the Elath." He called it the "most flagrant" violation of the cease-fire that ended the June war.

In Cairo, Al Ahram said that "the Elath made passes in repeated and clear provications" of the 12-mile Egyptian territorial water boundary.

When the Elath moved within 11 miles of the Egyptian coast off Port Said, the two missile boats moved in, firing four missiles and sinking the destroyer, the Egyptian account said.

Another Brigade to Vietnam

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. warplanes struck at a naval yard outside Haiphong for the first time Sunday as the vanguard of 4,100 fresh American infantrymen began coming ashore to help hold down South Vietnam's unstable northern battle zone.

Elements of the 198th Light Infantry Brigade joined 30,000 other infantrymen and 77,000 Marines already in the five northernmost Provinces. The area, known as 1st Corps, is one of deep Viet Cong penetration and high enemy operating efficiency.

The arrival of the full brigade over the next few days will push the total American strength in South Vietnam to approximately 467,000 men.

Jets Hit Target

Shortly before the new troops swept out of landing craft at Chu Lai on the South China Sea, Navy jets took advantage of a break in bad weather to hit a new target, a naval yard seven miles outside Haiphong.

Fliers said they heavily damaged an oil depot and a drydock and destroyed a torpedo patrol boat. Other pilots pounded railroad yards 1.7 miles from the center of Haiphong in continuing efforts to stop the flow of supplies out of the key North Vietnamese port.

A carrier-based Navy A4 Skyhawk was shot down by enemy ground fire in the Haiphong area, the U.S. Command reported, and the pilot was missing. It was the 707th announced U.S. warplane loss over the North. Hanoi had claimed downing two U.S. raiders.

Marine jets struck a railroad siding and bridge 20 miles south of Hanoi. Other Marine pilots reported destroying 35 enemy fortifications just above the demilitarized zone in North Vietnam.

Air Force fighter-bombers from Thailand struck targets above Hanoi, bombing a railroad bridge, rail lines and a missile site. Pilots told of cutting rail lines 39 miles northeast of Hanoi and hitting approaches to the Lang Lau railroad bridge 36 miles north of the capital.

No significant ground fighting was reported across the country Monday, a lull apparently related to voting in South Vietnam for a new House of Representatives. About 72.9 per cent of the 5.8 million qualified voters were reported have turned out to choose among 1,200 candidates.

99 Cong Die

In a delayed report on a ground action, U.S. headquarters said South Vietnamese irregulars and their U.S. Special Forces advisors killed 99 Viet Cong in a sharp clash Saturday 29 miles northeast of Saigon.

South Vietnamese casualties were termed light, while two American "Green Beret" advisers were reported to have been wounded.

The light infantry reinforcements, part of the newest brigade in the Army, bring three infantry battalions, an artillery battalion and support units totaling 4,100 men to the Americal Division operating in the southern part of 1st Corps.

Patrolling the area which stretches to the demilitarized zone had been mainly a Marine job until August when officials acknowledged that the Leathernecks lacked the manpower to handle the deeply rooted guerrillas.

Army troops have since been brought in to all sectors of the 1st Corps, including the edge of the DMZ where they look down the throats of the heaviest North Vietnamese artillery.

The new brigade, however, will go to the southern sector of the 1st Corps.

Political Section In The Freeman

A special tabloid-size political supplement will be included in Tuesday's regular edition of The Freeman.

The supplement, put together through the efforts of the League of Women Voters of Kingston, New Paltz, Saugerties, and Woodstock, along with Freeman staff members, will provide background material on all the major candidates, those running for the new County Legislature, and aldermen nominees for Kingston's 13 wards.

There will also be a listing of candidates running for elective offices in the 20 Towns of Ulster County.

Featured also will be a sample ballot with important instructions for the voter.

This special supplement will summarize the proposed new State Constitution, and explain the one proposition (Transportation Bond Issue) and two amendments (Job Development Authority and Blue Ridge Ski Center.).

The County Legislator candidates responded to a questionnaire sent to them by the League of Women Voters, as did the nominees for County Judge, District Attorney, County Treasurer, and Coroner.

The supplement will provide the voter with valuable information concerning the issues and the candidates, new photographs of the candidates, and maps of the varied legislative districts.

Washington Rally Grinds to an End

WASHINTON (AP) — U.S. marshals hauled a laststand group of Vietnam war protesters from Pentagon grounds early today, ending a sometimes-violent weekend rally and march on the troop-surrounded military nerve center of the nation.

Sponsors hailed the demonstration as the birth of a new peace movement.

Thousands participated. Hundreds were arrested. Dozens were injured. And a few got inside the huge five-sided building.

Dave Dellinger, chief organizer of the march, declared those who oppose the war now have shifted "from simple dissent to resistance."

On a plaza-like area just outside the Pentagon's mall entrance a hard-core band of dissenters—some bearded, some shaggy haired, some wearing trinkets of the hippie cult, some rather normal college types—resisted to the last.

At midnight Sunday, when their permit to stage a "nonviolent" demonstration expired, marshals armed with night sticks and pistols and aided by military police carried the protesters to Army vans. The Defense Department said 208 were hauled to a federal detention center at Occoquan, Va., where most of the 439 persons arrested earlier had been taken.

Midnight Deadline

As the midnight deadline approached, an Army colonel seated in a jeep repeatedly broadcast to the demonstrators a warning that those "who do not leave voluntarily by midnight will be arrested."

Officials estimated there were 2,000 troops on hand for the cleanup arrests. Before the operation Army Chief of Staff Harold K. Johnson personally conferred with unit commanders.

After the last demonstrator departed, there was a moment of silence and then a wave of cheering from the troops. The marshals then applauded the soldiers.

Some of the soldiers were to remain on duty through the night.

Left behind on the lawn and asphalt parking area of the Pentagon's mall entrance was a janitor's nightmare of scattered debris including beer cans, newspapers and piles of ashes from weekend campfires.

Trucks equipped with giant vacuums sucked up most of the trash. But painted slogans, scrawled on Pentagon masonry, remained as telltale signs of the brief occupation.

A few points of dispute also lingered.

Prof. Thompson Bradley of Swarthmore College, a demonstration leader, charged federal marshals and Army officers beat and kicked demonstrators outside the Pentagon at the height of action Saturday. The Pentagon maintained that government personnel used the

Kingston Teacher Elected

Resnick Backs Strike Right

Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick (D-Ellenville), speaking before a convention of the Empire State Teachers Federation at the Gov. Clinton Hotel Saturday night, told the teachers the only way to "correct the inequity of low teachers' salaries was for the teachers to strike."

Resnick attacked the recently passed Taylor Law which prohibits strikes by public employes, teachers included, saying, "Politicians don't go to the root of the matter, they pass a Taylor Law. Certain groups of public employes (police, firemen, could endanger the public safety if they went on strike. To put teachers in this category is sheer nonsense. I put the Taylor Law on par with the Anti-riot Bill passed by the Congress."

Resnick was introduced by Dr. Israel Kugler, past-president of the Empire State Teachers Federation, who referred to Resnick as "a most unusual national legislaturer."

Resnick said that before World War II teachers were well paid but in recent years their role has eroded to the point where they earn less, on a national average, than construction workers. Said the congressman, "When it comes to paying public employes, it's the money, not the principle."

Terming American education "the best in the world," Resnick added that it was nowhere near sufficient. He spoke of the need to educate "hundreds of thousands" of Negroes migrating from the south into the north every year. Also handicapped and mentally retarded children.

Albert Shanker, president of the United Federation of Teachers which recently struck in New York City, was introduced from the audience.

Speaking before the convention Friday night, Shanker assailed the salary publicity of the New York City Board of Education. Shanker hit the city board for advertising minimum salaries in the system rather than maximum salaries. He blamed the board for creating the teacher shortage by "not putting its best foot forward."

A Kingston teacher, Thomas Mannix, was elected to succeed Dr. Kugler as president of the State Teachers Federation. Dr. Kugler is now president of the newly organized New York College and University Council of the American Federation of teachers.

Resnick noted that the main source of revenue to school districts was the property tax which he termed "the biggest evil and biggest inequity in our whole tax structure."

Stating that the property tax did not take into consideration the ability of the owner to pay at any level, Resnick called for an education tax. He would base this on either gross or net income and it would be graduated. Resnick advocated higher taxes for commercial owners over private dwelling owners.

In conclusion Resnick said, "We must work on a system where our public employes get the wages they are entitled to in comparison with other workers."

Present at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. George Yerry Jr. Yerry was lauded for his support of teachers in the past. He is a member of the New York State Workmen's Compensation Board.

General Raps Bomb Curbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Air Force general charges that target restrictions in the air war against North Vietnam caused "more pilot and airplane losses."

The bitter criticism of past bombing limitation came from retired Maj. Gen. Gilbert E. Myers, who ended 30 years of military service as deputy commander of the 7th Air Force. He served 15 months in Vietnam.

He told the Senate preparedness subcommittee in testimony released today that many pilots were killed because of heavy Washington on bombing missions in North Vietnam.

"I felt that we were literally fighting with one hand tied behind our backs, that we could have been much more effective had we been able to pick more lucrative targets that existed in North Vietnam, that this would have had a much greater impact on the enemy and his ability to carry on the war in the South," Myers told the subcommittee Aug. 29.

Myers said that initially only one or two fixed targets were released at a time because "they were all approved at the Washington level."

"The existing practice of doling out the targets one, two and three at a time is too restrictive and results in more pilot and airplane losses," he said.

"Obviously the most effective, most remunerative targets in North Vietnam were not struck," he said.

He was the final witness before the panel, which previously recommended increased and more effective use of available air power against North Vietnam.

In other heavily censored testimony released today, Gen. Harold K. Johnson, Army chief of staff, said the Joint Chiefs of Staff unanimously recommended two years ago "as heavy a blow as possible" against important military targets in North Vietnam.

"This view was not supported," he testified. "Therefore we supported the gradual approach that has been used since then."

Gen. Wallace M. Greene, commandant of the Marine Corps, testified he advocated "more effective bombing and I am also advocating more bombing if that is necessary."

"I have advocated the rapid and heavy application of air power to targets in North Vietnam as well as in South Vietnam, wherever they might be found," Greene said.

When the subcommittee issued its recommendations Aug. 31 it said the top generals favored more bombing.

Both ground force generals disagreed with earlier testimony by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, who said even the Joint Chiefs admitted some of the targets they recommended—but were not authorized to bomb—were insignificant.

McNamara said only a few of several hundred bombing targets asked by the military had not been authorized.

Individually some of these might seem unimportant, Gens. Greene and Johnson said, but as a package they called them important to the over-all military mission.

Parades Support Troops

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Americans turned out by the tens of thousands in the New York metropolitan area over the weekend to parade peacefully in a mass show of support for U.S. fighting men in Vietnam.

The demonstrations, sponsored by the National Committee for Responsible Patriotism, included a nationwide "Lights On" program, with thousands of motorists keeping their car headlights burning during daylight hours to back up the presence of GIs in Southeast Asia.

The biggest event, a parade in Newark, N.J., had 60,000 marchers with about an equal number of spectators.

Some 100,000 persons marched in several New York City boroughs and on Long Island, with another estimated 100,000 looking on. About 6,000 marched in Waterbury, Conn.

The peaceful parading gave sharp contrast to the weekend of anti-Vietnam violence in Washington, with some of the estimated 35,000 protesters clashing with guards surrounding the Pentagon in scuffles that left about 50 injured. During the two days of protest about 600 persons were arrested as thousands of youths tried to crash through the lines of troops and storm the Defense Department complex.

Early today, the government broke up the tag-end of the demonstrations, arresting more than 150 die hards who ignored the Sunday midnight deadline.

In West Berlin, police ended a weekend of anti-U.S. demonstrations Sunday by hosing down about 1,000 student protesters from six water-cannon trucks.

In London, police fought a pitched battle with about 3,000 anti-Vietnam war demonstrators outside the U. S. Embassy, Scotland Yard arrested 47.

New York Mayor John V. Lindsay, a Republican, speaking at a Battery Park vigil, said that while Americans are behind U.S. fighting men in Vietnam there are "deep divisions" on long-range political goals.

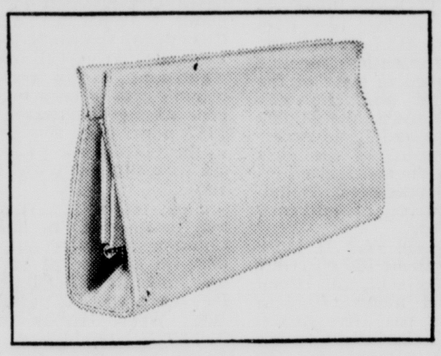

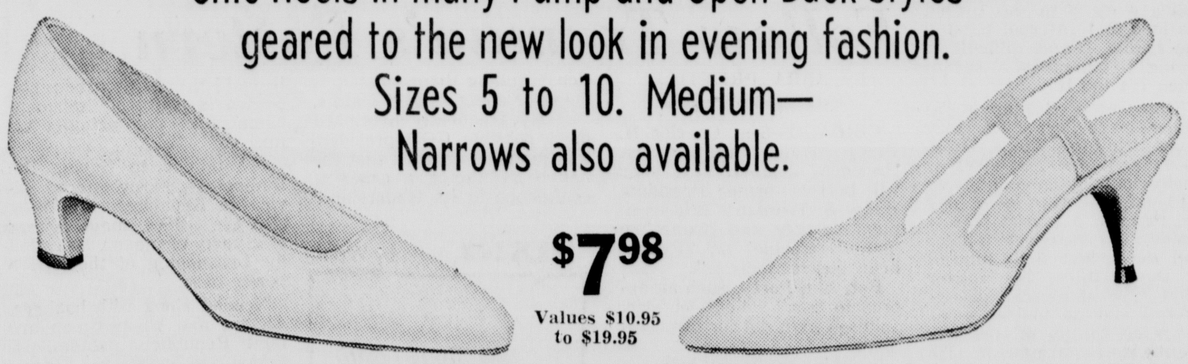

Meanwhile Secretary of State Dean Rusk released a letter Sunday that he said was received from a GI in Vietnam before the past weekend demonstration.

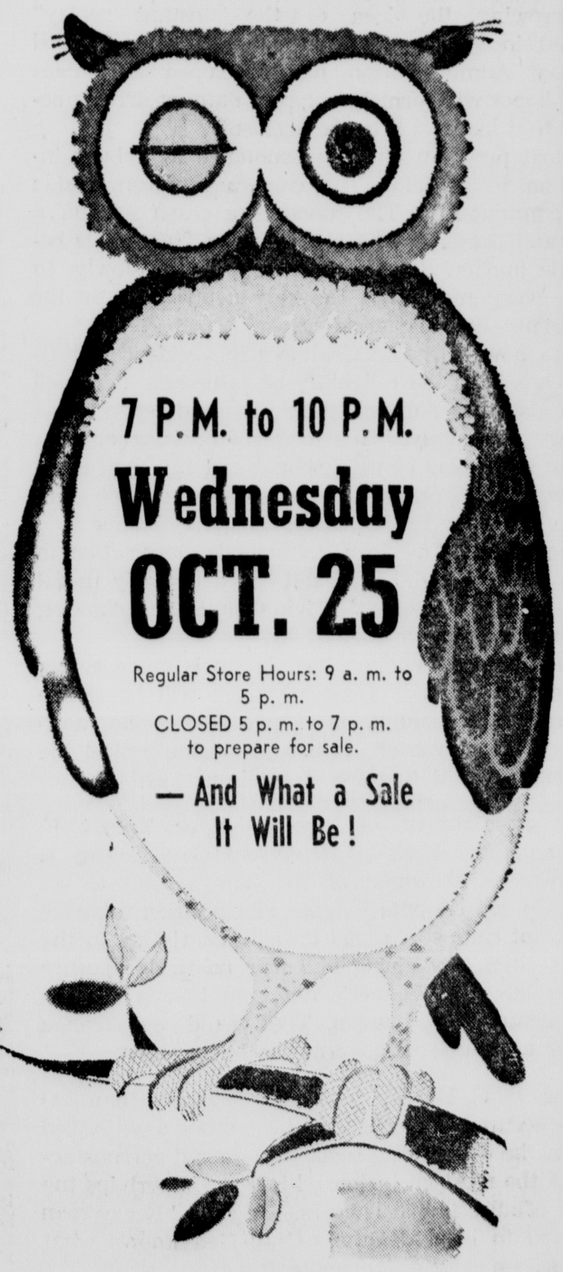

Rusk said the serviceman, not identified, told him that antiwar actions of U.S. students "caused great controversy over here and therefore we are writing you this letter."

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, OCTOBER 23, 1967

Referendum on Ward

The California Supreme Court ordered the city of San Francisco on September 18 to put the question of withdrawing American troops from Vietnam on the ballot in November. This decision was based on the fact that the San Francisco city charter contains a provision for a referendum on matters of policy.

Immediately, two petitions were filed with New York City Clerk Herman Katz requiring him to put the question of peace in Vietnam on the November ballot there. The petitioners maintained that if it is legal for San Francisco to vote on the issue, it should be for New Yorkers.

New York State Supreme Court Justice Francis T. Murphy Jr. has now ruled differently. Pointing out that the New York City charter contains no provision for a declaration of policy, Murphy upheld Katz in ruling the question off the ballot in New York.

Furthermore, Murphy made a point which seems to us should rule out a referendum on the war in any city in the nation. In his decision, Murphy said that both New York and San Francisco were "without power to effectuate a withdrawal of troops in Vietnam," and so there was nothing to be gained from such a referendum, except possibly for the enemy in the chaos it might stir.

At best, a referendum would be a public opinion poll at the taxpayers' expense.

Economy Measure

The long-drawn out fight to compel a cut in federal spending reached a climax, when the House voted 238 to 164 to order all expenditures held at the level of the fiscal year that ended June 30 last. Though it exempted Social Security, highway construction, old-age assistance, veterans pensions, postal and internal revenue operations, military salaries, war-related activities, Medicare and payments on the national debt, the reductions in spending would come to $7 billion.

Even though it was recognized that the Senate may not join in the economy measure, the House's action served notice both on the Senate and on the White House that it was in dead earnest. It had another ace. The action was attached to a proposal for financing Government agenices whose regular appropriations bills have not cleared Congress. They will be technically penniless without such temporary financing.

If the House stands firm, it is in a position to compel acceptance of its economy measure. In that case, there is doubt that the surtax would be passed, for a slash of $7 billion in spending could make the surtax unnecessary.

Drinking Data

Borrowing the idea of the "instant replay" featured in sports television coverage, the Federal Highway Administration has developed a camera that it hopes will furnish foolproof data on driving behavior that leads to a traffic accident.

A test program is being conducted at a busy intersection in Buffalo. The camera monitors traffic there continuously. The sound of a crash sets off a signal and preserves the picture from 20 seconds before the impact. It can then be replayed slowly, to reveal every motion of the car involved — or the pedestrians—in each accident.

Up to now, a major weakness in accident investigation has been the reliability of witnesses. It is well known also that different people see and report what they see differently. This makes for disagreements. The instant replay camera should end this confusion.

Lowell H. Bridewell, administrator of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads, described the technique to a meeting of the American Automobile Association in Washington. He said it should be particularly useful in determining motorists' driving faults and showing them how to improve their skills.

When a broad enough installation is made across the country, more and more drivers will be shown their faults. Hopefully, as they correct them, accidents will be prevented. It is a promising tool in the never-ending fight to prevent traffic accidents.

The appointment of former Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York by Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockfeller as chairman of the non-partisan Urban Action Committee puts Wagner in a position to strike at the root causes of racial unrest and rioting in the nation's cities. By giving him new political exposure it could advance Wagner's ambition to run for the Senate against Jacob Javits. That would be a strange turn for a Republican governor to bring about.

James D. C. Murray, who defended more than 500 persons accused of murder, died the other day. Asked once how he could bring himself to defend persons accused of the most vile crimes, his reply is perhaps the defense of all criminal lawyers. He said, "Every man is entitled to legal defense. Only God knows what justice is, we only approximate it.

Reluctant to Blame Commies for Riots

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—For some undisclosed reason, officials of the Johnson administration are reluctant to concede that communists inside America are responsible to no small extent for some wildcat strikes, violence in street demonstrations, and riots.

The news from Great Britain, however, is different. A Reuters press association dispatch from London on Wednesday says:

"The British government today placed the blame for the current wave of strikes here on a communist plot to wreck the economy and ruin social democracy.

" 'There is now little doubt,' declared Labor Minister Ray Gunter, 'that the Communist Party is planning to make this a winter of disruption.' "

The British labor minister was quoted further as having declared that the communists have allied themselves with extreme left-wing Trotskyite movements in industry. He said that "their aim is to destroy our hopes of economic recovery."

Inside the United States some voices are being raised against communist activity, but thus far the Department of Justice has not announced any steps to prosecute communists who are behind some of the riots and disturbances.

Members of Congress, on the other hand, are becoming more vocal on the subject. Representatives Joe Pool, Democrat of Texas, and Paul Rogers, Democrat of Florida, have called on the Justice Department to do some prosecuting. They declare that the plain intent of the demonstrators here on Saturday around the Pentagon is to obstruct the work of the military headquarters and that "this on its face is sedition." Representative Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, has pointed out that communists all over the world will play up the march as evidence that the United States may have to quit the Vietnam war.

Representative William M. Colmer, Democrat of Mississippi, chairman of the House Rules Committee, is urging action on a bill to punish demonstrators who give aid to the enemy or block the movements of troops or military supplies. While this was cleared for floor action by the Rules Committee in May, it has never been pressed for passage by the Democratic leadership.

Senator George Murphy, Republican of California, in a speech to the Senate on Tuesday announced that he had written the Department of Justice about the efforts to close the induction center at Oakland as part of a nationwide protest movement against the draft, and had asked whether the instigators were in violation of federal law and would be prosecuted. The California senator said:

"I remain puzzled by the apparent failure of federal authorities to act in this matter. . . . It is strange that the burden of protecting a federal installation in Oakland again has fallen upon local and state authorities."

Senator Robert C. Byrd, Democrat of West Virginia, in a Senate speech declared that, while the National Mobilization Committee to end the War in Vietnam is a nationwide movement which includes some sincere pacifists, it also includes "a mixed bag of anarchists, socialists, black-power extremists, and communists of both the Moscow and Peking variety." He added:

"The role of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee in the march on the Pentagon should be thoroughly investigated to determine if funds are being transmitted to SNCC from Cuba for this or other forms of political warfare, and whether it is also possible that funds from communist Cuba or other communist countries might also be employed to aid some of the other participating organizations in the demonstrations during the week of October 16-21."

Senator John C. Stennis, Democrat of Mississippi, declares that there is "a very definite connection between the work of the communists in Cuba and some of the demonstrations in this country against the war."

ISTANBUL, Turkey — The night is clear and soft and there is a faint chill on the Bosporus. Babek is a restaurant which means "baby" and hangs on the final foot of Europe. A mile across the straits is Asia, and the automobile headlights wink and die on the hills. The two and a half million Turks of Istanbul occupy both continents.

A line of small fishing boats sweep the dark waters with bright lights. In the restaurant, Turkish families eat sweet-meats and shish kebab, and a fat accordionist plays the sad strains of the Wehrmacht love song, Lili Marlene. The applause is polite, but when he plays a swift folk song the diners swing in their chairs and nod approval.

At 9 o'clock, the night run of the Russian tankers begins. They are high and empty and they run fast through the narrow straits, mast lights dull yellow, and the fifteen-knot wake rocking little boats at moorings. The Russians time their voyages so that, eastbound, they clear the Dardanelles and the Sea of Marmara at night. In this way, the Turks do not get photographs.

They run straight into the Black Sea — only 45 minutes away — and on up to Batu for oil. The Soviet Black Sea battle force makes the same run in reverse. They clear Istanbul after sundown, and get out into the Aegean Sea before dawn. No pictures. When the American Sixth Fleet arrived, it dropped hooks at dawn and sent the white-uniformed sailors ashore at noon.

Once this was a city of intrigue. Von Papen worked for Hitler and he played Istanbul as though it were a violin. His agents watched everybody, and everybody watched his agents. The Simplon Express used to run all the way from Paris to Istanbul, and men in movie-type trenchcoats checked the passenger list.

Before that, the sultans had the city for 500 years and called it Constantinople, but no schoolboy could spell it so it was changed to Istanbul. The city still stands on seven hills and has seven gates, but the harems are museum curiosities, and the women wear no veils. The fez is gone too but can be bought in a souvenir shop for a dollar. The nation moved its capital to Ankara, but only Istanbul can boast 440 mosques with 2,000 minarets.

The calls to prayer occur at odd hours during the day, but now they come through tin loudspeakers. The faithful never face East; they face Mecca. Turkey is western-oriented, and dress is much like the United States. The men go to the mosques; women stay home and pray.

The distinguishing items about Istanbul are traffic jams, lack of schools, illicit opium traffic, and the Grand Bazaar.

The traffic jams are due to narrow, old-fashioned roads and when bumpers click, both drivers get out of their cars and make a scene in which the public joins. All hands are permitted to join in the argument, and one driver left, had lunch, and returned in time to find that the consensus was that he had jammed on his brakes too fast.

The population explosion has reached here, and Turkey is building elementary and high schools as fast as possible. It isn't fast enough. The dope traffic is owned by foreigners who buy opium at wholesale and then secrete it aboard a vesel standing in the Bosporus. A black ball weighing two kilos used to be hidden in a ship's ventilator. No more.

Now it goes into the crankcase of a car carried in the hold, or in a bale of long-fibered cotton. Or it may be dropped overboard in a lobster pot as the ship arrives at a U.S. port. The Turkish police work with the United Nations and Interpol to stop the traffic. It's as difficult as trying to suppress a sneeze when it's too late.

The Grand Bazaar is an endless arcade of jewelry shops, clothing shops, dress goods and shoes. A clerk is always outside each shop. He says an elaborate good day the moment a tourist pauses. Inside, the manager inhales and the sucker finds himself at the counter. No matter what type of merchandise is offered and no matter what the price, the joy of the merchant is in argument. He wants the customer to refuse the first price and to start walking out. When the sucker reaches the front door, the sale commences. My wife bought three pairs of ornate Turkish slippers, with turned-up toes, for $3. Normally, they sell for $6. The merchant made only a dollar on the transaction.

The accordionist and the violinist at Babek's play Die Rosenkavalier. It is a scented joy of old Vienna, and the dark waters of the Bosporus sparkle in the night. The city is so bright that the stars are pale....

Pope's Tolerance of Reds Shocks Militant Catholics

WASHINGTON — Among militant Catholics on Capitol Hill, an anti-Vatican undercurrent has been boiling since the late Pope John began to make conciliatory overtures to the communists. The discontent has abated only slightly since the succession of Pope Paul, who reminded lay Catholics just last weekend that they must obey the church hierarchy.

The improving relations between the Vatican and the Kremlin have deeply disturbed such fire-and-brimstone anti-communists as Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., Sen. Tom Dodd, D-Conn., Rep. John Rooney, D-N. Y., and Rep. Mike Feighan, D-Ohio, all devout Catholics.

They were so shocked over the late Pope's tolerance of communism that they began holding private huddles with troubled clerics and laymen who also feared Pope John was softening up the church toward communism. Other notables joined in some of the discussions, including the late columnist Constantine Brown and Baron von Gutenberg, a descendant of the inventor of the printing press.

At these backroom sessions, the militants generally took a conspiratorial view. They agreed darkly that communists had infiltrated the Curia. Some claimed to have "inside information" that Pope John was being manipulated by his personal secretary, Msgr., Loris Capovilla.

Some of these distinguished Catholics actually expressed secret relief over the passing of Pope John. This was followed by dismay, however, over Pope Paul's similar attitude, expressed in appeals for disarmament, co-existence and his strong and repeated stand for a Vietnam peace.

When the new Pope also urged the United Nations to open its doors to all nations, presumably including Red China, the militants despaired.

Sen. Dodd even dispatched a private letter to the Holy Father, hand-delivered to the Papal Nuncio in Washington, pleading passionately: "I am worried by the implications of your holiness's proposal that the United Nations should study the right method of opening its doors to all countries now excluded from its roster.

"I gravely fear that, in the context of the present world situation, this statement will be construed by certain people as a plea for the admission of Red China to the United Nations . . . Red China's admission would rob the United Nations of all moral significance, and would paralyze whatever capacity for peaceful action the United Nations still retains. It would exacerbate rather than reduce the conflict between the free world and the communist world."

It should be interesting to watch how far McCormack, Dodd and Co. will go in their campaign against the Vatican.

Tempest Over Pot

Food and Drug Commissioner James Goddard, who is supposed to warn the public against dangerous drugs, astonishingly has been going around the country defending marijuana.

In Boston, he said that smoking marijuana, in his opinion, was no more dangerous than drinking liquor.

In Minneapolis, he added that he would no more object to his college daughter smoking "pot," as the hippies call the drug, than he would to her drinking a cocktail.

If this is Goddard's idea of what is safe for the public, his qualifications to approve drugs for public distribution would seem to be in serious doubt.

The Narcotics Bureau, which has had more experience with marijuana than has the lenient Goddard, has found that it often provokes users to violence and weakens their resistance to stronger drugs. Most heroin addicts were started on marijuana.

Narcotics agents also point out, parenthetically, that if Goddard's daughter is allowed to smoke "pot," she is subject to arrest for violating federal law.

Secretary of Defense McNamara has ordered the armed forces to accept more misfits and dropouts for military service, so President Johnson won't be forced to widen the draft or call up the reserves during the 1968 election year.

One hundred thousand draftees from the next-to-lowest category, who have been turned down in the past, will be inducted this year. They will be given special training with more emphasis on the use of charts, films and closed-circuit television.

The armed services also have been less strict about washing out recruits who don't make the grade during basic training. The Marines, for example, set aside a diet table and give special training to overweight recruits who formerly would have been discharged.

Misfits are also given a second chance. Those who are hard to handle, for example, are stripped of their clothes and compelled to stand in front of a mirror, stark naked, admiring themselves for a couple of hours. This has worked miracles in taking the starch out of them.

Henry J. Taylor Says

World-Wide Slump in Commodities

CHICAGO — Nearly clandestine reasons combine to cause the world-wide slump in commodity prices recorded here on the tickers of the great Chicago Board of Trade. This largely unrevealed phenomenon may sound as dull as the Karachi telephone book but it is vital to us, and its centrifugal force is certain to be felt in the social, political and economic structures of the free world countries and our enemies as well.

Reuter's World Commodity Index of 17 basic items recently hit another new five-year low at 412.7. Behind the scenes a relentless decline has continued in spite of the Vietnam war, production disruptions in Asia, the Middle East, Africa and Latin America, the closing of the Suez Canal and the accelerated inflationary pressures, including the waves of currency devaluations.

Since World War II there have been about 180 currency devaluations — 12 in Brazil alone — and many of them within the past five years. Argentina's last devaluation (about 28 percent, to 350 pesos per U. S. dollar) was Argentina's ninth devaluation since 1964. Even frugal Finland devalued her currency another 31 percent the other day. Yet global commodity prices have reversed the normal reaction entirely, so powerful have been the factors at work. And thereby hangs the immensely important tale.

The demand for basic materials — minerals, metals, fibers, fuels, chemicals, etc. — has slackened throughout the world, not alone in our country where the zinc consumption, for example, is off 17 percent compared to 1966. Our great copper industry, producing about one-third of the world's supply, has been shut down by strikes for about three months without consumers complaining of a copper shortage. The consumption is declining and the inventories are replenished far easier than expected.

In Paris recently I asked the secretariat of the Paris-based Organization for Economic Cooperation and Growth for the world picture. I found that its 21 member nations had a combined growth rate of only two percent during the first half of 1967, down from five percent in the year-earlier period and six percent as recently as 1965.

Steel production, requiring ore, coal, etc., in the six Common Market countries is only 78 percent of capacity now, down from 80 percent last year and 90 percent in 1964. West German overall industrial production has fallen 5.4 percent this year, the first decline since 1949. France's production growth has been slackening since mid-1966. England is Europe's most industrialized nation. Yet statistics, which Churchill once called "those damn little dots," show Britain's productivity is now lower than any Western European industrialized country on the continent, and her growth rate has fallen to 1.5 percent.

Simultaneously, the supply side in the demand-supply equation has turned into a glut, and the glut is steadily growing. Except sulphur, tungsten and a few others, all major raw materials are in world oversupply—everything from copper, zinc, lead, potash, natural rubber, tin, jute, molybdenum and heaven knows what.

Numerous companies decided to safeguard themselves against inflation by entering the raw materials business for the first time. Many established producers, in turn, have expanded for still another reason than is unannounced.

For example, even in the face of a world-wide crude oil glut, even in the face of nearly incredible oil exploration costs that have increased 600 percent since World War II, such superbly managed companies as Standard Oil Company of New Jersey continue searching for oil in Alaska, the Gulf of Mexico and other operationally high-cost areas. This has little to do with supply and demand. Oil companies are divorcing their sources away from the Arab world as fast as they can.

Like numerous other producers of raw materials such as copper, bauxite, etc., they are expanding in alternate areas to guarantee their output when unreliable countries where they now operate are in revolutions, confiscate their properties or otherwise threaten their ability to deliver, or even to survive. And this unspoken factor has grown more and more contributory in the world-wide price slump.

Percy Says Johnson Will Follow Truman's Pattern

By ABRA PRENTICE
Chicago Sun-Times Special

CHICAGO—Sen. Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) predicts that President Johnson next year will borrow former President Harry S. Truman's 1948 campign strategy and blame the nation's troubles on "Republican obstructionism."

But, said Percy, such an approach won't click for Mr. Johnson as it did for Mr. Truman.

Speaking yesterday before a session of the annual convention of The Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. here, Percy said a blame-the-Republicans campaign can't stand up because "the GOP is not responsible for the failure of the war on poverty or the progress of the war in Vietnam or the fiscal and monetary mismanagement which has led to inflation and higher Taxes."

In a direct attack on Mr. Johnson, Percy said the American people do not believe the Johnson administration is telling them what it is doing or doing what it claims.

Percy, frequently mentioned as a possible GOP presidential nominee, charged that the nation is "facing a crisis of confidence in its leadership."

He said the Johnson administration is guilty of "mismanagement of our national affairs."

In addition to flaying the Democrats, Percy offered advice to Republicans. Noting that the GOP's image is that of a party of means, he called for broadening of the GOP's power base.

Needed along with bankers, doctors and businessmen are more Republican debtors, patients and customers, Percy asserted.

Percy pointed out that Republicans now hold the governors' seats of 25 states with 70 per cent of the population. Victory in those states would put a Republican in the White House in 1969, he said.

Percy conceded that the Democrats would be virtually unbeatable "if all was tranquil in the world." But such tranquility is lacking, he said.

"The great problems facing this nation," Percy said, "require sound management. Clearly, the Johnson administration is not providing it."

President May Stop Bombing North Vietnam in New Test

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sometime in the next few months President Johnson is likely to stop bombing North Vietnam in a new test of possibilities for ending the Vietnamese war.

Such action ha been wiedly and persistently demanded by critics of the President's war policy, and many officials consider it virtually inevitable. But they hold little hope now it will lead to peace talks.

On the contrary, there is growing belief here the war may never be settled by negotiations—in the end it may simply fade away, with Communist military operations subsiding into small scale guerrilla activities and terrorism.

The basic assumption underlying this view is the U.S. and allied military might will prevail every enemy forces in South Vietnam and will make the war too costly for North Vietnam to continue.

The bombing of North Vietnam is considered by President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk to be an important means of imposing that heavy cost yet also is a pressure which can be withdrawn when timing is right to probe President Ho Chi Minh's attitude toward peace.

U.S. leaders believe if Ho Chi Minh does not negotiate short of defeat, he will see his forces in the South and his resources in the North slowly ground down to a state of military impotence. They assume he will want to stop the war before that point is reached and retire to rebuild his strength and perhaps to fight again another time.

The game is trying to read the minds and assess the intentions of the government in Hanoi.

Opinion here on peacemaking has vacillated between the feeling he would agree to negotiations and the thought he will refuse to do so on any terms acceptable to President Johnson.

The greater emphasis now given to the fade away theory is due in part to Ho's persistence so far in rejecting Johnson's various overtures and those of many other would-be peacemakers.

Officials note that North Vietnamese spokesmen have said repeatedly for the past year that if President Johnson halted the bombing unconditionally there could have been talks.

But they have never been willing to say flatly that there would be talks.

Cant Commit Hanoi

Soviet and other Communist officials have said talks would be held in three or four weeks if Jonson stopped the bombing. But U. S. officals say even the Soviets were unable to commit Hanoi definitely to negotiations if the bombings stopped on Hanoi's terms.

U.S. officials who hold the fadeaway theory say there might be deeper reasons why Ho is unwilling to negotiate. One such possible reason is that in the peace exchanges thus far through diplomatic channels no party has succeeded in producing a compromise peace formula.

Another argument advanced by U. S. officials is that Ho may wish to avoid any kind of international inspection system to guarantee enforcement of whatever agreements were made for the future of South Vietnam.

In spite of these arguments no one in Washington is able to say the view in Hanoi will not change with the changing circumstances of the war. This is the major reason why Johnson administration officials say the United States must continue to probe for peace.

Halting the bombing is a far more serious action for President Johnson than putting a new peace proposal into diplomatic channels or writing another letter to Ho Chi Minh, however.

The nation's military leaders have made known their opposition to any respite for North Vietnam. Nevertheless administration officials recognize that Johnson is concerned with the periodic probing of the possibilities of negotiation but also with demonstrating he is willing to do what he can within the limits of his policy to get North Vietnam to a conference table.

Mental Illness Low Among GIs

By RAY CROMLEY
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If U. S. military action in Vietnam were morally wrong—as some congressman, professors and marchers assert — this "wrongdoing" would be expected to show up in high rates of mental illness among the U. S. troops on the spot.

Men with consciences worry when they do wrong. Their mental health worsens. Some have breakdowns. Many find they are not working up to par. The people with mental worries fill a good many of the beds in hospitals in peace and war.

Since most bad eggs—and even men with low IQs and low education — are culled out in the selection process for the U. S. military forces—what we have in the U. S. Army in Vietnam is a good cross-section of American young men from average homes where moral standards have been taught. Moral unfitness is one reason for rejecting draftees and volunteers.

As a result of this fitness criteria, the young American soldiers in Vietnam are men with consciences in good working condition. Clergymen this reporter has talked to in South Vietnam back up this assertion that in the U. S. troops fighting this war there is an unusually high moral average.

Certainly, there are some rotten apples—as there are here at home. But the average of good men is high. The question then is, how are their consciences taking the war? What do the figures show about mental illness among U. S. Army troops in South Vietnam?

During World War II, 23 per cent of all cases evacuated medically were evacuated for psychiatric reasons. The percentage in Vietnam has been only a fourth of that — 6 per cent.

In fact, a medical report on Vietnam sates that "the incidence of neuropsychiatric illness in U. S. Army troops in Vietnam is lower than that recordd in any previous conflict in which U. S. armed forces were involved."

Neuropsychiatric illness in U. S. Army troops in Vietnam has been approximately 12 per cent per 1,000 troops a year.

This compares with 37 per 1,000 troops a year in the Korean war. In World War II, the mental illness rates were even higher.

Neuropsychiatric illness ran as high as 101 per thousand troops per year for the first U. S. Army in Europe. The lowest rates during World War II for an army in combat was 28 per thousand troops per year in the Ninth U.S. Army in the period from September 1944 through May, 1945.

Actually, the mental illness rate in South Vietnam among U. S. troops has been lower some months than for troops in the continental United States. Recently, the rates have been running about the same — at 12 cases of neuropsychiatric illness per thousand troops per year.

Castroites Try To Build Morale

By DON BOHNING
Chicago Daily News Service

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA, Oct. 20—A pair of recent bomb blasts set off by sophisticated timing devices have focused new attention on Castroite subversive elements here.

The post-midnight explosions — one at the foreign ministry, the other at a branch office of the national bank—have been linked to followers of Floyd Britton, a known Panamanian Castroite.

The bombings are viewed as more of a psychological effort for an internal build-up by the Castroite militnats than an attempt to create consternation among the population.

Britton, a "professional" student in his late 30's is enrolled but rarely attends the University of Panama. He led a legation of Panamanians to the mid-summer conference of Latin American revolutionaries in Havana.

At least a dozen Panamanians and perhaps more attended the Castro-called solidarity conference, according to Panamanian sources. All the delegates have since returned to Panama.

Travel apparently was through Europe, since the Mexicans have virtually closed the door on the clandestine Panamanian visits to Cuba via the Mexico City-Havana flights.

The Panama National Assembly a year ago passed a law prohibiting travel to countries where Panama has no diplomatic representation. It was directed specifically at Cuban travel, although not spelled out.

The law provides no penalties, however, except the lifting of passports and the government has been reluctant to utilize the measure. Besides, obtaining new Panamanian passports, as demonstrated by the extensive use of them by Cubans participating in the Bolivian guerrilla movement, presents only a small problem.

When Britton returned from Cuba, it was understood he and his followers were to try and create incidents beginning Sept. 21 to coincide with the opening of the Organization of American States' foreign ministers meeting in Washington.

Terroist Campaign

That effort failed to get off the ground. It also was understood they might attempt a terroist campaign against U.S. business in Panama, as a last-gasp effort to win additional Castro support. So far that has failed to materialize.

Numberous Panamanians, perhaps as many as 50, have traveled clandestinely to Cuba over the last four years for training in guerrilla and sabotage schools.

When they return, most have disappeared into the woodwork, either laying low or because they have no stomach for the terrorist-type activities expected of them. The consensus here is of the latter.

At least 15 have been trained in bomb making and would be capable of preparing the timing devices used in the foreign ministry and bank explosions, according to Panamanian sources.

Britton is believed to have a hard-core personal following numbering no more than half a dozen. His greatest strength is in the high schools where youthful followers are hard to control but do accept some guidance.

Britton two years ago was militantly pro-Peking with his university reform movement (MUR). He and his followers had several violent clashes with pro-Moscow University students.

He since has switched his loyalties to Fidel Castro and changed the name of his group to University Revolutionary Movement (MUR).

He is reported to have returned from Cuba a year ago with $20,000 for subversive purposes, but frittered most of it away. Unconfirmed reports say the Panamanian delegation to the Havana meeting returned this year with $50,000 to prove themselves.

The Panamanian Communists generally are in a state of disarray, reflecting the worldwide divisions within the movement. They range from Britton's MUR and other miniscule pro-Peking and pro-Castro groups to the larger pro-Moscow Partido Del Pueblo (PDP).

The total number of hard-core Communists is estimated at no more than 500 with perhaps another 1,500 sympathizers.

Woodstock Infant 4, Hurt, Hit by Truck

Because Cindy, as she was known to relatives and friends, is almost totally deaf, the parents of the child, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pike, were going to move from the area in an effort to place the child in a school that could deal with the defect.

The child was required to wear a hearing aid chest pack, and she received instructions in reading ad communication at the Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children Center in Kingston.

The girl's father was scheduled to appear in a musical act with his brother, famed watercolorist, John Pike, on the Community Chest videothon Saturday.

It was considered that the act would be canceled after the accident, but, because of the help that the Cerebral Palsy Center, a Community Chest agency, had given to Cindy, the father decided to go on with the act.

A four-year-old Woodstock girl, struck by a pickup truck on Glasco Turnpike Saturday afternoon, is listed in serious condition today in Kingston Hospital.

The girl, Cynthia Pike, was struck by the vehicle driven by Robert Olsen, 23, of Route 212, Bearsville, at 12:30 p. m. as she darted out from the south side of the road into the path of the oncoming truck, according to Kingston State Trooper John McMickle.

Olsen, driving east, applied his brakes but was unable to stop before the right front end of his vehicle hit the child.

Taken to Kingston Hospital by Fatum's Ambulance, the girl was immediately listed in serious condition, suffering from a severe fracture of the skull, broken jaw, lacerated brain, severe lacerations of the face and head, and multiple bruises and contusions of the body.

NAACP Won't Back New State Charter

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state conference of the National Association of Colored People urged defeat Sunday of the proposed new state constitution.

Delegates also approved a resolution condemning the Vietnam War.

The resolution opposing the constitution said the document was "insulting to the intelligence of New York State voters" because it must be voted on as a single package.

The remodeled constitution also would lead to the "destruction of the public school system," since it contains a proposal for repealing the Blaine Amendment, the resolution said.

Blaine bars state aid to church-affiliated schools. Some civil rights leaders have contended that enrollment in such schools would rise if state aid were provided to them and that public schools would suffer.

The resolution was passed by an overwhelming vote.

Dr. Eugene T. Reed, a past president of the state NAACP, had urged the delegates Friday night to vote "no" on the new constitution.

Robert J. Mangum, chairman of the State Commission for Human Rights, declared his support of the document Saturday prior to addressing the convention here.

The resolution on the war was passed after a demonstration by the NAACP Youth and College Division, which protested a decision to table the measure. Delegates finally voted 107-72 to approve the resolution.

The resolution said the war has drained "the manpower and financial resources of our country" and "robs this nation of their potential leadership in the struggle for freedom and justice for all Americans here and at home . . ."

It called for the National Board of Directors of the NAACP "to use its good offices to urge an immediate termination of hostilities in that war-ravaged land."

The 291 voting delegates also pledged support for economic-opportunity programs, demanded that the so-called poverty-level for a family of four be increased to $5,200 a year, and called for creation of a guaranteed annual income law.

GOP Vows Repeal of Blaine Rule

By CHARLES DUMAS

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Republicans controlling the State Senate promise they will begin action in the 1968 Legislature to repeal the Blaine Amendment, if New York voters reject the remodeled state constitution.

This policy position was adopted Friday as a device to reassure voters who might like to vote against the charter but who favor its provision rescinding the Blaine ban on aid to church-operated schools.

It was engineered at a closed meeting of the Senate's GOP majority called by Majority Leader Earl W. Brydges of Niagara Falls.

Brydges, who served as GOP minority leader in the Constitutional Convention, is campaigning hard for voter rejection of the revised charter. He has argued that its desirable features can be implemented tive process of changing the present Constitution.

Brydges reported that 22 of the 33 Republican senators were present and that the rest were canvassed by telephone. As a result, he said, he was assured of at least the 29 votes he would need to pass a Blaine repeal measure in the Senate next year.

Leaders of the Democratic-ruled Assembly have not indicated whether they would go along with the Senate, although Speaker Anthony J. Travia is firmly committed to repealing the Blaine ban.

Travia, who served as president of the convention, is campaigning vigorously for voter approval of the new constitution in the Nov. 7 election.

Brydges observed that, under the legislative procedure for altering the Constitution, proposed amendments must be approved by two separately elected Legislatures—then submitted to the voters for a final say.

This means, he continued, that a Blaine repeal measure could be adopted by the 1968 Legislature, given second approval by the 1969 session and put before the electorate in November of that year. Thus, it could become effective in January 1970.

Woodstock Composer, Musician Succumbs

Hanus Aldo Schimmerling, noted musician and composer, who resided in Woodstock, died Thursday.

Surviving are his wife, the former Marie Michalek and a daughter, Mrs. Donald (Irene) Christison of Syosset.

Cremation and burial was at the convenience of the family with the Frank H. Simpson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

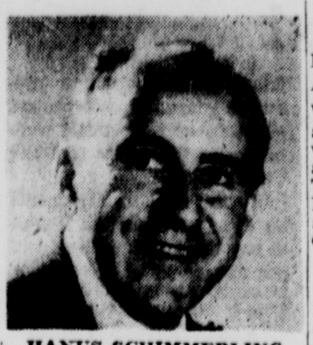

Schimmerling, who was born in 1900 in Bruenn, capitol of Moravia, was educated in his native city and later at the University of Vienna and Academy of Music in Prague.

He gave his first piano recital at age 13; his first composition, an album of songs, was published in Berlin when he was 19.

Worked with Stars

Schimmerling worked at the Metropolitan Opera during 1925-26. Here in the United States and in Europe, he worked closely with opera stars who either sang his compositions or chose him as coach and recital accompanist.

The composer's versatility has been mentioned in the historical book, "Music in Czechoslovakia" and other phamplets. As a writer he contributed many articles to newspapers and magazines and for a time was music critic for the Prague Tablatt. He has more than 80 published works.

As a teacher, Schimmerling taught not only music but German and European History. He joined the music staff of Woodstock and West Hurley in later years, and in 1964 started the Harmony Hill concerts in this area. This series later became part of the Woodstock Music Festival.

Woodstock has honored Schimmerling with performances of some of his works at Maverick Hall.

Utica Strike Over; Papers Back on Stand

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — The Utica Press and Observer-Dispatch returned to the newsstands today for the first time since July 15, when a strike halted publication of the newspapers.

Presses for the morning Press began rolling Sunday night and continued today for the afternoon and Sunday Observer-Dispatch. The papers are published in a combined plant.

The three-month-long strike was settled Friday night. Details of the contract were not disclosed, pending signing of the pact this week.

Printing pressmen, photoengravers, stereotypers and members of the American Newspaper Guild struck over economic and non-economic issues. Printers honored picket lines.

The newspapers are owned by the Gannett Group.

Fire on Thruway

Clifford Lambert, described as a New York City newspaper executive, escaped injury shortly before midnight Sunday, when his 1966 sedan caught fire as he drove along the State Thruway near mile post 106 north of Saugerties. Sergeant Henry Ganss of the Thruway detail said the air conditioner is believed to have developed trouble causing the fire, which destroyed the car. Catskill firemen were called out to extinguish the flames. Trooper T. J. Morrissey investigated.

Charles Rowe, Former Hercules Employe, Dies

Charles L. Rowe, 80, of 63 Wurts Street, died suddenly at his residence Sunday morning. A native of Troy, he was the son of the late Thomas and Katherine Effinger Rowe.

Employed for 42 years at the Hercules Powder Company, he retired in 1956. He was a member of the Hercules Quarter Century Club and a member of District 50, United Mineworkers.

Mr. Rowe's wife, Anna V. Waters Rowe, died in August of this year.

Surviving are nine daughters, Miss Ethel Rowe of Troy, Miss Dorothy Rowe of Kingston, Mrs. Jacob (Ruth) Nielson of Ulster Park, Mrs. Richard (Eleanor) Kelder and Mrs. Thomas (Marion) Koskie both of Kingston; Mrs. Nicholas (Rita) Zaharchuk of Washingtonville; Mrs. Roy (Helen) Olsen and Mrs. William (Jean) Vertitis, both of Kingston; Mrs. Melvin (Marjorie) Peters of West Lanham, Md.; two sons William J. Rowe of Oxnard, Calif., and Warren J. Rowe of Hawthorne, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. William Arnds of Schenectady; 31 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held at Jenson and Deegan Funeral Home Inc., 15 Downs Street, Wednesday, 9:30 a. m.; thence to St. John's Episcopal Church, Albany Avenue, where a requiem Mass will be offered at 10 a. m. Burial will be in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home this evening from 7 to 9 and Tuesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

minimum force necessary in repelling charges on the building.

Tear Gas Charge

Some demonstrators claimed troops fired two or three tear gas grenades at them. Defense officials said the protesters did it themselves. The Washington Post and Washington Star each said reporters saw troops use the gas.

"Isn't that hysterical," a youth draped with a Navajo blanket cried into a bullhorn microphone to MP's guarding the demonstrators. "Where the hell would we get tear gas?" The group laughed and cheered.

Demonstrators also claimed some of the 2,500 troops deployed in and around the Pentagon defected to their side.

The Pentagon denied there were any defections but said Army Pvt. Terry V. Miller, 23, was arrested for disorderly conduct near the building early Sunday. Officials said Miller, not in uniform, was on a weekend pass from Ft. Dix, N.J.

Dellinger, head of the sponsoring organization called the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, also was arrested, along with author Norman Mailer.

Dellinger was fined $50 and sentenced to 30 days in jail, with the sentence suspended on condition he not return to the Pentagon. Mailer drew a $50 fine and a 30-day sentence, 25 of which were suspended. He was freed on an appeal bond.

Government estimates of the crowd which surged from a rally at the Lincoln Memorial toward the Pentagon Saturday at 30,000 to 35,000. Dellinger claimed 150,000 persons participated.

Two Minor Fires

Two minor fires, their cause unknown, were quickly quelled Sunday by Kingston firemen, it was disclosed today. Firemen said they were summoned Sunday afternoon to Flatbush Avenue where a grass fire was in progress near Colonial Gardens. Officials refused to speculate on the fire's origin. A second alarm was sounded Sunday night on Henry Street, firemen said. A pile of leaves at the curb was ablaze.

RFK: Negotiated Peace . . .

He said that he felt it "was an improvement over the document we now have" and that "all of the provisions (contained in the Constitution) should be carefully examined.

"I don't think it should be decided on a (single) motion, but on how good it will be (generally) for the state."

Senator Kennedy claimed, "We don't want the government to run our lives," and that the Community Chest effort then underway "demonstrates the kind of (local action) that can be done" to further the cause of home rule.

Kennedy praised those who were offering their talents to the fund drive.

Arrived Late

The Senator arrived at the George Washington School on Wall Street in Kingston later than expected. According to sources, it was his second trip to Ulster County since his successful campaign for Senator in 1964.

Kennedy was greeted by Dr. Gerald P. Gorman, chairman of the Ulster County Democratic Committee, varied local politicians and candidates, Kingston Mayor Raymond W. Garraghan, Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, Thayer, Democratic vice-chairman Rose Hogan and others.

Walking through the cafeteria of the school, New York's junior Senator shook hands with a long line of youthful performers waiting their turn to appear before the television cameras, parents, and varied Ulster County residents.

As always, the Senator's popularity was much in evidence as he waded through the crowds.

Quipped On Air

After posing for pictures with candidates and children in a small office adjacent to the school auditorium, Kennedy went on stage to read the news reports.

Kennedy provided the audience with a few personal observations and quips as he read the news.

"Well, with demonstrations in Washington, the war in Vietnam, a threatened strike, trouble in the Mideast, things are normal," he said.

While reading the sports news, the Senator remarked, "(Boston Red Sox slugger Carl Yastrzemski) originally came from New York, and the word from Boston is that they hope the trade involving my going to New York and Yastrzemski going to Boston will be permanent."

Memoriam

In loving memory of William J. Best Sr., who passed away two years ago, October 23, 1965.
What we'd do to see him smile,
And sit with him and talk awhile.
We often sit and talk of him,
The things we used to say and do.
And wonder why he had to die,
Without a chance to say goodbye.
Wife, RUTH H. BEST

IS GLAMOUR BEING OVERDONE?

Strange anomalies exist in the securities' markets. Many of them are caused by the inflation psychology that is growing in economic America.

Everywhere people are faced with the steady deterioration of the buying power of the dollar. The quality of any country's currency has a vital effect on its social, political and economic life.

In my opinion, the inflation psychology is being carried too far. Investors are buying risk-laden common stocks paying small dividends and passing up high-grade bonds and preferred stocks selling to yield 5-6 per cent.

From a list of more than 20 leading corporations whose credit rating is high, five have been chosen as illustrative material:

American Telephone and Telegraph, Anheuser-Busch, Consolidated Edison, Consumers Power and New York Telephone.

Each of these enterprises has bonds outstanding that currently are selling to yield 6 per cent or more. And at the same time, common stocks — bought frequently as hedges against inflation — are selling at very high prices with low yields.

Glamor stocks especially fall into this category. Here is a stock, for instance, that sells for about $275 a share with a current yield of about 5 per cent and another bringing $555 a share with a yield of around 1 per cent.

These glamor stocks do have real value behind them, but they are undoubtedly overpriced.

U. S. Treasury bonds are being neglected by inflation-minded investors. Available in the market are long-term obligations selling for 79, 80, 83 cents on the dollar. As this is written, there are 25 different Treasuries selling to yield well over 5 per cent to maturity.

Their attractiveness is based upon several forces: instant marketability, the security of the most powerful and richest nation in the world and their high collateral value.

Cheaper money is not on the horizon. But it is always possible that the federal monetary authorities will reduce the discount rate at the 12 Federal Reserve banks.

The time for investors to buy high-grade bonds at large discounts is when, as at present, they are available.

Hundreds of tax-free educational, philanthropic and religious organizations whose common stocks show substantial capital gains might well, right now, switch from stocks to bonds if, by doing so, income could be greatly increased.

Every investor, of course, is a law unto himself. But it is probable that the wide divergence of stock and bond prices is illogical.

Committee and trustees empowered to invest funds for societies and institutions should have frequent meetings to consider these important matters. And policies should be adopted to conform to the present anomalies.

THE FORUM

Q—I have $25,000 in bank earning 4 per cent. I need more income. What should I buy?—W.W.M.

A—You can buy $30,000 of U. S. Treasuries and get more than 5 per cent on your money.

Not Returning

NEW YORK (AP) — Harlem residents must realize that Adam Clayton Powell "is not returning to Congress" and they should seek someone elese to represent them, says Dr. Eugene Callender, executive director of the New York Urban League.

"I think we've got to cut out the sentimentality, the emotional feelings, and deal with the reality," Callender said Sunday.

Powell was censured by Congress for misuse of House funds and denied his seat. He was re-elected in a special election, but has not tried to take his seat.

Callender spoke on the WHN radio program "New York Speaks Out."

NEW YORK (AP) — Autos were hit hard as the stock market dropped sharply on a broad front early Monday.

Losses outnumbered gains by a ratio of almost 7 to 2.

The Dow Jones industrial average was down about 5 points.

The larger losses were taken by leading issues which are not represented in the Dow average of 30 blue chip industrials.

Polaroid slumped half a dozen points, Xerox 5, Itek about 3, Occidental Petroleum and Hess Oil more than 2 each.

General Motors, a key stock in the averages, slumped about 2 points while Ford and Chrysler lost more than a point each.

Also down a point or more were many other issues, including Allis-Chalmers, Gulf & Western, Universal American, Zenith, International Telephone, du Pont, American Can, Standard Oil of Indiana and United Airlines.

Rheem Manufacturing rose 3 to 49 on a block of 24,000 shares following a report that Seeburg had announced a tender offer of $50 a share for a million shares of Rheem.

Opening blocks included:

Sperry Rand, off ¾ at 48¾ on 10,600 shares; Pan American World Airways, off ⅝ at 25¼ on 15,100; and Ford, off 1 at 51¼ on 6,500.

Analysts saw the proposed settlement of the Ford strike as inflationary in terms of the economy and the stock market. Wall Street, however, had to contend with late Friday's news that the Federal Reserve Board had proposed to apply the current 70 per cent margin requirements to previously unregulated lenders, effective Nov. 20.

The 100s Give Smokers A Bewildering Choice

By GEORGE TAYLOR
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Three-fifths of an inch is creating a flap in the tobacco industry and presenting smokers a bewildering choice of cigarettes.

The three-fifths inch is roughly the extra length of tobacco added to king-size filters to make cigarettes 100mm long.

Manufacturers have poured out many brands of the 100s since the longer cigarettes caught on earlier this year.

35 at One Count

One count places at 35 the types of 100s on the market, including plain and menthol versions of the same brand.

The 100s leaped from 2 per cent of all cigarette sales in the first quarter of the year to 12 to 15 per cent now, says tobacco analyst John C. Maxwell Jr. He estimated they'll average about 10 per cent for the year.

This means that smokers will consume around 53 billion 100s of an estimated 532 billion cigarettes produced this year.

The 100s—some four inches long—cost about a penny a pack more at retail.

American Tobacco Co. claims to have been the first in the 100s market with its Pall Mall 100s in late 1965. Phillip Morris followed shortly with Benson & Hedges.

Maxwell estimates that R. J. Reynolds' Winston 100s, Pall Mall and Benson & Hedges lead the field in sales.

Surgeon General William H. Stewart has urged the cigarette industry to withdraw them from the market.

See Hazard Increasing

"As research findings continue to confirm and to strengthen the scientific evidence incriminating cigarettes as a health hazard," Stewart told a Senate committee, "it is unconscionable that the cigarette industry should introduce and heavily promote the 100mm cigarette which cannot help but increase the hazard."

The tobacco industry maintains there's no scientific proof that smoking is a health hazard. Is a still longer cigarette in the works?

"There's a practical point beyond which you can't go," said one industry source.

But apparently 100mm isn't that "practical point." Liggett & Myers has introduced a still longer cigarette—101mm.

Shows Off Rifle; Kills Companion

ALBION, N.Y. (AP) — A 24-year-old man, "showing off" his newly purchased rifle to a crowd, shot and killed another young man Sunday in a restaurant parking lot in nearby Gaines, State Police said today.

Troopers arrested Tommie E. Ricks of Albion late Sunday night on a charge of criminally negligent homicide in the death of Michael R. Kurzawski, 21, also of this Western New York village.

Ricks, they said, fired several shots over the heads of a crowd of people gathered in a parking lot "while making a big show of the rifle."

Kurzawski, a machinist, was struck in the head by a bullet as he and a friend walked from their parked car at 3 a.m. Sunday to the restaurant, which is frequented by migrant farm workers, troopers said.

The friend, Gerald Urkew, 18, of Albion, ran when he heard the shots and was not hit, they said.

Investigators said Ricks purchased the .22 caliber rifle in an Albion store Oct. 14. He was arrested at his home and taken before a peace justice early today for arraignment on the homicide charge, they said.

Kurzawski lived at 241 Caroline St., Urkew's home is at 255 E. State St. and Ricks' address was listed as 136 Liberty St.

Yacht Club Entered

The Sheriff's Department is investigating an entrance to the Hidden Harbor Yacht Club at Port Ewen. The entrance was reported Friday and Investigator Harold T. Bowers and Deputy Sheriff Warren Walsh are continuing the investigation. An unknown quantity of whiskey, beer and food was reported taken along with an unknown amount of cash from five vending machines. Entrance was gained by breaking glass in a door and unlocking the door from the inside.

Utilities Now Seem Cheapest Growth Group

Q—My husband was sick for the past 20 years and now he has passed away. I will receive $3,000 in life insurance, have managed to save $10,000 in Building & Loans at 4.5 per cent and have a few shares of stock in the company I work for. They pay me $20 a year. I am still working, but am 70 and very tired. Can I afford to retire on $125 a month Social Security and the little money I have to invest? J.E.

A—Yours is the distressing situation of so many fine people who have worked hard but face retirement with insufficient funds. There is no easy answer to your problem. Your income, after retirement, would approximate $165 a month from Social Security and present investments. You could put half your funds, now in Building & Loans, into 100 shares each of Wisconsin Electric Power and Iowa Public Service, both yielding 5.2 per cent. Utilities are now the cheapest growth group; they offer inflation protection through generally rising dividend rates. The $3,000 insurance could be placed in a straight life annuity which would bring you more income than you could get from any comparable safe investment. These moves might lift your retirement income to $200 a month. If you can get by on this, I would certainly retire and hope that rising dividends and increased Social Security payments would help you in future years.

Q—Would you classify Mortgage Guaranty Insurance as a growth or speculative stock? And is it a good purchase at present? T.D.

A—This company is the leading issuer of first mortgage loans and has a record of strong growth in recent years. The shares have nearly tripled in price this year on the American Exchange and from a price standpoint alone they appear speculative. I think you're moving in a little late on this one.

JAVITS: Sign of Leaving . . .

Americans were hoping for, had been reached in the election of a South Vietnamese government in September.

Javits called for a return of America's orginal motives under President Eisenhower for going into Vietnam. "We're there to help the Vietnamese fight aggression. We're not going to do the job ourselves and we have no intention of taking over the country," Javits said.

"The Vietnamese must help themselves. They must determine their own destiny. Right now they've got an army that only serves as hamlet guards, doesn't fight at night and fights a fiv eand a half day war out of the week. If they won't help themselves there's no power including Providence that can help them. This is their war, not ours," Javits declared.

Javits also called for the settling of the Vietnam War question in the United Nations. "The administration has steadfastly refused to submit this problem to world arbitration," Javits said.

The senior senator from New York also advocated an unconditional pause in the bombing of North Vietnam but only if world climate would foster negotiations by the Hanoi regime.

He said aggressive diplomacy must be carried out by the United States in order that world opinion would favor negotiations.

Javits called for support of the President. "It is essential to make the President successful. If he is successful, the country is successful. That is the meaning of bi-partisan foreign policy," Javits said.

Javits was generous in his praise of the new college and the people that made it possible. He lauded the Ulster County Board of Supervisors for its "by-partisian realization for a need of a community college." He heaped praise on the "outstanding families of Ulster County who made this college possible" including the Davenports and the Resnicks, "One of whom represents this district as a congressman."

Preceeding Senator Javits was the president of the College Student Government Organization, Ward Todd, 21. Todd said, "These college buildings stand for truth, knowledge and wisdom. This campus will be available to generations who will gain that truth, obtain that knowledge and seek that wisdom."

Javits termed Todd "an outstanding representative of the student body." Said the Senator, "I'm pleased that Mr. Todd is so young because he can't run for senator for a long time."

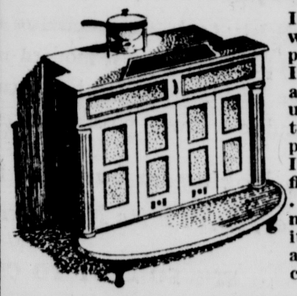

Javits also cited the staff of the college, in particular for the "beautiful flag" they had presented the school. Javits then donated a flag that had flown over the Capitol in Washington.

The senator lauded Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller as the "education governor." He said the state was long overdue for the type of education program Rockefeller has instituted. California is 10 years ahead of us, but we're catching up fast."

Javits promised his support in Washington for future college funds. "I'm in a good position "thanks to senority. I'm the ranking member of the Legislative Committee which rules on bills and the ranking member of the appropriations committee which passes out the money."

The dedication was proceeded by a tour of the campus conducted by staff and students of the college.

Add a Period Touch to Any Decor With An Authentic FRANKLIN STOVE
By DONLEY

Its classic styling blends with any decor . . . any period . . . any room design. Its versatility makes it adaptable to a variety of uses and installations. Truly, this old favorite is more popular today than ever. It's a warming, cheerful fireplace (with doors open) . . . it's a decorative cabinet (with doors closed) . . . it's a handsome, comfortable and convenient unit that can be installed anywhere.

The Franklin Stove is very useful for family rooms, weekend cabins, porches, patios or anywhere the welcome warmth of auxiliary heat is wanted.

Among its many advantages:

- Can be used with coal, wood or charcoal.
- Heat radiation from the sides provides more heat than most fireplaces.
- Accessories are available for grilling and barbeque cooking—indoors or out.
- Legs provide sufficient clearance for installation directly on the floor.
- Venting for the smokestack can be horizontal or vertical—from top or rear of the stove.
- Can be installed in existing fireplace . . . with or without legs.

All accessories also available such as Grate Basket, Barbecue Grill, Fireplace Screen, Flue Reducer, Cast Iron Elbow.

Area Diabetes Chapter Joins

Extensive participation in the first Ulster County Health Fair being sponsored by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, 235 Fair Street, on Saturday, Oct. 28, is planned by the Ulster Chapter, New York Diabetes Association according to Mrs. John Ostrander, chairman of the local group.

"Diabetes can be fatal unless detected and treated," advises Mrs. Ostrander, stressing the opportunity offered through the planned testing of their organization at the Health Fair scheduled to open at 10 a. m. and continue until 5 p. m. at the First Federal Savings and Loan building.

Stating that diabetes ranks seventh in the list of causes of death by disease, Mrs. Ostrander urges all area residents to register at the Health Fair and be screened by the NYDA to determine whether or not they are an undetected diabetic.

In outlining the necessity of early detection and treatment the chairman emphasized that there are approximately 4,000,000 diabetics in our country today. Of this number only 2,400,000 are aware of their condition while 1,600,000 are unaware. It has been estimated that 5,600,000 additional persons are potential diabetics . . . or will be so diagnosed at some time during their lives.

The Usual Signs

The usual signs of a diabetic condition are increased thirst, constant hunger, frequent urination, loss of weight, intense itching, easy tiring, pain in the fingers and toes, vision changes and slow healing of cuts and bruises. However, diabetes may be present without any of these signs.

The most likely targets are persons related to diabetics, who are overweight or who are past 40 years of age. After 45, three diabetics out of every five are women.

Mrs. Ostrander was most emphatic in stating that weight control is very important in the control of diabetes. Six out of seven people over 40, when their diabetes was diagnoses, were overweight before the onset of the condition. She pointed out that the Health Fair will weigh all registrants prior to taking their diabetic tests.

Diabetes can be controlled by diet, exercise, and, when necessary, insulin or, in older and milder diabetics, one of the oral compounds. However, a planned diet is always a basic fundamental of diabetic treatment.

Pointing out that neglect of a diabetic condition can lead to the development of complications, the most serious of which are heart disease, failing eyesight, hardening of the arteries, kidney malfunctions, gangrene, cerebral hemmorrhage and diabetic coma, the NYDA spokesman, Mrs. Ostrander, appealed to all to attend the Health Fair and avail themselves of the multiple screening of which diabetic detection is included.

Assisting Mrs. Ostrander at the First Federal Health Fair will be Mrs. Daniel Peters, vice chairman of the Ulster Chapter; Mrs. Clifford Davis Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Begley, corresponding secretary; Arthur Korff, treasurer and Mrs. Morton Brett, chairman of the Diabetics Detection Drive. Dr. Norman Berg is physician advisor of the group.

Volunteers who will be working at the Health Fair with the Ulster Chapter NYDA are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Begley, Kathleen Begley, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Dorothea Blume, Mr. and Mrs. George Christian, Femela Christian, Mrs. Beverly Davis, Mrs. Kuth Kuhns, Dean Ostrander, Mrs. Margaret Bierwisch, Mrs. Richard Fredenberg, Jennie Fredenberg, Bonnie Brett, Mrs. Geraldine Marchetti and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burger.

Other agencies planning to exhibit, test and demonstrate at the First Federal Health Fair include the Mid Hudson Heart Association, Kingston Hospital, Benedictine Hospital, National Foundation March of Dimes, Ulster Cancer Society, Ulster County Mental Health Association, Ulster County Ambulance Association and the Kingston Lions Club.

Economy Wave

Own Medicine Not for Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The current congressional economy wave is lapping at the doors of most federal agencies but shows little sign of threatening the island of prosperity Congress has created on Capitol Hill.

The House voted last week to clamp drastic restrictions on spending by executive department agencies. But the same day it crushed a move to trim 5 per cent from its own payroll—or, as Rep. Robert L. F. Sikes, D-Fla., said, "to take the same medicine it wants to administer to other government agencies."

Sikes' amendment was aimed at a House payroll that has skyrocketed 84 per cent in the past six years and now is nearing $50 million annually. Upwards of 500 employes of House or Senate are paid $20,000 or more a year, a survey shows.

Sikes' colleagues listened politely to his contention that the House cannot "in good grace exempt itself from the restrictions on spending that we proposed for others." Then it rejected his amendment 134 to 66.

A week earlier, the House shouted down a move by Rep. Edward J. Derwinski, R-Ill., to put "some restraint on runaway salaries" by exempting congressional employes from a 4.5 per cent federal pay raise. That same day, though, other House members used nearly the same argument to exclude federal antipoverty workers from the pay raise bill.

Another area unlikely to suffer major cuts are public works projects, commonly called the "pork barrel." The bill sending federal funds into nearly every congressional district for reclamation, flood control, river and harbor projects is now in conference committee. Earlier attempts in the House and Senate to trim it 5 per cent were soundly defeated.

Rejection of the two attempts to cut back or hold the line on spending in Congress itself came as House members moved toward adoption of a directive that President Johnson cut expenditures an estimated $6 billion to $8 billion in the current fiscal year.

Administration forces are pressing in the Senate to junk the House directive, or at least dilute it. The Senate Appropriations Committee elimieliminated the provision Friday. The Senate is expected to act this week, and a House-Senate fight likely will follow.

The bitter budget fight has its roots, some congressmen say, in the Vietnam war and the $2 billion a month required to pay for it.

War costs were a major factor in Johnson's still-stalled request for a 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Polls show the public favors spending cuts over a tax increase. Congressmen say they are reflecting the views of their constituents when they slash the budget.

"All they are doing is playing politics," declares Rep. Tom Steed, D-Okla., who opposed last week's House action. "They are worrying about their image back home."

"If it is, it's damn good politics," replies Rep. Jamie L. Whitten, D-Miss., who helped engineer the cutback directive. "This House has reflected the feeling of the people."

In fighting his losing battle to restrain "runaway salaries" on Capitol Hill, Derwinski zeroed in on the House postmaster, who is paid $23,764 a year and supervises 85 employes. The New York City postmaster, Derwinski said, receives $2,500 a year less but supervises 39,791 employes. Under the federal pay boost, the House postmaster would get an annual raise of $1,088 he added.

AP Editors Name Schutz As President

CHICAGO (AP) — The new president of The Associated Press Managing Editors Association is David N. Schutz of the Redwood City (Calif.) Tribune.

Schutz was elected Friday at the editors' annual meeting. He succeeds I. William Hill of The Washington Star who held the office last year.

The new vice president is Charles S. Rowe of The Fredericksburg (Va.) Free Lance-Star. He was secretary last year. Tenney S. Griffin of The Valdosta (Ga.) Times was named treasurer.

Elected secretary was Gilbert P. Smith of The Utica (N.Y.) Observer-Dispatch. He was the 1967 general chairman of the continuing study committees. The committees' new general chairman is Don Carter of The Bergen (N.J.) Record.

Wendell Phillippi of The Indianapolis News succeeds Carter as general vice chairman of the continuing study committees.

Eight editors were elected to three-year terms on the APME board of directors.

Elected at large were: Smith, Michael Grehl of The Memphis Commercial Appeal, Harry Sonneborn of The Milwaukee Sentinel, Larry Newman of The Dayton Daily News, John Leard of The Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch, Arthur Bertelson of The St. Louis Post-Dispatch, and Herbert Spendlove of The Jackson (Mich.) Citizen Patriot.

Barclay Jameson of The Grand Junction (Colo.) Sentinel was elected as a representative of cities with less than 50,000 population.

D&H Society Plans 2nd Bus To Honesdale

Anyone desiring to make the trip from High Falls to Honesdale along the line of the historic old Delaware & Hudson Canal, is being given a second opportunity. Although the first bus has been completely reserved for the trip on Sunday, Oct. 29, arrangements are being made for a second bus provided a sufficient number of reservations are made.

The bus trip, sponsored by the Delaware & Hudson Canal Society, will start from the DePuy house on Route 213, High Falls, at 9 a. m. and traverse the route of the cananl to Homesdale, Pa., Those taking the trip should provide a box lunch. The group will leave Honesdale at 3 p. m. arriving at High Falls about 5:30 p. m. Reservations for a second bus may be made through Paul Sturges, Stone Ridge, and should be in as soon as possible so arrangements may be made for the second bus. The trip is open to the public.

Ohio FB Undersells Own Members: Resnick

A farm cooperative operated by the Farm Bureau in Ohio is running an egg producing business that not only undersells its own members, but uses money withheld from them to underwrite the competition, Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick revealed today.

The Ellenville Democrat has been conducting a one-man probe into the business activities of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Congressman Resnick said that a young farmer, Paul E. Ladrach, who had lived in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, questioned the logic and financial soundness of what the Tuscarawas County Farm Bureau Cooperative Assn. was doing with money belonging to members who were given paper dividends instead of cash.

The farmer charged that mass production of eggs from the business set up by the coop was flooding the local market, reducing wholesale prices to less than it cost other farmers to produce eggs.

Stirred Interest

He stirred considerable efforts among other members of the coop to force cancellation of the egg-production contract. After the Dover (Ohio) Daily Reporter publicized Ladrach's efforts, the local coop store canceled its advertising in the newspaper, Resnick said.

The Farm Bureau entered the egg -producing contract in the early 1960's with Earl C. Miller, a farmer.

Miller signed a contract in which he was to receive eight cents a chicken, each month. He built a completely automated chicken house with a capacity for 12,000 birds, at a cost of about $40,000.

Ladrach contended the contract should have been based on egg production — say at five cents a dozen — rather than on an eight-cent rate for chickens.

When his objections to directors failed to bring results, he obtained the names and addresses of persons holding Class A voting stock and presented his views in a letter to them.

Ladrach asked that directors be elected to oppose the "chicken contract," citing the fact the coop had lost much money in its first year with the contract.

About 30 members agreed with Ladrach and they managed to elect two directors to the seven-member board. However, they could not prevail on the others to terminate the contract and it remained in effect.

The members were told by a lawyer from the Ohio Farm Bureau Cooperative Association in Columbus that only a coop board had the right to enter or cancel a contract. The members could act only in an advisory capacity, the legal counsel said.

A year later Ladrach again was unsuccessful in an attempt to win support from the directors.

John Ridenour, now president of the coop board, who was a director when the "chicken contract" was signed, said recently, "It's true we lost quite a bit of money the first year and maybe made a little after that. I don't know how we've made out this year so far. If we renewed the contract, we'd have to re-negotiate for a better price based on today's figures. But I don't know yet if we'll renew it or not. We'll have to completely analyze it over the last five years first."

Ridenour said the board had "made some mistakes."

He explained, "There was a lot of interest in contracts like this among our members nine or 10 years ago. They wanted us to get into it like private feed companies were doing, so we decided to set this one up as an 'experiment,' no more than that.

"Now the interest seems to have died down and I'm not sure we'd even consider another such contract."

Quit Farming

Ladrach, who at the time helped his father operate a large farm, has since quit farming and works in a steel mill. He said, "Dad retired from farming and after three years of trying to get my neighbors to see what was happening to them and getting nowhere, I decided to get out of farming and working 16 hours a day, seven days a week.

"Let them fight their own battles. I had my first paid vacation of my whole life this year, with two weeks of nothing to do and a paycheck coming in, and I really enjoyed it."

Richard Boone Back For Hollywood Role

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Craggy-faced Richard Boone is back in Hollywood, but not for long. His home is still in Hawaii, and he reports that his hopes of founding a movie industry there are growing bighter.

Boone arrived here to enact a guest role in the new CBS Western "Cimarron Strip," and he observed that it was the first time he had appeared on anyone else's television series. The actor starred in "Medic," "Have Gun, Will Travel" and the briefer anthology repertory he headed. Somewhat embittered by the failure of the latter series, he announced three years ago he was abandoning the local scene to make his base in Hawaii.

"I'd like to start a movie business out there," he remarked, causing the town's wiseacres to scoff.

Near A Reality

But now, says Boone, his dream is closer to reality.

"These things take time," he explained. "When I went to Hawaii, I decided not to jump in with both feet. The people out there like it better if you take it slow and give them a chance to get to know you.

"As a matter of fact, I don't want to build a studio at all. I would much rather have someone else do it. But apparently I'm stuck with the job."

Boone went about the project in a systematic way. First, he contracted with Warner Brothers-Seven Arts for a feature "Kona Coast, which he filmed in Hawaii last summer with himself, Vera Miles, Joan Blondell and Kent Smith in the cast.

"We shot the picture for $877,000, which is a might good investment for what we have on film," he said. "We had to bring only six technicians from the mainland, and that proved that picture making can be almost self-sustaining in Hawaii.

"'Kona Coast' also serves as a pilot for a television series. It's a good deal for CBS, which gets a pilot for nothing. If they pick up the option—and the chances look good—then we'll go ahead and build a studio."

Pushing Hawaii

"I hope that we will have another television series besides 'Kona Coast' going in the first year. Also, we could make it very attractive for feature film makers to come to Hawaii and make their movies in their entirety at a reasonable cost. They've been leary of shooting out there because of such debacles as 'Hawaii'.

Having sold his rights to "Have Gun" for a million, Boone doesn't really need another television series. Then why would he undertake one?

"Look," he grinned, "the role I play is a great character, lots of fun to play. I'll be working around boats, which I enjoy and filming in the place I love, with people who are the greatest in the world. I think I could face four years of such a life."

Plan Meet to Set Hearing On Ulster Sewer District

Supervisor Thaddeus Musialkiewicsz, Town of Ulster, today said he has called a special meeting of the Town Board for Wednesday, Oct. 25 at 7:30 p. m. to set a date for a public hearing on the proposed Ulster Sewer District.

The proposed district would encompass the area from the Kingston City line north to Leggs Mills Road with the westerly boundary being the Route 9W bypass including the Sunrise Park area, Carle Terrace to the St. Catherine Laboure Church and school, with the westerly boundary being the Esopus Creek.

Musialkiewicz said the Town Board held an informational meeting Oct. 11 at Chambers School at which time the proposed cost of the project was explained and the amount of state and federal aid that be expected was discussed. The board also explained the approximate cost per $1,000 of assessed valuation and the operation and maintenance charges based on water usage.

The supervisor noted that reaction of the taxpayers at the meeting earlier this month appeared to be favorable. At Wednesday's meeting the board must pass a resolution to take the next step fixing a date for a public hearing.

It was explained that only residents residing within the proposed district boundaries are involved in the proposed project.

Struck by Stray Bullet Near Town of Gardiner

While in the backyard at his home adjacent to the Wallkill River at 10:20 a. m. Sunday, Edward Schoeller, 83, of Box 9, Gardiner was accidentally shot by a stray bullet fired from the 22 rifle of a hunter, according to Highland State Police.

Trooper J. F. Henne said Schoeller was taken to Vassar Hospital in Poughkeepsie and treated for a bullet wound of the abdomen. His condition was described as good.

According to investigation by Sergeant Stanley Kowalik and BCI Investigator Roger Gardner, John Shackelford, 25, of Hurd Road, Clintondale, was hunting near the Wallkill River not far from the Schoeller home, when he fired his rifle. The bullet, troopers said ricocheted after hitting a rock and struck the elderly man.

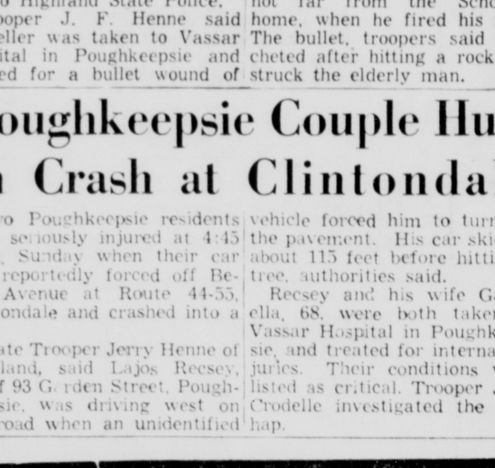

Poughkeepsie Couple Hurt In Crash at Clintondale

Two Poughkeepsie residents were seriously injured at 4:45 p. m. Sunday when their car was reportedly forced off Bedell Avenue at Route 44-55, Clintondale and crashed into a tree.

State Trooper Jerry Henne of Highland, said Lajos Recsey, 76, of 93 Garden Street, Poughkeepsie, was driving west on the road when an unidentified vehicle forced him to turn off the pavement. His car skidded about 115 feet before hitting a tree, authorities said.

Recsey and his wife Gabriella, 68, were both taken to Vassar Hospital in Poughkeepsie, and treated for internal injuries. Their conditions were listed as critical. Trooper John Crodelle investigated the mishap.

Brinnier Wants Better Trained Poll Workers

A request for additional training periods for election inspectors in the Town of Saugerties, was called for today by William D. Brinnier, Republican candidate for county legislator.

"During the eight days of registration, as a candidate and as a committeeman, I found myself visiting many of the election polls in Saugerties. It became apparent to me, in my discussions with the election inspectors," he said, "that many of them are desirous of additional training and education in the operation of the polls on Election Day, Nov. 7, and particularly in the operation and handling of the voting machines."

BOCES Board Taps Pakanen

Jack O. Pakanen, president of the Board of Education of the Saugerties Central School District, was elected to serve on the Board of Cooperative Educational Services for Ulster County at a meeting held last week.

Pakanen will represent the Saugerties Central School District in BOCES and was elected for a four-year term.

A member of the Board of Education of the Saugerties Central School District for the past six years, he has served as president since 1965.

BOCES, is an organization of eight component school districts in Ulster County: Kingston, Saugerties, Onteora, Rondout, Ellenville, New Paltz, Highland, and Wallkill. Educational services are provided for member schools of the County, with headquarters in New Paltz. The board also operates a vocational Training Center at Kingston.

State Council Names Arnold

Dr. Dexter O. Arnold, superintendent of Saugerties Central Schools, was recently elected to serve as a member of the board of directors for the New York Council of School District Administrators.

A newly-formed organization of all chief school administrators within the state, the new council is an amalgamation of the Council of School Superintendents, cities and villages, State of New York, and the New York State Association of School District Administrators. Paul E. Vogan serves as president of the combined organization.

Dr. Arnold, who has served as superintendent in Saugerties since January, 1963, is a former president of the New Hampshire Association of School Superintendents. Prior to his New Hampshire service, he served as principal and teacher in New York State Schools. With the New York State Council of School Superintendents, Dr. Arnold has been a member of the data processing committee and the committee studying the implications of double-entry bookkeeping. During the past year he has represented superintendents of Judicial District III on the commissioner of education's advisory council.

Reindeer Event At Methodist Church Nov. 11

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Saugerties Methodist Church will sponsor a fair with the theme "Reindeer Roundup" Saturday, Nov. 11 from 2 to 8 p. m. There will be many booths from which to buy items including fancy work, aprons, articles from India, baked goods, candy, cheese, refreshments and attic treasures.

A roast beef dinner will be served at 5 and 6 p. m. Tickets for the dinner are on sale now and available from any member of the WSCS. The public is invited to attend.

Candidate

C. FREEMAN LASHER

In seeking the office of county legislator from the Town of Saugerties, C. Freeman Lasher says, "I feel that I am well qualified to serve the residents of our town in a very capable manner. I have had experience in business, financial and civil affairs for many years.

"I firmly believe that with four representatives at the county level of government, Saugerties will be in a very favorable position to continue its forward progress in our fast growing area.

"I firmly pledge to each and every resident of Saugerties that if you will support me in the coming election, I will do my utmost to see that our county government is conducted in an efficient and economical manner with the interests of the people of Saugerties always in mind."

Lasher was born in Asbury, Town of Saugerties, and operated a family dairy farm in Asbury until 1960. In 1961, he purchased Kelly's Paint and Gift Store which he now operates in Saugerties.

Lasher is a trustee of the Saugerties Savings Bank and a member of the Saugerties Chamber of Commerce. He is a member and Past Master of Ulster Lodge, 193, F&AM, and other Masonic organizations including Cyprus Temple Shrine, Albany. He is past district deputy grand master of the Greene-Ulster Masonic District, and first vice president of the Ulster County Shrine Club. Lasher is a member and past member of Asbury Grange 1408. He is also a charter member of Asbury-Katsbaan Fire Company, and a member and secretary of the board of fire commissioners of Saxton Fire District.

Lasher is married to the former Marguerite Murray and still resides at the family farm in Asbury, in the northerly section of the town.

Backs Bond Issue

Paul Petrillo, representing the American Automobile Club, told the Kerhonkson Lion's Club Thursday it was important to support the 2½ billion dollar bond issue for mass transportation. Petrillo said that some of this money would probably be used to re-locate 209, a controversial subject with many Kerhonkson citizens.

Advises Restraint

NEW YORK (AP) — Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore said Sunday the United States must persevere with restraint in Vietnam.

The prime minister told Americans: "You must demonstrate whether you as a people have got that resolution, stamina, that perseverance and, most important of all, infinite patience and capacity to hold back your desire to settle this quickly and get it over with."

Yew appeared on the NBC-TV "Meet the Press" program.

He said he could not say what might cause Soviet or Red Chinese intervention, but he added: "I am quite certain at some point they will decide that their own national interests are at stake, and they will respond."

Poster Contest Winner at Mt. Marion

Four winners of the recent poster contest held at Mt. Marion School in recognition of National School Lunch Week have been announced.

They are: fifth grade, Susan Cadmus and Robert Diers; sixth grade, Terry Post and Leon Fisher.

The prize for the best poster was a free lunch. The contest was judged by the art teacher.

All students that purchased lunch during the week had an opportunity to win free ice cream as an extra dessert.

Firemen Present School Program

About 400 boys and girls from the kindergarten, first and second grrade classes of the Grant D. Morse School witnessed the presence of the Centerville fire truck and firemen last week.

The activity was planned in celebration of National Fire Prevention Week. Four separate presentations were arranged.

The youngsters had the opportunity to examine the truck and equipment and to see and hear firemen Scotty Myers, Leonard Sinnott and William Mauterstock talk.

A fire drill was also held during which all students evacuated the building.

Albany Fire Destroys Bus

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Fire swept a garage at suburban Bethlehem Central School today, destroying one school bus and damaging several others, police said.

Non one was injured.

Damage to the structure was not extensive, police said.

School officials said classes would be held today although pickups would be late because of the necessity of doubling up some bus routes.

Cause of the fire was not determined immediately.

Jersey Man Injured

Lloyd Stitham, 48, of Jersey City, N. J., was injured at 7:30 p. m. Saturday when his car went out of control on Route 209 near Ellenville, hit an embankment and overturned. State Police said the man was treated at Ellenville Community Hospital for lacerations and abrasions of the forehead.

Country Music Field Cites Hall of Famers

By DON MCLEOD
Associated Press Writer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Red Foley, the first country music star to find big success in the pop field as well, was installed in the Country Music Hall of Fame Friday night.

Jack Greene, a drummer turned singer, swept the top prizes for his hit song "There Goes My Everything" as the Country Music Association made its first country and western awards presentations.

Foley, who brought gold records to country music with "Chattanooga Shoeshine Boy" and to gospel music with "Peace in the Valley," was one of four new Hall of Fame members.

"Gentlemen" Jim Reeves, who died in a plane crash near here in 1964, also made the Hall of Fame at the climax of the awards banquet, a highlight of the 42nd anniversary celebration of the Grand Ole Opry.

The late J. L. Frank, an early promoter of country music who gave the world the singing cowboy, also won the profession's highest honor. He gave country and western music its name, and his discoveries included Gene Autry and Roy Acuff.

Steve Sholes, an executive of RCA Victor Records, was named to the Hall of Fame for his role in pioneering the recording industry in Nashville.

Greene, a drummer for singing star Ernest Tubb before he tried singing himself, was named male vocalist of the year. His single of "There Goes My Everything" won the top award in its category as did the album of the same name. The million-seller won the song of the year award for its composer, Dallas Frazier.

Loretta Lynn was named top female vocalist of the year.

Eddy Arnold, a charter member of the Hall of Fame, was named country music entertainer of the year. Arnold's wife accepted the award for the singer, who was performing in Hollywood's Coconut Grove.

Chet Atkins, guitarist, was named instrumentalist of the year.

Special awards were given to the Armed Forces Radio and Television networks and to the Department of Defense in honor of the country's armed forces.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Monday, Oct. 23, the 296th day of 1967. There are 69 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1917, American troops saw their first action on the Western front in World War I.

On this date:

In 1684, the Charter of the Massachusetts Colony was annulled.

In 1776, Gen. George Washington's troops withdrew from the island of Manhattan.

In 1915, some 25,000 women demanding voting rights demonstrated in New York.

In 1929, stock prices started dropping in heavy trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

In 1942, British troops under Gen. Bernard Montgomery launched a big offensive against Axis forces at El Alamein, Egypt, during World War II.

In 1947, a forest fire destroyed much of the resort town of Bar Harbor, Maine.

Ten years ago—Syria rejected Saudi Arabia's offer to mediate a dispute between Syria and Turkey.

Five years ago—The Organization of Americans States voted unanimously to support a U.S. quarantine of Cuba.

One year ago—President Lyndon B. Johnson and the leaders of nations involved in Vietnam began a conference in Manila.

Suit Is Filed To Halt Video Show of 'Foxes'

NEW YORK (AP) — Playwright Lillian Hellman has filed a $500,000 suit seeking to prevent the television showing of the motion picture version of her play "The Little Foxes."

The suit filed in State Supreme Court Friday charged that the Columbia Broadcasting System "wilfully and knowingly" aired the film last Sept. 23 despite a contract which allegedly forbade showing of the complete movie.

The defendants—CBS, Samuel Goldwyn, Inc., and Samuel Goldwyn Productions—were given 20 days to reply.

Test Backing

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Latex foam backing on carpeting shouldn't crumble like a cookie.

The Rubber Manufacturers Assn., Tufted Textile Manufacturers Assn. and American Carpet Institute are working to establish specifications for foam on broadloom carpeting.

In the meantime, the Goodyear Chemical Division says, there are four steps you can take to determine the quality of latex foam backing on a rug or carpet you're thinking of buying:

1. Look at it. Backing should be at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick. A fourth of an inch is better. And the tiny foam cells should be fairly uniform in size.

2. Feel it. Good foam backing will keep the carpet fairly rigid. It won't hang limp.

3. Bend it. Good foam backing won't crack.

4. Rub it. If an excessive amount of filler material has been added to cut costs, the foam will rub off like an eraser.

Platteklll

Nathaniel Dawes, master of the Plattekill Grange, welcomed the many members and guests who joined in the local celebration of the centennial of the National Grange at the Grange Hall Saturday night.

The program, presented by Mrs. Phil Rappalyea, lecturer, featured songs, costumes, tableaux and activities illustrative of rural life in the olden days. Musical numbers were given by a centennial chorus with solos by Ralph Grismer, Philip Rappalyea and Henry Barclay. Mrs. Linwood Underhill in appropriate costume appeared in tableau in the song The Old Spinning Wheel. The Virginia Reel was danced by six couples to music by the harmonica played by Denton Kimble. The early history of the organization was depicted by a group of local Past Masters representing the seven founders of the Grange. Mrs. Marian Woodruff, Past Lecturer, directed a group of members carrying placards showing many of the Grange accomplishments through the years such as: tariff reform, rural free delivery, parcel post, G.L.F., Rural Electrification, Farm to Market Roads, rural telephone services, U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, and Agricultural Research, 4-H Clubs, Social Security for Farmes. A group of Junior Grange members appeared in an exercise, What Is the Grange.

Finally, in a choral reading, of Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman's Forecast of Rural and Urban Life in the rural America in the next century, a vision of a new countryside, with new urban and rural balance was given by Grange youth members, David Jean and Christopher Dawes, Barbara Gardner, Loretta Martin and Jeffrey Devoe. Three candles were lighted, one for the past, one for the present and 3rd for the future, a tall one by Gregg Harris, master of the Junior Grange, denoting the dawn of the second century in the National Grange progressive program.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett, Ulster County Grange Deputies and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krutzfeldt, from Hurley attended the 50th anniversary celebration of Asbury Grange Saturday night. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyer former deputies from Greene County.

The ancient Egyptians and Chinese used crude oil as a medicine.

The Viet Summit of '66:

Exercise in Futility for Year

An AP News Analysis
By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

A year ago this week President Johnson met at the summit in Manila with America's allies in Vitnam, seeking a road to peace. President Ho Ch Minh of Communist North Vietnam said "No." Today, the Manila summit seems as forgotten as if it had never happened and peace prospects look dimmer than ever before.

Offered Withdrawal

The government chiefs of the United States, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, South Korea and South Vietnam offered withdrawal of outside forces from the south within six months of the time the North withdrew and halted infiltration and violence ebbed. The United States accompanied this with an offer to attack Asia's ancient problems and include North Vietnam in an economic program.

The proposals had a ring of challenge, since the Communists long had insisted the United States intended to keep its military presence in South Vietnam forever.

The ink was hardly dry on the final communique of Oct. 25 when Hanoi denounced the summit as a "council of war" and called the offer "cynical and insolent."

What had the look of a search for peace became an exercise n futility for the ensuing year. There was no lack of peace plans and proposals. What was lacking was the machinery for getting the show on the road.

Canada came up with a step by step plan envisioning physical disengagement of both sides, possibly at the demilitarized zone, a freeze of military activities in South Vietnam, cessation of actual hostilities, repatriation of prisoners, and finally, withdrawal of outside forces and dismantlement of bases.

No, No, No

Ho said no.

The United States indicated it would be agreeable to a withdrawal supervised by the International Control Commission to points 10 miles on either side of the demilitarized zone, which would create a 26-mile buffer strip.

Ho said no.

Prime Minister Dudley Senanayake of Ceylon sent envoys to Hanoi to invite North Vietnam to a Colombo meeting, possibly to discuss prospects for a cease-fire.

Ho said no.

Secretary-General U hant of the United Nations sent an aide-memoire to all parties in the conflict proposing three steps to negotiation: a standstill truce, preliminary talks and the reconvening of the 1954 Geneva conference.

Ho said no.

South Vietnam's regime said it would be willing to meet with a representative of North Vietnam.

Ho said no.

Britain expressed readiness to cooperate with her cochairman, the Soviet Union, in reconvening the Geneva conference.

Ho said no.

The United States asked repeatedly if Hanoi would give some signal, some token gesture, in return for a cessation of the bombing of the North.

Ho said no.

The mood of Hanoi in the year since the Manila summit has become stonier, as its leaders eye developments in the United States and a rising tide of debate over Vietnam policy. The Hanoi leaders indicate acute awareness that 1968 is a presidential election year in the United States.

If the bombing is stopped without conditions and for good, Hanoi says, talks—but only talks—are possible.

Any and every approach from the United States is denounced as a trick. Hanoi refuses to believe that the United States ever wants, willingly, to withdraw its forces from South Vietnam.

Perhaps the bombing of the North will stop sometime in the near future. The pressure for such a move is growing steadily.

The initiative then will be with Hanoi to decide whether there will be talks. Will talks mean real negotiations and eventual settlement and peace?

From the cocky look of the Communists' propaganda, the odds seem to be that once again, Ho will say no.

Stops Tormenting Rectal Itch

Exclusive Formula Promptly Stops Itching, Burning and Relieves Pain of Piles In Most Cases

New York, N.Y. (Special): The embarrassing itch caused by hemorrhoids is most torturous. But science has found a special formula with the ability, in most cases – to promptly stop the burning itch, relieve pain and actually shrink hemorrhoids. And all without narcotics or stinging astringents of any kind.

The secret is Preparation H®. There is no other hemorrhoid formula like it. Preparation H also lubricates, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

Godfrey Quits Runyon Post

NEW YORK (AP) — Radio and television star Arthur Godfrey resigned Friday as president of the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund in an apparent squabble with columnist Walter Winchell, its founder.

John Daly, director of the Voice of America, followed Godfrey and announced his resignation as a member and director of the fund.

Godfrey quit after Winchell demanded a new board of directors for the fund. He claimed Winchell "made a rare appearance" at the annual meeting of the fund armed with proxy votes for a new board.

Winchell said Godfrey "is now leading my long list of ingrates." The columnist claimed he gave Godfrey his first break in television.

The performer said his resignation "is by no means an indictment of the organization."

Bell on Panel Of Symposium

H. Clark Bell, Constitutional Convention delegate from the 38th district, has been invited as a panelist to a symposium on the proposed constitution on Tuesday, 8 p. m., at Mount Saint Mary College, Newburgh.

The symposium is being sponsored by the History and Political Science Dept. of the College. Other panelists will include William J. Rooney of the Bronx and D. Clinton Dominic, III, of Newburgh, both delegates to the convention. A representative of the Citizens for Educational Freedom Committee will also speak.

Bell has been speaking throughout the Dutchess and Ulster Counties advocating defeat of the proposed constitution. He has contended it is undemocratic to remove from the people their right of pick and choose.

He has urged all of the good progressive portions of the proposed constitution be submitted to the people on an individual submission basis which would allow selective voting in 1969.

Blame Bee

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — A bumble bee caused a tractor-trailer to run off a highway near this central Pennsylvania community and dump a bulldozer it was carrying down a 125-foot embankment.

Police said the driver escaped injury—except for the bee sting.

Perrine Restoration Appears to Be Certain

Work on the restoration of historic Perrine's Bridge over the Wallkill River between the towns of Esopus and Rosendale now appears to be certain. Restoration and preservation of this old covered bridge has been the objective of interested persons for many years.

John Grady, president of the Perrine's Bridge Committee, Inc., which has been instrumental in promoting the campaign for preservation of the bridge, has expressed the appreciation of the committee for the adoption by the Board of Supervisors of the Mabie-DeFelicis resolution making available up to $25,000 of county funds as matching funds with the New York State Historical Trust for the restoration and preservation of the bridge.

"This is the culmination of many years work by groups to preserve this historical bridge," Grady said. "In the near future the Perrine's Bridge Committee, Inc., hopes to be able to solicit bids for the restoration and have the work started," Grady said.

"It is proposed by the committee, through the public contributions, to secure funds for a picnic area and to provide parking facilities in the area of the span for recreational purposes," Grady said.

Grady paid tribute to Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, who, he said, had given much of his time and effort, and who should be "highly commended for his liaison work between the Committee and the State Historical Trust in making the site a historic preserve."

Return to Job

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Construction workers on academic buildings at the State University campus here returned to the job today, ending a week-long jurisdictional strike.

Settlement of the dispute was announced Wednesday by Harry Livingston, a state mediator. Details were not disclosed.

Thirty five electricians, members of the Local 724, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, had picketed the project on the ground that non-union employes were doing work union members were qualified to handle.

Members of the other trade unions honored the picket lines.

Work on dormitory buildings continued during the week-long protest in the academic section of the complex.

Ward's Second Annual

Young American Award Program Committee

The second annual young American Award Program has been announced by David W. Mountford, local Montgomery Ward store manager who annually sponsors the program.

In making this announcement Mountford said "the wonderful success of our program last year has made it mandatory to repeat it again this year. Everyone concerned with the award, students, parents, educators, and committeemen were convinced that this is the type of positive action which is needed to show our teen-agers that we respect them and their achievements."

Treat Chairman

Mountford also announced that Richard L. Treat, general manager of The Kingston Daily Freeman has accepted the chairmanship of this award committee. He said, "although Dick Treat is a comparative newcomer to the Kingston area, he has been extremely active in many worthwhile causes. We feel highly complimented that he has offered the time out of his already busy schedule to take the helm of the Young American Award committee. Thriugh his efforts, we can now announce that the following eminent members of our community will also serve with him on the committee:

Howard C. St. John, local attorney and president of the Ulster County Savings Bank.

The Most Rev. James McManus, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of New York, and Episcopal Vicar of Ulster County.

The Rev. Arthur Oudemool, pastor of Old Dutch Church in Kingston.

Lawrence Swars, general manager of Radio Station WKNY.

Dr. George B. Erbstein, president Ulster County Community College.

This committee will be the sole judge of which area high school students are to receive public recognition as Young American Award winners. All of the area high school principals have been invited to submit candidates whom they feel are worthy of receiving this honor. These students will be judged on their scholastic, extra-curricular and overall school activities. Each month one student will be named the Young American Award winner, then in June, one finalist will be selected from the monthly winners, and this student will be named the Young American Award winner for 1967-68. Each month the student winner will be honored at a dinner party to be held in area restaurants, and in June at a final award banquet, all students will join in honoring the finalist.

Red Hook Youth Winner

Last year, the student named the Young American of the Mid-Hudson Valley, was John Glowienka of Red Hook High School. John received a silver bowl, symbolic of his award, at a banquet in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

The Young American Award program is currently being carried on throughout the U.S. as an effort on the part of Montgomery Ward and Company to give recognition to the praiseworthy accomplishments of our youth. As Wards' Board Chairman, Robert Brooker pointed out last year, "Our most precious possession is our youth for they will decide the future of America as possibly the future of the world. There is a tendancy to overpublicize the behavior of a small portion of our young population that is reluctant to adjust to society. It is that small group of "unadjustables" that creates the distorted picture of young America today."

Brooker continued "Montgomery Ward believes there are more well-behaved, promising young Americans now than at any time in the history of our nation. More parents are rearing better children into more productive citizens than is generally recognized or publicized."

The Young American Award panel of judges will meet shortly to study the list of candidates who have been submitted for the October monthly award.

Fog Blamed For Crash In Vermont

NORTH TROY, Vt. (AP) — Federal and state aeronautics officials today tentatively blamed heavy fog atop 4,000-foot-high Jay Peak for a plane crash which killed two women and two men from New York State.

The single-engine White Piper, en route from Montreal, about 60 miles away, to Newport, plummetted through dense woods into the west side of the mountain Sunday.

Officials said the impact of the crash made a huge crater and instantly killed the pilot, Edward Greenspoon, 29, of North Woodmere, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. David Brunner, both 27, and Eva Lewin, 21, all of New York City.

The crash occurred about a mile south of route 105.

A hunter notified authorities of the crash after he said he heard the sound of a plane fighting for altitude in the heavy fog, then suddenly, silence.

Oldest Fraternity

Phi Beta Kappa, organized in 1776 at William and Mary College, is the oldest American college Greek letter fraternity, but it was not continuously active. Kappa Alpha Society, founded in 1825 at Union College, is the oldest in point of continuous existence.

Pumpkins Stolen

WINSTON-Salem, N.C. (AP) — E. J. Durham was riled Sunday when he discovered his entire pumpkin crop—two giant pumpkins of 150 and 80 pounds—had been stolen from his front porch. He had planted only four hybrid seeds on his farm 10 miles from the city, and had promised seeds from the crop to his friends.

Know-How is the Answer When it Comes to Grades

- Extracting facts from a textbook quickly.
- Making the memory carry a bigger load.
- Speeding through homework.
- Notebook short cuts.
- Breezing through a quiz.

These are some of the skills a student must master if he is going to get good grades in school. Techniques have been developed. They can be taught.

As a public service, this newspaper is presenting the updated Reading Laboratory formula for an easy study program.

THE MISSION: Reaching Scores of Forgotten Migrants

HOPEFUL — Cuddling against the side of a educational unit, a small boy patiently waits his turn at instruction.

By RAY W. TYSON

For more than a year now, three mobile educational units have been reaching scores of migrant workers in southern Ulster County.

Nightly, Monday through Thursday, small groups depart from the White Rock Hotel in Clintondale and travel to the various farm labor camps scattered throughout that area. Each unit contains two teachers and two aides—their mission is reaching the forgotten.

Better Citizens the Goal

Under the auspices of Southern Ulster's Migratory Assistance Corporation, the program got its start in June of 1966. Funding is dispersed through the State's Board of Co-operative Educational Services. Creating better citizens is the desired result.

Headed by Harold F. Taylor, a former Ellenville teacher, the wide-ranged plan is the first successful attempt of this type in Ulster's history. Hopefully, the need for such units will someday be unnecessary, says Taylor.

According to Will Boone, the unit's educational coordinator, the program was instituted when it became obvious people in need of educational services would not travel to permanent sites.

Boone said, "At first the entire concept seemed hopeless. Price estimates ran more than $7,000 per unit. Also we had to think of educational expenses and overhead."

Surplus Overlooked

But government surplus had been overlooked. In the end the units were put together for approximately $500 per unit. Presently three buses have been purchased for demonstration and exhibits.

The primary stress is vocational. Sewing, handicrafts, barbering etc. have gained priority. However, adult educational goes hand-in-hand with the former.

Converted Bus

A typical units is merely a converted bus. Various machines have been installed along the aisle where teachers offer their know-how to persons of all ages. Cooperation with the grower couldn't be better, Boone said.

The units are available between 6:30 p. m. and 10:30 p. m. weekly. Marlboro, Modena and Highland are the localities served. Students are transported to the classes by special volunteers, if their camp is too far away.

Although the units are supported entirely from State funds, the Ulster assistance group is sponsored by Federal monies channeled through the Office of Economic Opportunity. During 1966, $88,000 was alloted the migratory aide planners. This year $10,000 was cut from the budget. Next year's proposals will be submitted in March.

Hope to Expand

A spokesman said, "We hope to expand our facilitiies and add new items to our program. We pray they won't cut more money from our allotment."

Current migrants are not the only persons helped. Former migrants, resettled now in the county, are given special encouragement to enter the mobile classes. In fact, all the aides were once in the migratory strain, Taylor disclosed.

As he previously mentioned — hopefully the need for such units will someday be unnecessary. But until then, these dedicated workers carry on.

MOBILE AID — This migrant child might not be prepared for the future under normal circumstances. But mobile education, literate as well as vocational, is seeing to it that this girl is not forgotten.

Videothon Pushes Chest Drive Over Quota

Last Saturday night's second Ulster County Radio-videothon provided the final push for this year's Ulster County Community chest campaign to reach and exceed its quota of $320,000.

A star-studded cast for prominent celebrities and area citizens combined their talents to present 17 hours of continuous entertainment the result of which, was over $24,000 raised for the chest appeal.

George W Tamke, general chairman of this year's drive said, "I am pleased beyond words at the wonderful response our community has demonstrated toward the entire chest appeal.

"Our team this year was one of the hardest working groups I have ever had the pleasure of work with. Charlie Raible, Community Chest president and Bill Pearson, my associate chairman, as well as the entire chest cabinet, worked hard and long to make this achievement possible. Without the help of these men and the entire chest soliciting team, our quota would never have been reached."

Tamke went on to say "I would like to make particular mention of the fact that Charlie Raible's tremendous effort last year really provided the foundation for this year's success. Without the $286,000 his team raised, I question whether we could have reached the amount we did this year. As to the exact amount of money raised this year, we will plan to announce a final figure at the end of this week since many of our traditional contributions are still coming in. At present we have a little over $321,000."

PREDICTED SUCCESS — All smiles for the Community Chest were evident when New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller and Community Chest campaign chairman George W. Tamke, taped an introduction to Saturday's 16-hour radio-videothon. The event, as predicted, added the needed amount of money to the 1968 drive to raise $320,000 to support 13 agencies.

Referring to the radio-videothon, Tamke said, "I can't recall when such a show with so much talent was presented under one roof. Some people have estimated that we probably had a quarter of a million dollars worth of talent working for Ulster County this past Saturday."

Tamke was joined by radio-videothon chairman Donald MasIsaac and producer Ernie Ward in commending "the hundreds of volunteers who contributed their time and talent."

MacIsaac stated that "high tribute should be directed to the Kingston Cablevision and the four radio stations for the tremendous support they provided.

"Bill Krajci and his entire Cablevision team worked around the clock to assure the fine picture we had on Channel 5. They are to be commended for their effort. Radio Stations WKNY, WGHQ, AM-FM and WBAZ also provided personnel and facilities in generous number to assure that the program went on as planned. MacIsaac said, "the names are are really too numerous to acknowledge individually but everyone associated with this production knows of the work they did and are grateful for it."

All of the previously announced celebrities showed up at the George Washington School for the radio-videothon and did their assigned work. Sen. Jacob K. Javits read news, sports and weather concluding with the comment, "your newscaster has been Jack K. Javits."

Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick also delivered news, sports and weather as did Sen. Robert F. Kennedy who flew in from Albany for the event.

Sen. Kennedy's appearance resulted in a great press from the crowd of about 500 people who were assembled in the school auditorium.

The second annual radio-videothon concluded at 2:34 a. m. Sunday and many exhausted participants and workers were glad to bring the curtain on a successful drive. Over 37 organizations and several hundred people were represented. More than 250 telephone solicitors working in two hour shifts also were included in this tremendous effort.

Jumped Bail Here, Found in Oregon

A former Brooklyn man, a summer visitor to Woodstock in 1965, who jumped $250 cash bail following indictment for second degree assault has been apprehended by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Oregon and will be returned to Ulster County.

He had been accused what was described as a sadistic act on a Woodstock man, Barry Walsh.

Assistant FBI Director John F. Malone of the New York City office and District Attorney Joseph P. Torraca today announced the arrest of Robert Owen Bornn, 21, at Eugene, Ore. Bornn the subject of an intensive investigation throughout the United States was located by FBI agents Friday, where he had been living under the name of Robert Veldman.

Bornn was indicted by an Ulster County Grand Jury in connection with the alleged assault on Walsh near Meads Mountain House at Woodstock. He was released on bail and fled the jurisdiction of the local court. A bench warrant was issued in February, 1966 after forfeiture of bail had been sought by the district attorney's office. Torraca requested the assistance of the FBI to locate Bornn.

Bornn was transported to Portland, Ore. by the U.S. Marshall and will appear before the U.S. Commissioner today. He will be held in the Multnomah County Jail in Portland pending arrival of Ulster County authorities. Bornn has waived extradition.

There was also returned by the Grand Jury an indictment charging illegal possession of burglary tools. The latter indictment was returned in September, 1965, the assault indictment in June, 1965.

At the time investigating officials reported Bornn had tied Walsh in a wheelchair at the point of a pocket knife and then subjected the Woodstock man to what authorities described as torture. Investigated officers reported Bornn allegedly burned Walsh with lighted cigarettes, cut his stomach and arms with a razor blade and then poured turpentine and glue over parts of Walsh's body and ignited it. No motive was advanced for the act.

Gallup Poll Shows Johnson a Loser

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — President Johnson would be unable to defeat the leading three Republicans mentioned as presidential candidates if any election was held today, according to the latest Gallup Poll.

The poll, conducted between Oct. 6-11, found that Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., would fare better than Johnson but would not be able to defeat former Vice President Richard M. Nixon or New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Pollsters asked the following question of 1,585 persons in 320 localities across the nation:

"Suppose the presidential election were held today. If (candidate's name) were the Democratic candidate and (candidate's name) were the Republican candidate, which would you like to see win?"

A Nixon-Johnson race showed 49 per cent for Nixon, 45 per cent for the President and 6 per cent undecided. It was the first time that Nixon has shown greater strength than Johnson in the Gallup Poll.

Despite his insistence that he is not a candidate, Rockefeller holds an even wider lead over the President—54 per cent to 40 per cent with 6 per cent undecided.

The latest poll also showed Gov. George Romney of Michigan defeating Johnson, 48 per cent to 45 per cent with 7 per cent undecided.

In races against Sen. Kennedy, Nixon holds a lead of 48 per cent to 47 per cent with 5 per cent undecided and Rockefeller's edge is 47 per cent to 46 per cent with 7 per cent undecided.

A survey to determine who voters favor as the GOP candidate showed that Nixon and Rockefeller were gaining support while Romney failed to recover the support he lost following his Sept. 5 statement about having been "brainwashed" by the Johnson administration on Vietnam.

TB Hospital Closes

After 35-years service, Ulster County's Tuberculosis Hospital today closed its doors in order that the building can be transformed into an Infirmary Annex, it was disclosed.

The hospital, located at Golden Hill, Kingston, opened in 1931 as a 50-bed hospital and clinic. Six patients, presently at the hospital, are being taken to the Homer Folks State TB Hospital, Oneonta.

Since its opening the hospital has had seven directors—Frederic H. Boss, M.D.; George Webber, M.D.; Joseph Jacobson, M.D.; Herbert F. Schwartz, M.D.; Laszlon Arany, M.D.; and John B. Plass, M.D., the present head. Dr. Plass will continue to serve as director of the Ulster County Chest Clinic.

The present site, once converted into the Infirmary Annex, will be used primarily for Medicaid and Medicare patients. It will be operated by the Dept. of Social Services.

'Buck Fever'

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — Fourteen-year-old Jerriann Bocchietti, on her first deer hunting trip Sunday, got over a bad case of "buck fever" in time to drop a four-point buck.

Jerriann was hunting with her father, Charles Bocchietti, Pueblo, and several of her dad's friends when the buck bolted from a grove of trees.

"I missed the first shot," she said, "and got a bad case of buck fever before I hit him in the side on the second try." After missing the first shot she accidentally ejected two live shells before seating a third round.

Jerriann's buck weighed 200 pounds after it was dressed.

Her older hunting companions could do no more than look at it and sigh. They didn't even get a shot.

MRS. THEODO RE DeGRAFF
(Photo Workshop)

Sickler-DeGraff

Miss Patricia Marie Sickler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sickler, 16 Hunter Street, Kingston, was married Saturday, Oct. 14, to Theodore DeGraff, son of Mrs. Vonda DeGraff, 31 Third Avenue, this city, in St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Edward I. Farrelly officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Nan Goldrick provided traditional wedding selections. The altar was decorated with white carnations and chrysanthemums. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of Chantilly lace and silk faille crepe fashioned with a scalloped sequin trimmed neckline, fitted empire bodice and long tapered lace sleeves. A sheath floor length skirt was styled with a detachable lace train with a watteau effect. Her veil of scalloped pearl trimmed silk illusion was bouffant and fell from a cap of triple pyramid lace. She carried a satin covered prayer book with stephanotis, carnations and white orchids. The bride presented carnations at the Blessed Mother's altar.

Miss Patricia Scully, cousin of the bride, 195 Smith Avenue, Kingston, was maid of honor. She wore a petal pink sheath gown styled in an empire fashion in peau taffeta with a matching Dior coat and flirtation veil headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink glamelias.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Linda Reilly, Port Ewen; Sheila Sickler, Linderman Avenue, Kingston; Darlene Sickler, cousin of the bride, 190 Broadway, this city. Their gowns were fashioned identically to that of the honor attendant in lemon yellow, powder blue and nile green colors. They carried cascade bouquets of glamellias to match their gowns.

Miss Deborah Inge, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a petal pink gown styled similarly to the other attendants and carried a white braided wicker ring with pink glamellias.

Samuel DeGraff, 31 Third Avenue, Kingston, was best man for his brother. Usners were Joseph Rougier, Abruyn Street, Kingston; Clifford Kellerhouse, Pine Street, West Hurley; Robert Sickler, brother of the bride, Hunter Street, this city. John Grant, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

After the wedding a recption for 120 guests was held at the Moose hall, Prince Street, Kingston.

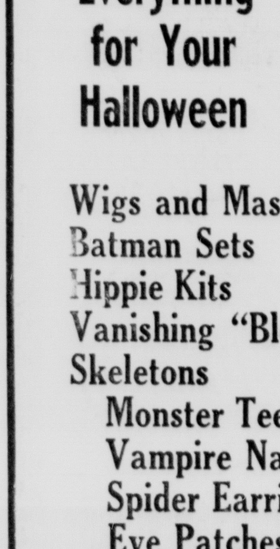

For her wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada, the bride selected a two-piece red suit with black accessories and a corsage of miniature red roses.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's School and Kingston High School.

Her husband is a graduate of Immaculate Conception School and is employed at Island Dock Lumber Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. DeGraff will reside at Spring Lake Trailer Park, Lucas Avenue, Kingston.

The Original Solitaire

(or single diamond) was set in six high prongs - came into vogue more than half a century ago. As much in favor now as it was in 1900, the round prong setting (either four or six) is the traditional engagement ring and is worn, as then, with a simple gold wedding band.

Four or six-prong solitaires $350 Wedding ring $15

MRS. DANIEL P. TERPENING
(Gentile Studio)

Nuptials Announced

Miss Madalyn Louise Smith, 82 Prospect Street, Kingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith, 313 West Second Street, Oswego, became the bride of Daniel Paul Terpening, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Terpening, Salem Street, Port Ewen, Saturday, Oct. 21, at West Baptist Church, Oswego.

The Rev. Pastor Higgs officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Carol Morley sang traditional wedding selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Vera Clark. The altar was decorated with baskets of gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of angel skin peau de soie with a gentle scoop neckline. Re-embroidered Alencon lace edged the long tapered sleeves and floor length skirt. Her A-line skirt was enriched with tiny clusters of pearls and re-embroidered lace, carrying the motif to her flowing detachable train which draped from the back with self-fabric bows of peau de soie. A bouffant fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a tiered regal crown of petal points. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums intertwined with lemon leaves.

Mis Charlene Smith, sister of the bride, Oswego, was maid of honor. She wore an empire gown with a gold leaf cap headpiece accented with lace and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums and pompons.

Attendants were Mrs. Edward Southgate, sister of the bride, West Third Street, Oswego; Miss Fay Brown, Sleightsburg, cousin of the bridegroom. Their green gowns were fashioned identically to that of the maid of honor.

Philip Terpening, Port Ewen, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Carl Carlson, cousin of the bridegroom, Ulster Park; Charles Smith, brother of the bride, Oswego.

After the wedding a reception for 75 guests was held at The Birches, Old East River Road, Fulton.

The bride, a graduate of Oswego High School, is employed by the New York Telephone Company, Kingston.

Her husband, a Kingston High School graduate and an alumnus of Albany Business College, is a teller at Rondout National Bank, Kingston.

When they return from their wedding trip through Canada, they will reside at 211 Salem Street, Port Ewen.

40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Sickler, 30 Coffey Place, Kingston, were honored by a reception at their home given by their children in celebration of their 40th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Sickler were married at the parsonage of Reformed Church of the Comforter on October 16, 1927, by the Rev. Stowe.

Mrs. Leonard Sickler, the former Olive Terwilliger, was maid of honor and Leonard Sickler was best man for his brother.

Mrs. Sickler was the former Edna Gibbs. Mr. Sickler has been an employee of Walter Reade Theatre for 42 years.

The couple have three children, Mrs. David Dowsland of San Antonio, Tex.; Mrs. Robert Palen and John Wayne of Kingston.

Country Club Dance

The final event of the social season at Wiltwyck Country Club will be held Saturday evening.

A gala semi-formal dinner dance has been planned with music furnished by Jerry Lehr and his orchestra. Mr. Lehr has played at the Plaza and the Waldorf Hotel in New York.

Reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Kenneth Lowe Jr., Mrs. Charles King, Mrs. Clifford Spiesman or Mrs. Bentley Jenson.

Learn Key to Grades: Study Each Teacher

READERS: This series, amplified with additional information, is available in permanent form as a book. Use coupon below.

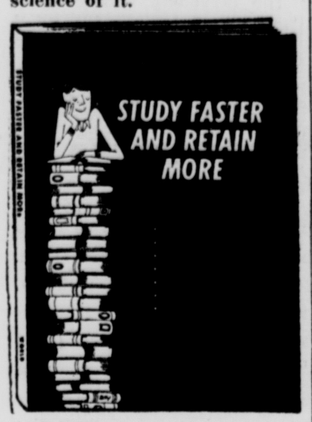

By the Reading Laboratory

(Excerpted from the World Publishing Company Book, "Study Faster and Retain More.". Illustrations by Roy Doty.)

Obviously, the key to better grades is the teacher.

The old cliche says, "If you can't fight 'em, join 'em," and since there's no point in working at cross-purposes with your teacher, learn how to work with him.

Working with a teacher is not the same as apple-polishing. You have to work with people all your life; start making a science of it.

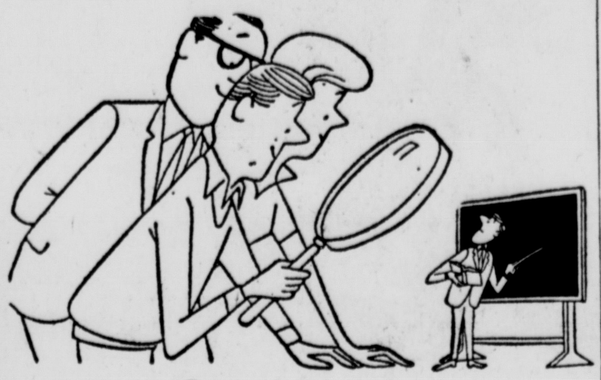

Here are the major things to look for when studying a teacher:

● What part of the course does he like best? What part does he like least? Watch out for small points that your teacher spends a lot of time on — he likes those points. They may be on a test.

● Does he like arguments in the classroom? (Not fights, of course, but intelligent discussion of both sides of a problem). Some teachers don't — usually because they're pressed for time. But try yours out. Bring up a question that contradicts one of his own statements. If he likes it, do it again. If he doesn't, it may be best to keep quiet when you disagree. There's no point in irritating him.

● What kind of tests does he give? Essay questions? True-False? Multiple choice? What kind of answers does he like? Good understanding of main idea? Tiny details? You'll have to adjust your studying to his tests.

● See if he has "good days" and "bad days." Mondays are just as rough on teachers as they are on you. Don't go out of your way to give your teacher a hard time on his bad days.

● Does he mark for class participation, or does he just count tests? This will usually depend on the size of his classes; the best way to find out is to ask your teacher.

● Does he like to give pop quizzes? Check for this with other students who have already had your teacher.

● Make a private appointment with your teacher. It can be helpful to both of you. He'll be glad to see you but be sure you have something specific that you want to talk over; he may not have time for just small talk.

Kingston Nursery School Children Enjoy Outings

Kingston City Firemen Francis Diamond, Gordon Purhamus, Bill Schwerdtfeger and Harry Horrbeck played host to children from Kingston Nursery School on Wednesday, Oct. 11, when they visited the Fair Street Firehouse.

The firemen demonstrated equipment and explained fire prevention rules to the children who were accompanied by Miss Carolyn King, certified nursery school teacher, and Miss Maryann Lynch, assistant.

The morning visitors were Bonnie Andretta, Tamar Bloom, John Cielo, Paul Conrad, Michael Kapreilian, Edward Karabec, Donna Kent, Sharon Modjeska, Kim Nicolosi, Inga Sardi, Sigrid Sardi, Katja Vestergaard and Steven Wadler.

The afternoon visitors included Skipper Bunce, Cheryl Camhi, Jonathan Cohen, Deborah Eichhorn, Matthew Farber, Patti Jeanne Kramer, Marilyn Sue Gally, Michael Lumish, Sharon Magaldino, Arnold Millens and Gregory Monashefsky.

Also Ellen Murkoff, Stephen Ritchie, Debcrah Ronder, Mark Severson, Harold Sossner and Lydia Zamm.

Deputy Chief Charles Hoehing of the Kingston Police Force visited the nursery school classes recently. He urged the youngsters to play away from the road area, to cross streets with adult supervision only, not to "hide" in the leaves and not to play with firearms.

The nursery school, which is sponsored by Jewish Community Center, 96 Maiden Lane, is planning a costume party for Tuesday, Oct. 31. The nonsectarian school is supervised by a committee of parents, including the Mmes. Morton Cohen, Joseph Conrad, Morris Kapreillian, David Gally, Harry Lumish and Marvin Millens.

Tour of Historic Hudson River Homes

A rare opportunity is offered to visit three 18th Century homes and observe the houses furniture, paintings and views of the Hudson River and Catskills.

The homes to be shown include Rokeby, owned by Mrs. Susan Aldrich, located just off River Road south of Barrytown. Montgomery Place owned by Major and Mrs. John White Delafield (8th direct descendent in family), located just off River Road, north of Barrytown to Annadale. The Calendar House west of Tivoli owned by Mrs. Osborne.

The Garden Club of Red Hook and the Old Dutch Village Garden Club are sponsoring this tour with all donation proceeds for the development of a much needed recreation center at Red Hook.

The tour begins at 1:30 to 4:30 p. m., Saturday. Tickets will be available at any of the homes.

The owners and sponsors cordially invite the public to view these historic homes. Informed hostesses will help explain items of interest.

DONATION TO BOYS' CLUB—Joseph E. Sills Sr., past commander and life member of Kingston Post No. 150, American Legion, and Mrs. Joseph E. Sills, past president and welfare chairman of the Legion Auxiliary, present a contribution totaling $50 to John Holochuck, director of the Boys' Club of Kingston, in appreciation for services rendered by members of the Boys' Club. KHS Gains Initial Win, Stops Cardinal Farley, 21-0

By ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

"We finally put everything together."

That's how Kingston High football coach Bill Hurley described his squad after the locals had trounched winless Cardinal Farley Military academy, 21-0, before a small turnout of about 1,000 Saturday at Dietz Stadium.

In picking up their first verdict in four starts, the Maroon players scored once in the second quarter and put the contest on ice with a two touchdown salvo in the final session.

Quarterback Mike Hoffman, giving his best performance to date, hit end Fred Kachura with a 48 yard bomb for the first score. The KHS quarterback took pigskin in from the one for a second eally. Defensive end Russ Wilber climaxed the successful afternoon with a 31 yard scamper after swiping a Farley pass late in the fourth and final session.

Only One threat

The Cadets, who have dropped five straight, made their only deep penetration on the first series of plays. They put the kickoff in play on the 40 and moved to the KHS 12, picking up four first downs on the drive.

However, the KHS line, anchored by big Bob Clausi, stiffened and didn't permit the visitors any liberties the rest of the way.

A 61 yard kick by Leo Halleran of the Cadets gave Kingston possession on the 38 early in the second period. Hoffman guided the home side to paydirt in only four plays.

An 11 yard pass from Hoffman to tight end Tim Bowens moved the pigskin to the Farley 48. The play come on third down.

The Scoring Play

On the next play, the KHS quarterback threw to Kachura, his split end. Fred grabbed the ball on the 30 and ran unmolested into the end zone. Bowens made the first of his three points from placement and very suddenly, it was a 7-0 game.

Just before half ended, the Maroon squad was near paydirt once again, only to lose the ball on downs 16 yards away.

The Cadets kicked off to start the second half and the home side went from the 33 to the Farley five. Once again the drive fizzled and came to a halt.

Defensive back Marshall Byrd swiped a pass on the 47 early in the fourth stanza and he ran it to the CF 43. A piling on penalty moved the pigskin to the 28. From there, the winners scored in seven plays.

Hoffman was the workhorse. He made a 14 yard run for a first down and brought it to the three on a fourth down play for another first down. Two plays later, the KHS quarterback scored.

Farley quarterback Bill Murray, who was rushed on his pass attempts for the greater part of the sunny afternoon, was intercepted two plays after the kickoff.

Russ Scores

Wilber moved in front of Rory O'Rourke, the intended receiver. He picked the ball out of the air on the 31 and easily carried it for a touchdown.

Still moments later, Byrd picked off his second pass of the day and took it to midfield. The game ended with the winners in possession at that point.

GRID JOTTINGS — Hurley was forced to go with a makeshift lineup. Regular halfback Greg Rios and fullback Dana Clearwater are nursing knee injuries and the KHS coach was forced to start Ed Adams and Bruce Brown in place of his regulars. Both reserves turned in sound jobs . . . Bowens, back at his tight end position, caught four passes and dropped two more as Hoffman was on target most of the afternoon . . . Clausi did a bangup job on defense and the KHS linemen didn't permit Murray time to get set. He had only one completion in 15 attempts . . . Linton is at Dietz Stadium for a Saturday afternoon contest . . . The Farley jayvees toppled Kingston, 19-13, in a morning game at the Rhinecliff field. Harold Wynkoop ran 52 yards and Bill Brady three yards for the KHS scores.

Middies Rip Mamaroneck

Unbeaten Middletown scored quick and often during the first half and coasted to a 49-6 triumph over Mamaroneck of Westchester County Saturday at Wilson Field.

The Middies gave the home fans their best offensive show of the season in scoring seven touchdowns. Dick Field, who had two of the TD's booted seven straight extra points to account for 19 points by himself.

Quarterback Paul Hughes tallied twice from near the goal line and also threw scoring passes of 26 and 66 yards to John Peterson.

The defending DUSO champions are in schenectady for a Friday night game with Mont Pleasant.

Pawling Decisions Ellenville, 35-12

Pawling was scored upon for the first time this season on an 82-yard kickoff return by Ellenville Halfback Tom Murray, but the Tigers wound up with a 35-12 victory at the Blue Devils' field Saturday afternoon.

The win ran the Tigers' undefeated string to five this season while Ellenvxille suffered its third setback in five outings.

Murray scored both TD's for his team, running his personal record to 12 for the season. Jim Cunningham scored a pair of touchdowns for Pawling as did Chuck Swalagin. The other Pawling TD came on an interception pass by Terry Aiken. Kevin Aiken, Terry's brother, kicked five extra points.

Pawling scored the first time they got their hands on the ball on a 72-yard march. The big ground gainer in that drive was a 30-yard burst by Rolly Bauer, the Tigers' hard running fullback.

Cunningham bolted over from the one yard line for the score. Aiken's kick made it 7-0, Pawling.

Rugged Defense

Ellenville couldn't get going against the big tough Pawling defense. Leading the defense was tackle Paul Mancuso. The Blue Devils kicked on fourth down, got a good roll on the ball which came to rest 57 yards from the line of scrimmage. The ball was fumbled by Pawling on the four and the Blue Devils prepared to record the first score against Pawling. They failed, coming up inches short on a fourth down pass.

Swalagin, who's only 118 pounds, got the Tigers out of immediate trouble with a burst to the 26. Two plays later he raced 39 yards to the Ellenville 35. That drive failed but Ellenville couldn't get going and the Tigers wound up with the ball on their own 47. Bauer blasted to the 30. Aiken hit Cunningham with a 26-yard pass to the 4 and Swalagin took it in from there. The Tigers led 14-0 at halftime.

The score was crucial for Pawling. Coach Bud Coombs has been concerned about his team's unscored upon record. He said he wanted to know if they could bounce back after the demoralizing score. Shouts from the host of Pawling fans of "they scored on us, they scored on us" who had come 60 miles to see their Tigers could have hardly comforted Coombs. He needn't have worried.

Cunningham grabbed the kickoff on the 32 and raced the length of the field for the score. Aiken's kick jacked the score to 21-6.

A few plays later, Terry Aiken, who plays with glasses, intercepted a Dave Bagliebter pass and weaved 27 yards to paydirt. Brother Kevin toed the PAT. It was now 28-6.

Early in the fourth quarter Aiken fired a 31-yard pass to Swalagin for Pawling's last score.

Tom Murray proved the spark for the last Ellenville score. He grabbed a Bagliebter 34-yard pass with three defenders hanging on him, getting nailed at the four. Three plays later Murray leaped in the end zone for the TD pass from Bagliebter.

Haldane in Upset Over Red Hook, 25-12

Winless Haldane spoiled the Bi-Valley championship hopes of Red Hook Central gridders with a 25-12 upset triumph Saturday in Cold Spring.

Quarterback Pete Rapalje completed eight of nine passes, two of them for touchdowns as the home side breezed to an 18-6 lead and held off the Hookers in the third and fourth periods.

The Haldane quarterback threw TD passes of 30 and 87 yards to Dick McConville. The latter was a short flat toss which McConville made a nice catch and run. Rapalje tallied once himself on an eight yard run and Paul Mankin went in from the five for the other TD.

Red Hook was stymied on the ground by a tough Haldane defense. Both scores by the Hookers were the result of passes from quarterback Ed Thompson. The first was a nine yard toss to Ralph Cort in the second period. This knotted the game at 6-6.

Thompson connected with Terry White, his favorite target, with a 26 yard job late in the game.

The setback was the first for Red Hook in league action and gives them a 4-2 record for the season. The Hookers entertain powerful Pawling in a league game on Saturday.

Giants Beaten; Jets Top Miami

Green Bay scored 38 points in the second half to topple the New York Giants, 48-21, before 62,585 fans Sunday at Yankee Stadium.

Meanwhile, Joe Namath completed 13 of 15 passes for 199 yards in the first half to lead the New York Jets to a 33-14 win over the Miami Dolphins at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

The Giants, with Fran Tarkenton throwing first half touchdown passes to Homer Jones and Joe Morrison, had a 14-10 lead over the champion Packers at intermission.

Green Bay stormed back in the third and fourth periods to turn a possible upset into a rout.

Namath was superb as the Jets retained their Eastern division lead in the AFL. He was aided by Emerson Boozer's two scores, giving the swift halfback 12 TDS for the season.

Both teams are at home this Sunday. New York faces Cleveland while the Jets return to Shea Stadium to meet the Boston Patriots.

AHS Surprises Lourdes, 19-0

The unbeaten list of clubs in the DCSL is now two. Our Lady of Lourdes, riding high with four straight victories, was whitewashed, 19-0, by Arlington High Saturday in a league game at Riverview Field in Poughkeepsie.

Aroused by coach Frank King after being upset the previous week by Roosevelt, the visitors scored in each of the last three periods and put a halt to the high scoring Warrior offense.

Bruce Duncan of the Admirals swiped a Lourdes pass in the second quarter and raced 66 yards to a score. This set the pattern for the rest of the afternoon.

Arlington went 65 yards in 12 plays after putting the third quarter kickoff in play. Quarterback Mark Hinsch passed the final 28 to Bob Fenn, who took the ball on the 10 and rambled into the end zone.

Fullback Dan Hardisty, who did the heavy duty work for the Admirals, went six yards in the fourth period to cap a 53 yard, 13 play drive. The extra point was scored on Steve Pagnetti's pass to Bill Donaldson.

The winners were threatening again when the game ended. They stymied the Warrior offense time and time again and completely dominated play.

Port Chester Stops Newburgh

Powerful Port Chester threw a rock ribbed defense against Newburgh Free Academy and whitewashed the Goldbacks, 27-0, in a non-league contest Saturday at the Hilly City gridiron.

While stopping Wayne Youngs, the NFA star, the Westchesterites did their scoring in the first three quarters as they cruised to their 11th consecutive victory over a two-year span.

It was the second straight setback for coach Rip Fornal's club after a pair of opening victories.

Marlboro Triumphs Over Wallkill, 7-0

Cellar dwelling Wallkill gave Marlboro's high flying Dukes a tight tussle but came up on the short end of a 7-0 UCAL battle Saturday at thet loser's gridiron.

Though coach Jack Kroh's gridders were in complete command of the situation, they managed their only score in the opening quarter after blocking a punt on the three.

Finally, from seven yards out, quarterback Mike Pagano threw to Dan Martuscello for the TD and Charles Peters added the extra point.

The Dukes threatened on other occasions but were rebuffed by the winless home side, which produced its best effort of the season.

The victory keeps Marlboro in contention for league honors. Wallkill is winless in five circuit starts.

Poughkeepsie Scores, 27-7

Poughkeepsie's high powered Pioneers scored the first three times they received the ball and went on to topple Lakeland, 27-7, in a non-league battle Saturday in the Bridge City.

Coach Don Smith's unbeaten gridders hit paydirt in the opening session as Bill Green tallied from 11 yards out. Rudy Jones took a 34 yard pass from quarterback Bob Schiller and Jake Ellis scampered in from the 20.

After the visitors had narrowed the margin with a third period TD, the home side completed the scoring when Green took Schiller's 15 yard toss in the fourth stanza.

The home forces dominated the action from the beginning as they took a breather from their DCSL schedule.

Rondout Tops New Paltz; Onteora Stops Pine Bush

2nd Half Rally Gives Ganders 21-6 Victory

Jim Rowe scampered 95 yards with the second half kickoff and Rondout Valley broke loose from a scoreless first half to trounce New Paltz, 21-6 and retain its UCAL lead Saturday before another good crowd at the Stone Ridge gridiron.

The defensive minded Huguenots played the home side to a standstill during the first and second periods.

However, Rowe took the kickoff to start the third quarter at the five, cut to his right and outraced the seondary. He was aided by several key blocks. Quarterback John Meehan, who saw limited action because of a hand injury, threw to end Charles George for the extra point.

The Ganders put this one out of reach in the fourth period. Fullback Tom Frazier galloped 56 yards to move the ball into scoring position. Halback Tom Craig carried it across from the two and Meehan tossed to Rowe for the point.

Gordie Taylor, the Rondout speedster, went four yards for the final score after a New Paltz punt had been blocked on the 10. Gordie, who now has 13 touchdowns for the season, made the extra point.

New Paltz scored its TD against Rondout reserves when Bill Bond hit Jim Schiller from nine yars out with 25 seconds remaining.

Frazier was the workhorse for Coach Chick Meehan's Ganders. He picked up 133 yards. Taylor was limited to 67 by the tenacious Huguenot defense.

Chauncey Has 2 Touchdowns In 19-0 Win

A fired up Pine Bush eleven won the battle of the statistics but Onteora Central scored all the points in a bruising 19-0 UCAL victory Saturday at Pine Bush.

Two fumble recoveries and a blocked kick led to the OCS scores, with Co-Captain Dale Chauncey, fearsome 6-2 205 pound tackle, staging another brilliant individual performance for Coach Paul Jordan's Indians who are now 5-1 on the season.

Chauncey picked off a pass deflected by defender Fred Middleton and scampered 31 yards up the sideline to put Onteora on the scoreboard in the third period.

In the fourth quarter, Chauncey stormed through to block Mike Brock's punt on the Wallkill 35, swooped up the ball and ran into the end zone for his second TD. The play started on the Wallkill 45.

Fullback John Adsit recovered a fumble on the Pine Bush 27 late in the third quarter. Quarterback Mickey Bush hit George Colon for a firstdown on the 17. After two incomplete passes, Adsit ran off the right side on a fake pass formation untouched to the end zone. John Stoothoff kicked the extra point to close out the scoring at 19-0.

The hard charging Wallkill Squad had a 11-4 edge in first downs and 128-35 yard edge in rushing. But they were able to put together only one sustained drive, a 62-yard advance engineered by Jay Lourenser and Gary Sisco that came to grief with an Alan Cocks interception for OCS on the 13 yard line.

With its offensive blocking somewhat less than adequate. Onteora again proved for the second straight week that it can capitalize on breaks.

Substitute halfback Mickey Patrick suffered a shoulder injury in the third quarter and is lost for the season.

Liberty Overwhelms Highland Club, 27-7

Cracking the Highland defense for 250 yards, Liberty Central remained in the UCAL race and knocked the defending champions out of all chances with a stunnnig, 27-7, win Saturday at the Sullivan County gridiron.

Quarterback Ken Cogswell guided the home side to its victory. He scored on a one yard run, converted three extra points and sent his backfield mates through the Highland line for chunks of big yardage.

Cogswell capped a 48 yard drive in the second period when he slipped over from the one and then booted the PAT. The Indians went off the field with a 7-0 lead at the interim.

The Liberty quarterback passed for 22 yards to end Joe Bagley to highlight a fourth period drive. Halfback Pete Fleckenstein carried over from the four to ignite a three touchdown period for the winners.

Fullback Bob Grimball scored moments later as the Indians marched 60 yards on the ground. The final Redskin score came when Bill Richards bulled in from the one after the visitors had been stopped by an intercepted pass.

With time running out, Highland got on the scoreboard when quarterback John Indelicato passed 46 yards to fullback Charlie Hicks and another 15 yards to Ron Perkins.

The win gives the Indians a 4-1 league record. Highland is now 2-2-1 and is out of the running.

Jim Hart's Strong Arm Clicks for Cardinals

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Hart's strong arm put new wallop into the St. Louis Cardinals' attack, but Gale Sayers' sore leg left the Chicago Bears offenseless.

Hart, St. Louis' sensational rookie quarterback, fired four touchdown passes Sunday in a 48-14 bombardment of the Philadelphia Eagles.

The Cards' fourth triumph in six games kept them tied for the National Football League's Century Division lead with the Cleveland Browns, who blanked the Sayers-less Bears 24-0 for their fourth straight victory.

Green Bay's NFL champions also flexed their muscles in demolishing New York 48-21 while Minnesota fought Baltimore to a 20-20 standoff, Los Angeles and Washington played to a 28-28 tie, San Francisco whipped New Orleans 27-13, Dallas edged Pittsburgh 24-21 and Detroit beat Atlanta 24-3.

Hart hit on 16 of 29 passes for 267 yards as St. Louis poured across 45 straight points to wipe out the Eagles' 14-3 first-quarter lead. Jackie Smith grabbed a pair of Hart strikes for 74 and eight-yard scoring plays and Bobby Joe Conrad and rookie Dave Williams caught one TD pass apiece.

While the Cards were making their biggtst point splurge in St. Louis since 1962, the Browns recorded their first regular-season shutout since 1960...while Sayers, Chicago's offensive sparkplug, watched from the sidelines with a bruised left leg.

Frank Ryan's nine-yard TD pass to Gary Collins broke a scoreless tie in the third quarter and the Browns wrapped up the victory with a 17-point final period. The Bears, held to nine first downs, did not threaten until the closing minutes, when they reached the Cleveland seven as time ran out.

Quarterback Bart Starr returned to the Packers' line-up after missing two games with injuries and directed an awesome running attack that produced 38 points in the second half. Jim Grabowski accounted for 123 of Green Bay's 249 rushing yards and Elijah Pitts, who scored three touchdowns, picked up 72 more.

Minnesota, which upended the Packers 10-7 last Sunday, barely missed knocking off the unbeaten Colts behind Joe Kapp, whose 11-yard TD pass to Red Phillips produced a 20-13 edge in the fourth quarter.

But Johnny Unitas, whose 20 completions set an NFL career mark of 2,131, brought the Colts back 80 yards for the tying touchdown, climaxing the drive with a three-yard pitch to John Mackey.

Roman Gabriel's six-yard TD pass to Bernie Casey with 64 seconds to play capped a 75-yard march and earned the Rams a tie with the Redskins. Sonny Jurgensen's fourth scoring pass, a 39-yarder to Jerry Smith, gave Washington a 28-21 lead minutes before Gabirel hit for the tying touchdown.

The deadlocks were the second straight for both the Colts and Rams, who struggled to a 24-24 tie last week.

John Brodie passed for two touchdowns and Tommy Davis kicked a pair of field goals, leading the 49ers past winless New Orleans for their fifth victory in six games.

Craig Morton hit Pettis Norman on a five-yard TD pass with 24 seconds to play, giving the Cowboys the nod over Pittsburgh in another wild finish. Morton's third scoring flip of the game came just 48 seconds after the Steelers grabbed the lead on Kent Nix' 11-yard TD pass to J.R. Wilburn.

Detroit's Karl Sweetan, making his first start of the season, connected with Tom Nowatzke and Bill Malinchak for a pair of fourth-quarter scoring passes, breaking up a tight defensive battle with the Falcons.

Roosevelt Tops Beacon, 27-13

Scoring at least once in each quarter, Roosevelt turned back Beacon, 27-13, in a DCSL tilt Saturday at the Hyde Park gridiron.

Fresh from their upset win over Arlington, the Presidents combined the passing of quarterback Gary Luhmann and the rushing of Perry Drake to hand the Beaconites their fourth consecutive setback.

Luhmann passed for 113 yards and connected with scores to Tom Rinaldi for eight yards and to Dan Cave for 20 yards.

Drake, who ran for 142 yards in 24 carries, tossed 37 yards on a halfback option to Bob Clark. The speedy halfback also ran over from the two.

Highlight of the day for the losers was Nate Milligan's 96 yard return with an intercepted pass.

The run came in the fourth period and the visitors scored again before time ran out when quarterback Andy Fredricks tossed 26 yards to end Tom Moore.

New Zealander Driving Champ

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Denis Hulme, world driving champion and New Zealand's latest example of how to beat a man at his own game, is a king in search of a mount.

Hulme won the driving title Sunday with a surprise third place in the Mexican Grand Prix. Jim Clark of Scotland won the auto race in spectacular fashion but had no hope of keeping the title out of New Zealand or Australian hands.

The quiet Kiwi is the first New Zealander to win the championship invented by Europeans but he's not sure he'll try for a repeat in 1968 in the same type car he drove this year.

"I'll decide in a month or two what I'll do,' Hulme said. "I don't know yet whose car I'll drive next year."

Crusaders Get 19-6 Decision

The Hudson Valley Crusaders won their sixth game in eight starts, 19-6, Sunday over the Schenectady Stormers. About 750 watched the game at Poughkeepsie's Riverview Field.

Roger Myrick scored from two yards out to put the winners on the board in the first quarter.

In the second period, Gar Withers passed 35 yards to Murray Mulligan. A 25 yard toss from Jim Gordon to Chip McDowell completed the scoring for the Crusaders.

Good RBI Man

In his first two full seasons with the Detroit Tigers outfielder Willie Horton has batted in 204 runs. He drove in 100 in 1966.

NL Record

Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves tied a National League record last season when he drove in 127 runs. It was the fourth time he led the league.

The three door sedan.

This Volkswagen has a door on the left to let in the driver. (That's one.) A door on the right to let in the passengers. (That's two.) And a door in the back which is like the tailgate of a conventional wagon. (That's the third, and do you need any more than that?)

To look at it, you'd swear our Squareback is a station wagon. But it really isn't.

Why? Well for one thing it doesn't cost like one.

For another, it doesn't park like one. (The Squareback is only six inches longer than the bug. But has three times the storage capacity.)

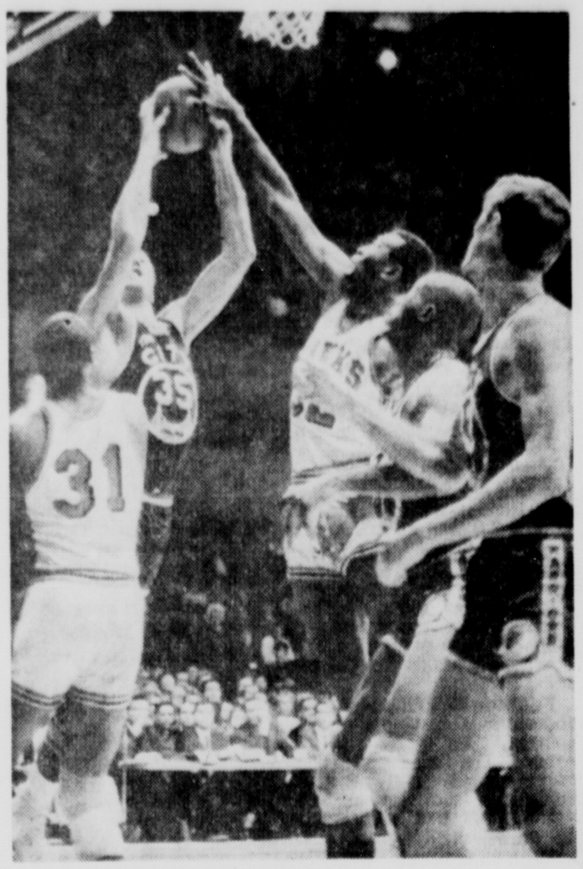

And since it's a Volkswagen you can be pretty sure it'll use about half as much gasoline as the average wagon. (Our Squareback gets up to 27 miles per gallon.)

So if you're trying to decide between a station wagon and a sedan, why not get the best of two worlds? Buy the sedan that looks like a station wagon.

Kickers' Rally Nips Dalmatinacs, 3 to 2

ST. LOUIS HAWKS' Bill Bridges (32) makes what appears to be a clean block on basket attempt by San Francisco Warriors' Rudy La Russo (35) in the last period of the Hawks-Warriors game in St. Louis. Instead a foul was called on Bridges. Watching the action are the Hawks' Zelmo Beaty (31), Warriors Al Attles (2nd R) and Clyde Lee (R). (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Reinhardt Goal Is the Clincher

Kingston Sport Club's high flying Kickers again reverted to their Jack Armstrong formula to edge a tough Dalmatinac eleven of New York, 3-2, Sunday to retain a tie for the League Division lead in the German-American Soccer Association.

Jim Reinhardt's booming 40-yard free kick goal over the goalie's head furnished the clincher 5 minutes from the finish.

The win kept the Kickers tied with Yonkers, 3-1 winners over BW Poughkeepsie, at 11 points on 5 wins, a tie and a loss.

Bavarians nipped White Plains, 1-0, and moved past them into third place with 10 points. The Plainsmen are in fourth with 9 points.

Kingston faces a crucial test at Bavarian next Sunday, then returns to Oehler's Field to meet Poughkeepsie BW on Nov. 5.

Trail at Half

Outplayed in the first half when they trailed 2-0, the Kickers didn't hit the scoreboard until the 70-minute mark when Obbie Elliott-Asare rifled a goal into the corner of the net.

A newcomber to the Kickers' lineup — Yugoslavian Kasim Selimatic — tied the score at 2-2 five minutes later when he chested a rebound off the post by Wally Grasmeier.

Reinhardt's winning goal was a terrific blast that still had plenty of momentum when it sailed over the Dalmatinac goalie's head from 40 yards out.

Visitors Wilt

The combination of a grass field and high temperatures told on the Dalmatinacs who, in the first half, looked like the best club the locals have seen in the new season.

Jake Fros got a starting assignment in place of Reiner Schwebel, who missed the game because of an out of town commitment.

The Kingston lineup:

Goalie—Timo Liekoski; RFB—Lee Roberts; LFB—Bill Newmershinsky; RHB—Tony Reinhardt; CHB—Winnie Soddermann; LHB—Jake Fros; OR—Richie Lotze; IR—Obbie Elliott-Asare; CF—Eugene Ventrigila; IL—Jon Weber; OL—Walt Grasmeir.

State U. Booters Rip Fredonia, 7-0

Angelo Targia scored three goals and the Hawks of New Paltz State reached the .500 mark with a 7-0 SUNYAC soccer verdict Saturday over visiting Fredonia State.

Coach Bob Durkin's booters are now 3-3 for the season. They play Wednesday at Adelphi and return home Saturday for an encounter with Bridgeport.

After a scoreless first period, Clem Mbadinuja put the home side in front with a goal at 12:15 of the second period. Targia received an assist on this one.

Before the quarter ended, Targia tallied after taking a pass from Dan Greaves and Mbadinuju, assisted by Abdi Yunis, connected for his second goal.

Targia beat the Fredonia goalie in the third quarter with Greaves picking up another assist. Then, Targia scored on a penalty kick and Pete Kane also put one through the nets with Yunis giving him the pass.

In the final period, Graves, taking a pass from Mal Hopper, finished the scoring with his only goal of the game.

The Hawks took 33 shots against only 12 for the losers. New Paltz goalie Ed Johann recorded his third shutout and second in succession.

First ABL Victory For New Colonels

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A pass from the Army and a spark from the bench set up the Kentucky Colonels for their first American Basketball Association victory Sunday night. Lou Dampier, former University of Kentucky star on a weekend pass from the National Guard at Ft. Knox, Ky., dropped in 2 points, in the 106-96 victory over Minnesota. His two field goals put the Colonels ahead to stay 94-93 with 3:18 left.

He had plenty of help from Steward Johnson, who came off the bench in the second period and pocketed 22 points, including four three-point baskets beyond the 25-foot range.

Only 2,000 turned out to see Dallas lose its first game in two starts, dropping a 121-101 decision to unbeaten Indiana.

Fred Lewis scored 27 points and Roger Brown 26 as the Pacers won their fifth game. Bob Verga had 31 for Dallas, which fell behind, 15-13, and never caught up.

In the National Basketball Asssociation, Cincinnati and San Francisco beat the two expansion teams, Seattle and San Diego.

Jerry Lucas and Oscar Robertson powered a second-half Royal rally for a 106-94 victory over Seattle as Lucas hit 26 points and collected 24 rebounds and the Big O added 23 points and nine assists.

Nate Thurmond was the whole story in San Francisco's 137-126 triumph over San Diego as he scored 37 points and hauled in 26 rebounds. The Warriors took a 77-70 halftime lead and never trailed in the final half.

Hadl's Three Pitches Keep Chargers Rolling

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Sid Gillman of San Diego doesn't worry anymore about John Hadl giving up the foot ball, but those shapely blondes are starting to give him trouble.

It began Sunday, more unexpectedly than the Chargers' showing this year, when a gal dashed from the stands in the third quarter, grabbed up the football at the line of scrimmage and refused to give it back.

It was about the only game the surprising Chargers have lost this year as they ran their record to 5-0-1 with a 38-21 victory over Denver on Hadl's three touchdown pitches in the last half.

The victory kept them the American League's only unbeaten team and still atop the Western Division, a half-game ahead of Oakland.

The Raiders easily ran their record to 5-1 behind Daryle Lamonica's four scoring passes that carried them to a 48-14 rout over Boston and set up a clash against San Diego next Sunday.

The league's defending champions, Kansas City, fell further behind when Houston upset them 24-19, while the New York Jets continued to roll along as the Eastern Division leader with a 34-14 triumph over Miami.

Man of the Hour

Hadl, troubled by interceptions during his six-year AFL career, was the man of the hour for the Chargers. He shook off two thefts on his first three tosses against the Broncos to snap a 14-14 deadlock with scoring passes of 66 yards to Dick Post, five yards to Willie Frazier and 67 yards to Lance Alworth.

While Hadl was pulling out the game for San Diego, a gal who said her name was Beverly Hutchison of Colorado was the woman of the hour.

She came out of the east stands, vaulted a three-foot-high fence and swiped the football just as the Denver center moved over it. Stunned officials tried to get it back, and then ushers and police officers pleaded in vain after she returned to the stands.

Lamonica Responds

Oakland, keeping it a man's game, handed Lamonica the ball and he responded by throwing one TD pass and setting up two field goals for a 20-0 halftime lead. When the Patriots closed to 20-7, he demolished them with three more payoff tosses, and then expressed dissatisfaction.

"I'd rather be lucky than good," said Houston Coach Wally Lemm. "We just got the early breaks and that did it for us."

He was talking about the 24-3 lead the Oilers grabbed in the first half on Zeke Moore's 92-yard scoring kickoff return, Jim Norton's 23-yard TD return of an intercepted screen pass and Larry Carwell's 33-yard punt return that set up a 45-yard field goal. Houston's offense got its only touchdown as Pete Beathard punished his former mates with a 39-yard scoring pass.

The Chiefs, 3-3, rallied for two TDs and another field goal, but a final chance was lost on a fumble at the Houston 31 with 2:50 left in the game.

Joe Namath got the Jets clocking, hitting 13 of 15 passes for 189 yards and two touchdowns and a 24-0 halftime lead before sitting out the last half with a charley horse.

Emerson Boozer clung to his league-leading point total by catching one of Namath's scoring passes and running for another TD as the Jets ran their record to 4-1-1.

Wappingers Routs Saugerties, 46-0

Striking by land and through the air, powerful Indians of Wappingers Falls overwhelmed Saugerties High, 46-0, in a IDCSL mismatch Saturday at the Roy Ketchum field in Wappingers.

Tied with Poughkeepsie for first place in the tight race, the home side scored once in the first quarter and twice in each of the other periods. Saugerties didn't pose a serious threat to the winners, who have still to yield their first points of the season.

Halback Ed Raab ignited the fuse for the Indians. He took a 32 yard scoring pass from Ed Bonnett in the opening session. He also ran 55 yards after taking a second quarter punt. This scamper broke the backs of the Sawyers, who moved the ball well during the first half.

Charles McKinney, the other halfback, scored on runs of six and 19 yards. Bill Parkton raced over from the two. Bill Gates took it in from four yards out and Parkton climaxed the happy afternoon for the home side with a 10 yard scoring pass from Bonnett.

The Fallsmen picked up more than 400 yards, running for 277 and passing for 192. Saugerties rushed for 147 yards but the SHS passing game was nullified by a strong secondary.

Another key in the triumph by the unbeaten but once tied Fallsmen was the punting and kicking off of Dan Sheppard. His talented toe kept the visitors deep in their territory most of the game.

Warwick Shocks Port Team, 33-13

Warwick Central, the Orange County League champion, spotted Port Jervis a pair of first quarter touchdowns and then buried the previously unbeaten Raiders, 33-13, in an upset Saturday at the Warwick field.

The Raiders went 67 yards after putting the opening kickoff in play with halfback Garrett Hill pushing over from the five and Carl Degroat adding the PAT.

Just moments later, defensive end Bill Clary picked off a pitchout and ran 29 yards to paydirt. After that, the game belonged to the Wildcats.

Jose Guadalupe ran three yards for a score and passed for 10 and 18 yards to Tom Barnes. Later in the game, Wade Lawes went 52 yards with an interception and Guadalupe climaxed the scoring with a drive from the one.

So dominant were the winners they picked up 324 yards on the ground while holding the Raiders to only 158.

Murle's Eagle Wins Carlsbad

CARLSBAD, N.M. (AP) — Murle Lindstrom says the Riverside Country Club nine-hole course — the only one on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour in 1967 — makes the players work on their approach game.

So, Mrs. Lindstrom, a 28-year-old mother of two from Largo, Fla., teed off on the 15th hole Sunday with that in mind. Her drive landed 190 yards shy. She picked out her three-iron and sent the ball dribbling into the cup for an eagel on the par-4 hole.

Those two strokes, sandwiched between two birdies, gave Mrs. Lindstrom the strokes she neebed in forging a five-under par, Riverside record 67 for the championship of the Carlsbad Ladies Open Golf Tournament.

Of the $11,000 distributed to the women pros, Mrs. Lindstrom takes home $1,650 for her 54-hole total of even par 77-72-67—216. One stroke back was second-round leader Sandra Haynie, who won $1,310 for her 73-72-72—217.

Sawchuk and His Kings Getting the Last Laugh

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Los Angeles' laughing stock Kings are the National Hockey League's only undefeated team and maybe NHL's expansion draft wasn't so funny after all.

The Kings selected veteran goalie Terry Sawchuk in the draft and surrounded him with a band of inexperience youngsters, prompting the consensus that they had done the poorest job of picking. So naturally, they're leading the NHL's expansion West Division.

Sawchuk made his first start Sunday night and was brilliant, as the Kings ripped Chicago 5-3. It was the sixth straight loss for the limping Black Hawks — the second in two nights against expansion teams — and shoved Chicago deeper into the East Division cellar.

Elsewhere, New York showered 51 shots at Pittsburgh goalie Les Binkley and topped the Penguins 6-4, Philadelphia won its third straight, trimming California 5-2 and Paul Henderson's third period goal gave Detroit a 1-0 decision over St. Louis and Glenn Hall.

In Saturday night's games, New York stopped Toronto 5-3, Montreal whipped Boston 4-2, Pittsburgh slugged Chicago 4-2, Minnesota topped California 3-1 and St. Louis battled to a 3-3 tie with Los Angeles.

Sawchuk, 37, kicked out 42 shots — 19 of them in the final period — as the Black Hawks buzzed around Los Angeles' goal. The Kings erased a 2-0 Chicago lead, scoring four times in the second period. Bill Flett, Brian Kilrea, Lowell MacDonald and Brian Smith scored the goals.

Los Angeles' five goal scorers had a total of 109 NHL games experience before this season — exactly 800 less than Sawchuck has played.

Orland Kurtenbach scored two goals for the Rangers who pounded away at Binkley and finally broke the game open in the third period.

Name DiMaggio VP at Oakland

CHICAGO (AP) — Joe DiMaggio, one of baseball's all-time greats, is back in the game as executive vice president of the new Oakland Athletics.

DiMaggio signed a two-year contract to run the club for Charles O. Finley, the insurance tycoon who last week succeeded in getting his American League franchise shifted from Kansas City to Oakland.

"I'm looking forward to working iwth Joe DiMaggio, one of the greatest names in the history of baseball," Finley said Sunday. "I'm tremendously pleased Joe is joining the Athletics. His knowledge of the game and reputation will be a great help to our young players."

ZONING ORDINANCE
For The
TOWN OF HURLEY
NEW YORK
Adopted by the Town Board of the Town of Hurley
September 25, 1967 at the West Hurley Fire House

SECTION I.—TITLE AND SCOPE

A. Scope
An ordinance regulating and restricting the location, construction, alteration, occupancy, and use of buildings and structures and the use of land in the Town of Hurley and for said purposes dividing the Town into zoning districts.

B. Title
This ordinance shall be known and may be cited as "The Zoning Ordinance of the Town of Hurley, New York."

C. Enacting Clause and Purposes
This Ordinance is enacted pursuant to the Town Law of the State of New York, Chapter 62 of the Consolidated Laws, Article 16, to protect and promote public health, safety, morals, comfort, convenience, economy, town esthetics, and the general welfare, and for the following additional purposes:

1. To promote and effectuate the orderly physical development of the Town of Hurley;
2. To encourage the most appropriate use of land in the community in order to conserve and enhance the value of property;
3. To prevent the spread of strip business development and provide for more adequate and suitably-located commercial facilities;
4. To create a suitable system of open spaces and recreation areas, and to protect and enhance existing wooded areas, scenic areas, and waterways;
5. To regulate building densities in order to assure access of light and circulation of air, in order to facilitate the prevention and fighting of fires, in order to prevent undue concentration of population, and in order to lessen congestion on streets and highways, and in order to provide efficient municipal utility services;
6. To improve transportation facilities and traffic circulation, and to provide adequate off-street parking and loading facilities;
7. To realize a development plan properly designed to conserve the use of land and the cost of municipal services;
8. To assure privacy for residences and freedom from nuisances and things harmful to the senses;
9. To protect the community against unsightly, obtrusive and noisome land uses and operations; and
10. To enhance the esthetic aspects throughout the entire community and maintain its present character and natural beauty.

SECTION II. ESTABLISHMENT OF DISTRICTS

A. Names of Zoning Districts
In order to fulfill the purpose of this Ordinance, The Town of Hurley establishes and is hereby divided into the following seven (7) zoning districts:

B. Zoning Map
The location and boundaries of said zoning districts are shown on the map entitled "Zoning Map" adopted on and certified by the Town Clerk. Said map together with everything shown thereon and all amendments thereto is hereby adopted and is declared to be an appurtenant part of this Ordinance.

C. Interpretation of District Boundaries
Where uncertainty exists with respect to the boundaries of any of the aforesaid districts as shown on the Zoning Map, the following rules shall apply:

1. Where district boundaries are indicated as approximately following the centerlines or right-of-way lines of streets, highways, public utility easements, or watercourses, said boundaries shall be construed to be coincident with such lines. Such boundaries shall be deemed to be automatically moved if a centerline or right-of-way line of such street, highway, public utility or watercourse is moved a maximum of 50 feet.
2. Where district boundaries are indicated as approximately following the Town boundary line, property lines, lot lines or projections thereof, said boundaries shall be construed to be coincident with such lines or projections thereof.
3. Where district boundaries are so indicated that they are approximately parallel to the Town boundary line, property lines, lot lines, right-of-way lines, or projections thereof, said boundaries shall be construed as being parallel thereto and at such distances therefrom as indicated on the Zoning Map or as shall be determined by the use of the scale shown on the Zoning Map.
4. Where a district boundary line divides a lot in a single or joint ownership of record at the time such line is established, the regulations for the less restricted portion of such lot shall extend not more than 30 feet into the more restricted portion.
5. In all other cases, where not dimensioned, the location of boundaries shown on the map shall be determined by the use of the scale appearing thereon.

D. Application of District Regulations
Except as hereinafter provided:

1. No land or building shall hereafter be used, occupied, erected, moved or altered unless in conformity with the regulations hereinafter specified for the District in which it is located.
2. No building shall hereafter be erected or altered
   (a) to exceed the maximum height;
   (b) to occupy a greater percentage of lot area;
   (c) to accommodate or house a greater number of families; or
   (d) to have narrower or smaller front yard, rear yard, side yard or other open space than is required for the District in which such building is located.
3. No part of a yard or other open space required about any building shall be included as part of a yard or other open space similarly required for another building.
4. No off-street parking or loading space required for one building or use shall be included as meeting, in whole or part, the off-street parking or loading space required for another building or use except as provided in Section VB2.
5. No off-street parking or loading space shall be as reduced in area that it does not meet the requirements of this Ordinance.

SECTION III. USE REGULATIONS

A. Permitted Uses
No building or premises shall be erected, altered, or used except for one or more of the uses designated for any district as follows:
Symbols: (P) Designates a use permitted by right, and

Tobacco processing, exclusive of cigar or cigarette manufacture
Vinegar, pickle, or sauerkraut manufacture in bulk Wool pulling or scouring, except in connection with a woolen mill
Yeast manufacture

SECTION IV AREA AND BULK REGULATIONS

A. Purpose
In order to provide adequate open spaces for access of light and circulation of air, to facilitate the prevention and fighting of fires, to prevent undue concentration of population, and to lessen congestion on streets, no building or premises shall be erected, altered or used except in accordance with the standards set forth in this Section.

B. Density Control Schedule
The attached schedule of density control regulations is hereby adopted and declared to be a part of this Ordinance and is hereinafter referred to as the "Density Control Schedule."

C. Corner Lots
Wherever a side or rear yard is adjacent to a street, the standards for front yards shall apply.

D. Projections into Required Yards
The following projections into required yards may be permitted:
Open fire escapes — four feet into side or rear yards
Awnings or movable canopies — six feet into any yard
Cornices, eaves and other similar architectural features — three feet into any yard
Any open or enclosed porch or carport shall be considered a part of the building in the determination of the size of the required yard or lot coverage.
Accessory uses not enclosed in a building may be located in a required rear yard subject to the provisions of Secton VA5.

E. Height Exceptions
District building height regulations shall not apply to flagpoles, radio or television antennae, transmission towers or cables, spires or cupolas, chimneys, elevator or stair bulkheads, penthouses, parapets or railings, water tanks or cooling towers, or any similar structures, provided that such structure in their aggregate coverage occupy no more than 10% of the roof area of the building.

(a) None required, but if provided shall be at least 12.5 feet.

F. Compliance with Maximum Average Residential Density

1. In all districts where residences are permitted, a lot held in single ownership may be improved for residential use according to the minimum lot size per family and bulk regulations for each district as set forth in the Density Control Schedule, provided that there shall be no more than one principal building and use on each lot. Where two or more principal residential structures are permitted by this Ordinance to be located on the same lot, the minimum average density requirement must be complied with.
2. A residential lot of required or larger than required size as set forth in this Ordinance shall not be reduced in size for transfer of ownership if such lot so subdivided will form two or more lots which shall not be in compliance with the requirements for the maximum average residential density for the district in which such lot or lots are situated, except as provided in Section VK.

G. Side Yards for Semi-detached Dwellings
Side yards for semi-detached dwellings shall be required at the ends of the total structure only.

H. Distance Between Principal Buildings on Same Lot
No detached principal building shall be closer to any other principal building on the same lot than the average heights of said buildings.

A. General Provisions

1. Customary home Occupations: In any district, nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent an individual from conducting his business, trade or profession in his home or residence, provided that no more than two persons be employed in addition to the owner or tenant of the property; that no other professional shall be permitted to share, let, or sublet space for professional use; that there be no external evidence of such use except for one sign not exceeding 2 square feet in area; and that there shall not be any exterior storage of materials or equipment. The conducting of a hospital, barber shop, clinic, beauty shop, animal hospital, nursery school shall not be deemed a customary home occupation.
2. Excavations: Any proposed excavation adversely affecting natural drainage or structural safety of adjoining buildings or lands shall be prohibited. Excavations shall not create any noxious or injurious substance or condition, or cause public hazard.
   In any district, excavation relating to the construction, on the same lot, of a building or structure for which a building permit has been issued shall be permitted. In the event that construction of a building or structure is stopped prior to completion, and the building permit is allowed to expire, the premises shall immediately be cleared of any rubbish, or building materials, and any excavation with a depth greater than two feet below existing grade shall immediately be filled in and the topsoil replaced, or all such excavations shall be entirely surrounded by a substantial fence at least six feet high that will effectively block access to the area in which the excavation is located.
   For excavations for soil mining, see Subsection F of this Section.
3. Activity Standards: In any district, the following standards for activities shall apply:
   a. No offensive or objectionable vibration, odor, or glare shall be noticeable at or beyond the property line.
   b. No activity shall create a physical hazard by reason of fire, explosion, radiation, or other such cause, to persons or property in the same or adjacent district.

Section V, Supplementary Regulations

   c. There shall be no discharge of any liquid or solid waste into any stream or body of water or any public or private disposal system or into the ground, of any materials of nature that may contaminate any water supply, including ground water supply.
   d. There shall be no storage of any materials either indoors or outdoors in such a manner that it facilitates the breeding of vermin, or endangers health in any way.
   e. The emission of smoke, fly ash, or dust which can cause damage to the health of persons, animals, or plant life or to other forms of property shall be prohibited.
4. Planned New Streets: After the planned right-of-way line for future streets, for future extensions of existing streets, or for future street widening is established on the Official Map, if any, buildings and structures shall be set back from such line as though it were a street line.
5. Accessory Buildings and Uses: Accessory buildings not attached to principal buildings shall be located no closer to the principal building than 12 feet or a distance equal to the height of each accessory building—whichever is greater.
   In a residential district, accessory uses not enclosed in a building, including swimming pools and tennis court, shall be located only on the same lot as the principal structure, may not be located in the side or front yards of such lot and shall be distant not less than 20 feet from any lot line nor less than 10 feet from the principal structure, and shall not adversely affect the character or any residential neighborhood by reason of noise or glare or safety. No boat nor truck over 1½ ton capacity shall be stored on any residential lot except in the rear yard and not closer than the required side yard to any side lot line.
6. Corner Clearance: For the purpose of minimizing traffic hazards at street intersection, on any corner lot, no obstructions between a height of two and one-half feet and ten feet above the adjacent top-of-curb elevation shall be permitted to be planted, placed, erected or maintained within the triangular area formed by the intersecting pavement lines, or their projections—where corners are rounded—and a straight line joining the pavement lines at points 50 feet distance from their point of intersection.
7. Fences and Walls: In any residence district, walls and fences up to six feet in height shall be permitted anywhere on a lot except where corner sight clearances are required for traffic safety. In any business or industry district, there shall be no restriction on fences or walls, except on a residential district boundary line where such fences or walls shall be limited to eight feet in height and except where corner clearances are required.
8. Commercial Parking Lots: Commercial parking lots shall comply with the provisions of Paragraph B, subparagraph 4, 8 and 9 of this Section.
9. Transition Requirement: Where a lot in a Business District abuts a lot in a Residence District, there shall be provided along such side or rear lot line in the Business District abutting a Residence District a wall, fence, compact evergreen hedge or a landscaped strip of trees or shrubs so designed as to form a visual screen not less than six feet in height at the time of planting. Except for landscaped areas and parking areas, a use which is not conducted within a completely enclosed building shall be screened by a six-foot solid masonry wall, chain link fence covered with an evergreen vine, or compact evergreen hedge.
   Where a lot in an industrial district abuts a lot in a residential district, such lot in the industrial district shall meet the requirements of Section V, C, 4, b, (5) and Section V, C., 4, b., (7).

B Off-Street Parking and Loading Regulations
In all districts, off-street automobile parking spaces and truck loading areas for the various permitted uses shall be required at the time any of the main buildings or structures of such uses are constructed or altered, as follows:

1. Required Off-Street Automobile Parking Spaces: The minimum cumulative number of spaces shall be determined by the amount of dwelling units, bedrooms, floor area, members, equipment, employees, and/or seats contained in such new buildings or structures, or added by alteration of building or structures, and such minimum number of spaces shall be maintained by the owners of such buildings or structures, as follows:
   a. Office, Business, and Commercial Uses:
      For retail business or service, bank, or post office, one space for each 300 square feet of customer floor area.
      For office, including professional, personal service, public utility, or public, one space for each 300 sq. feet of gross office floor area.
      For restaurant, bar, or nightclub, one space for each 50 square feet of customer floor area.
      For funeral home, one space for each five seats of auditorium capacity.
      For any commercial use, one space for each company vehicle.
      For hotel, one space for each two bedrooms.
      For motel and vacation resort, one space for each bedroom, plus one space for each four employees.
      Spaces in municipal parking lots, designed to serve non-governmental uses where provided, may be credited toward the parking requirements for these non-residential uses, provided that:
      (1) these spaces are within 400 feet of the uses to be served;
      (2) the parking needs of existing facilities (within 400 feet and computed on the same basis as for new facilities) are satisfied first, and only excess capacity is used for this purpose; and
      (3) a special permit for such use is obtained from the Zoning Board of Appeals.
   b. Light Industrial Uses:
      One space for each 400 square feet of floor area devoted to manufacture, including printing, publishing, and laundry or dry cleaning plants.
      One space for each 2,000 square feet of floor area devoted to storage or stationary operating equipment.
      One space for each 3,000 square feet of area devoted to outside storage, including used car lots and equipment rental or sales yards.
      For any industrial use, one space for each company vehicle.
   c. Public and Semi-Public Uses:
      For places of public assembly, (including churches), one space for each six seats of auditorium or stadium capacity.
      For elementary school or day nursery, two spaces for each classroom.
      For high school or college, five spaces for each classroom.
      For museum, art gallery, institution, or philanthropic use, one space for each 800 square feet of gross floor area.
      For hospital, sanitarium, nursing or convalescent home, one space for each two beds.
      For club, one space for each 200 square feet of gross floor area.
   d. Recreational Uses:
      For dance hall, one space for each 50 square feet of dance floor area.
      For golf course, bowling alley, or billiard hall, four spaces for each tee, alley or table.
      For skating rinks, one parking space for each 250 sq. feet of area available for skating.
   e. Residential Uses:
      For dwellings, one space for each dwelling unit, to be provided on a buildable portion of the lot.
      Customary home occupation or professional office in a dwelling unit, one space for each 200 square feet devoted to such customary home occupation or professional office plus the required space per dwelling unit.
      Boarding house, one space for each bedroom.
   f. For uses not listed herein, as established by the Zoning Board of Appeals.
2. Calculation of required spaces: In the case of a combination of uses, the total requirements for off-street automobile parking spaces shall be the sum of the requirements for the various uses, unless it can be proven that staggered hours of use would permit modification. Whenever a major fraction of a space is required, a full space shall be provided.
3. Dimensions for Off-Street Automobile Parking Spaces: Every such space provided shall be at least nine feet wide and 20 feet long, and every space shall have direct and usable driveway access to a street or alley with minimum meaneuver area between spaces as follows:
   a. Parallel Curb Parking: Five feet end to end with 12-foot aisle width for one-directional flow and 24-foot aisle width for two-directional flow.
   b. 30° Parking: 13-foot aisle width for one-directional flow and 26-foot aisle width for two-directional flow.
   c. 45° Parking: 16-foot aisle width for one-directional flow and 26-foot aisle width for two-directional flow.
   d. 60° Parking: 21-foot aisle width for one-directional flow and 26-foot aisle width for two-directional flow.
   e. Prependicular Parking: 26-foot aisle width for one-direction and two-direction flow.
4. Location of Required Spaces: In any residential district, required automobile parking spaces shall be provided on a buildable portion of the same lot and shall not encroach on any required yards, or required open area.
   In busness districts or industrial districts, such spaces shall be provided on the same lot, or not more than 400 feet therefrom.
   No open or enclosed parking area shall encroach on any required front yard or required open areas. Open parking areas may encroach on a required side or rear yard to within (3) three feet of a property line.
   No entrance and exit drives connecting the parking area and the street shall be permitted within twenty-five (25) feet of the intersection of two public rights-of-way.
5. Required Off-Street Truck Loading Areas:
   For funeral homes, one berth for each chapel.
   For hotels, motels and vacation resorts, one berth for floor area in excess of 10,000 sq. feet.
   For office, business, and commercial uses, one berth for 10,000 square feet to 25,000 square feet of floor area and one additional berth for each additional 25,000 square feet of floor area.
   For manufacturing and permitted industrial uses, one berth for the first 10,000 square feet of floor area and one additional berth for each additional 40,000 square feet of floor area.
   For other permitted non-residential uses, one berth for 10,000 square feet to 25,000 square feet of floor area, and one additional berth for each additional 25,000 square feet of floor area, unless it can be proven that truck deliveries shall not exceed one vehicle per day.
6. Dimensions for Off-Street Loading Berths: Each required loading berth (open or enclosed) shall have the following minimum dimension: 35 feet long, 12 feet wide, and 14 feet high, except that berths for funeral homes may be 20 feet long, 10 feet wide and 8 feet high.
7. Location of Required Berths: All off-street loading areas shall be located on the same lot as the use for which they are permitted or required. Open off-street loading areas shall not encroach on any required front or side yard, access way or off-street parking area, except that in Business Districts off-street parking areas where they exist may be used for loading or unloading, provided that such spaces shall not be so used for more than (3) three hours during the daily period that the establishment is open for business.
   The location, number, size, and design of loading and unloading areas, for non-residential uses and the access ways thereto shall require the approval of the Planning Board prior to the issuance of a building permit or certificate of occupancy by the Building Inspector.
8. Construction of Parking Areas. Parking areas shall be paved with an all-weather surface of asphalt or concrete and suitably drained. The individual spaces shall be visibly marked with paint or other durable material. Parking areas to be used at night shall be lighted. All lights shall be shaded or so directed as not to cause glare on adjoining residential properties and shall be so directed so as not to cause a traffic hazard due to glare or color.
9. Landscaping: At least eight percent of the area of the lot usable for off-street parking shall be devoted to landscaping with lawn, trees, shrubs or other plant material. All loading berths and parking areas of three or more spaces that abut a residential lot line, and any parking lot for more than 20 cars shall be screened by a six-foot high solid masory wall, or compact evergreen hedge or a landscaped strip of trees and shrubs so designed as to form a visual screen from the adjoining property. All parking areas and landscaping shall be properly maintained thereafter in a sightly and well kept condition.

C. Light Industrial District Regulations
The Town Board may, after Planning Board review, public notice and hearing, approve the development of a parcel of land for light industrial use and establish a special Light Industrial district for such development to be imposed on any A, and B-2 district subject to the following conditions:

1. Location and Minimum Required Acreage of Site:
   A districts ..... 5 acres
   B-2 districts ..... 2 acres
2. Application of Regulations: Individual uses and structures in a Light industrial district need not comply with the specific building location, height, lot size, and open space requirements of the underlying basic district. The overlay superimposes the regulations for Light industrial district upon the underlying district.
3. Use Regulations:
   a. Permitted uses:
      (1) Any use permitted by right in an I-1 district.
      (2) Any use permitted by special permit in I-1 districts subject to the favorable approval thereof by the Board of Appeals.
   b. Prohibited uses:
      (1) Residential uses, except dwelling of caretakers and any and all residential uses made and permitted prior to the establishment of such I-1 district in accordance with this Sub-Section be allowed to continue as so permitted heretobefore.
      (2) All prohibited industrial uses as so listed in Section IIIB of this Ordinance.
      (3) Any use, although expressly allowed as a permitted use, shall be prohibited if the particular application of such use does not comply with the specified performance standards for a use in the I-1 district.
4. Performance Standards:
   a. General standards: The following general standards are hereby adopted for the control of uses in any Light Industrial district and no use shall be permitted, established, maintained, or conducted therein which shall cause or be likely to cause:
      (1) Excessive smoke, fumes, gas, dust, odor, or any other atmospheric pollutant beyond the boundaries of the lot whereon such use is located. What smoke is excessive shall be determined according to the Ringelmann's Scale for Grading the Density of Smoke, published by the U.S. Bureau of Mines, when the shade or appearance of such smoke is darker than No. 2 on said Ringelmann Smoke Chart.
      (2) Noise, perceptible beyond the boundaries of the lot occupied by such use causing the same.
      (3) Any pollution by discharge of any waste material whatsoever into any watercourse, open ditch or land surface.
      (4) Discharge of any waste material whatsoever into any sanitary disposal system or sewerage system, except only in accordance with the rules of and under the control of public health authorities or the public body controlling such sewerage system. Any chemical or industrial waste which places undue loads, as determined by the Town Engineer, shall not be discharged into any municipal system and must be treated by the industrial use.
      (5) Storage or stocking of any waste materials whatsoever.
      (6) Glare or vibration perceptible beyond the lot lines whereon such use is conducted.
      (7) Hazard to person or property by reason of fire, explosion, radiation, or other cause.
      (8) Any other nuisance harmful to persons or property.
   b. Specific standards: The following specific standards are hereby adopted and must be complied with, for and by any use in any Light Industrial district and before the same be permitted, established, maintained or conducted:
      (1) Storage Facilities: Materials, supplies, or semi-finished products shall be stored on the rear one-half of the property and shall be screened from any existing or proposed street.
      (2) Loading Docks: No loading docks shall be on any street frontage. Provisions for handling of all freight shall be on those sides of any building which do not face on any street or proposed streets.
      (3) Landscaping: It is hereby declared that all areas of the plot not occupied by buildings, parking, driveways or walkways, or storage shall be landscaped attractively with lawn, trees, shrubs or other plant material. Such landscaping shall take into consideration the natural growth presently on the premises and the nature and condition of the terrain as well as the situation of the lands and premises themselves and with regard to adjoining lands and premises.
      (4) Fences and Walls: Property that is adjacent to a Residential or Business District shall be provided along such property lines, with a wall, fence, compact evergreen hedge or a landscaped strip of trees and shrubs so designed as to form a visual screen not less than six feet high at the time of planting. Except for landscaped areas and parking areas, a use which is not conducted within a completely enclosed building shall be screened by a six-foot solid masonry wall, chain link fence covered with an evergreen vine, or compact evergreen hedge. Where a front yard adjoins a street, the wall, fence, or hedge shall be located no closer to the street than the depth of the required yard.
      (5) Off Street Parking and Loading: Refer to Sub-Section B of this Section.
      (6) Signs: Refer to Sub-Section E of this Section.
      (7) Buffer Strip: In addition to the fences and walls, the entire district must be separated along its outside boundary from any adjoining residential zones by a buffer strip, suitably landscaped, at least 100 feet wide.
   c. Proper and adequate water supply, swerage and waste disposal, other utility services, and accessibility to and from public streets must be provided.
   d. Special consideration must be given to the traffic generated by each proposed use in a Light Industrial district and no undue traffic volumes shall be permitted on residential streets. Such data is to be submitted with each petition for amendment. No access drive for any I-1 district shall be within 300 feet of and on the same side of the street as a school, public library, theater, church or other public gathering place, park, playground, or fire station unless a street 50 feet or more wide lies between such access drive and such building or use.
5. Area and Bulk Regulations:
   Area and Bulk requirements shall be in compliance with those for I-1 district as set forth in the Density Control Schedule of this Ordinance.
6. The Planning Board upon review of the proposed development may prescribe such additional conditions as are in its opinion necessary to secure the objectives of this Ordinance.
7. Procedure:
   Application for rezoning classification of a site shall be filed by the owner or several owners jointly, or the holder of a written option to purchase the site with the secretary to the Town Board in writing in a form required by the Town Board, and shall be accompanied by a certified check in the amount of $5.00 to help defray the cost of advertising the hearing on said petition and incidental disbursements. The applicant shall also submit the following:
   a. A plan of the site and surrounding areas drawn to scale and accurately dimensioned, showing the location of existing and proposed land use areas, lots, buildings, structures, parking and loading areas and access roads and streets, community facilities, and topography;
   b. The use and height of each proposed building or structure, yard lines, lot coverage, and the number of parking spaces in each proposed parking area, and the expected flow of traffic in and out of the area.
   c. Any additional data as may be requested by the Planning Board in order to determine the suitability of the tract for the proposed development.
   Each application shall be referred to the Planning Board. The Planning Board shall report its recommendations thereon to the Town Board, accompanied by a full statement of the reasons for such recommendations prior to the public hearing. If the Planning Board fails to report within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of notice or such longer time as may have been agreed upon by it and the Town Board, the Town Board may act without such report.
   The Town Board, by a resolution, shall fix the time and place of the public hearing and cause notice to be given as follows:
   a. By publishing a notice of the application and the time and place of the public hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the Town of Hurley as designated by the Town Board not less than ten days prior to the date of the public hearing.
   b. By giving notice of hearing to any required Municipal, County, State, or Federal Agency in the manner prescribed by Law. Upon approval of the proposed development the new district established shall be excepted from the provisions and controls of this Ordinance only to the extent specified in the approval, and such new district shall become a part of the regulations established herein, shall be enforced in the same manner, and be similarly subject to amendment, except that, if construction of the proposed development is not commenced within one year after approval of the Town Board, such approval shall be revoked and such area shall be subject to the requirements of the prior district regulations.

D. Gasoline Filling Stations
In any district where permitted, a gasoline filling station shall be subject to the following regulations:

1. Filling stations shall be permitted only on lots of 10,000 square feet or more, with 100 feet minimum frontage.
2. The area for use by motor vehicles, except access drives thereto, as well as any structures shall not encroach on any required yard area.
3. No fuel pump shall be located closer than 20 feet from any side lot line nor closer than 35 feet from any street line, measured from the outside edge of the fuel island.
4. No access drive shall be within 200 feet of and on the same side of the street as a school, public library, theatre, church or other public gathering place, park, playground or fire station unless a street 50 feet or more wide lies between such service station and such building or use.
5. All repair work, except emergency repairs and all storage shall be within a completely enclosed building which has a maximum height of 15 feet. Such repair work shall not include any body repair work or spray painting or car washing which requires mechanical equipment.

E. Sign Regulations
No sign or other device for advertising purpose of any kind may be erected or established in the municipality except and provided as follows:

1. Signs in Residential Districts: No sign or other device for advertising purposes of any kind may be erected or established in any Residential District except by permit or license issued pursuant to this ordinance and as hereafter provided or provided as follows:
   a. Permitted non-residential uses and legal non-conforming non-residential uses, but not including home occupations or day nurseries, may display signs pertaining to the use of property, having an aggregate total face area of not more than 32 square feet, and not projecting beyond the principal building of such use to which they are attached more than 24 inches, except that where such non-residential uses are set back from property lines, one sign may be erected in the ground provided that such ground sign shall not exceed 15 square feet in total face area, shall not exceed five feet in height, and such sign shall be no nearer than ten feet to any property line or road, whichever requires the greater set back. If such free standing signs face substantially at right angles to the road and/or display in more than one direction, they shall have a face area of not more than eight (8) square feet per side, with no more than two sides.
   b. Dwellings for five or more families may display non illuminated signs identifying the premises, having an aggregate total of not more than 12 square feet, and not projecting beyond the principal building on the lot more than 24 inches.
   c. Any dwelling unit in a detached or attached structure may display one name plate or professional sign not exceeding 4 (four) square feet in area.
2. Signs in General Business District: No more than two signs per business unit, having an aggregate total face area of not more than one square foot per lineal foot of principal frontage of the lot may be displayed, but not to exceed a total area of 50 square feet. Such signs shall not project more than five feet beyond the principal building on the lot, and there shall be no more than one projecting sign per business unit, provided further than such signs shall not extend more than 20 feet above the ground level or exceed the highest part of the building housing the business or service advertised, whichever is less restrictive. "Principal frontage" throughout this Sub-Section shall mean the frontage of the lot adjacent to the principal street in the case of a corner lot. Where a corner lot faces two principal business streets, only one such frontage shall be considered the "principal frontage."
3. Signs in Higway Business Districts and Light Industrial Districts: Two signs having an aggregate total face area of not more than 100 square feet may be displayed for each establishment provided that such signs shall be located no nearer than 10 feet to any property line and provided further that such signs shall not extend more than 20 feet above ground level or more than 5 feet above the height of the roof of a building at the point of location of the sign, whichever is less restrictive.
4. Representational Signs: No representational sign shall be permitted in any district except such sign as shall be approved by the Planning Board. Further, such sign shall not project more than 5 feet beyond the principal structure to which it is attached, and shall not have a face area of more than 15 square feet. Only one such sign per establishment shall be permitted.
5. Advertising Signs: Hereafter, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Ordinance, signs not pertaining to the use, sale, rent, or lease of property on the same lot, and signs not representing construction or subdivision activity as allowed, are not permitted in any district, except that signs for the

Nothing in this ordinance shall prohibit the storing or parking of an unoccupied camping or travel trailer, boat trailer or the temporary parking of an occupied house trailer on any residential lot provided such trailer shall not be located closer to the lot lines than the required yard for the district in which located. For the purposes of this ordinance temporary shall mean not longer than 30 days in any year.

H. Trailer Parks or Camps

Trailer Parks or Camps are allowed by Special Use Permit in "A" districts subject to the following regulations:

1. Park Size and Capacity: Each trailer park shall have a minimum area of 175,000 square feet, and shall contain no more than one trailer for each 3,500 square feet of gross area, including land uses for access roads, recreation and service facilities, and screen planting.
2. Size of Lots: No trailer lot shall be less than 2,000 square feet in area and have less than 12 feet of frontage on an access road.
3. Clearances: Trailers shall be located on the lot with the following minimum clearances.
   Sides—15 feet on each side to lot lines and a total of 50 feet on both sides from adjacent trailers and buildings; ends—20 feet from adjacent trailers, and 15 feet from access roads and lot line; and thirty feet from exterior lot lines. In computing these clearances, lean-to's, auxiliary rooms, and similar accessories connected to the trailer, but not including temporary porches and canopies which are open on two or more sides, shall be considered as part of the trailer.
4. Automobile Parking: There shall be at least one off-road parking space for each trailer within the trailer lot or within 50 feet of the trailer. In adddition, there shall be one off-road parking space for each 5 trailers within the park located throughout the park at places of public congregation.
5. Parking Bay: Each off-road parking space shall be at least 9 feet wide and at least 20 feet long and shall have convenient and ready access to a roadway.
6. Recreation Area: A usable area set aside exclusively for recreation shall be provided within the trailer park and shall be equal in area to 200 square feet for each trailer lot in the park.
7. Screening: Each trailer park shall have no more than one entrance road on any one street frontage and shall have a landscaped area at least 20 feet wide along exterior lot lines and street frontages, suitably planted and maintained to provide visual screening from adjacent properties.
8. Notwithstanding any provision of this ordinance, owners and/or lessees of property within the Town of Hurley, upon which house trailers have been situated and established prior to the enactment of said zoning ordinance, shall retain such previous rights and prerequisites pertaining thereto, in the same manner as any other dwelling, and including the right to substitute another house trailer in the place of the house trailer presently situated and established on said property.

I. Cemeteries and Crematories

No burial or memorial plats or buildings shall be located closer than 50 feet to any residential lot line, except that when a dense evergreen hedge or a wall or landscaped strip at least six feet in height providing complete visual screening from all adjacent residential property is provided, burial or memorial plats less than six feet in height may be located no closer than 20 feet from any residential lot line. Crematories shall be located only in cemeteries.

J. Sanitary Disposal

No person shall undertake to construct any new building or structure in the Town of Hurley without first meeting the requirements for a system, or facilities for, the separate disposal of water-borne sewage, domestic or trade wastes in accordance with applicable regulations of the Town, the Ulster County Department of Health and other governmental authorities.

K. Residential Cluster Development

In order to promote the health and general welfare of the community and to preserve and make available open space, the Town Planning Board may grant a developer the right to vary the residential density within a tract to be developed (but not maintained) under single ownership, leaving a substantial area free of building lots. The right to vary the density shall be subject to the following conditions:

The proposed residential development must create an attractive residential environment; produce a total average density as specified in Section IVB, provide aggregate open space to be no less than that required in the district in which it is located; have population density which will offer no adverse influence; guarantee permanent retention of "open areas" and insure care and maintenance of open space.

Development must start within 1 year of the date of approval and be completed within a reasonable time; it must be consistent to the spirit and intent of the Ordinance and plans must be prepared with competent professional advice.

1. Single-Family Detached Houses: Single-family detached houses may be grouped in clusters on minimum lot sizes and minimum lot widths as follows:

	Min. Lot Size	Min. Lot Widths
A Districts	25,000 square feet	125 feet
R-1 Districts	15,000 square feet	100 feet
R-2 Districts	10,000 square feet	80 feet

2. Special Designs: In cases where a developer has designed special groups of dwellings and garages, the Planning Board after inspecting plans and elevations may approve smaller minimum lot sizes than those in paragraph (2) provided that the sanitary systems are approved by the County Health Officer, that the average density does not exceed that permitted within the zoning district in which the land occurs or that the layout is not detrimental to the health and general welfare of the community.

For each square foot of land gained within a residential subdivision through the reduction of lot size below the required minimum average density requirements as set forth in the Ordinance, equal amounts of land shall be preserved and maintained as open land and the development rights thereto shall be conveyed to the Town of Hurley for as long as these structures shall exist.

The balance of the land not contained in the lots or the road right-of-way, if provided, shall be contiguous and of such size and shape as to be usable for recreation or agriculture.

Such land shall be held in corporate ownership by the owners of lots within the development and the developer shall incorporate into the deeds of all property within the development a clause giving to the owners an interest in such open land which shall be used for recreational or agricultural purposes only. No structure save those incidental to the recreational or agricultural use shall be permitted thereon.

Open land shall be a minimum of 3 acres and shall be subject to taxation, unless it is deeded to the Town. In the case of such tracts of 5 or more acres, the developer may petition to the Town to take over the land to be used in perpetuity as open space.

Any residential development proposed under the provision of this Sub Section shall follow all applicable procedures, standards, and requirements of the ordinance governing the sub-division of land in the Town of Hurley.

L. Historical District

It is hereby declared that the preservation of historic sites, areas, buildings and land marks located in the Town of Hurley is essential to the general welfare of the community and the purpose of this added section to the Zoning Ordinance is to:

a. Safeguard the heritage of the Town of Hurley by preserving a district in the Town which reflects its cultural, social, economic, political and architectural history;
b. Protect buildings, structures, and areas in the Town of Hurley which are recognized as national historic sites and landmarks;
c. Stabilize and improve property values;
d. Foster civic beauty;
e. Strengthen the local economy;
f. Promote the use of the historic district for the education, pleasure and welfare of the citizens of the community

Pursuant to these purposes there is hereby created in the Town of Hurley a district known as the "Historical District," with boundaries as shown on the Zoning Map.

2. Regulation of Structures: No structure shall be constructed, altered, repaired, moved or demolished in the historic district unless such action complies with the requirements hereinafter set forth.
3. Duties and Powers of the Town Planning Board: All plans for the construction, alteration, repair, or demolition of structures in the historic district shall first be submitted to the Town of Hurley Planning Board which shall have the power to pass upon such plans before a permit for such work shall be granted: provided, however, that the planning board shall pass only on such exterior features of a structure as are visible from the public way and shall not consider interior arrangements. In reviewing the plans, the Board shall give consideration to:
   a. The historical or architectural value and significance of the structure and its relationship to the historic value of the surrounding area;
   b. The general appropriateness of the exterior design, arrangement, texture and materials proposed to be used; and
   c. To any other factor, including aesthetic, which it deems pertinent.

In addition to the foregoing general standards, the following specific standards shall apply in appropriate cases:

Alterations, Repairs and Additions to existing buildings shall either be made consistent with the spirit of their architectural style or shall alter the structure to an appropriate appearance consistent with the architectural styles of historic value existing in the historic district.

New Construction shall be consistent with the architectural style of historic value in the historic district, except in such instances of new construction as the Board shall determine to be inappropriate because structures adjoining the site of such proposed new construction are of a significantly dissimilar period of architecture in which cases the Board may approve such periods of architecture as it deems proper for the site and the best interests of the historic district.

Demolition shall be prohibited in the case of all structures erected prior to 1850 unless the Board of Appeals is satisfied that the retention of such structures constitutes a hazard to public safety which hazard can not be eliminated by economic means available to the owner.

Demolition shall be prohibited of any structure erected subsequent to 1850 if the Board of Appeals shall determine it to be of a particular architectural or historical significance.

Moving of structures of historic or architectural value may be permitted by the Planning Board as an alternative to demolition.

The Building Inspector shall not issue a building permit until a certificate of approval of the plans has been issued by the Planning Board.

4. Procedure for Review of Plan: Application for a building permit to construct, alter, repair, move, or demolish any structure in the historic district shall be made to the building inspector. The application shall state that the property is in the historic district and plans shall be submitted showing the structure in question and also giving its relation to adjacent structures.

Upon the filing of such application, the Building Inspector shall immediately notify the Planning Board and shall transmit to such Board the application and any supporting plans or documents. The Planning Board shall consider such application and shall approve or disapprove the plans and, if it shall approve such plans, shall issue a certificate of approval and transmit the same to the Building Inspector.

If the Planning Board shall disapprove the plans, it shall so notify the Building Inspector who shall thereupon deny the application for a permit.

Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent ordinary maintenance or repair of any structure within the historic district.

5. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Planning Board or Build-inspector acting under this Sub-Section shall have the right to appeal to the Zoning Board of Appeals for a variance as provided by the Zoning Ordinance or general law.
6. Uses Permitted: As shown in Section IIIA, subject to the approval of the Planning Board as set forth herein.
7. Building Height, Limit, Lot Area and Yards: The provisions of the Zoning Ordinance governing the permitted height of buildings, the required lot area and the requirements of front, side and rear yards in the R-2 Residential District shall apply in the historic district.

M. Conditional Uses Allowed by Special Use Permit from the Zoning Board of Appeals

1. General Provisions
   Conditional Uses are hereby declared to possess characteristics which require that each specific use shall be considred an individual use. Any use for which a special use permit is granted by the Board of Appeals shall be deemed a use permitted in the District in which located, except that for any addition or enlargement of such use, a separate special use permit shall be required for each addition or enlargement. A conditional use must be in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance and shall effect only the lot or portion thereof for which it shall have been granted.
2. Required Plan
   A plan for the proposed development of a site for a permitted conditional use shall be submitted with the application for a special use permit to the Board of Appeals, and such plans shall show the location of all buildings, parking areas, traffic access and circulation drives, open spaces, landscaping, and any other pertinent information that may be necessary to determine if the proposed special use meets the requirements of the Ordinance.
3. Basis for Deliberation—General Provisions
   Before issuing a special use permit, the Board of Appeals shall take into consideration the public health, safety, morals and welfare and shall assure itself of the following:
   a. That there shall not be any detrimental effect by the establishment of such use on other uses within the District.
   b. That such use will be in harmony with the orderly development of the district and the location, nature and height of buildings, walls, fences and parking areas will not discourage the appropriate development and use of adjacent lands.
   c. That the use meets the prescribed requirements for the district in which located and the following prescribed provisions.

   In addition to the above general provisions the following uses shall comply with the following prescribed provisions.

   Retail Sale of Produce Grown on the Same Lot from a Road stand.
   a. At least 5 off-street parking spaces shall be provided.
   b. Ingress to and egress from such use shall be so arranged to provide minimum interference with through traffic on the street.
   c. Any lights in connection with such use shall be so arranged so as not to cause glare on adjacent properties.
   d. Three signs not exceeding in aggregate 50 square feet may be displayed for each establishment provided such signs shall be located no closer than 10 feet to any property line and provided further that such signs shall not extend more than 10 feet above the ground or if attached to the building shall not extend more than 5 feet above the height of the roof of the building at the point of location of the sign.

   Hospital, Nursing home, Convalescent Home, Sanitarium, Institution or Philanthropic Use.
   a. the total building area shall not exceed a lot coverage of 30%;
   b. primary access to such use shall not be a minor street or any other street designed to serve primarily as access to abutting residential properties.
   c. Off-street parking areas, outdoor storage areas shall be screened from adjacent residential properties. Any lighting shall be so arranged as not to cause glare on adjacent properties.
   d. no building shall be located within 50 feet of any lot line.

   Hotel, Restaurant, Bar or Night Club, Dance Hall or Skating Rink, Theater, Concert Hall.
   a. primary access to such use shall not be a minor street or any other street designed to serve primarily as access to abutting residential properties;
   b. such use meets the off-street parking requirements of this ordinance. Such off-street parking and lighting in connection with such use shall be screened and shielded from adjacent residential properties;
   c. No building shall be located closer than 50 feet to any lot line.

   Vacation Resort, Camp, Cottage or Cabin Development
   a. All proposed structures, equipment and materials shall be reasonably accessible for fire and police protection;
   b. the water supply and sewage disposal system shall comply with the codes and ordinances of the appropriate authorities;
   c. No structure within vacation resort or camp shall be located within 200 feet of any property line.
   d. no structure within a cottage or camp development shall be located within 50 feet of any property line.

   Electric or Gas Utility Substations, Transformer Station, Water or Sewage Pumping Station and other similar structures;
   a. such use is reasonably necessary for the service, convenience or welfare of the public and cannot be located in another district;
   b. such use will not alter or be detrimental to the character of the neighborhood;
   c. such use has adequate fences and other safety devices and adequate screening or landscaping.
4. In issuing a special use permit the Board of Appeals may require any walks, fences or landscaping or attach such condition which it deems necessary to protect the value or adjacent properties or to prevent any hindering of the appropriate use of adjacent land.

SECTION VI. NON-CONFORMING BUILDING, USES, AND LOTS

A. Continuation of Non-Conforming Building and Uses

Any lawful building, structure or use of premises existing at the time of enactment of this Ordinance, or any subsequent amendment thereof applying to such building, structure or use of premises may be continued although such building, structure or use of premises does not conform to the provisions thereof, except as follows:

1. Any undeveloped lot in a subdivision which was not properly approved by the Planning Board and/or not filed in the office of the County Clerk and whose area and/or width, and/or depth are less than the specified minimum lot requirements and average density requirements of this Ordinance shall be considered a violation of this Ordinance.

B. Discontinuance

Any building or land used for or occupied by a non-conforming use which is changed to or replaced by a conforming use shall not thereafter be used for or occupied by a non-conforming use.

C. Necessary Maintenance and Repairs

A building or structure of non-conforming use may be repaired or restored to a safe condition.

D. Change to Other Non-Conforming Use

A non-conforming use of a building, structure or land may be changed to another non-conforming use which is of the same or more restricted in nature, however, no building in which a non-conforming use has been changed to a more restricted use shall again be devoted to a less restricted use. Uses shall be deemed more restricted or less restricted in accordance with Section IIIA and Section XI. The change of a non-conforming use of a building, structure, or land to another non-conforming use shall include the right to change an accessory non-conforming sign, provided such sign is not increased in area or does not further violate provisions of this ordinance.

E. Construction Started Prior to this Ordinance

Any building or structure for which construction was begun prior to the effective date of this Ordinance, or any subsequent amendment thereof applying thereto, may be completed and used in accordance with the plans and specifications for building or structure.

F. Existing Undersized Lots

1. Any lot held in single and separate ownership prior to the adoption of this Ordinance and whose area and/or width and/or depth are less than the specified minimum lot requirements of this Ordinance for the district, may be considered as complying with such minimum lot requiremenis and no variance shall be required, provided that:
   a. such lot does not adjoin any other lot or lots held by the same owner whose aggregate area is equal to or greater than the minimum lot area required for that district;
   b. such lot has an area of at least 5,000 square feet and a minimum width of at least 50 feet at the required setback line if it is to be used for residential purposes;
   c. the following minimum yard dimensions are maintained for residences:

      front yards ..... 25 feet
      side yards ..... 8 feet
      rear yards ..... 25 feet

   d. all other bulk requirements for that district are complied with.
2. In any district where residences are permitted, such undersized non-conforming lots may be used for not more than one single-family dwelling.
3. A lot of non-conforming size may be sub-divided if each and every subdivision of such lot is purchased by the owner or owners of the adjoining properties to increase the size of said owner or owners' property or properties.

G. Reduction in Lot Area

No lot shall be reduced in area so that it creates a non-conforming bulk or use in violation of any regulations contained in this Ordinance.

H. Exemption of Lots Shown on Approved Subdivision Plats

In Accordance with Town Law, Section 265-a any lot proposed for residential use in a subdivision whose plat delineates one or more new streets, roads or highways, and which said subdivision plat has been properly approved by the Planning Board, and filed in the office of the County Clerk, prior to the passage of this Ordinance, and whose area and/or width and/or depth are less than the specified minimum lot requirements of this Ordinance for that district shall be considered as complying with such minimum lot requirements for two years after the filing of the subdivision plat.

If at the time of filing of the subdivision plat referred to above there was no planning board vested with authority to approve subdivision plats, than the exemption provided for in such subdivision shall apply for a period of one year after the filing of said subdivision plat in the office of the County Clerk.

SECTION VII. ADMINISTRATION

A. Enforcement

This Ordinance shall be enforced by the Building Inspector who shall be appointed by the Town Board, in the same manner and with the same powers as now or hereafter practiced or provided under the Building Code.

No building permit or certificate of occupancy shall be issued by the Building Inspector, and no permit or license for any purpose shall be issued by any official of the Town, if the same would be in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance.

B. Building Permit

No building or structure shall be erected, added to, or its exterior structurally altered until a permit therefor has been issued by the Building Inspector in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance.

All applications for building permits shall be accompanied by two copies of a plot plan, drawn to scale and accurately dimensioned, showing the location of all existing and proposed buildings and structures on the lot, and such other information as may be required by the Building Inspector to determine compliance with this Ordinance. One copy of such plans, when approved by the Building Inspector shall be returned to the owner upon the payment of a fee of $1.00.

In each case where a building or use is proposed in a Light Industrial District, or in a residential cluster development, not including new streets, the Building Inspector shall refer the site plan for such proposal to the Planning Board for review before issuing a building permit. The Planning Board shall either approve, approve with modifications, or disapprove said site plan stating the reason therefore in writing in its records, and shall send a written notice of its decision to the Building Inspector, who then shall act accordingly, either issuing a building permit, postponing issuing such permit pending compliance with the decision of the Planning Board or denying such permit. If the Building Inspector does not receive any written communication on the case by the Planning Board within 45 days after he refers such case to said Planning Board, he shall assume that the site plan meets with their approval.

SECTION VIII. ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

A. Establishment and Duties

Pursuant to Town Law the Town Board shall appoint a Zoning Board of Appeals consisting of (7) seven members, shall designate its chairman and also provide for compensation to be paid to said members and provide for such other expenses as may be necessary and proper. A member of the Board of Appeals shall not at the same time be a member of the Town Board. The Town Board shall have the power to remove any member of the Board of Appeals for cause and after public hearing.

1. Term of Appointment: Of the members of the Board of Appeals first appointed, one shall hold office for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, two for the term of three years, one for the term of four years, two for the term of five years from and after his appointment.
   Their successor shall be appointed for the term of five years from and after the expiration of the terms of their predecessors in office. If a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term, it shall be filled by the Town Board by appointment for the unexpired term.
2. Staff: The Board of Appeals may employ such clerical or other staff assistance as may be necessary, and prescribe their duties, provided it shall not at any time incur expenses beyond the amount of the appropriations made by the Town Board and then available for that purpose.
3. Rules of Procedure, By-Laws, Forms: The Board of Appeals shall have the power to make, adopt, and promulgate such written rules of procedure, by-laws, and forms as they may deem necessary for the proper execution of their duties and to secure the intent of this Ordinance. Such rules, by-laws, and forms shall not be in conflict with, nor have the effect of waiving, any provisions of this Ordinance or any other ordinances of the Town of Hurley. Such rules, by-laws, and forms, and any subsequent amendments or supplements thereto, shall be submitted to the Town Board by Board of Appeals for approval and filing for public view. The Town Board shall move to approve, reject, or modify such rules, by-laws, and forms within 30 days after submission. Failure of the Town Board to so move shall be construed to constitute approval thereof.
4. All meetings of the Board of Appeals shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as such Board may determine. The chairman, or in his absence, the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of such Board shall be open to the public. The concurring vote of a majority of all members of the Board of Appeals shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of the Building Inspector or to decide in favor of an applicant in any matter upon which they are required to pass under any ordinance to effect any variation in the Zoning Ordinance. The Board of Appeals shall decide an appeal or any other matter referred to it within sixty days after the final hearing.
5. The Board of Appeals shall keep minutes of its proceedings showing the vote of each member on every question. If a member is absent or fails to vote, the minutes shall indicate such fact. Every rule, regulation, every amendment or repeal thereof, and every order, requirement, decision or determination of the Board of Appeals shall immediately be filed in the office of the Town Clerk and shall be a public record.
6. Referrals to the Planning Board: At least 45 days before the date of hearing held in connection with any appeal or application submitted to the Board of Appeals, said Board shall transmit to the Planning Board a copy of said appeal or application, and shall request that the Planning Board submit to the Board of Appeals its advisory opinion on said appeal or application. The Planning Board shall submit a report of such advisory opinion prior to the date of said public hearings. The failure of the Planning Board to submit such report shall be interpreted as a favorable opinion for the appeal or application.

B.—Public Notice and Hearing

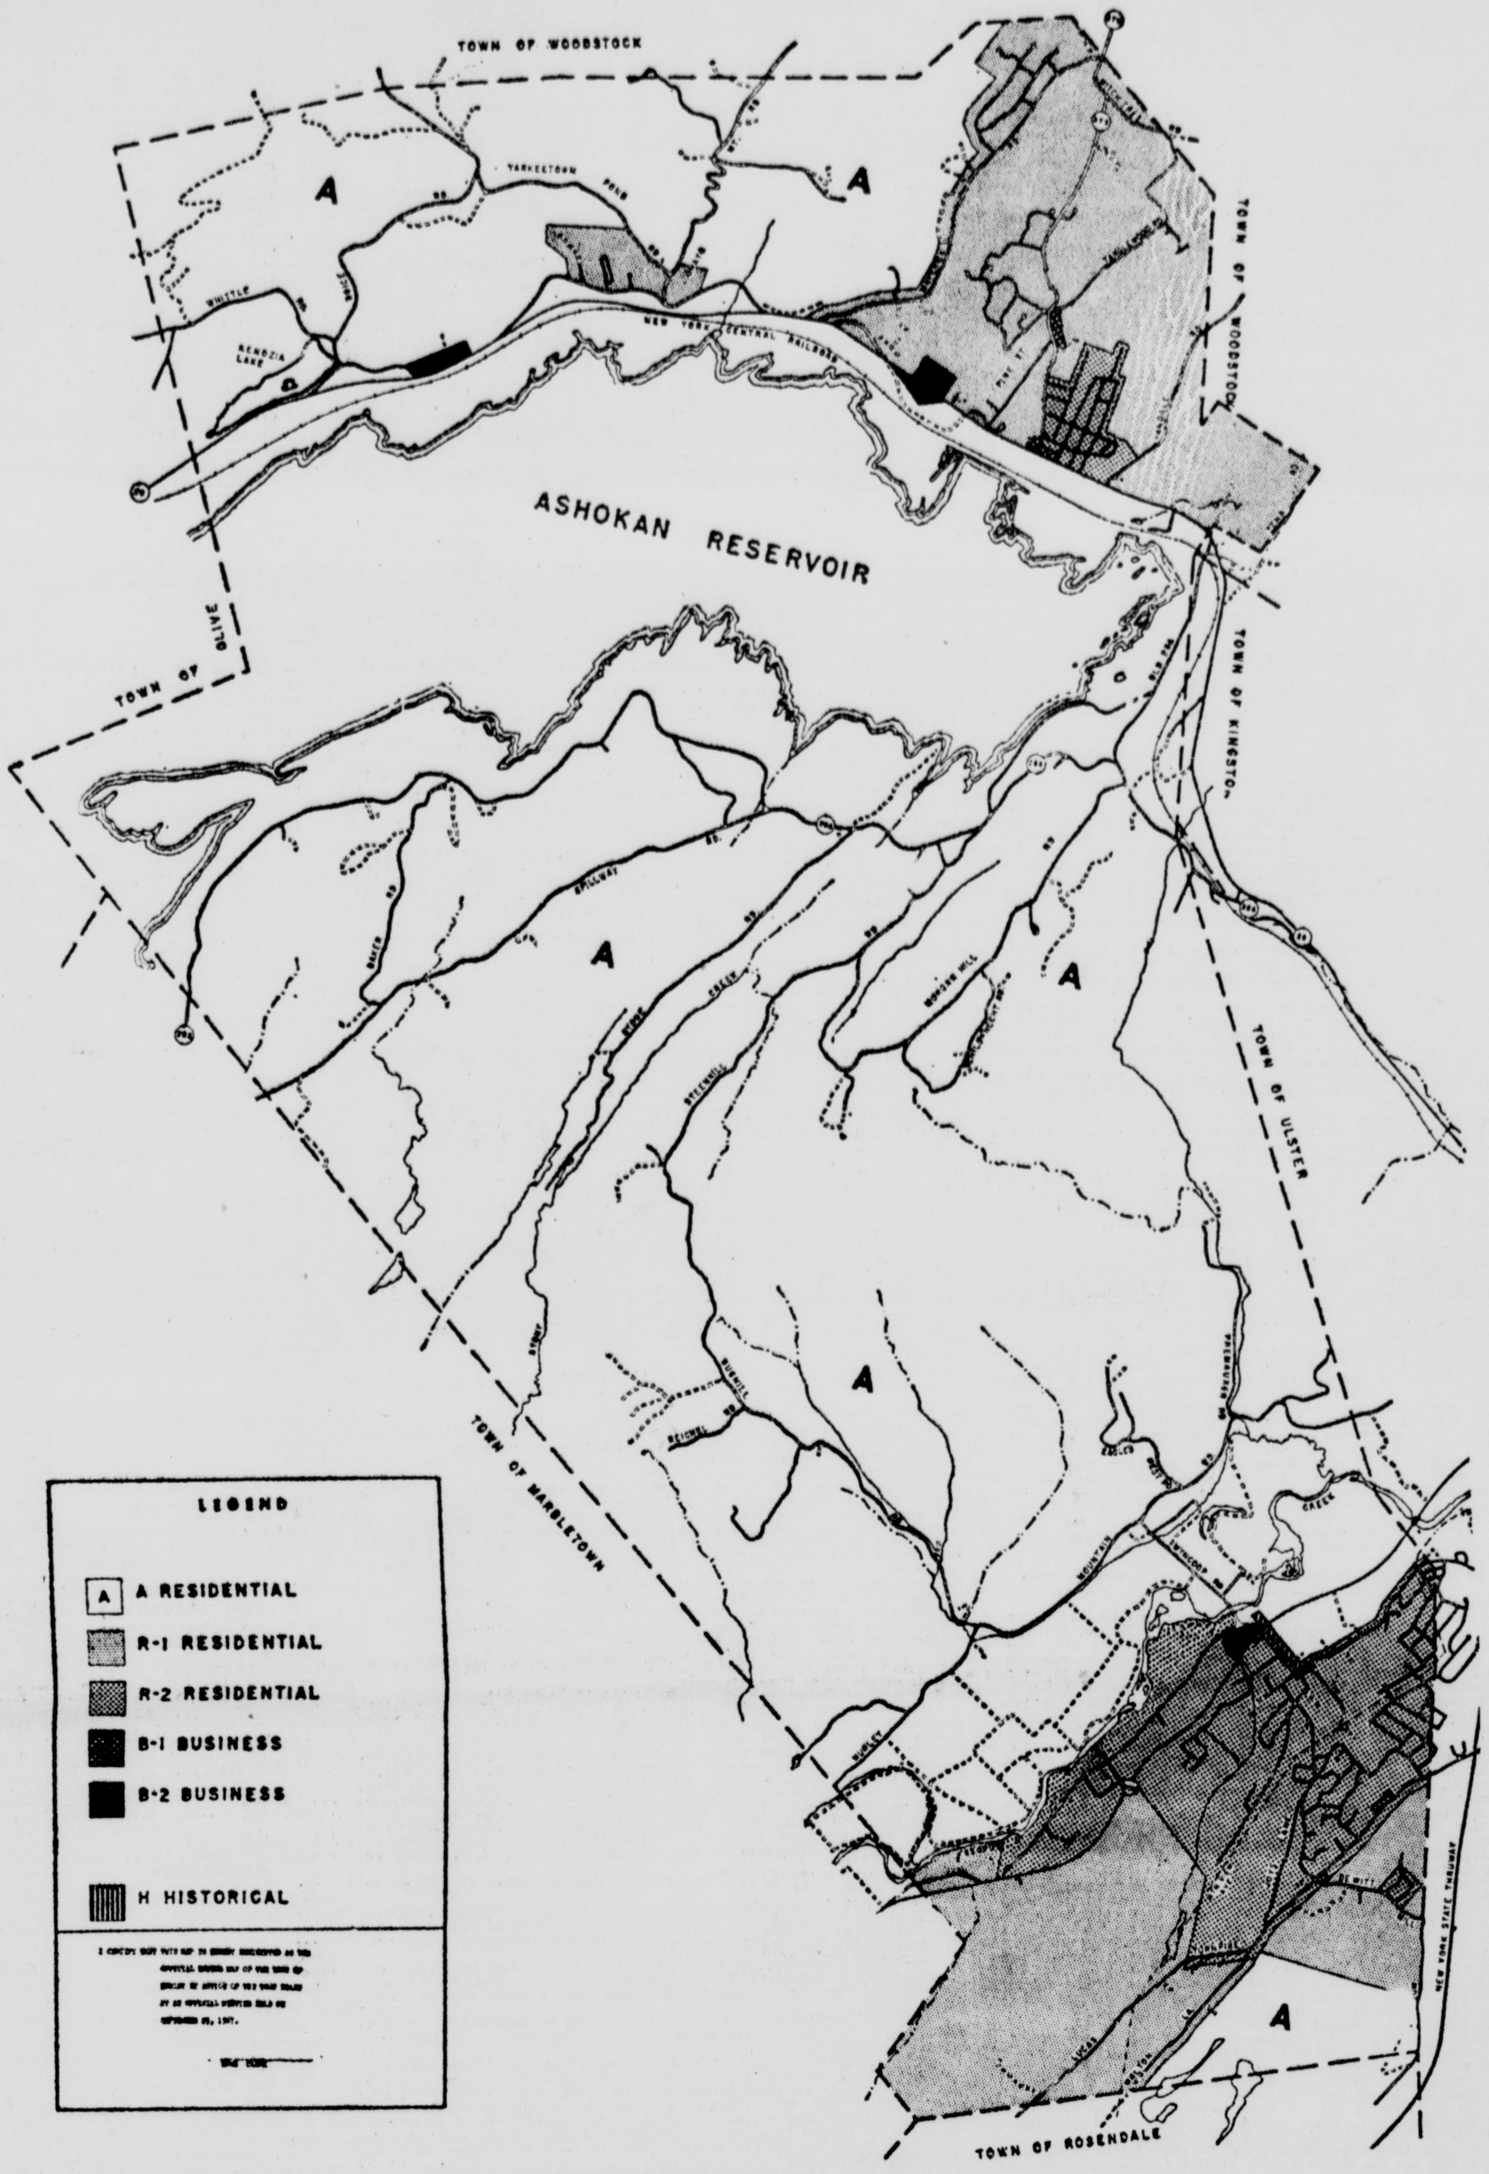

Public notice of any required hearing by the Board of Appeals shall be given in accordance with Town Law as follows:

1. By publishing a notice of any appeal or application and the time and place of the public hearing in the official newspaper of the Town of Hurley not less than ten days prior to the date of such hearing.
2. By giving written notice of hearing to any appellant or applicant, and any other such notice to property owners in an affected area as may be required by the Board of Appeals, and to the Planning Board not less than five days prior to such hearing.
3. By giving written notice of hearing to any required Municipal, County, Metropolitan, Regional, State or Federal agency in the manner prescribed by law.

C. Appeals

1. The Board of Appeals shall hear and decide appeals from and review any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by the Building Inspector under this Ordinance in accordance with the procedure set forth herewith:
   a. Notice of Appeal shall be filed with the Building Inspector and the Secretary to the Board of Appeals in writing, in a form required by such Board, within 30 days of the date of the action appealed from, specifying the grounds thereof.

b. Upon filing of a Notice of Appeal and payment of a filing fee of $5.00 by the appellant or applicant, the Building Inspector shall forthwith transmit to the Board of Appeals all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

c. The Board of Appeals shall set a reasonable date for the hearing of each appeal, of which hearing date the appellant shall be given notice and at which hearing he shall appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

d. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the Building Inspector certifies to the Board of Appeals, after Notice of Appeal shall have been filed with him, that by reason of facts stated in the certificate, a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property, in which case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Appeals or by a court of record on application, on notice to the Building Inspector and on due cause shown.

e. Following public notice and hearing, the Board of Appeals may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination appealed from and shall make such order, requirement, decision, or determination as in its opinion ought to be made in the premises and to that end shall have all the power of the Building Inspector. If the action by the Board of Appeals is to reverse the action of the Building Inspector in whole, the filing fee shall be refunded to the appellant. The Board of Appeals shall decide the same within sixty days following the final hearing.

D. Variances

1. Where there are practical difficulties or unnecessary hardships in the way of carrying out the strict letter of this Ordinance, the Board of Appeals shall have the power, after public notice and hearing, to vary or modify the application of any of the regulations or provisions of the Ordinance relating to the use, construction, or alteration of buildings or structures, or the use of land, so that the spirit of the Ordinance shall be observed, public safety and welfare secured and substantial justice done.

2. All applications for variances shall be filed with the Secretary to the Board of Appeals in writing, shall be made in a form required by the Board of Appeals, and shall be accompanied by payment of a filing fee of $5.00, and a plot plan, drawn to scale and accurately demensioned, showing the location of all existing and proposed buildings and structures on the lot.

3. Any variance which is not exercised within one year from the date of issuance is hereby declared to be revoked without further hearing by the Board of Appeals.

4. Criteria for granting variances:

a. A variance to the provisions of this Ordinance shall be granted by the Board of Appeals in order to vary or adapt the strict application of any of the requirements of this Ordinance in the case of exceptionally irregular, narrow, shallow, or steep lots, or other exceptional physical conditions, whereby such strict application would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship that would deprive the owner of the reasonable use of the land or building involved, but in no other case. No variance in the strict application of any provision of this Ordinance shall be granted by the Board of Appeals except by the adoption of a resolution fully setting forth the reasons for the following findings:

(1) That there are special circumstances or conditions applying to such land or buildings and not applying generally to land or buildings in the vicinity and under identical district classification, and that said circumstances or conditions are such that strict application of the provisions of this Ordinance would deprive the applicant of the reasonable use of such land or buildings or of privileges enjoyed by other properties in the vicinity and under identical district classification.

(2) That the granting of the variance is necessary for the reasonable use of the land or building and that the variance as granted by the Board of Appeals is the minimum variance that will accomplish this purpose.

(3) That the granting of the variance will be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of this Ordinance, and will not be injurious to the vicinity or otherwise detrimental to the public welfare.

(4) That any variance granted shall be subject to such conditions as will assure that the adjustment thereby authorized shall not constitute a grant of special privilege inconsistent with the limitations upon other properties in the vicinity and district in which subject property is situated.

b. In no case shall a variance be granted solely for reason of additional financial gain on the part of the owner of the land or building involved.

E. Special Use Permits

1. The Board of Appeals shall have the power, after public notice and hearing, to grant Special Use Permits for the conditional uses specified in this Ordinance.

2. All applications for Special Use Permits shall be filed with the Secretary to the Board of Appeals in writing, shall be made in a form required by the Board, and shall be accompanied by payment of a filing fee of $5.00, and a plot plan, drawn to scale and accurately dimensioned, as required in Section V.N.

3. Whenever the board of Appeals grants a Special Use Permit, appropriate conditions and safeguards and/or time limitations may be attached thereto.

4. Any Special Use Permit which is not exercised within one year from the date of issuance is hereby declared to be revoked without further hearing by the Board of Appeals.

F. Relief from Decisions

Any person or persons, jointly or severally aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Appeals may apply to the supreme court for relief by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules of the State of New York. Such proceedings shall be governed by the provisions of article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, except that (a) it must be instituted as therein provided within thirty days after the filing of a decision in the office of the Town Clerk, (b) the court may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same with his findings of fact and conclusions of law, if it shall appear that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, and (c) the court at special term shall itself dispose of the cause on the merits, determining all questions which may be presented for determination under the provisions of section twelve hundred ninety-six of said article. Costs shall not be allowed against the Board of Appeals unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence or in bad faith or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

SECTION IX. AMENDMENTS

A. Procedure

The Town Board may, from time to time, on its own motion, or on petition, or on recommendation from the Planning Board, amend the regulations and district established under this Ordinance after public notice and hearing in each case. All petitions for any amendment of the regulations or districts herein established shall be filed in writing in a form required by the Town Board.

Every proposed amendment, unless initiated by the Planning Board shall be referred to the Planning Board. The Planning Board shall report its recommendations thereon to the Town Board, accompanied by a full statement of the reasons for such recommendations, prior to the public hearing. If the Planning Board fails to report within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of notice or such longer time as may have been agreed upon by it and the Town Board, the Town Board may act without such report.

C. Public Notice and Hearing

The Town Board, by resolution, shall fix the time and place of the public hearing and cause notice to be given in accordance with state and federal laws.

D. Protest by Owners

If a protest against the proposed amendment is presented to the Town Board, duly signed and acknowledged by the owners of twenty per cent or more of the area of land included in such proposed amendment, or by the owners of twenty per cent or more of the area of the land immediately adjacent extending 100 feet therefrom, or by the owners of twenty per cent or more of the area of land directly opposite thereto extending 100 feet from the street frontage of such opposite land, such amendment shall not be passed except by the favorable vote of at least four member of the Town Board provided the per cent of such vote is not contrary or in conflict with state law.

E. Changes by Planning Board

The Planning Board with the permission of the Town Board in accordance with Town Law, Section 281, may, simultaneously with the approval of any plat, make any reasonable change to the regulations established under this Ordinance with respect to the land so platted. Before the Planning Board shall make any such change, there shall be a public hearing preceded by the same notice as in the case of the approval of the plat itself. Once the filing of the plat in the office of the County Clerk, such changes shall be and become part of the regulations of this Ordinance, shall take the place of any regulations established herein by the Town Board, shall be enforced in the same maner, and shall be similarly subject to amendment.

F. Publication and Posting

Every amendment to the Zoning Ordinance, including any map incorporated therein, adopted in accordance with the Town Law shall be entered in the minutes of the Town Board and a copy thereof, exclusive of any map incorporated therein, shall be published once in the official newspaper of the Town of Hurley and a copy of such amendment together with a copy of any map incorporated therein, shall be posted on a sign board maintained by the Town Clerk pursuant to Subdivision 6 of Section 30 of the Town Law. Affidavits of the publication and posting thereof shall be filed with the Town Clerk.

SECTION X. INTERPRETATION AND APPLICATION

A. Legislative Intent

In their interpretation and application, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be held to be minimum requirements adopted for the promotion of the public health, morals, safety, and general welfare.

B. Non-Interference and Precedence

This Ordinance shall not interfere with, abrogate, annul, or repeal any ordinance or any rule, regulation, or permit previously or hereafter enacted, adopted, or issued pursuant to law, provided that, unless specifically excepted, where this Ordinance imposes greater restrictions its provisions shall control.

C. Violation

An violation of this Ordinance is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding $50.00, or by imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each week the violation continues shall be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation.

D. Separate Validity

If any section, subsection, paragraph, clause, or other provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, subsection, paragraph, clause, or other provision shall not affect any of the other provisions of this Ordinance.

E. Effective Date

In accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 264 of the Town Law this Ordinance shall take effect when duly published and posted as required by said law.

SECTION XI. DEFINITIONS

Except where specifically defined herein, all words used in this Ordinance shall carry their customary meanings. Words used in the present tense shall include the future. Words used in the singular number include the plural, and words used in the plural number include the singular, unless the context clearly indicates the contrary.

The word "shall" is always mandatory. The word "may" is permissive. "Building" or "structure" includes any part thereof. The word "lot" includes the word "plot" or "parcel." The word "person" includes an individual person, a firm, a corporation, a co-partnership, and any other agency of voluntary action.

The phrase "used for" includes "arranged for," "designed for," "intended for," "maintained for" and "occupied for."

ACCESSORY BUILDING: A building detached from and subordinate to a main building on the same lot and used for purposes customarily incidental to those of the main building.

ACCESSORY USE: A use customarily incidental and subordinate to the principal use or building and located on the same lot with such principal use or building.

ALTERATION: As applied to a building or structure, a change or rearrangement in the external structural parts or existing facilities of such building or structure, or any enlargement thereof, whether by extension on any side or by any increase in heights, or the moving of such building or structure from one location to another.

AREA, BUILDING: The total of areas taken on a horizontal plane at the main grade level of the principal building and all accessory buildings exclusive of terraces and uncovered steps.

ATTIC: That space of building which is immediately below and wholly or partly within the roof framing. An attic with a finished floor shall be counted as one-half story in determining the permissible number of stories.

BASEMENT: A story partly below finished grade, but having at least one half of its height measured from floor to ceiling, but not less than four feet, above average finished grade. A basement shall be counted as one story determining the height of a building in stories.

BILLBOARDS: A sign or structure which directs attention to an idea, product, business activity, service, or entertainment which is conducted, sold, or offered elsewhere than upon the lot on which such sign is situated.

BOARDING HOUSE: A building, other than a hotel, containing a general kitchen and a general dining room, in which at least three, but not more than six sleeping rooms are offered for rent, with or without meals. A lodging house, tourist house or rooming house shall be deemed a boarding house.

BUILDING: Any structure which is permanently affixed to the land, has one or more floors and a roof, and is intended for the shelter, housing, or enclosuer of persons, animals or chattel.

BUILDING, ACCESSORY: See "ACCESSORY, BUILDING."

BUILDING, DETACHED: A building surrounded by open space on the same lot.

BUILDING, MAIN: A building in which is conducted the principal use of the lot on which it is located.

BUILDING, PRINCIPAL: A building in which is conducted the main or principal use of the lot on which said building is situated.

BUILDING, SEMI-DETACHED: A building attached by a party wall to another building normally of the same type on another lot, but having one side yard.

BUILDING GROUP: A group of two or more principal buildings and any buildings accessory thereto, occupying a lot in one ownership and having any yard in common.

BUILDING LINE: The line, established by statute, local law or ordinance, beyond which a building shall not extend, as specifically provided by law.

BULK: A term used to describe the size, volume, area, and shape of buildings and structures, and the physical relationship of their exterior walls or their location to lot lines, other buildings and structures, or other walls of the same building; and all open spaces required in connection with a building, other structure, or tract of land.

CAMP: Any parcel of land on which are located two or more cabins, tents, shelters, or other accommodations of a design or character suitable for seasonal or other more or less temporary living purposes, including summer colony, resort and day camp, but not including a trailer park, boarding house, hotel or motel.

CELLAR: Any space in a building the structural ceiling level of which is less than four feet above average finished grade where such grade meets the exterior walls of the building. A cellar shall not be counted in determining the permissible number of stories.

CLUB, MEMBERSHIP: An organization catering exclusively to members and their guests, or premises and buildings for recreational or athletic purposes, which are not conducted primarily for gain, providing there are not conducted any vending stands, merchandising or commercial activities except as required generally for the membership and purposes of such club.

COMMERCIAL VEHICLE: A vehicle of more than one ton capacity used for the transportation of persons or goods primarily for gain or a vehicle of any capacity carrying a permanent-affixed sign exceeding one square foot in area or lettering of a commercial nature.

COTTAGE OR CABIN DEVELOPMENT: Any parcel of land on which are located two or more cottages, cabins, or other accommodations of a design or character suitable for seasonal or other temporary living purposes, including a summer colony or resort, but not including a trailer park, boarding house, hotel or motel.

COVERAGE: That lot area or percentage of lot area covered by buildings or structures, including accessory buildings and structures.

DEVELOPMENT: The utilization of a lot or tract of land for two or more uses.

DISTRICT; MORE RESTRICTED OR LESS RESTRICTED: In the following list each district shall be deemed to be more restricted than the districts which follow it. R-1, R-2, H, A, B-1, B-2, I-1.

DRIVE-IN-MOVIE: An open lot or part thereof, with appurtenant facilities devoted primarily to the showing of moving pictures, on a paid admission basis, to patrons seated in automobiles or on outdoor seats.

DUMP: A lot or land used primarily for the disposal by abandonment, burial, burning or any other means and for whatever purpose, of garbage, sewage, trash, refuse, junk, discarded machinery, vehicles or parts thereof, or waste material of any kind.

DWELLING: A building designed or used principally as the living quarters for one or more families. The terms "dwelling," "one- family dwelling," "two-family dwelling," "multi-family dwelling," "multiple dwelling," or "dwelling group" shall not be deemed to include motel, hotel, rooming house or other accommodations used for more or less transient occupancy. (See RESIDENCE)

DWELLING, ONE-FAMILY: A building containing one dwelling unit only.

DWELLING, TWO-FAMILY: A building containing two dwelling units.

DWELLING, MULTI-FAMILY: A dwelling containing three or more dwelling units and occupied or designed for occupancy by three or more families living independently of each other.

DWELLING GROUP: A group of three or more, but not over nine, attached single or two-family dwellings with party walls between.

DWELLING UNIT: A building or portion thereof providing complete housekeeping facilities for one family.

FAMILY: A 'family' consists of (a) one person, or two or more persons related by blood, marriage or adoption, or (b) not more than five persons not necessarily related by blood, marriage or adoption, and in addition any domestic servants or gratuitous guests, who live together in a single dwelling unit and maintain a common household.

FINISHED GRADE: The elevation at which the finished surface of the surrounding lot intersects the walls or supports of a building or other structure, if the line of intersection is not reasonably horizontal, the finished grade—in computing height of building and other structures or for other purposes—shall be the average elevation of all finished grade elevations around the periphery of the buildings, except that this average shall not exceed one-half of the floor to ceiling height.

FLOOR AREA: The aggregate sum of the gross horizontal areas of the several floors of the building or buildings, measured from the exterior walls or from the centerlines of walls separating two buildings. In particular, the "floor area" of a building or buildings shall include:

a. Basement space
b. Elevator shafts and stairwells at each floor
c. Floor space for mechanical equipment, with structural head room of seven feet and six inches or more
d. Penthouses
e. Attic space (whether or not a floor has actually been laid) providing structural headroom of seven feet and six inches or more
f. Interior balconies and mezzanines
g. Enclosed porches
h. Accessory uses, not including space for accessory off-street parking

However, the "floor area" of a building shall not include:

a. Cellar space, except that cellar space used for retailing shall be included for the purposes of calculating requirements for accessory off-street parking spaces and accessory off-street loading berths.
b. Elevator and stair bulkheads, accessory water tanks and cooling towers.
c. Floor space used for mechanical equipment, with structural headroom of less than seven feet and six inches.
d. Attic space, whether or not a floor has actually been laid, providing structural headroom of less than seven feet and six inches.
e. Uncovered steps; exterior fire escapes.
f. Terraces, breezeways, open porches, and outside balconies and open spaces.
g. Accessory off-street parking spaces.
h. Accessory off-street loading berths.

GASOLINE FILLING STATION: An area of land, including structures thereon, or any building or part thereof, that is used primarily for the sale and direct delivery to the motor vehicle of gasoline or any other motor vehicle fuel or oil and other lubricating substances, including any sale of motor vehicle accessories, and which may or may not include facilities for lubricating, washing, (which does not require mechanical equipment) or otherwise servicing motor vehicles, but not including auto body work, welding, or painting.

HEIGHT OF BUILDING: The verticle distance measured from the average finished grade along the wall of the building (or adjacent to the side of the structure) to the highest point of such building or structure.

HIGH TENSION LINE: Any electric line operating at voltage in excess of 69 Kv.

HOSPITAL: A building containing beds for four or more patients, and used for the diagnosis, treatment, or other care of ailments, and shall be demed to be limited to places for the diagnosis, treatment, or other care of human ailments.

HOTEL: A building, or any part thereof, which contains living and sleeping accommodations for transient occupancy, has a common exterior entrance or entrances and which may contain one or more dining rooms.

HOUSE TRAILER: A vehicle which is used or designed to be used for living or sleeping purposes and which is customarily standing on wheels or rigid supports.

JUNK YARD: An area of land with or without buildings used for or occupied by the storage, keeping, or abandonment of junk, including scrap metals or other scrap, used or salvaged building materials, or the dismantling, demolition, or abandonment of automobiles or other vehicles or machinery or parts thereof. The deposit on a lot of two or more old or second hand motor vehicles no longer intended or in condition for legal use on the public highways shall be deemed to make the lot a "junk yard."

KENNEL: Any place at which there are kept six or more dogs more than four months of age or any number of dogs that are kept for the primary purpose of sale or for the boarding, care of breeding of which a fee is charged or paid.

LOT: a defined portion or parcel of land considered as a unit, devoted to a specific use or occupied by a building or a group of buildings that are united by a common interest, use or ownership, and the customary accessories and open spaces belonging to the same.

LOT, CORNER: A lot situated at the junction and adjacent to two or more intersecting streets when the interior angle of intersection does not exceed 135 degrees.

LOT, DEPTH OF: The mean distance from the front street line of a lot to its rear line.

LOT, THROUGH: A lot which faces on two streets at opposite ends of the lot and which is not a corner lot.

LOT COVERAGE: See "COVERAGE."

LOT FRONTAGE: A lot line which is coincident with a street line.

LOT LINES: The lines bounding a lot as defined herein.

LOT WIDTH: The horizontal distance between the side lot lines measured at right angles to the lot depth at a point midway between the front and rear lot lines; or the width of a lot measured along the rear line of the required front yard.

MOTEL: A building or group of buildings containing individual living and sleeping accommodations for hire, each of which is provided with a separate exterior entrance and a parking space, and is offered for rental and use principally by motor vehicle travelers. The term "motel" includes but is not limited to every type of similar establishment known variously as an auto court, motor hotel, motor court, motor inn, motor lodge, tourist court, tourist cabins, roadside hotel.

NON-CONFORMING BULK: That part of a building, other structure or tract of land which does not conform to one or more of the applicable bulk regulations of this Ordinance, either following its effective date or as a result of subsequent amendments thereto.

NON-CONFORMING USE: Any use of a building, other structure, or tract of land, which does not conform to the use regulations for the district in which such use is located, either at the effective date of this Ordinance or as a result of subsequent amendment thereto.

NURSING OR CONVALESCENT HOME: A building with less than 15 sleeping rooms where persons are housed or lodged and furnished with meals and nursing care for hire.

NURSERY SCHOOL: Any place, however, designated, operated for the purpose of providing daytime care or instruction for two or more children from two to five years of age inclusive, and operated on a regular basis, including kindergartens, day nurseries, and day care centers.

Lions to Hear About Bond for Transportation

F. ROY MADGWICK

Associate Director F. Roy Madgwick, of Mid-Hudson Pattern for Progress, Inc., a citizen's regional planning organization, will discuss implications for the region of the state's proposed $2.5 billion transportation bond issue before members of the Hurley Lions Club, Wednesday, at Williams Lake Hotel, Rosendale.

Pattern's staff is preparing a report on the transportation situation in the seven counties it serves, with special emphasis on the possible remedies offered by the bond issue. The report is scheduled to be released October 27.

The state's bond issue proposal will appear on the ballot November 7.

Weekend Vandalism in City

Wanton vandalism, including the destruction of 10 windows over the weekend at the Meagher School, has again struck Kingston.

Police said the school, located at 21 Wynkoop Place and formerly School No. 5, reported the damage to headquarters this morning. Investigating officers stated the windows were shattered by thrown objects.

Diane Fisher, 91 West Pierpont Street, complained to authorities Saturday that her auto was damaged by a thrown rock while she was traveling along Broadway, police declared. Miss Fisher told police the rock was hurled by a youth who appeared to be around 20 years of age. Officers said the suspect was gone before patrolmen could reach the scene.

Saturday afternoon, John Pavlidis of 76 St. James Street, telephoned headquarters and informed authorities that two car tires had been slashed on his auto. Pavlidis estimated loss at nearly $75 and said the incident occurred while his auto was parked in front of his home.

A Clinton Avenue woman, disturbed Saturday night by the smashing of bottles along her street, reported the mischief to police, officers stated. The woman, who requested not to be identified, told investigators she heard youthful voices prior to the incident.

Sunday, police investigated a broken glass door at Schuttle's Market on Franklin Street. The proprietor, Julius Schuttle, said the window was smashed with a rock.

A spare tire and tennis racquet were reported stolen from a car parked behind the Governor Clinton Hotel by the owner, a Amityville, Long Island man. Harry Wilson, 272 Grand Central Avenue, Amityville, disclosed the valuables were taken Sunday night. Police said they are looking into the matter.

The residence at 88 West Chester Street was pelted with eggs Sunday evening, police said. Officers declared that the entire front proch was covered with mess.

Mrs. I. A. Gallagher, 17 Fort Street, requested Monday that investigators check her house for damage suffered by unknown persons over the weekend. Police said Mrs. Gallagher works and is away from home during the day.

Kuchel Likes Rockefeller As Candidate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — U.S. Sen. Thomas Kuchel, R-Calif., says New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller—"a superb American"—is the Republican party's best possible presidential candidate in 1968.

Kuchel said on a television program taped on Los Angeles for broadcast Sunday that Rockefeller has "...a unique background, the experience, the capacity to administer and to lead."

Kuchel said he hopes the Republicans nominate a presidential candidate in 1968 who "does not make an issue out of basic American policy in Southeast Asia."

Later Sunday, in a speech in Beverly Hills, Kuchel said a "cardinal objective" of U.S. foreign policy should be the continued unification of Jerusalem, both as a capital of Israel and a world religious center.

"The recent (Middle East) conflict has shown that the people of the United States believe overwhelmingly that they have a direct commitment to the safety, integrity and prosperity of the people of Israel," Kuchel said.

"In my opinion the United States has errored in trying to conceal that point from the Arab nations, friendly or otherwise. The time has come to make our position unmistakably clear.

"This is not to imply that America has no role to play among the Arab peoples, nor that they should be abandoned to the Socialist camp," Kuchel said.

"I have long believed that the self-interest of the peoples (of the Middle East) was the principal force that would bring them together in...peaceful existence," Kuchel said.

"Maureen's little brother has never been able to find the key to her diary—she hides it under the soap in the bathroom!"

At Newburgh Session

State Teachers Oppose Charter

The Southeastern Zone of the State Teacher's Association, meeting Saturday in Newburgh, has voted to oppose the proposed State Constitution.

The zone, comprised of Ulster, Orange, Dutchess, Rockland, Putnam and Sullivan Counties, based its objection primarily on repeal of the controversial Blaine Amendment.

Repeal of this amendment means that private schools will be able to receive state aid.

A spokesman for the teachers said the proposed constitution would establish a formula of aid that was dangerous and that it weakened the basic idea of public education. In addition the people of New York should not have to vote on a single package item, the spokesman added.

Seventy delegates from the six county area attended Saturday's meeting, which was conducted at the Holiday Inn near Newburgh.

Three Men Held On Harrassment

Three Port Ewen men were arrested on warrants Friday night on a charge of harrassment or interference with the duties of a police officer. One of them, Rawlston Longendyke, demanded a hearing before Justice of the Peace John O. Beaver of Esopus and after testimony was found guilty and fined $25. The other two, George Longendyke and his father, John, had their cases adjourned to Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

The arrests followed an alleged interference with an investigation being conducted by County Investigator Harold T. Bowers of the sheriff's staff.

Bowers reported he was questioning one of the men when the trouble started as he sought to take one of the men to their house to continue the investigation. Bowers said he was attempting to question one of the men about a robbery which had taken place in the area. After securing warrants, Bowers, Deputy Sheriff Donald Van Aken and troopers returned and executed the warrants.

UAW Readies OK On New Ford Pack

DETROIT (AP) — Top officials of the United Auto Workers today prepared for a ratification vote on a new contract with the Ford Motor Co. which could cost Ford close to a billion dollars in the next three years.

Ford executives made plans to get cars rolling off assembly lines if the strike, now in its 47th day and longest in the company's history, ends some time this week.

The union's Ford Council meets tonight and ratification votes by members are planned for Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ford plants in 25 states.

The council, made up of key officials in Ford locals, meets again at 8 p.m. Wednesday, to pass on the vote.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, said he expected his men to be returning to work by Thursday with more expected Friday. Malcolm L. Denise, Ford vice president for labor relations, said employes could be back on the job Wednesday "at the earliest."

Denise and Reuther headed the opposing bargaining teams in 13 days of intensive negotiations before the contract was agreed on early Sunday.

Reuther said the union's gains represent "our share of the increase in productivity and cannot possibly form the basis for increasing prices."

The nation's four major domestic automakers have all increased prices for 1968-model cars and have indicated the prices could be changed depending on the cost of new contracts with the UAW.

Denise declined to answer specifically when asked whether Ford would increase car prices, saying only, "One cannot ignore cost when pricing one's product."

Ford said the new contract will raise wages 45½ to 90½ cents an hour over its three-year span. The union estimates that its 20,000 skilled tradesmen at Ford will average $1.02 more hourly.

At the rate of $1 an hour increase in wages, fringe benefits and premium pay, the new contract would cost Ford $2,000 more per year for each of its 160,000 workers, thus close to a billion dollars in the three years of the contract.

Here are the major gains in the new contract — Guaranteeing workers, depending on seniority, as much as 95 per cent of their annual wage, less $7.50 weekly work-related expenses, regardless of layoffs.

— An immediate raise of 20 cents an hour added to the $3.43 the average Ford workers now gets.

— Skilled workers get an additional increase of 30 cents an hour, making a 50-cent total.

— All workers get a 3 per cent raise during each of the last two-years of the three-year pact. Depending on a workers' seniority, the raise will be between 9½ and 17½ cents.

— Ford has agreed to guarantee at least six cents an hour in cost of living increases during the last two years of the contract. No new cost of living allowances will be paid during the first year of the contract.

Equal pay for Canadian and American workers, one of the union's top demands, was "the only major thing we didn't win," Reuther said.

DR. SAUL GOLDFARB

Designated Dental Group Representative

Dr. Herbert G. Spieske of Albany and Dr. Saul Goldfarb of Kingston, have been designated as representatives of the Third District Dental Society of the State of New York to the House of Delegates of the American Dental Association, it was announced by Third District President Robert F. Rudisill of Latham.

Alternates are Dr. Jeremiah Sachs of Kingston and Dr. Edwin F. Smith of Albany. Members of the House of Delegates serve for one year.

Newly elected to membership in the Third District Dental Society are Dr. Richard Goliber of Albany, Dr. Harold W. Wilson of Delmar, Dr. Stanford Fried of Catskill and Dr. John Pacer of Windham, according to Dr. Spieske who is executive secretary of the dictrict.

District dentists will meet Nov. 14 at Kozel's Post Road Tavern in Hudson for dinner and a clinic to be conducted by Dr. Joseph Lobene of Boston University on the topic of periodontia.

Bloomin' Lily

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Mrs. John Salazar has a flower that's confused about its holidays.

She said she went out in her Albuquerque backyard recently to check on pumpkins and found an Easter lily in full bloom.

Rampage on Reservation Leaves One Dead, One Hurt

LAWTONS, N.Y. (AP) — Police sought a motive today for a stabbing incident on the Cattaraugus Indian Reservation that left one man dead, another injured seriously and a youth accused of manslaughter.

The body of Ralph White, 27, was found Saturday in a wooded area near this hamlet 25 miles south of Buffalo. There were four knife wounds in the chest, Erie County deputy sheriffs said.

Gilbert Johns, 45, was found standing in the parking lot of a nearby restaurant, where he had staggered with nine knife wounds in the back, they said.

Johns was listed in serious condition Sunday at Our Lady of Victory Hospital in Lackawanna.

Several hours after the knifings, David Thompson, 16, was arrested at his home in North Collins and charged with first-degree manslaughter in White's death. No other charges were filed immediately, deputies said.

Thompson was taken to the county jail in Buffalo after his arraignment before a peace justice Sunday.

Deputies said Johns told them he and White were drinking cider in the field when they were joined by two or three other persons. He could not recall what happened after that, they said.

A 12-inch butcher knife was found Sunday about 1,000 feet from where White's body was found, investigators said.

White lived on Reservation Road, where Thompson also resides. Johns' home in on Versailles-Plank Road.

Police sought a motive today for a stabbing incident on the Cattaraugus Indian Reservation that left one man dead, another injured seriously and a youth accused of manslaughter.

Prowler Reported

Saturday morning while Deputy Sheriffs Gerald Miller and Henry Newman were on patrol a call was received from Eddyville that a man wearing nothing but white shorts was upstairs in the D. Ossmer home. The man was found in an upstairs bedroom when a member of the family went to the room to investigate a noise.

Investigator Bowers reported that when a light was turned on the room, the man dashed from the house and disappeared. At the time, Bowers reported a daughter was downstairs "having a snack", in the kitchen. The investigation

Mercy Mission

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Two Georgia osteopaths—Dr. Lloyd Dale Gauvin of Decatur and Dr. A. Andrew Trimble of Chamblee—will join 35 other persons Nov. 5 on an expedition to treat an isolated Indian tribe in the Sierra Madre Mountains in Mexico.

Authorities said the group would meet in El Paso, Tex., and fly 300 miles in private planes to reach a tribe of Tarahumara Indians.

The trip is being planned under the auspices of an organization, Doctors of Osteopathy Care or "Docare."

Sources said only about 5,600 are still living in the tribe of Inca descendants. The tribe reportedly has a high infant death rate and the members have an average expectancy of about 45 years.

Dear Abby

Wisdom from Experience

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

[© 1967 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.]

DEAR ABBY: Be fair, and give the other side of the question of whether to institutionalize a Mongoloid child. There are so many who say, "All the retarded child needs is to be kept at home, and assured that he is loved."

But, Abby, have yo ever seen a mentally deficient child who has grown to adulthood? A 30-year-old man who still makes baby noises, but must be shaved, bathed, and taken to the bathroom? He is not very "lovable." O, his mother "loves" him all right, but her heart aches and twists as friends try to conceal their embarrassment. And the terrible shadow of, "What will happen to him when I am gone," looms ahead and grows darker with the years.

Not all mentally deficient children are so seriously retarded that they would be better off in an institution, but once it becomes established that he must be cared for as a baby all his life, the sooner he is placed in a reputable institution, the better.

When our doctor suggested that I place my child in an institution, I cried, "I CANNOT put my child in an institution! What will she think?"

The doctor replied, "She wouldn't care. She wouldn't know the difference."

And it's true. She has been there for 19 years. She is safe and happy there. I let her go when she was young enough to adjust. I love her, as I love my other children. And I have no regrets.

BEEN THERE

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem and no one in my family can come up with an answer. My brother has been separated from his wife and two children for over five years. He lives in the same town with them, but is now living with another woman. He and this other woman have just become parents of a baby boy. My problem is, how do I receive this poor little innocent child? Do I just ignore the precious baby and pretend he doesn't exist?

I do not live in the same state with my brother and am not in contact with him, but as far as I know there is no divorce in sight so it will be some time before he can make things legal with the woman he's living with, if that's his plan. I don't know what in the world they are thinking of. Surely not of that poor innocent child.

How in the world should I handle this mess? I don't want to do anything to hurt my brother's legal wife and children, but what about the illegitimate baby?

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: As I see it, the "mess" is your brother's and the woman with whom he is living. Their child isn't "illegitimate"—his parents are. Since you are not in contact with your brother, you probably shouldn't "do" anything.

DEAR ABBY: Altho this problem might sound funny to some people, it is serious to me.

My boyfriend has a very coarse beard. He shaves just before he picks me up, but by the end of the evening his face is like sandpaper. Needless to say, it sure does tear up my face.

Right now he is in the service, so I see him only a few days at a time, then my face has three months to heal, but what am I going to do when he gets out of service and we decide to get married? Must I go around with a face that is irritated and burning and practically bleeding?

Possibly one of your readers (men who have had this problem, or women who have found a solution) can help me.

HAMBURGER PUSS

DEAR PUSS: I will pass on to you any suggestions I receive from my readers. In the meantime, easy on the cheek-to-cheeking.

Horoscope By SYDNEY OMARR

It's In The Stars—

("The wise man controls his destiny . . . astrology points the way.")

Forecast for Tuesday October 24, 1967

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 19): Your sense of responsibility comes to fore. You feel a need to get at the facts. Many seem today to depend on you. Utilize best judgment. Make up your mind—follow through.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Accent on short journeys, ideas, calls and messages. Key is awareness, willingness to share and exchange. Be alert. Day is active. Surprises due. Don't be caught off guard.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Some who care for you may make money request. Be analytical. Accent diplomacy. Be fair but firm. Don't give anything away. Get assurance that you will be repaid.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Be perceptive. See people, situations as they actually exist. You may be given important assignment. Know that you are capable. Confidence today can be key to success.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Seek facts which appear hidden. Means dig deep. Don't be satisfield with superficial indications. One at a distance gets "in touch." Review past experience.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 22): Argument with friend could clear air, turn out favorably. Don't be depressed by minor disagreements. Money question will be settled. Follow through on hunch.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 - Oct. 22): Stress independence of thought, action. Don't wait to be told what to do. Do it! Day to show off your worth, unique abilities. Prestige can rise. Your talents can be rewarded.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Indirect approach likely to achieve best results. Check your facts. Then present them in quiet manner. Encourage confidence by exhibiting quiet assurance.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): What you seek is not obvious. But you can discover it. What is required today amounts to persistence. Get to the heart of matters. Discuss "touchy" subjects with loved one.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 19): Accent on marriage, partnership, the way you respond to challenge. Emphasis today on your ability to be adaptable. If questions arise, consult expert—including legal adviser.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20 - Feb. 18): Follow through on ideas. Your personal magnetism rating today is high. Many are attracted. Turn on charm. You can get almost anything you need. Know this — act accordingly.

PISCES (Feb. 19 - Mar. 20): You may have to temporarily pull in financial reins. Take stock. Know what you're getting for your money. You have chance to succeed if careful with funds.

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are affectionate, emotional at times and prone to act on impulse. You require love in manner that most people need food and water. Your life is complete when you find one to share it with—otherwise there is lack of completion.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for CANCER, LEO, VIRGO. Special word to TAURUS: short journey could prove significant.

Bidding Changes in 35 Years

By Oswald & James Jacoby

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Oswald: "There was a long period in contract bidding when certain jumps to game were regarded as strong slam invitations. I am glad to see that we are getting away from that. It seems rather obvious that the way to approach a slam is slowly but surely—not helter-skelter."

Jim: "This is possible because we have added a lot of gadgets."

Oswald: "When I held today's South hand with the late Louis Watson back in 1932, we had no trouble bidding the slam. He didn't bid four clubs, and I didn't bid four no-trump. This was too early even for Blackwood. I did respond one spade. He raised me to four, and I bid six. West opened the king of clubs and held the first trick. The rest of the way was easy."

Jim: "The bidding in the box shows how we would handle the same hand today. North's jump to four clubs is a fragment bid designed to show enough to bid the spade game with a singleton club as part of the strength."

Oswald: "South's four no-trump is of course Blackwood. He can use it safely because he isn't worried about his worthless doubleton in clubs. North has taken care of that problem by means of his fragment bid."

Jim: "Couldn't you have been more scientific back then and invited the slam by means of a five heart bid?"

Oswald: "I suppose so, but we were not science-minded in those days. The theory was that if we leaped into a slam, we might not get the best defense. Thus, if North held two clubs and one heart, my six spade bid might be met by some lead other than a club, whereupon I would have stolen the slam."

Quick Quiz

Q—What is the central body of the sun called?

A—The photosphere or sphere of light; this is the sun that we see.

Q—Can whooping cranes be raised in captivity?

A—This year for the first time eggs were taken direct from a nest in the wild and hatched in captivity at the Patuxent Wildlife Research Center in Maryland. This is of great significance since whooping cranes are the near-dodos of the bird world

Q—At the opening of the War of Secession what was the number of states on each side?

A—Twenty-two Union states and 11 Confederate.

canine (KAY-nine) of or like a dog

The young animal doctor, a man whose practice was limited to the canine family, was explaining to a dog owner the importance of caring for a pet.

Three excited teenagers, after listening to a lecture about the various kinds of canine animals which could be trained as household companions, decided they would ask their parents for permission to own a dog.

After reading a detailed study of canine habits written by a famous dog trainer, the patient bachelor was able to teach his dog many new tricks.

Belinda Did Not Lack Plot

BY CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Whatever the ailments of Sunday night's "Johnny Belinda," ABC's remake of a 20-year-old movie and an even older play, it did not suffer from a lack of plot.

Indeed, all of its melodramatic elements would have kept any soap opera going for at least a full season, and it was pure concentrate of soap opera with which we were presented.

In two hours, less time out for commercials, we saw a little workhorse of a deaf mute, called "Dummy" by a callous father and stern aunt, learn sign language and turn into a pretty girl. Then she was raped, had a child, and shot and killed the baby's father when he tried to take the child from her. And before the big dramatic murder trial climax and happy ending, there was even time for another killing plus a tender romance.

Mia Farrow played the wistful, silent girl with the same-wide-eyed, dewy stoicism she gave to her role of Allison in "Peyton Place," and she never really said much in that series either.

"Johnny Belinda" is the first of a series of programs adapted from successful old movies produced by David Susskind and his Talent Associates.

Several seasons back Susskind was busily turning out this sort of thing and even then nothing memorable resulted. But we have come to expect better things since Susskind was responsible for some of the most exciting evenings of drama we have encountered in recent seasons.

The program was, however, a handsome, lavishly mounted production. A horse-and-buggy period piece, it was set in rural Nova Scotia, and although obviously a studio job the farm—with chickens and horses and cows—was most realistic.

Ian Bannen, an attractive TV newcomer, played Dr. Richardson, the young doctor who gently taught Belinda to "speak" with her hands and brought her in contact with the world. He was impressive and believable in the part.

David Carradine swaggered his way enthusiastically through the part of the bad guy who assaulted the girl, fathered the child and got his comeuppance.

But from start to finish the program seemed more an exercise in play-acting than drama involving human emotions.

CBS Eric Severeid, in mid-September, interviewed Eric Hoffer, a 65-year-old ex-longshoreman turned philosopher. Later President Johnson quoted from the interview and subsequently invited Hoffer to visit him at the White House. All of which persuaded CBS it would be a good idea to rerun the interview on Nov. 14.

Synod In Final Week

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Roman Catholic Synod of Bishops went into its final week today with action on its most important topics still ahead.

The tasks:

—Finish debate on liturgy changes.

—Hear and pass on a committee's report on doctrine and theology, the main issue being modern trends and tradition.

—Vote on whether to propose to Pope Paul VI changes in the Church's mixed marriage rules.

—Attend a meeting of the Pope and Orthodox Patriarch Athenagoras, who is scheduled to arrive for a historic, three-day Christian unity visit Thursday.

—Draft an appeal for world peace.

There was speculation the peace appeal might coincide with a new move by the Pope for an end to the Vietnam war. There have been indications in the Vatican press that a new papal attempt to foster peace in Southeast Asia was in the offing.

The most awaited developments are those dealing with doctrine and theology and the mixed marriage vote.

The synod elected a committee Oct. 12 to formulate a document on doctrine.

In debate on that topic the synod heard clashing views on the extent to which modern theological trends were endangering traditional Church teaching. A document prepared for the bishops by the office of Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, a Vatican conservative, was criticized by many in the synod as too pessimistic.

The 12-member committee is dominated by progressives and its report is expected to stress a more open view.

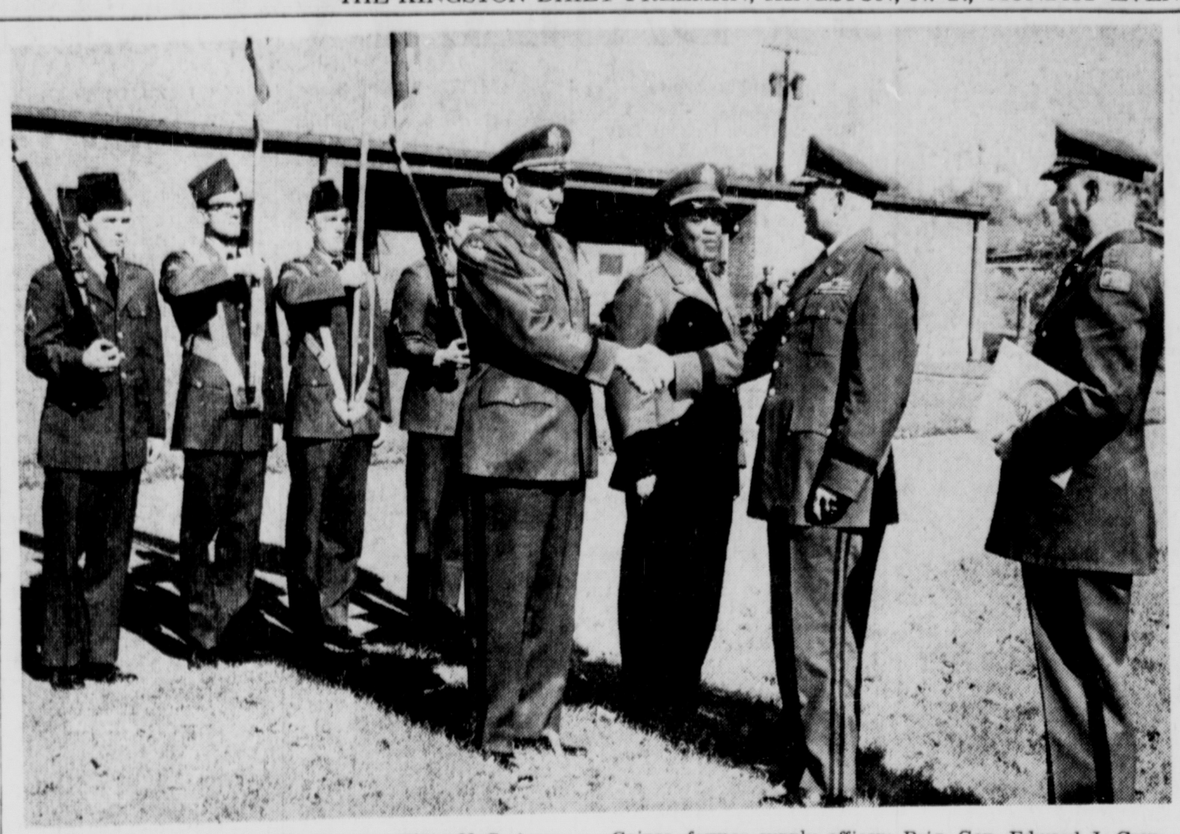

The bishops can ask to start a new debate on the report before they vote on it.

Vatican observers were expecting the vote on mixed marriages to show greater differences of opinion than were revealed in the synod's only other two votes—on canon law and seminaries.

A large number of bishops came out for some liberalization of the Church's restrictions on Catholics marrying outside their faith, but there were sharp differences over how far the changes should go.

The bishops will be asked eight questions in the mixed marriage vote. One of these is whether the Church should ease its requirements for assurances that the children of mixed marriages be raised as Catholics.

Another is whether it should drop its rule that for validity such marriages must be performed before a Catholic priest and two witnesses.

Viet Declaration

Governors Plot Own Course

ABOARD SS INDEPENDENCE (AP) — Republican governors, who blocked action on a Democratic resolution of support for the U.S. stand in Vietnam, may issue a war policy declaration of their own in December.

The declaration might be sounded when the Republican Governors' Association meets Dec. 8 and 9 at Palm Beach, Fla., said Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe.

"I wouldn't be surprised to see it," Volpe said. "It would express support for our fighting men in Vietnam."

At the stormy windup of the 59th National Governors Conference, Volpe joined 17 other Republicans in voting to bar action on a resolution of war support. GOP governors contended the resolution was White-House inspired, politically motivated and not the proper business of a conference on state affairs.

Volpe, new chairman of the national conference, said he hopes Vietnam will not be debated again when the nation's governors convene in Cincinnati for their next meeting on July 20, 1968.

But Volpe said Republican governors meeting at Palm Beach could reaffirm support of Americans fighting in Vietnam without appearing to endorse the Johnson administration's conduct of the war.

The GOP governors caucusing aboard the Independence asked the Republican policy committee to draft platform planks for the 1968 convention expressing a moderate view on domestic issues and offering an alternative to Johnson's conduct of the war in Vietnam.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said preliminary drafts of the GOP platform might be available for the December Republican governors parley.

The governors also are demanding that one of their number share the chairmanship of the platform committee at the 1968 convention with Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill. Dirksen has been outspoken in support of Johnson's Vietnam policy.

Dirksen had no comment on the governors' demands.

Also aboard the Independence, the new governor's conference executive committee met and made plans for two overseas trips next year. In late January, 8 to 10 governors will go to Israel for a five- or seven-week visit as guests of the Israeli government. And in early April, 20 governors will begin a tour of Japan and the Orient.

Volpe said it is possible some governors on the Oriental trip will visit Vietnam, but he said any such stopover would be arranged through the White House. It has not been decided which governors will take the trip, Volpe added.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon will throw his hat into the ring for the Republican presidential nomination around Jan. 15, Nixon associates aboard the Independence said. They said he plans to announce his candidacy after making appearances in four key presidential primary states: New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Oregon.

Michigan Gov. George Romney has bought a half hour of national television time for Nov. 15 and said it is possible he might announce his candidacy on that broadcast.

Medical Group Backs Aims for Clean Air

The Medical Society of the County of Ulster has endorsed the goals and work of the Ulster County Action for Clean Air Committee, and has called attention to Cleaner Air Week to be observed Oct. 22 to 28.

The endorsement was in the form of a resolution adopted unanimously at the Society's regular October meeting, according to Dr. Frederic W. Holcomb Jr., secretary.

The resolution notes that the Medical Society will join with the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, industry, public health officials of the Ulster County Health Department and the Health Department of the State of New York, with private citizens and other agencies "in actively supporting the goals and work of the Ulster County Action for Clean Air Committee."

Noting that "there is increasingly strong medical evidence of the deleterious effects of air pollution on respiratory health," the resolution states that "preventive measures must be taken now to keep Ulster County's air from being further contaminated."

Governor Rockefeller has proclaimed October 22 to 28 as "Cleaner Air Week" in New York State.

Jewels, Cash Taken From Walker Home

Theft of jewelry valued at $780 together with $76 in cash was reported to the sheriff's office Friday afternoon.

The property was taken from the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker at Sleightsburg sometime during the afternoon. Ulster County Investigator Harold T. Bowers and Deputy Sheriff Donald Van Aken reported a party had been going on at the Walker home prior to the discovery.

A watch, diamond ring, opal ring and other jewelry was reported missing. The matter is still under investigation.

JAVITS: Sign of Leaving

By HUGH REYNOLDS

"Most Americans realize we can't get out of Vietnam tomorrow but they do want some indication of a beginning of the end to our presence in Vietnam," U. S. Senator Jacob K. Javits said at the dedication of Ulster County Community College in Stone Ridge, Saturday.

Interviewed by The Freeman after his speech Javits revealed that approval from the Department of Housing and Urban Development will be coming "within two or three weeks" on the $365,000 proposed Rondout Neighborhood Recreation Center in Broadway East. Javits also said approval would be coming on a $5,000 painting contract by the Kingston Urban Renewal Agency for rehabilitation of apartments in the UR area.

Elaborating on his speech published in The Freeman Saturday, the Republican senator from New York gave his definitions of "Hawks" and "Doves." "A Dove" Javits said, "is someone who wants to pick up and leave Vietnam, which we can't do. A Hawk is someone who wants to bomb Vietnam into a wasteland which we won't do. If we do destroy Vietnam we'll incur a tradition of hate for America which will endure in Asia for generations."

Javits spoke on the peace demonstrations in Washington terming it "understandable and entirely proper in this country." "Who better to protest than the young men who may die in the wars we send them to," Javits said.

Speaking of "the beginning of the end" Javits told the audience of some 600 persons that he felt the beginning,

RFK: Negotiated Peace

By CHARLES BERMPOHL

Senator Robert F. Kennedy came to Kingston Saturday night and claimed that he was for a negotiated settlement in Vietnam and that he favored the proposed New York State Constitution.

Kennedy read news and sports bulletins at the Community Chest Videothon and, responding to questions put to him by WGHQ's president Harry Thayer, said that he was "strongly opposed" to "pulling out" of Vietnam.

He further said, "We have to continue our search for a settlement (in Vietnam)," that "our commitments are limited over there," and "the struggle, as it is being conducted at the moment, will last a long time."

New York State's Democratic Senator did say that the United States position in Vietnam was fraught with "great risks and great danger."

On Demonstrators

Commenting on the peace demonstrations taking place in the nation's capitol and elsewhere, Kennedy said that such demonstrations "sometimes get out of hand" and "some (of the demonstrators) are harmful to their cause," but that demonstrations, generally, "are healthy."

The first-term Democrat also declared, "I am in favor" of the proposed State Constitution.

3 Die in Mishaps; One at Saugerties

By WALTER S. CLARK JR.

Traffic fatalities in Ulster, Columbia and Orange Counties during the weekend claimed the lives of three persons and resulted in injuries to several others.

Victims of the highway fatalities were: Edson Wolven, 80, of Route 2, Box 244, Saugerties; Donald Sienkiewicz, 31, Red Hook, and Donald Francis O'Loughlin, 25, of 31A Fayette Avenue, Wayne, N. J.

Wolven was Ulster County's 38th traffic fatality of 1967. The 38th highway death in 1966 occurred on Aug. 12, when a 20-year-old Scarsdale youth was killed as his motorcycle slammed into a truck on Route 208 near the Wallkill prison.

Kingston State Police said Wolven was driving his car south on West Saugerties Road near Blue Mountain at 7:15 p. m., Saturday when the vehicle failed to negotiate a left curve. The car veered off the pavement and knocked down a utility pole, disrupting electric power and telephone service in the area until repairs were made.

M. A. Overfield, customer service supervisor of Central Hudson Gas & Electric Corp., said the company was notified at 7:18 p. m. Saturday that the utility pole had been knocked down and that service in the area was cut off. He said crews of workmen were dispatched to the scene and service was restored to normal at 9:40 p. m. Customers in the immediate area were without service more than two hours.

Trooper John McMickle said Wolven was dead at the scene. A passenger in the car, Marie Parks, 70, of Route 2, Saugerteis., was rushed to Kingston Hospital by Saugerties Ambulance Service. She suffered multiple fractures and lacerations of the body, according to an investigation by State Police Sergeant Charles Bundschuh and Trooper Robert Mackey.

Authorities said the investigation would continue as troopers checked reports that the Wolven car was forced off the pavement by an unidentified vehicle which did not stop.

Death Accidental

Ulster County Coroner William S. Keyser ruled death of Wolven accidental. He said the man died of internal injuries and a crushed chest.

The Town of Saugerties fatality was the sixth highway mishap in the county this month that resulted in death. According to records each of the six fatal traffic accidents involved one car.

Claverack State Police reported Sienkiewicz was killed shortly after 2:15 a. m. Sunday when his car was involved in a headon collision on Route 9 at the intersection of the Stickles Gravel Quarry entrance in the Town of Livingston.

According to an investigation of the fatality by BCI Investigator James Savosky and Trooper C. J. Fuda of Claverack, Paul McVerry, 22, of New Zealand, was driving his car north on Route 9 when his vehicle apparently went out of control and crossed the center dividing lines.

McVerry's car was in headon collision with the southbound automobile owned and driven by Sienkiewicz. McVerry was taken to Columbia Memorial Hospital, Hudson, suffering a double fracture of the left forearm and multiple bruises and contusions. A passenger in his car, Tim Witlock, 20, of Buckinghamshire, England, sustained multiple lacerations and contusions of the face and a broken collarbone. He also was taken to the hospital in Hudson and admitted.

List Cause

Authorities reported the Red Hook man died of internal injuries and possible skull fracture.

Troopers said criminal action is pending. Investigation of the fatality is continuing.

Newburgh City police investigated a one-car traffic fatality which occurred early Sunday on Lake Street in that Orange County city. Killed in the mishap was Donald Francis O'Loughlin, owner of the car involved in the accident.

Lieut. Robert Jackson of the Traffic Division, who directed the investigation of the fatality, said O'Loughlin was a passenger in his car which was operated at the time by Philip C. Crist, 21, of Lake Hopatacong, Warton, N. J.

Crist was taken to St. Luke's Hospital, Newburgh, suffering a fractured left leg and other injuries. He was cited by police for driving at a speed not reasonable and prudent. The summons is returnable at a later date in Newburgh City Court.

Newburgh authorities reported Crist was traveling south on Lake Street in that city early yesterday when he lost control of the vehicle, as it careened across the pavement and crashed into a concrete bridge abutment before it overturned.

Police reported the car was demolished.

Israeli Mood Bitter

Sinking 'War Act'

Israel's angry mood hardened in bitter official statements today and Egyptian officials said they expect an attack "anytime" to avenge Egypt's sinking of an Israeli destroyer in what may have been one of warfare's first sea-to-sea missile raids.

Israeli Prime Minister Levi Eshkol called the sinking of the destroyer Elath Saturday "an act of war in open sea" and said "this despicable attack was launched without any cause." Egypt's Cabinet asserted the warship was in its territorial waters when missiles shattered it. The exchange came as Soviet Deputy Defense Minister Marshal Matvei Zakharov arrived in Cairo unannounced and President Gamal Abdel Nasser called his ministers together to discuss what the semiofficial newspaper Al Ahram reported were "the eventualities of the situation."

The purpose of Zakharov's mission was not disclosed but the commander of Israel's navy said he believed "Soviet missiles fired from Soviet ships supplied to the Egyptian navy" sank the Elath, killing 15 of her crew of 202, wounding 48 more and leaving 36 unaccounted for.

Former Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion, speaking at his 81st birthday party, said the missiles were not fired by Egyptians. He would not name, however, those persons he said launched them.

In Cairo, an Egyptian official told The Associated Press: "We expect renewed Israeli aggression anytime. Our armed forces are constantly on alert."

Eshkol reflected the angry mood of his countrymen in a broadcast to the nation. "It was a deliberate and unprovoked attack," he said. "The blood of our sailors, like the blood of our civilians and soldiers, will not be shed wantonly."

It was disclosed meanwhile that as late as Friday Defense Minister Moshe Dayan, hero of Israel's three victorious wars against the Arabs, had said the Suez Canal area is "likely to become once again the spark which touches off war."

Israeli and Egyptian troops face each other across the canal and have exchanged fire sporadically since the June 5-10 war.

New Conflict

Dayan warned that a new conflict would involve the major powers and said the Soviet Union's speedy rearmament of Egypt was encouraging its aggressiveness.

"The Elath sinking has made it crystal clear that the tasks of the Israel defense force are far from over," said the Jerusalem Post, which generally mirrors government views.

"Indeed," the newspaper said, "it has hardened the feeling that there is no real hope of achieving a peaceful solution in the area with the present Arab regimes."

In New York, Israeli Foreign Minister Abba Eban said he would be in contact today with representatives of friendly governments "to point out the extreme gravity with which Israel regards the sinking of the Elath." He called it the "most flagrant" violation of the cease-fire that ended the June war.

In Cairo, Al Ahram said that "the Elath made passes in repeated and clear provications" of the 12-mile Egyptian territorial water boundary.

When the Elath moved within 11 miles of the Egyptian coast off Port Said, the two missile boats moved in, firing four missiles and sinking the destroyer, the Egyptian account said.

Political Section In The Freeman

A special tabloid-size political supplement will be included in Tuesday's regular edition of The Freeman.

The supplement, put together through the efforts of the League of Women Voters of Kingston, New Paltz, Saugerties, and Woodstock, along with Freeman staff members, will provide background material on all the major candidates, those running for the new County Legislature, and aldermen nominees for Kingston's 13 wards.

There will also be a listing of candidates running for elective offices in the 20 Towns of Ulster County.

Featured also will be a sample ballot with important instructions for the voter.

This special supplement will summarize the proposed new State Constitution, and explain the one proposition (Transportation Bond Issue) and two amendments (Job Development Authority and Blue Ridge Ski Center.).

The County Legislator candidates responded to a questionnaire sent to them by the League of Women Voters, as did the nominees for County Judge, District Attorney, County Treasurer, and Coroner.

The supplement will provide the voter with valuable information concerning the issues and the candidates, new photographs of the candidates, and maps of the varied legislative districts.

Another Brigade to Vietnam

By EDWIN Q. WHITE
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. warplanes struck at a naval yard outside Haiphong for the first time Sunday as the vanguard of 4,100 fresh American infantrymen began coming ashore to help hold down South Vietnam's unstable northern battle zone.

Elements of the 198th Light Infantry Brigade joined 30,000 other infantrymen and 77,000 Marines already in the five northernmost Provinces. The area, known as 1st Corps, is one of deep Viet Cong penetration and high enemy operating efficiency.

The arrival of the full brigade over the next few days will push the total American strength in South Vietnam to approximately 467,000 men.

Jets Hit Target

Shortly before the new troops swept out of landing craft at Chu Lai on the South China Sea, Navy jets took advantage of a break in bad weather to hit a new target, a naval yard seven miles outside Haiphong.

Fliers said they heavily damaged an oil depot and a drydock and destroyed a torpedo patrol boat. Other pilots pounded railroad yards 1.7 miles from the center of Haiphong in continuing efforts to stop the flow of supplies out of the key North Vietnamese port.

A carrier-based Navy A4 Skyhawk was shot down by enemy ground fire in the Haiphong area, the U.S. Command reported, and the pilot was missing. It was the 707th announced U.S. warplane loss over the North. Hanoi had claimed downing two U.S. raiders.

Marine jets struck a railroad siding and bridge 20 miles south of Hanoi. Other Marine pilots reported destroying 35 enemy fortifications just above the demilitarized zone in North Vietnam.

Air Force fighter-bombers from Thailand struck targets above Hanoi, bombing a railroad bridge, rail lines and a missile site. Pilots told of cutting rail lines 39 miles northeast of Hanoi and hitting approaches to the Lang Lau railroad bridge 36 miles north of the capital.

No significant ground fighting was reported across the country Monday, a lull apparently related to voting in South Vietnam for a new House of Representatives. About 72.9 per cent of the 5.8 million qualified voters were reported have turned out to choose among 1,200 candidates.

99 Cong Die

In a delayed report on a ground action, U.S. headquarters said South Vietnamese irregulars and their U.S. Special Forces advisors killed 99 Viet Cong in a sharp clash Saturday 29 miles northeast of Saigon.

South Vietnamese casualties were termed light, while two American "Green Beret" advisers were reported to have been wounded.

The light infantry reinforcements, part of the newest brigade in the Army, bring three infantry battalions, an artillery battalion and support units totaling 4,100 men to the Americal Division operating in the southern part of 1st Corps.

Patrolling the area which stretches to the demilitarized zone had been mainly a Marine job until August when officials acknowledged that the Leathernecks lacked the manpower to handle the deeply rooted guerrillas.

Army troops have since been brought in to all sectors of the 1st Corps, including the edge of the DMZ where they look down the throats of the heaviest North Vietnamese artillery.

The new brigade, however, will go to the southern sector of the 1st Corps.

Washington Rally Grinds to an End

WASHINTON (AP) — U.S. marshals hauled a laststand group of Vietnam war protesters from Pentagon grounds early today, ending a sometimes-violent weekend rally and march on the troop-surrounded military nerve center of the nation.

Sponsors hailed the demonstration as the birth of a new peace movement.

Thousands participated. Hundreds were arrested. Dozens were injured. And a few got inside the huge five-sided building.

Dave Dellinger, chief organizer of the march, declared those who oppose the war now have shifted "from simple dissent to resistance."

On a plaza-like area just outside the Pentagon's mall entrance a hard-core band of dissenters—some bearded, some shaggy haired, some wearing trinkets of the hippie cult, some rather normal college types—resisted to the last.

At midnight Sunday, when their permit to stage a "nonviolent" demonstration expired, marshals armed with night sticks and pistols and aided by military police carried the protesters to Army vans. The Defense Department said 208 were hauled to a federal detention center at Occoquan, Va., where most of the 439 persons arrested earlier had been taken.

Midnight Deadline

As the midnight deadline approached, an Army colonel seated in a jeep repeatedly broadcast to the demonstrators a warning that those "who do not leave voluntarily by midnight will be arrested."

Officials estimated there were 2,000 troops on hand for the cleanup arrests. Before the operation Army Chief of Staff Harold K. Johnson personally conferred with unit commanders.

After the last demonstrator departed, there was a moment of silence and then a wave of cheering from the troops. The marshals then applauded the soldiers.

Some of the soldiers were to remain on duty through the night.

Left behind on the lawn and asphalt parking area of the Pentagon's mall entrance was a janitor's nightmare of scattered debris including beer cans, newspapers and piles of ashes from weekend campfires.

Trucks equipped with giant vacuums sucked up most of the trash. But painted slogans, scrawled on Pentagon masonry, remained as telltale signs of the brief occupation.

A few points of dispute also lingered.

Prof. Thompson Bradley of Swarthmore College, a demonstration leader, charged federal marshals and Army officers beat and kicked demonstrators outside the Pentagon at the height of action Saturday. The Pentagon maintained that government personnel used the

Kingston Teacher Elected

Resnick Backs Strike Right

Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick (D-Ellenville), speaking before a convention of the Empire State Teachers Federation at the Gov. Clinton Hotel Saturday night, told the teachers the only way to "correct the inequity of low teachers' salaries was for the teachers to strike."

Resnick attacked the recently passed Taylor Law which prohibits strikes by public employes, teachers included, saying, "Politicians don't go to the root of the matter, they pass a Taylor Law. Certain groups of public employes (police, firemen, could endanger the public safety if they went on strike. To put teachers in this category is sheer nonsense. I put the Taylor Law on par with the Anti-riot Bill passed by the Congress."

Resnick was introduced by Dr. Israel Kugler, past-president of the Empire State Teachers Federation, who referred to Resnick as "a most unusual national legislaturer."

Resnick said that before World War II teachers were well paid but in recent years their role has eroded to the point where they earn less, on a national average, than construction workers. Said the congressman, "When it comes to paying public employes, it's the money, not the principle."

Terming American education "the best in the world," Resnick added that it was nowhere near sufficient. He spoke of the need to educate "hundreds of thousands" of Negroes migrating from the south into the north every year. Also handicapped and mentally retarded children.

Albert Shanker, president of the United Federation of Teachers which recently struck in New York City, was introduced from the audience.

Speaking before the convention Friday night, Shanker assailed the salary publicity of the New York City Board of Education. Shanker hit the city board for advertising minimum salaries in the system rather than maximum salaries. He blamed the board for creating the teacher shortage by "not putting its best foot forward."

A Kingston teacher, Thomas Mannix, was elected to succeed Dr. Kugler as president of the State Teachers Federation. Dr. Kugler is now president of the newly organized New York College and University Council of the American Federation of teachers.

Resnick noted that the main source of revenue to school districts was the property tax which he termed "the biggest evil and biggest inequity in our whole tax structure."

Stating that the property tax did not take into consideration the ability of the owner to pay at any level, Resnick called for an education tax. He would base this on either gross or net income and it would be graduated. Resnick advocated higher taxes for commercial owners over private dwelling owners.

In conclusion Resnick said, "We must work on a system where our public employes get the wages they are entitled to in comparison with other workers."

Present at the meeting were Mr. and Mrs. George Yerry Jr. Yerry was lauded for his support of teachers in the past. He is a member of the New York State Workmen's Compensation Board.

General Raps Bomb Curbs

WASHINGTON (AP) — An Air Force general charges that target restrictions in the air war against North Vietnam caused "more pilot and airplane losses."

The bitter criticism of past bombing limitation came from retired Maj. Gen. Gilbert E. Myers, who ended 30 years of military service as deputy commander of the 7th Air Force. He served 15 months in Vietnam.

He told the Senate preparedness subcommittee in testimony released today that many pilots were killed because of heavy Washington on bombing missions in North Vietnam.

"I felt that we were literally fighting with one hand tied behind our backs, that we could have been much more effective had we been able to pick more lucrative targets that existed in North Vietnam, that this would have had a much greater impact on the enemy and his ability to carry on the war in the South," Myers told the subcommittee Aug. 29.

Myers said that initially only one or two fixed targets were released at a time because "they were all approved at the Washington level."

"The existing practice of doling out the targets one, two and three at a time is too restrictive and results in more pilot and airplane losses," he said.

"Obviously the most effective, most remunerative targets in North Vietnam were not struck," he said.

He was the final witness before the panel, which previously recommended increased and more effective use of available air power against North Vietnam.

In other heavily censored testimony released today, Gen. Harold K. Johnson, Army chief of staff, said the Joint Chiefs of Staff unanimously recommended two years ago "as heavy a blow as possible" against important military targets in North Vietnam.

"This view was not supported," he testified. "Therefore we supported the gradual approach that has been used since then."

Gen. Wallace M. Greene, commandant of the Marine Corps, testified he advocated "more effective bombing and I am also advocating more bombing if that is necessary."

"I have advocated the rapid and heavy application of air power to targets in North Vietnam as well as in South Vietnam, wherever they might be found," Greene said.

When the subcommittee issued its recommendations Aug. 31 it said the top generals favored more bombing.

Both ground force generals disagreed with earlier testimony by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, who said even the Joint Chiefs admitted some of the targets they recommended—but were not authorized to bomb—were insignificant.

McNamara said only a few of several hundred bombing targets asked by the military had not been authorized.

Individually some of these might seem unimportant, Gens. Greene and Johnson said, but as a package they called them important to the over-all military mission.

Parades Support Troops

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Americans turned out by the tens of thousands in the New York metropolitan area over the weekend to parade peacefully in a mass show of support for U.S. fighting men in Vietnam.

The demonstrations, sponsored by the National Committee for Responsible Patriotism, included a nationwide "Lights On" program, with thousands of motorists keeping their car headlights burning during daylight hours to back up the presence of GIs in Southeast Asia.

The biggest event, a parade in Newark, N.J., had 60,000 marchers with about an equal number of spectators.

Some 100,000 persons marched in several New York City boroughs and on Long Island, with another estimated 100,000 looking on. About 6,000 marched in Waterbury, Conn.

The peaceful parading gave sharp contrast to the weekend of anti-Vietnam violence in Washington, with some of the estimated 35,000 protesters clashing with guards surrounding the Pentagon in scuffles that left about 50 injured. During the two days of protest about 600 persons were arrested as thousands of youths tried to crash through the lines of troops and storm the Defense Department complex.

Early today, the government broke up the tag-end of the demonstrations, arresting more than 150 die hards who ignored the Sunday midnight deadline.

In West Berlin, police ended a weekend of anti-U.S. demonstrations Sunday by hosing down about 1,000 student protesters from six water-cannon trucks.

In London, police fought a pitched battle with about 3,000 anti-Vietnam war demonstrators outside the U. S. Embassy, Scotland Yard arrested 47.

New York Mayor John V. Lindsay, a Republican, speaking at a Battery Park vigil, said that while Americans are behind U.S. fighting men in Vietnam there are "deep divisions" on long-range political goals.

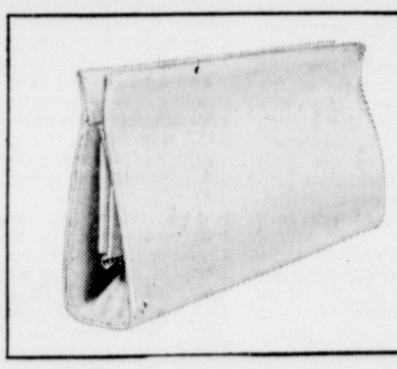

Meanwhile Secretary of State Dean Rusk released a letter Sunday that he said was received from a GI in Vietnam before the past weekend demonstration.

Rusk said the serviceman, not identified, told him that antiwar actions of U.S. students "caused great controversy over here and therefore we are writing you this letter."

KINGSTON, NEW YORK, OCTOBER 23, 1967

Referendum on Ward

The California Supreme Court ordered the city of San Francisco on September 18 to put the question of withdrawing American troops from Vietnam on the ballot in November. This decision was based on the fact that the San Francisco city charter contains a provision for a referendum on matters of policy.

Immediately, two petitions were filed with New York City Clerk Herman Katz requiring him to put the question of peace in Vietnam on the November ballot there. The petitioners maintained that if it is legal for San Francisco to vote on the issue, it should be for New Yorkers.

New York State Supreme Court Justice Francis T. Murphy Jr. has now ruled differently. Pointing out that the New York City charter contains no provision for a declaration of policy, Murphy upheld Katz in ruling the question off the ballot in New York.

Furthermore, Murphy made a point which seems to us should rule out a referendum on the war in any city in the nation. In his decision, Murphy said that both New York and San Francisco were "without power to effectuate a withdrawal of troops in Vietnam," and so there was nothing to be gained from such a referendum, except possibly for the enemy in the chaos it might stir.

At best, a referendum would be a public opinion poll at the taxpayers' expense.

Economy Measure

The long-drawn out fight to compel a cut in federal spending reached a climax, when the House voted 238 to 164 to order all expenditures held at the level of the fiscal year that ended June 30 last. Though it exempted Social Security, highway construction, old-age assistance, veterans pensions, postal and internal revenue operations, military salaries, war-related activities, Medicare and payments on the national debt, the reductions in spending would come to $7 billion.

Even though it was recognized that the Senate may not join in the economy measure, the House's action served notice both on the Senate and on the White House that it was in dead earnest. It had another ace. The action was attached to a proposal for financing Government agenices whose regular appropriations bills have not cleared Congress. They will be technically penniless without such temporary financing.

If the House stands firm, it is in a position to compel acceptance of its economy measure. In that case, there is doubt that the surtax would be passed, for a slash of $7 billion in spending could make the surtax unnecessary.

Drinking Data

Borrowing the idea of the "instant replay" featured in sports television coverage, the Federal Highway Administration has developed a camera that it hopes will furnish foolproof data on driving behavior that leads to a traffic accident.

A test program is being conducted at a busy intersection in Buffalo. The camera monitors traffic there continuously. The sound of a crash sets off a signal and preserves the picture from 20 seconds before the impact. It can then be replayed slowly, to reveal every motion of the car involved — or the pedestrians—in each accident.

Up to now, a major weakness in accident investigation has been the reliability of witnesses. It is well known also that different people see and report what they see differently. This makes for disagreements. The instant replay camera should end this confusion.

Lowell H. Bridewell, administrator of the U.S. Bureau of Public Roads, described the technique to a meeting of the American Automobile Association in Washington. He said it should be particularly useful in determining motorists' driving faults and showing them how to improve their skills.

When a broad enough installation is made across the country, more and more drivers will be shown their faults. Hopefully, as they correct them, accidents will be prevented. It is a promising tool in the never-ending fight to prevent traffic accidents.

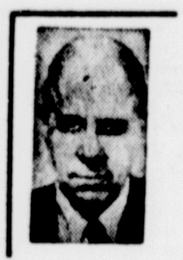

The appointment of former Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York by Republican Gov. Nelson A. Rockfeller as chairman of the non-partisan Urban Action Committee puts Wagner in a position to strike at the root causes of racial unrest and rioting in the nation's cities. By giving him new political exposure it could advance Wagner's ambition to run for the Senate against Jacob Javits. That would be a strange turn for a Republican governor to bring about.

James D. C. Murray, who defended more than 500 persons accused of murder, died the other day. Asked once how he could bring himself to defend persons accused of the most vile crimes, his reply is perhaps the defense of all criminal lawyers. He said, "Every man is entitled to legal defense. Only God knows what justice is, we only approximate it.

Reluctant to Blame Commies for Riots

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—For some undisclosed reason, officials of the Johnson administration are reluctant to concede that communists inside America are responsible to no small extent for some wildcat strikes, violence in street demonstrations, and riots.

The news from Great Britain, however, is different. A Reuters press association dispatch from London on Wednesday says:

"The British government today placed the blame for the current wave of strikes here on a communist plot to wreck the economy and ruin social democracy.

" 'There is now little doubt,' declared Labor Minister Ray Gunter, 'that the Communist Party is planning to make this a winter of disruption.' "

The British labor minister was quoted further as having declared that the communists have allied themselves with extreme left-wing Trotskyite movements in industry. He said that "their aim is to destroy our hopes of economic recovery."

Inside the United States some voices are being raised against communist activity, but thus far the Department of Justice has not announced any steps to prosecute communists who are behind some of the riots and disturbances.

Members of Congress, on the other hand, are becoming more vocal on the subject. Representatives Joe Pool, Democrat of Texas, and Paul Rogers, Democrat of Florida, have called on the Justice Department to do some prosecuting. They declare that the plain intent of the demonstrators here on Saturday around the Pentagon is to obstruct the work of the military headquarters and that "this on its face is sedition." Representative Robert Taft Jr., Republican of Ohio, has pointed out that communists all over the world will play up the march as evidence that the United States may have to quit the Vietnam war.

Representative William M. Colmer, Democrat of Mississippi, chairman of the House Rules Committee, is urging action on a bill to punish demonstrators who give aid to the enemy or block the movements of troops or military supplies. While this was cleared for floor action by the Rules Committee in May, it has never been pressed for passage by the Democratic leadership.

Senator George Murphy, Republican of California, in a speech to the Senate on Tuesday announced that he had written the Department of Justice about the efforts to close the induction center at Oakland as part of a nationwide protest movement against the draft, and had asked whether the instigators were in violation of federal law and would be prosecuted. The California senator said:

"I remain puzzled by the apparent failure of federal authorities to act in this matter. . . . It is strange that the burden of protecting a federal installation in Oakland again has fallen upon local and state authorities."

Senator Robert C. Byrd, Democrat of West Virginia, in a Senate speech declared that, while the National Mobilization Committee to end the War in Vietnam is a nationwide movement which includes some sincere pacifists, it also includes "a mixed bag of anarchists, socialists, black-power extremists, and communists of both the Moscow and Peking variety." He added:

"The role of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee in the march on the Pentagon should be thoroughly investigated to determine if funds are being transmitted to SNCC from Cuba for this or other forms of political warfare, and whether it is also possible that funds from communist Cuba or other communist countries might also be employed to aid some of the other participating organizations in the demonstrations during the week of October 16-21."

Senator John C. Stennis, Democrat of Mississippi, declares that there is "a very definite connection between the work of the communists in Cuba and some of the demonstrations in this country against the war."

ISTANBUL, Turkey — The night is clear and soft and there is a faint chill on the Bosporus. Babek is a restaurant which means "baby" and hangs on the final foot of Europe. A mile across the straits is Asia, and the automobile headlights wink and die on the hills. The two and a half million Turks of Istanbul occupy both continents.

A line of small fishing boats sweep the dark waters with bright lights. In the restaurant, Turkish families eat sweet-meats and shish kebab, and a fat accordionist plays the sad strains of the Wehrmacht love song, Lili Marlene. The applause is polite, but when he plays a swift folk song the diners swing in their chairs and nod approval.

At 9 o'clock, the night run of the Russian tankers begins. They are high and empty and they run fast through the narrow straits, mast lights dull yellow, and the fifteen-knot wake rocking little boats at moorings. The Russians time their voyages so that, eastbound, they clear the Dardanelles and the Sea of Marmara at night. In this way, the Turks do not get photographs.

They run straight into the Black Sea — only 45 minutes away — and on up to Batu for oil. The Soviet Black Sea battle force makes the same run in reverse. They clear Istanbul after sundown, and get out into the Aegean Sea before dawn. No pictures. When the American Sixth Fleet arrived, it dropped hooks at dawn and sent the white-uniformed sailors ashore at noon.

Once this was a city of intrigue. Von Papen worked for Hitler and he played Istanbul as though it were a violin. His agents watched everybody, and everybody watched his agents. The Simplon Express used to run all the way from Paris to Istanbul, and men in movie-type trenchcoats checked the passenger list.

Before that, the sultans had the city for 500 years and called it Constantinople, but no schoolboy could spell it so it was changed to Istanbul. The city still stands on seven hills and has seven gates, but the harems are museum curiosities, and the women wear no veils. The fez is gone too but can be bought in a souvenir shop for a dollar. The nation moved its capital to Ankara, but only Istanbul can boast 440 mosques with 2,000 minarets.

The calls to prayer occur at odd hours during the day, but now they come through tin loudspeakers. The faithful never face East; they face Mecca. Turkey is western-oriented, and dress is much like the United States. The men go to the mosques; women stay home and pray.

The distinguishing items about Istanbul are traffic jams, lack of schools, illicit opium traffic, and the Grand Bazaar.

The traffic jams are due to narrow, old-fashioned roads and when bumpers click, both drivers get out of their cars and make a scene in which the public joins. All hands are permitted to join in the argument, and one driver left, had lunch, and returned in time to find that the consensus was that he had jammed on his brakes too fast.

The population explosion has reached here, and Turkey is building elementary and high schools as fast as possible. It isn't fast enough. The dope traffic is owned by foreigners who buy opium at wholesale and then secrete it aboard a vesel standing in the Bosporus. A black ball weighing two kilos used to be hidden in a ship's ventilator. No more.

Now it goes into the crankcase of a car carried in the hold, or in a bale of long-fibered cotton. Or it may be dropped overboard in a lobster pot as the ship arrives at a U.S. port. The Turkish police work with the United Nations and Interpol to stop the traffic. It's as difficult as trying to suppress a sneeze when it's too late.

The Grand Bazaar is an endless arcade of jewelry shops, clothing shops, dress goods and shoes. A clerk is always outside each shop. He says an elaborate good day the moment a tourist pauses. Inside, the manager inhales and the sucker finds himself at the counter. No matter what type of merchandise is offered and no matter what the price, the joy of the merchant is in argument. He wants the customer to refuse the first price and to start walking out. When the sucker reaches the front door, the sale commences. My wife bought three pairs of ornate Turkish slippers, with turned-up toes, for $3. Normally, they sell for $6. The merchant made only a dollar on the transaction.

The accordionist and the violinist at Babek's play Die Rosenkavalier. It is a scented joy of old Vienna, and the dark waters of the Bosporus sparkle in the night. The city is so bright that the stars are pale....

Pope's Tolerance of Reds Shocks Militant Catholics

WASHINGTON — Among militant Catholics on Capitol Hill, an anti-Vatican undercurrent has been boiling since the late Pope John began to make conciliatory overtures to the communists. The discontent has abated only slightly since the succession of Pope Paul, who reminded lay Catholics just last weekend that they must obey the church hierarchy.

The improving relations between the Vatican and the Kremlin have deeply disturbed such fire-and-brimstone anti-communists as Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass., Sen. Tom Dodd, D-Conn., Rep. John Rooney, D-N. Y., and Rep. Mike Feighan, D-Ohio, all devout Catholics.

They were so shocked over the late Pope's tolerance of communism that they began holding private huddles with troubled clerics and laymen who also feared Pope John was softening up the church toward communism. Other notables joined in some of the discussions, including the late columnist Constantine Brown and Baron von Gutenberg, a descendant of the inventor of the printing press.

At these backroom sessions, the militants generally took a conspiratorial view. They agreed darkly that communists had infiltrated the Curia. Some claimed to have "inside information" that Pope John was being manipulated by his personal secretary, Msgr., Loris Capovilla.

Some of these distinguished Catholics actually expressed secret relief over the passing of Pope John. This was followed by dismay, however, over Pope Paul's similar attitude, expressed in appeals for disarmament, co-existence and his strong and repeated stand for a Vietnam peace.

When the new Pope also urged the United Nations to open its doors to all nations, presumably including Red China, the militants despaired.

Sen. Dodd even dispatched a private letter to the Holy Father, hand-delivered to the Papal Nuncio in Washington, pleading passionately: "I am worried by the implications of your holiness's proposal that the United Nations should study the right method of opening its doors to all countries now excluded from its roster.

"I gravely fear that, in the context of the present world situation, this statement will be construed by certain people as a plea for the admission of Red China to the United Nations . . . Red China's admission would rob the United Nations of all moral significance, and would paralyze whatever capacity for peaceful action the United Nations still retains. It would exacerbate rather than reduce the conflict between the free world and the communist world."

It should be interesting to watch how far McCormack, Dodd and Co. will go in their campaign against the Vatican.

Tempest Over Pot

Food and Drug Commissioner James Goddard, who is supposed to warn the public against dangerous drugs, astonishingly has been going around the country defending marijuana.

In Boston, he said that smoking marijuana, in his opinion, was no more dangerous than drinking liquor.

In Minneapolis, he added that he would no more object to his college daughter smoking "pot," as the hippies call the drug, than he would to her drinking a cocktail.

If this is Goddard's idea of what is safe for the public, his qualifications to approve drugs for public distribution would seem to be in serious doubt.

The Narcotics Bureau, which has had more experience with marijuana than has the lenient Goddard, has found that it often provokes users to violence and weakens their resistance to stronger drugs. Most heroin addicts were started on marijuana.

Narcotics agents also point out, parenthetically, that if Goddard's daughter is allowed to smoke "pot," she is subject to arrest for violating federal law.

Secretary of Defense McNamara has ordered the armed forces to accept more misfits and dropouts for military service, so President Johnson won't be forced to widen the draft or call up the reserves during the 1968 election year.

One hundred thousand draftees from the next-to-lowest category, who have been turned down in the past, will be inducted this year. They will be given special training with more emphasis on the use of charts, films and closed-circuit television.

The armed services also have been less strict about washing out recruits who don't make the grade during basic training. The Marines, for example, set aside a diet table and give special training to overweight recruits who formerly would have been discharged.

Misfits are also given a second chance. Those who are hard to handle, for example, are stripped of their clothes and compelled to stand in front of a mirror, stark naked, admiring themselves for a couple of hours. This has worked miracles in taking the starch out of them.

Henry J. Taylor Says

World-Wide Slump in Commodities

CHICAGO — Nearly clandestine reasons combine to cause the world-wide slump in commodity prices recorded here on the tickers of the great Chicago Board of Trade. This largely unrevealed phenomenon may sound as dull as the Karachi telephone book but it is vital to us, and its centrifugal force is certain to be felt in the social, political and economic structures of the free world countries and our enemies as well.

Reuter's World Commodity Index of 17 basic items recently hit another new five-year low at 412.7. Behind the scenes a relentless decline has continued in spite of the Vietnam war, production disruptions in Asia, the Middle East, Africa and Latin America, the closing of the Suez Canal and the accelerated inflationary pressures, including the waves of currency devaluations.

Since World War II there have been about 180 currency devaluations — 12 in Brazil alone — and many of them within the past five years. Argentina's last devaluation (about 28 percent, to 350 pesos per U. S. dollar) was Argentina's ninth devaluation since 1964. Even frugal Finland devalued her currency another 31 percent the other day. Yet global commodity prices have reversed the normal reaction entirely, so powerful have been the factors at work. And thereby hangs the immensely important tale.

The demand for basic materials — minerals, metals, fibers, fuels, chemicals, etc. — has slackened throughout the world, not alone in our country where the zinc consumption, for example, is off 17 percent compared to 1966. Our great copper industry, producing about one-third of the world's supply, has been shut down by strikes for about three months without consumers complaining of a copper shortage. The consumption is declining and the inventories are replenished far easier than expected.

In Paris recently I asked the secretariat of the Paris-based Organization for Economic Cooperation and Growth for the world picture. I found that its 21 member nations had a combined growth rate of only two percent during the first half of 1967, down from five percent in the year-earlier period and six percent as recently as 1965.

Steel production, requiring ore, coal, etc., in the six Common Market countries is only 78 percent of capacity now, down from 80 percent last year and 90 percent in 1964. West German overall industrial production has fallen 5.4 percent this year, the first decline since 1949. France's production growth has been slackening since mid-1966. England is Europe's most industrialized nation. Yet statistics, which Churchill once called "those damn little dots," show Britain's productivity is now lower than any Western European industrialized country on the continent, and her growth rate has fallen to 1.5 percent.

Simultaneously, the supply side in the demand-supply equation has turned into a glut, and the glut is steadily growing. Except sulphur, tungsten and a few others, all major raw materials are in world oversupply—everything from copper, zinc, lead, potash, natural rubber, tin, jute, molybdenum and heaven knows what.

Numerous companies decided to safeguard themselves against inflation by entering the raw materials business for the first time. Many established producers, in turn, have expanded for still another reason than is unannounced.

For example, even in the face of a world-wide crude oil glut, even in the face of nearly incredible oil exploration costs that have increased 600 percent since World War II, such superbly managed companies as Standard Oil Company of New Jersey continue searching for oil in Alaska, the Gulf of Mexico and other operationally high-cost areas. This has little to do with supply and demand. Oil companies are divorcing their sources away from the Arab world as fast as they can.

Like numerous other producers of raw materials such as copper, bauxite, etc., they are expanding in alternate areas to guarantee their output when unreliable countries where they now operate are in revolutions, confiscate their properties or otherwise threaten their ability to deliver, or even to survive. And this unspoken factor has grown more and more contributory in the world-wide price slump.

Percy Says Johnson Will Follow Truman's Pattern

By ABRA PRENTICE
Chicago Sun-Times Special

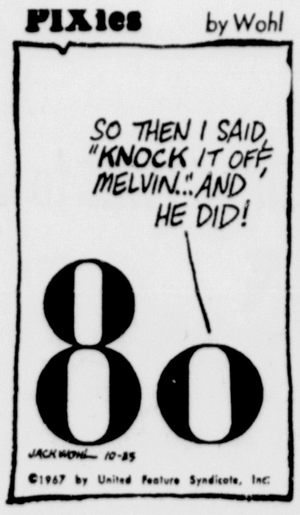

CHICAGO—Sen. Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.) predicts that President Johnson next year will borrow former President Harry S. Truman's 1948 campaign strategy and blame the nation's troubles on "Republican obstructionism."

But, said Percy, such an approach won't click for Mr. Johnson as it did for Mr. Truman.

Speaking yesterday before a session of the annual convention of The Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. here, Percy said a blame-the-Republicans campaign can't stand up because "the GOP is not responsible for the failure of the war on poverty or the progress of the war in Vietnam or the fiscal and monetary mismanagement which has led to inflation and protectionism and higher Taxes."

In a direct attack on Mr. Johnson, Percy said the American people do not believe the Johnson administration is telling them what it is doing or doing what it claims.

Percy, frequently mentioned as a possible GOP presidential nominee, charged that the nation is "facing a crisis of confidence in its leadership."

He said the Johnson administration is guilty of "mismanagement of our national affairs."

In addition to flaying the Democrats, Percy offered advice to Republicans. Noting that the GOP's image is that of a party of means, he called for broadening of the GOP's power base.

Needed along with bankers, doctors and businessmen are more Republican debtors, patients and customers, Percy asserted.

Percy pointed out that Republicans now hold the governors' seats of 25 states with 70 per cent of the population. Victory in those states would put a Republican in the White House in 1969, he said.

Percy conceded that the Democrats would be virtually unbeatable "if all was tranquil in the world." But such tranquility is lacking, he said.

"The great problems facing this nation," Percy said, "require sound management. Clearly, the Johnson administration is not providing it."

President May Stop Bombing North Vietnam in New Test

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sometime in the next few months President Johnson is likely to stop bombing North Vietnam in a new test of possibilities for ending the Vietnamese war.

Such action ha been wiedly and persistently demanded by critics of the President's war policy, and many officials consider it virtually inevitable. But they hold little hope now it will lead to peace talks.

On the contrary, there is growing belief here the war may never be settled by negotiations—in the end it may simply fade away, with Communist military operations subsiding into small scale guerrilla activities and terrorism.

The basic assumption underlying this view is the U.S. and allied military might will prevail every enemy forces in South Vietnam and will make the war too costly for North Vietnam to continue.

The bombing of North Vietnam is considered by President Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk to be an important means of imposing that heavy cost yet also is a pressure which can be withdrawn when timing is right to probe President Ho Chi Minh's attitude toward peace.

U.S. leaders believe if Ho Chi Minh does not negotiate short of defeat, he will see his forces in the South and his resources in the North slowly ground down to a state of military impotence. They assume he will want to stop the war before that point is reached and retire to rebuild his strength and perhaps to fight again another time.

The game is trying to read the minds and assess the intentions of the government in Hanoi.

Opinion here on peacemaking has vacillated between the feeling he would agree to negotiations and the thought he will refuse to do so on any terms acceptable to President Johnson.

The greater emphasis now given to the fade away theory is due in part to Ho's persistence so far in rejecting Johnson's various overtures and those of many other would-be peacemakers.

Officials note that North Vietnamese spokesmen have said repeatedly for the past year that if President Johnson halted the bombing unconditionally there could have been talks.

But they have never been willing to say flatly that there would be talks.

Cant Commit Hanoi

Soviet and other Communist officials have said talks would be held in three or four weeks if Jonson stopped the bombing. But U. S. officals say even the Soviets were unable to commit Hanoi definitely to negotiations if the bombings stopped on Hanoi's terms.

U.S. officials who hold the fadeaway theory say there might be deeper reasons why Ho is unwilling to negotiate. One such possible reason is that in the peace exchanges thus far through diplomatic channels no party has succeeded in producing a compromise peace formula.

Another argument advanced by U. S. officials is that Ho may wish to avoid any kind of international inspection system to guarantee enforcement of whatever agreements were made for the future of South Vietnam.

In spite of these arguments no one in Washington is able to say the view in Hanoi will not change with the changing circumstances of the war. This is the major reason why Johnson administration officials say the United States must continue to probe for peace.

Halting the bombing is a far more serious action for President Johnson than putting a new peace proposal into diplomatic channels or writing another letter to Ho Chi Minh, however.

The nation's military leaders have made known their opposition to any respite for North Vietnam. Nevertheless administration officials recognize that Johnson is concerned with the periodic probing of the possibilities of negotiation but also with demonstrating he is willing to do what he can within the limits of his policy to get North Vietnam to a conference table.

Mental Illness Low Among GIs

By RAY CROMLEY
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — If U. S. military action in Vietnam were morally wrong—as some congressman, professors and marchers assert — this "wrongdoing" would be expected to show up in high rates of mental illness among the U. S. troops on the spot.

Men with consciences worry when they do wrong. Their mental health worsens. Some have breakdowns. Many find they are not working up to par. The people with mental worries fill a good many of the beds in hospitals in peace and war.

Since most bad eggs—and even men with low IQs and low education — are culled out in the selection process for the U. S. military forces—what we have in the U. S. Army in Vietnam is a good cross-section of American young men from average homes where moral standards have been taught. Moral unfitness is one reason for rejecting draftees and volunteers.

As a result of this fitness criteria, the young American soldiers in Vietnam are men with consciences in good working condition. Clergymen this reporter has talked to in South Vietnam back up this assertion that in the U. S. troops fighting this war there is an unusually high moral average.

Certainly, there are some rotten apples—as there are here at home. But the average of good men is high. The question then is, how are their consciences taking the war? What do the figures show about mental illness among U. S. Army troops in South Vietnam?

During World War II, 23 per cent of all cases evacuated medically were evacuated for psychiatric reasons. The percentage in Vietnam has been only a fourth of that — 6 per cent.

In fact, a medical report on Vietnam sates that "the incidence of neuropsychiatric illness in U. S. Army troops in Vietnam is lower than that recordd in any previous conflict in which U. S. armed forces were involved."

Neuropsychiatric illness in U. S. Army troops in Vietnam has been approximately 12 per cent per 1,000 troops a year.

This compares with 37 per 1,000 troops a year in the Korean war. In World War II, the mental illness rates were even higher.

Neuropsychiatric illness ran as high as 101 per thousand troops per year for the first U. S. Army in Europe. The lowest rates during World War II for an army in combat was 28 per thousand troops per year in the Ninth U.S. Army in the period from September 1944 through May, 1945.

Actually, the mental illness rate in South Vietnam among U. S. troops has been lower some months than for troops in the continental United States. Recently, the rates have been running about the same — at 12 cases of neuropsychiatric illness per thousand troops per year.

Castroites Try To Build Morale

By DON BOHNING
Chicago Daily News Service

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA, Oct. 20—A pair of recent bomb blasts set off by sophisticated timing devices have focused new attention on Castroite subversive elements here.

The post-midnight explosions — one at the foreign ministry, the other at a branch office of the national bank—have been linked to followers of Floyd Britton, a known Panamanian Castroite.

The bombings are viewed as more of a psychological effort for an internal build-up by the Castroite militnats than an attempt to create consternation among the population.

Britton, a "professional" student in his late 30's is enrolled but rarely attends the University of Panama. He led a legation of Panamanians to the mid-summer conference of Latin American revolutionaries in Havana.

At least a dozen Panamanians and perhaps more attended the Castro-called solidarity conference, according to Panamanian sources. All the delegates have since returned to Panama.

Travel apparently was through Europe, since the Mexicans have virtually closed the door on the clandestine Panamanian visits to Cuba via the Mexico City-Havana flights.

The Panama National Assembly a year ago passed a law prohibiting travel to countries where Panama has no diplomatic representation. It was directed specifically at Cuban travel, although not spelled out.

The law provides no penalties, however, except the lifting of passports and the government has been reluctant to utilize the measure. Besides, obtaining new Panamanian passports, as demonstrated by the extensive use of them by Cubans participating in the Bolivian guerrilla movement, presents only a small problem.

When Britton returned from Cuba, it was understood he and his followers were to try and create incidents beginning Sept. 21 to coincide with the opening of the Organization of American States' foreign ministers meeting in Washington.

Terroist Campaign

That effort failed to get off the ground. It also was understood they might attempt a terroist campaign against U.S. business in Panama, as a last-gasp effort to win additional Castro support. So far that has failed to materialize.

Numberous Panamanians, perhaps as many as 50, have traveled clandestinely to Cuba over the last four years for training in guerrilla and sabotage schools.

When they return, most have disappeared into the woodwork, either laying low or because they have no stomach for the terrorist-type activities expected of them. The consensus here is of the latter.

At least 15 have been trained in bomb making and would be capable of preparing the timing devices used in the foreign ministry and bank explosions, according to Panamanian sources.

Britton is believed to have a hard-core personal following numbering no more than half a dozen. His greatest strength is in the high schools where youthful followers are hard to control but do accept some guidance.

Britton two years ago was militantly pro-Peking with his university reform movement (MUR). He and his followers had several violent clashes with pro-Moscow University students.

He since has switched his loyalties to Fidel Castro and changed the name of his group to University Revolutionary Movement (MUR).

He is reported to have returned from Cuba a year ago with $20,000 for subversive purposes, but frittered most of it away. Unconfirmed reports say the Panamanian delegation to the Havana meeting returned this year with $50,000 to prove themselves.

The Panamanian Communists generally are in a state of disarray, reflecting the worldwide divisions within the movement. They range from Britton's MUR and other miniscule pro-Peking and pro-Castro groups to the larger pro-Moscow Partido Del Pueblo (PDP).

The total number of hard-core Communists is estimated at no more than 500 with perhaps another 1,500 sympathizers.

Woodstock Infant 4, Hurt, Hit by Truck

Because Cindy, as she was known to relatives and friends, is almost totally deaf, the parents of the child, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pike, were going to move from the area in an effort to place the child in a school that could deal with the defect.

The child was required to wear a hearing aid chest pack, and she received instructions in reading ad communication at the Cerebral Palsy and Handicapped Children Center in Kingston.

The girl's father was scheduled to appear in a musical act with his brother, famed watercolorist, John Pike, on the Community Chest videothon Saturday.

It was considered that the act would be canceled after the accident, but, because of the help that the Cerebral Palsy Center, a Community Chest agency, had given to Cindy, the father decided to go on with the act.

A four-year-old Woodstock girl, struck by a pickup truck on Glasco Turnpike Saturday afternoon, is listed in serious condition today in Kingston Hospital.

The girl, Cynthia Pike, was struck by the vehicle driven by Robert Olsen, 23, of Route 212, Bearsville, at 12:30 p. m. as she darted out from the south side of the road into the path of the oncoming truck, according to Kingston State Trooper John McMickle.

Olsen, driving east, applied his brakes but was unable to stop before the right front end of his vehicle hit the child.

Taken to Kingston Hospital by Fatum's Ambulance, the girl was immediately listed in serious condition, suffering from a severe fracture of the skull, broken jaw, lacerated brain, severe lacerations of the face and head, and multiple bruises and contusions of the body.

NAACP Won't Back New State Charter

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — The state conference of the National Association of Colored People urged defeat Sunday of the proposed new state constitution.

Delegates also approved a resolution condemning the Vietnam War.

The resolution opposing the constitution said the document was "insulting to the intelligence of New York State voters" because it must be voted on as a single package.

The remodeled constitution also would lead to the "destruction of the public school system," since it contains a proposal for repealing the Blaine Amendment, the resolution said.

Blaine bars state aid to church-affiliated schools. Some civil rights leaders have contended that enrollment in such schools would rise if state aid were provided to them and that public schools would suffer.

The resolution was passed by an overwhelming vote.

Dr. Eugene T. Reed, a past president of the state NAACP, had urged the delegates Friday night to vote "no" on the new constitution.

Robert J. Mangum, chairman of the State Commission for Human Rights, declared his support of the document Saturday prior to addressing the convention here.

The resolution on the war was passed after a demonstration by the NAACP Youth and College Division, which protested a decision to table the measure. Delegates finally voted 107-72 to approve the resolution.

The resolution said the war has drained "the manpower and financial resources of our country" and "robs this nation of their potential leadership in the struggle for freedom and justice for all Americans here and at home . . ."

It called for the National Board of Directors of the NAACP "to use its good offices to urge an immediate termination of hostilities in that war-ravaged land."

The 291 voting delegates also pledged support for economic-opportunity programs, demanded that the so-called poverty-level for a family of four be increased to $5,200 a year, and called for creation of a guaranteed annual income law.

GOP Vows Repeal of Blaine Rule

By CHARLES DUMAS

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Republicans controlling the State Senate promise they will begin action in the 1968 Legislature to repeal the Blaine Amendment, if New York voters reject the remodeled state constitution.

This policy position was adopted Friday as a device to reassure voters who might like to vote against the charter but who favor its provision rescinding the Blaine ban on aid to church-operated schools.

It was engineered at a closed meeting of the Senate's GOP majority called by Majority Leader Earl W. Brydges of Niagara Falls.

Brydges, who served as GOP minority leader in the Constitutional Convention, is campaigning hard for voter rejection of the revised charter. He has argued that its desirable features can be implemented tive process of changing the present Constitution.

Brydges reported that 22 of the 33 Republican senators were present and that the rest were canvassed by telephone. As a result, he said, he was assured of at least the 29 votes he would need to pass a Blaine repeal measure in the Senate next year.

Leaders of the Democratic-ruled Assembly have not indicated whether they would go along with the Senate, although Speaker Anthony J. Travia is firmly committed to repealing the Blaine ban.

Travia, who served as president of the convention, is campaigning vigorously for voter approval of the new constitution in the Nov. 7 election.

Brydges observed that, under the legislative procedure for altering the Constitution, proposed amendments must be approved by two separately elected Legislatures—then submitted to the voters for a final say.

This means, he continued, that a Blaine repeal measure could be adopted by the 1968 Legislature, given second approval by the 1969 session and put before the electorate in November of that year. Thus, it could become effective in January 1970.

Woodstock Composer, Musician Succumbs

Hanus Aldo Schimmerling, noted musician and composer, who resided in Woodstock, died Thursday.

Surviving are his wife, the former Marie Michalek and a daughter, Mrs. Donald (Irene) Christison of Syosset.

Cremation and burial was at the convenience of the family with the Frank H. Simpson Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Schimmerling, who was born in 1900 in Bruenn, capitol of Moravia, was educated in his native city and later at the University of Vienna and Academy of Music in Prague.

He gave his first piano recital at age 13; his first composition, an album of songs, was published in Berlin when he was 19.

Worked with Stars

Schimmerling worked at the Metropolitar Opera during 1925-26. Here in the United States and in Europe, he worked closely with opera stars who either sang his compositions or chose him as coach and recital accompanist.

The composer's versatility has been mentioned in the historical book, "Music in Czechoslovakia" and other phamplets. As a writer he contributed many articles to newspapers and magazines and for a time was music critic for the Prague Tablatt. He has more than 80 published works.

As a teacher, Schimmerling taught not only music but German and European History. He joined the music staff of Woodstock and West Hurley in later years, and in 1964 started the Harmony Hill concerts in this area. This series later became part of the Woodstock Music Festival.

Woodstock has honored Schimmerling with performances of some of his works at Maverick Hall.

Utica Strike Over; Papers Back on Stand

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — The Utica Press and Observer-Dispatch returned to the newsstands today for the first time since July 15, when a strike halted publication of the newspapers.

Presses for the morning Press began rolling Sunday night and continued today for the afternoon and Sunday Observer-Dispatch. The papers are published in a combined plant.

The three-month-long strike was settled Friday night. Details of the contract were not disclosed, pending signing of the pact this week.

Printing pressmen, photoengravers, stereotypers and members of the American Newspaper Guild struck over economic and non-economic issues. Printers honored picket lines.

The newspapers are owned by the Gannett Group.

minimum force necessary in repelling charges on the building.

Tear Gas Charge

Some demonstrators claimed troops fired two or three tear gas grenades at them. Defense officials said the protesters did it themselves. The Washington Post and Washington Star each said reporters saw troops use the gas.

"Isn't that hysterical," a youth draped with a Navajo blanket cried into a bullhorn microphone to MP's guarding the demonstrators. "Where the hell would we get tear gas?" The group laughed and cheered.

Demonstrators also claimed some of the 2,500 troops deployed in and around the Pentagon defected to their side.

The Pentagon denied there were any defections but said Army Pvt. Terry V. Miller, 23, was arrested for disorderly conduct near the building early Sunday. Officials said Miller, not in uniform, was on a weekend pass from Ft. Dix, N.J.

Dellinger, head of the sponsoring organization called the National Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam, also was arrested, along with author Norman Mailer.

Dellinger was fined $50 and sentenced to 30 days in jail, with the sentence suspended on condition he not return to the Pentagon. Mailer drew a $50 fine and a 30-day sentence, 25 of which were suspended. He was freed on an appeal bond.

Government estimates of the crowd which surged from a rally at the Lincoln Memorial toward the Pentagon Saturday at 30,000 to 35,000. Dellinger claimed 150,000 persons participated.

Two Minor Fires

Two minor fires, their cause unknown, were quickly quelled Sunday by Kingston firemen, it was disclosed today. Firemen said they were summoned Sunday afternoon to Flatbush Avenue where a grass fire was in progress near Colonial Gardens. Officials refused to speculate on the fire's origin. A second alarm was sounded Sunday night on Henry Street, firemen said. A pile of leaves at the curb was ablaze.

Fire on Thruway

Clifford Lambert, described as a New York City newspaper executive, escaped injury shortly before midnight Sunday, when his 1966 sedan caught fire as he drove along the State Thruway near mile post 106 north of Saugerties. Sergeant Henry Ganss of the Thruway detail said the air conditioner is believed to have developed trouble causing the fire, which destroyed the car. Catskill firemen were called out to extinguish the flames. Trooper T. J. Morrissey investigated.

Charles Rowe, Former Hercules Employe, Dies

Charles L. Rowe, 80, of 63 Wurts Street, died suddenly at his residence Sunday morning. A native of Troy, he was the son of the late Thomas and Katherine Effinger Rowe.

Employed for 42 years at the Hercules Powder Company, he retired in 1956. He was a member of the Hercules Quarter Century Club and a member of District 50, United Mineworkers.

Mr. Rowe's wife, Anna V. Waters Rowe, died in August of this year.

Surviving are nine daughters, Miss Ethel Rowe of Troy, Miss Dorothy Rowe of Kingston, Mrs. Jacob (Ruth) Nielson of Ulster Park, Mrs. Richard (Eleanor) Kelder and Mrs. Thomas (Marion) Koskie both of Kingston; Mrs. Nicholas (Rita) Zaharchuk of Washingtonville; Mrs. Roy (Helen) Olsen and Mrs. William (Jean) Vertitis, both of Kingston; Mrs. Melvin (Marjorie) Peters of West Lanham, Md.; two sons William J. Rowe of Oxnard, Calif., and Warren J. Rowe of Hawthorne, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. William Arnds of Schenectady; 31 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be held at Jenson and Deegan Funeral Home Inc., 15 Downs Street, Wednesday, 9:30 a. m.; thence to St. John's Episcopal Church, Albany Avenue, where a requiem Mass will be offered at 10 a. m. Burial will be in St. Peter's Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home this evening from 7 to 9 and Tuesday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

RFK: Negotiated Peace . . .

He said that he felt it "was an improvement over the document we now have" and that "all of the provisions (contained in the Constitution) should be carefully examined.

"I don't think it should be decided on a (single) motion, but on how good it will be (generally) for the state."

Senator Kennedy claimed, "We don't want the government to run our lives," and that the Community Chest effort then underway "demonstrates the kind of (local action) that can be done" to further the cause of home rule.

Kennedy praised those who were offering their talents to the fund drive.

Arrived Late

The Senator arrived at the George Washington School on Wall Street in Kingston later than expected. According to sources, it was his second trip to Ulster County since his successful campaign for Senator in 1964.

Kennedy was greeted by Dr. Gerald P. Gorman, chairman of the Ulster County Democratic Committee, varied local politicians and candidates, Kingston Mayor Raymond W. Garraghan, Police Chief Robert F. Murphy, Thayer, Democratic vice-chairman Rose Hogan and others.

Walking through the cafeteria of the school, New York's junior Senator shook hands with a long line of youthful performers waiting their turn to appear before the television cameras, parents, and varied Ulster County residents.

As always, the Senator's popularity was much in evidence as he waded through the crowds.

Quipped On Air

After posing for pictures with candidates and children in a small office adjacent to the school auditorium, Kennedy went on stage to read the news reports.

Kennedy provided the audience with a few personal observations and quips as he read the news.

"Well, with demonstrations in Washington, the war in Vietnam, a threatened strike, trouble in the Mideast, things are normal," he said.

While reading the sports news, the Senator remarked, "(Boston Red Sox slugger Carl Yastrzemski) originally came from New York, and the word from Boston is that they hope the trade involving my going to New York and Yastrzemski going to Boston will be permanent."

Memoriam

In loving memory of William J. Best Sr., who passed away two years ago, October 23, 1965.
What we'd do to see him smile,
And sit with him and talk awhile.
We often sit and talk of him,
The things we used to say and do.
And wonder why he had to die,
Without a chance to say goodbye.

IS GLAMOUR BEING OVERDONE?

Strange anomalies exist in the securities' markets. Many of them are caused by the inflation psychology that is growing in economic America.

Everywhere people are faced with the steady deterioration of the buying power of the dollar. The quality of any country's currency has a vital effect on its social, political and economic life.

In my opinion, the inflation psychology is being carried too far. Investors are buying risk-laden common stocks paying small dividends and passing up high-grade bonds and preferred stocks selling to yield 5-6 per cent.

From a list of more than 20 leading corporations whose credit rating is high, five have been chosen as illustrative material:

American Telephone and Telegraph, Anheuser-Busch, Consolidated Edison, Consumers Power and New York Telephone.

Each of these enterprises has bonds outstanding that currently are selling to yield 6 per cent or more. And at the same time, common stocks — bought frequently as hedges against inflation — are selling at very high prices with low yields.

Glamor stocks especially fall into this category. Here is a stock, for instance, that sells for about $275 a share with a current yield of about 5 per cent and another bringing $555 a share with a yield of around 1 per cent.

These glamor stocks do have real value behind them, but they are undoubtedly overpriced.

U. S. Treasury bonds are being neglected by inflation-minded investors. Available in the market are long-term obligations selling for 79, 80, 83 cents on the dollar. As this is written, there are 25 different Treasuries selling to yield well over 5 per cent to maturity.

Their attractiveness is based upon several forces: instant marketability, the security of the most powerful and richest nation in the world and their high collateral value.

Cheaper money is not on the horizon. But it is always possible that the federal monetary authorities will reduce the discount rate at the 12 Federal Reserve banks.

The time for investors to buy high-grade bonds at large discounts is when, as at present, they are available.

Hundreds of tax-free educational, philanthropic and religious organizations whose common stocks show substantial capital gains might well, right now, switch from stocks to bonds if, by doing so, income could be greatly increased.

Every investor, of course, is a law unto himself. But it is probable that the wide divergence of stock and bond prices is illogical.

Committee and trustees empowered to invest funds for societies and institutions should have frequent meetings to consider these important matters. And policies should be adopted to conform to the present anomalies.

Not Returning

NEW YORK (AP) — Harlem residents must realize that Adam Clayton Powell "is not returning to Congress" and they should seek someone elese to represent them, says Dr. Eugene Callender, executive director of the New York Urban League.

"I think we've got to cut out the sentimentality, the emotional feelings, and deal with the reality," Callender said Sunday.

Powell was censured by Congress for misuse of House funds and denied his seat. He was re-elected in a special election, but has not tried to take his seat.

Callender spoke on the WHN radio program "New York Speaks Out."

NEW YORK (AP) — Autos were hit hard as the stock market dropped sharply on a broad front early Monday.

Losses outnumbered gains by a ratio of almost 7 to 2.

The Dow Jones industrial average was down about 5 points.

The larger losses were taken by leading issues which are not represented in the Dow average of 30 blue chip industrials.

Polaroid slumped half a dozen points, Xerox 5, Itek about 3, Occidental Petroleum and Hess Oil more than 2 each.

General Motors, a key stock in the averages, slumped about 2 points while Ford and Chrysler lost more than a point each.

Also down a point or more were many other issues, including Allis-Chalmers, Gulf & Western, Universal American, Zenith, International Telephone, du Pont, American Can, Standard Oil of Indiana and United Airlines.

Rheem Manufacturing rose 3 to 49 on a block of 24,000 shares following a report that Seeburg had announced a tender offer of $50 a share for a million shares of Rheem.

Opening blocks included:

Sperry Rand, off ¾ at 48¾ on 10,600 shares; Pan American World Airways, off ⅝ at 25¼ on 15,100; and Ford, off 1 at 51¼ on 6,500.

Analysts saw the proposed settlement of the Ford strike as inflationary in terms of the economy and the stock market. Wall Street, however, had to contend with late Friday's news that the Federal Reserve Board had proposed to apply the current 70 per cent margin requirements to previously unregulated lenders, effective Nov. 20.

The 100s Give Smokers A Bewildering Choice

By GEORGE TAYLOR
AP Business Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Three-fifths of an inch is creating a flap in the tobacco industry and presenting smokers a bewildering choice of cigarettes.

The three-fifths inch is roughly the extra length of tobacco added to king-size filters to make cigarettes 100mm long.

Manufacturers have poured out many brands of the 100s since the longer cigarettes caught on earlier this year.

35 at One Count

One count places at 35 the types of 100s on the market, including plain and menthol versions of the same brand.

The 100s leaped from 2 per cent of all cigarette sales in the first quarter of the year to 12 to 15 per cent now, says tobacco analyst John C. Maxwell Jr. He estimated they'll average about 10 per cent for the year.

This means that smokers will consume around 53 billion 100s of an estimated 532 billion cigarettes produced this year.

The 100s—some four inches long—cost about a penny a pack more at retail.

American Tobacco Co. claims to have been the first in the 100s market with its Pall Mall 100s in late 1965. Phillip Morris followed shortly with Benson & Hedges.

Maxwell estimates that R. J. Reynolds' Winston 100s, Pall Mall and Benson & Hedges lead the field in sales.

Surgeon General William H. Stewart has urged the cigarette industry to withdraw them from the market.

See Hazard Increasing

"As research findings continue to confirm and to strengthen the scientific evidence incriminating cigarettes as a health hazard," Stewart told a Senate committee, "it is unconscionable that the cigarette industry should introduce and heavily promote the 100mm cigarette which cannot help but increase the hazard."

The tobacco industry maintains there's no scientific proof that smoking is a health hazard. Is a still longer cigarette in the works?

"There's a practical point beyond which you can't go," said one industry source.

But apparently 100mm isn't that "practical point." Liggett & Myers has introduced a still longer cigarette—101mm.

Shows Off Rifle; Kills Companion

ALBION, N.Y. (AP) — A 24-year-old man, "showing off" his newly purchased rifle to a crowd, shot and killed another young man Sunday in a restaurant parking lot in nearby Gaines, State Police said today. Troopers arrested Tommie E. Ricks of Albion late Sunday night on a charge of criminally negligent homicide in the death of Michael R. Kurzawski, 21, also of this Western New York village.

Ricks, they said, fired several shots over the heads of a crowd of people gathered in a parking lot "while making a big show of the rifle."

Kurzawski, a machinist, was struck in the head by a bullet as he and a friend walked from their parked car at 3 a.m. Sunday to the restaurant, which is frequented by migrant farm workers, troopers said.

The friend, Gerald Urkew, 18, of Albion, ran when he heard the shots and was not hit, they said.

Investigators said Ricks purchased the .22 caliber rifle in an Albion store Oct. 14. He was arrested at his home and taken before a peace justice early today for arraignment on the homicide charge, they said.

Kurzawski lived at 241 Caroline St., Urkew's home is at 255 E. State St. and Ricks' address was listed as 136 Liberty St.

Yacht Club Entered

The Sheriff's Department is investigating an entrance to the Hidden Harbor Yacht Club at Port Ewen. The entrance was reported Friday and Investigator Harold T. Bowers and Deputy Sheriff Warren Walsh are continuing the investigation. An unknown quantity of whiskey, beer and food was reported taken along with an unknown amount of cash from five vending machines. Entrance was gained by breaking glass in a door and unlocking the door from the inside.

Utilities Now Seem Cheapest Growth Group

Q—My husband was sick for the past 20 years and now he has passed away. I will receive $3,000 in life insurance, have managed to save $10,000 in Building & Loans at 4.5 per cent and have a few shares of stock in the company I work for. They pay me $20 a year. I am still working, but am 70 and very tired. Can I afford to retire on $125 a month Social Security and the little money I have to invest? J.E.

A—Yours is the distressing situation of so many fine people who have worked hard but face retirement with insufficient funds. There is no easy answer to your problem. Your income, after retirement, would approximate $165 a month from Social Security and present investments. You could put half your funds, now in Building & Loans, into 100 shares each of Wisconsin Electric Power and Iowa Public Service, both yielding 5.2 per cent. Utilities are now the cheapest growth group; they offer inflation protection through generally rising dividend rates. The $3,000 insurance could be placed in a straight life annuity which would bring you more income than you could get from any comparable safe investment. These moves might lift your retirement income to $200 a month. If you can get by on this, I would certainly retire and hope that rising dividends and increased Social Security payments would help you in future years.

Q—Would you classify Mortgage Guaranty Insurance as a growth or speculative stock? And is it a good purchase at present? T.D.

A—This company is the leading issuer of first mortgage loans and has a record of strong growth in recent years. The shares have nearly tripled in price this year on the American Exchange and from a price standpoint alone they appear speculative. I think you're moving in a little late on this one.

JAVITS: Sign of Leaving . . .

Americans were hoping for, had been reached in the election of a South Vietnamese government in September.

Javits called for a return of America's orginal motives under President Eisenhower for going into Vietnam. "We're there to help the Vietnamese fight aggression. We're not going to do the job ourselves and we have no intention of taking over the country," Javits said.

"The Vietnamese must help themselves. They must determine their own destiny. Right now they've got an army that only serves as hamlet guards, doesn't fight at night and fights a fiv eand a half day war out of the week. If they won't help themselves there's no power including Providence that can help them. This is their war, not ours," Javits declared.

Javits also called for the settling of the Vietnam War question in the United Nations. "The administration has steadfastly refused to submit this problem to world arbitration," Javits said.

The senior senator from New York also advocated an unconditional pause in the bombing of North Vietnam but only if world climate would foster negotiations by the Hanoi regime.

He said aggressive diplomacy must be carried out by the United States in order that world opinion would favor negotiations.

Javits called for support of the President. "It is essential to make the President successful. If he is successful, the country is successful. That is the meaning of bi-partisan foreign policy," Javits said.

Javits was generous in his praise of the new college and the people that made it possible. He lauded the Ulster County Board of Supervisors for its "by-partisian realization for a need of a community college." He heaped praise on the "outstanding families of Ulster County who made this college possible" including the Davenports and the Resnicks, "One of whom represents this district as a congressman."

Preceeding Senator Javits was the president of the College Student Government Organization, Ward Todd, 21. Todd said, "These college buildings stand for truth, knowledge and wisdom. This campus will be available to generations who will gain that truth, obtain that knowledge and seek that wisdom."

Javits termed Todd "an outstanding representative of the student body." Said the Senator, "I'm pleased that Mr. Todd is so young because he can't run for senator for a long time."

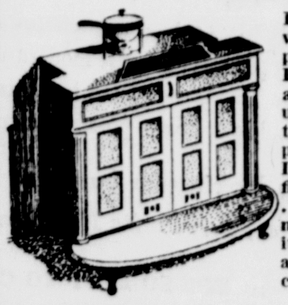

Javits also cited the staff of the college, in particular for the "beautiful flag" they had presented the school. Javits then donated a flag that had flown over the Capitol in Washington.

The senator lauded Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller as the "education governor." He said the state was long overdue for the type of education program Rockefeller has instituted. California is 10 years ahead of us, but we're catching up fast."

Javits promised his support in Washington for future college funds. "I'm in a good position "thanks to senority. I'm the ranking member of the Legislative Committee which rules on bills and the ranking member of the appropriations committee which passes out the money."

The dedication was proceeded by a tour of the campus conducted by staff and students of the college.

Add a Period Touch to Any Decor With An Authentic FRANKLIN STOVE
By DONLEY

Its classic styling blends with any decor . . . any period . . . any room design. Its versatility makes it adaptable to a variety of uses and installations. Truly, this old favorite is more popular today than ever. It's a warming, cheerful fireplace (with doors open) . . . it's a decorative cabinet (with doors closed) . . . it's a handsome, comfortable and convenient unit that can be installed anywhere.

The Franklin Stove is very useful for family rooms, weekend cabins, porches, patios or anywhere the welcome warmth of auxiliary heat is wanted.

Among its many advantages:

- Can be used with coal, wood or charcoal.
- Heat radiation from the sides provides more heat than most fireplaces.
- Accessories are available for grilling and barbeque cooking—indoors or out.
- Legs provide sufficient clearance for installation directly on the floor.
- Venting for the smokestack can be horizontal or vertical—from top or rear of the stove.
- Can be installed in existing fireplace . . . with or without legs.

All accessories also available such as Grate Basket, Barbecue Grill, Fireplace Screen, Flue Reducer, Cast Iron Elbow.

Health Fair Oct. 28

Area Diabetes Chapter Joins

Extensive participation in the first Ulster County Health Fair being sponsored by the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, 235 Fair Street, on Saturday, Oct. 28, is planned by the Ulster Chapter, New York Diabetes Association according to Mrs. John Ostrander, chairman of the local group.

"Diabetes can be fatal unless detected and treated," advises Mrs. Ostrander, stressing the opportunity offered through the planned testing of their organization at the Health Fair scheduled to open at 10 a. m. and continue until 5 p. m. at the First Federal Savings and Loan building.

Stating that diabetes ranks seventh in the list of causes of death by disease, Mrs. Ostrander urges all area residents to register at the Health Fair and be screened by the NYDA to determine whether or not they are an undetected diabetic.

In outlining the necessity of early detection and treatment the chairman emphasized that there are approximately 4,000,000 diabetics in our country today. Of this number only 2,400,000 are aware of their condition while 1,600,000 are unaware. It has been estimated that 5,600,000 additional persons are potential diabetics . . . or will be so diagnosed at some time during their lives.

The Usual Signs

The usual signs of a diabetic condition are increased thirst, constant hunger, frequent urination, loss of weight, intense itching, easy tiring, pain in the fingers and toes, vision changes and slow healing of cuts and bruises. However, diabetes may be present without any of these signs.

The most likely targets are persons related to diabetics, who are overweight or who are past 40 years of age. After 45, three diabetics out of every five are women.

Mrs. Ostrander was most emphatic in stating that weight control is very important in the control of diabetes. Six out of seven people over 40, when their diabetes was diagnoses, were overweight before the onset of the condition. She pointed out that the Health Fair will weigh all registrants prior to taking their diabetic tests.

Diabetes can be controlled by diet, exercise, and, when necessary, insulin or, in older and milder diabetics, one of the oral compounds. However, a planned diet is always a basic fundamental of diabetic treatment.

Pointing out that neglect of a diabetic condition can lead to the development of complications, the most serious of which are heart disease, failing eyesight, hardening of the arteries, kidney malfunctions, gangrene, cerebral hemmorrhage and diabetic coma, the NYDA spokesman, Mrs. Ostrander, appealed to all to attend the Health Fair and avail themselves of the multiple screening of which diabetic detection is included.

Assisting Mrs. Ostrander at the First Federal Health Fair will be Mrs. Daniel Peters, vice chairman of the Ulster Chapter; Mrs. Clifford Davis Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Begley, corresponding secretary; Arthur Korff, treasurer and Mrs. Morton Brett, chairman of the Diabetics Detection Drive. Dr. Norman Berg is physician advisor of the group.

Volunteers who will be working at the Health Fair with the Ulster Chapter NYDA are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Begley, Kathleen Begley, Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Dorothea Blume, Mr. and Mrs. George Christian, Pemela Christian, Mrs. Beverly Davis, Mrs. Kuth Kuhns, Dean Ostrander, Mrs. Margaret Bierwisch, Mrs. Richard Fredenberg, Jennie Fredenberg, Bonnie Brett, Mrs. Geraldine Marchetti and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burger.

Other agencies planning to exhibit, test and demonstrate at the First Federal Health Fair include the Mid Hudson Heart Association, Kingston Hospital, Benedictine Hospital, National Foundation March of Dimes, Ulster Cancer Society, Ulster County Mental Health Association, Ulster County Ambulance Association and the Kingston Lions Club.

Economy Wave

Own Medicine Not for Congress

WASHINGTON (AP) — The current congressional economy wave is lapping at the doors of most federal agencies but shows little sign of threatening the island of prosperity Congress has created on Capitol Hill.

The House voted last week to clamp drastic restrictions on spending by executive department agencies. But the same day it crushed a move to trim 5 per cent from its own payroll—or, as Rep. Robert L. F. Sikes, D-Fla., said, "to take the same medicine it wants to administer to other government agencies."

Sikes' amendment was aimed at a House payroll that has skyrocketed 84 per cent in the past six years and now is nearing $50 million annually. Upwards of 500 employes of House or Senate are paid $20,000 or more a year, a survey shows.

Sikes' colleagues listened politely to his contention that the House cannot "in good grace exempt itself from the restrictions on spending that we proposed for others." Then it rejected his amendment 134 to 66.

A week earlier, the House shouted down a move by Rep. Edward J. Derwinski, R-Ill., to put "some restraint on runaway salaries" by exempting congressional employes from a 4.5 per cent federal pay raise. That same day, though, other House members used nearly the same argument to exclude federal antipoverty workers from the pay raise bill.

Another area unlikely to suffer major cuts are public works projects, commonly called the "pork barrel." The bill sending federal funds into nearly every congressional district for reclamation, flood control, river and harbor projects is now in conference committee. Earlier attempts in the House and Senate to trim it 5 per cent were soundly defeated.

Rejection of the two attempts to cut back or hold the line on spending in Congress itself came as House members moved toward adoption of a directive that President Johnson cut expenditures an estimated $6 billion to $8 billion in the current fiscal year.

Administration forces are pressing in the Senate to junk the House directive, or at least dilute it. The Senate Appropriations Committee elimieliminated the provision Friday. The Senate is expected to act this week, and a House-Senate fight likely will follow.

The bitter budget fight has its roots, some congressmen say, in the Vietnam war and the $2 billion a month required to pay for it.

War costs were a major factor in Johnson's still-stalled request for a 10 per cent income tax surcharge.

Polls show the public favors spending cuts over a tax increase. Congressmen say they are reflecting the views of their constituents when they slash the budget.

"All they are doing is playing politics," declares Rep. Tom Steed, D-Okla., who opposed last week's House action. "They are worrying about their image back home."

"If it is, it's damn good politics," replies Rep. Jamie L. Whitten, D-Miss., who helped engineer the cutback directive. "This House has reflected the feeling of the people."

In fighting his losing battle to restrain "runaway salaries" on Capitol Hill, Derwinski zeroed in on the House postmaster, who is paid $23,764 a year and supervises 85 employes. The New York City postmaster, Derwinski said, receives $2,500 a year less but supervises 39,791 employes. Under the federal pay boost, the House postmaster would get an annual raise of $1,088, he added.

D&H Society Plans 2nd Bus To Honesdale

Anyone desiring to make the trip from High Falls to Honesdale along the line of the historic old Delaware & Hudson Canal, is being given a second opportunity. Although the first bus has been completely reserved for the trip on Sunday, Oct. 29, arrangements are being made for a second bus provided a sufficient number of reservations are made.

The bus trip, sponsored by the Delaware & Hudson Canal Society, will start from the DePuy house on Route 213, High Falls, at 9 a. m. and traverse the route of the cananl to Homesdale, Pa., Those taking the trip should provide a box lunch. The group will leave Honesdale at 3 p. m. arriving at High Falls about 5:30 p. m. Reservations for a second bus may be made through Paul Sturges, Stone Ridge, and should be in as soon as possible so arrangements may be made for the second bus. The trip is open to the public.

Ohio FB Undersells Own Members: Resnick

A farm cooperative operated by the Farm Bureau in Ohio is running an egg producing business that not only undersells its own members, but uses money withheld from them to underwrite the competition, Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick revealed today.

The Ellenville Democrat has been conducting a one-man probe into the business activities of the American Farm Bureau Federation.

Congressman Resnick said that a young farmer, Paul E. Ladrach, who had lived in Tuscarawas County, Ohio, questioned the logic and financial soundness of what the Tuscarawas County Farm Bureau Cooperative Assn. was doing with money belonging to members who were given paper dividends instead of cash.

The farmer charged that mass production of eggs from the business set up by the coop was flooding the local market, reducing wholesale prices to less than it cost other farmers to produce eggs.

Stirred Interest

He stirred considerable efforts among other members of the coop to force cancellation of the egg-production contract. After the Dover (Ohio) Daily Reporter publicized Ladrach's efforts, the local coop store canceled its advertising in the newspaper, Resnick said.

The Farm Bureau entered the egg -producing contract in the early 1960's with Earl C. Miller, a farmer.

Miller signed a contract in which he was to receive eight cents a chicken, each month. He built a completely automated chicken house with a capacity for 12,000 birds, at a cost of about $40,000.

Ladrach contended the contract should have been based on egg production — say at five cents a dozen — rather than on an eight-cent rate for chickens.

When his objections to directors failed to bring results, he obtained the names and addresses of persons holding Class A voting stock and presented his views in a letter to them.

Ladrach asked that directors be elected to oppose the "chicken contract," citing the fact the coop had lost much money in its first year with the contract.

About 30 members agreed with Ladrach and they managed to elect two directors to the seven-member board. However, they could not prevail on the others to terminate the contract and it remained in effect.

The members were told by a lawyer from the Ohio Farm Bureau Cooperative Association in Columbus that only a coop board had the right to enter or cancel a contract. The members could act only in an advisory capacity, the legal counsel said.

A year later Ladrach again was unsuccessful in an attempt to win support from the directors.

John Ridenour, now president of the coop board, who was a director when the "chicken contract" was signed, said recently, "It's true we lost quite a bit of money the first year and maybe made a little after that. I don't know how we've made out this year so far. If we renewed the contract, we'd have to re-negotiate for a better price based on today's figures. But I don't know yet if we'll renew it or not. We'll have to completely analyze it over the last five years first."

Ridenour said the board had "made some mistakes."

He explained, "There was a lot of interest in contracts like this among our members nine or 10 years ago. They wanted us to get into it like private feed companies were doing, so we decided to set this one up as an 'experiment,' no more than that.

"Now the interest seems to have died down and I'm not sure we'd even consider another such contract."

Quit Farming

Ladrach, who at the time helped his father operate a large farm, has since quit farming and works in a steel mill. He said, "Dad retired from farming and after three years of trying to get my neighbors to see what was happening to them and getting nowhere, I decided to get out of farming and working 16 hours a day, seven days a week.

"Let them fight their own battles. I had my first paid vacation of my whole life this year, with two weeks of nothing to do and a paycheck coming in, and I really enjoyed it."

Richard Boone Back For Hollywood Role

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Craggy-faced Richard Boone is back in Hollywood, but not for long. His home is still in Hawaii, and he reports that his hopes of founding a movie industry there are growing bighter.

Boone arrived here to enact a guest role in the new CBS Western "Cimarron Strip," and he observed that it was the first time he had appeared on anyone else's television series. The actor starred in "Medic," "Have Gun, Will Travel" and the briefer anthology repertory he headed. Somewhat embittered by the failure of the latter series, he announced three years ago he was abandoning the local scene to make his base in Hawaii.

"I'd like to start a movie business out there," he remarked, causing the town's wiseacres to scoff.

Near A Reality

But now, says Boone, his dream is closer to reality.

"These things take time," he explained. "When I went to Hawaii, I decided not to jump in with both feet. The people out there like it better if you take it slow and give them a chance to get to know you.

"As a matter of fact, I don't want to build a studio at all. I would much rather have someone else do it. But apparently I'm stuck with the job."

Boone went about the project in a systematic way. First, he contracted with Warner Brothers-Seven Arts for a feature "Kona Coast, which he filmed in Hawaii last summer with himself, Vera Miles, Joan Blondell and Kent Smith in the cast.

"We shot the picture for $877,000, which is a might good investment for what we have on film," he said. "We had to bring only six technicians from the mainland, and that proved that picture making can be almost self-sustaining in Hawaii.

"'Kona Coast' also serves as a pilot for a television series. It's a good deal for CBS, which gets a pilot for nothing. If they pick up the option—and the chances look good—then we'll go ahead and build a studio."

Pushing Hawaii

"I hope that we will have another television series besides 'Kona Coast' going in the first year. Also, we could make it very attractive for feature film makers to come to Hawaii and make their movies in their entirety at a reasonable cost. They've been leary of shooting out there because of such debacles as 'Hawaii'.

Having sold his rights to "Have Gun" for a million, Boone doesn't really need another television series. Then why would he undertake one?

"Look," he grinned, "the role I play is a great character, lots of fun to play. I'll be working around boats, which I enjoy and filming in the place I love, with people who are the greatest in the world. I think I could face four years of such a life."

Country Music Field Cites Hall of Famers

By DON MCLEOD
Associated Press Writer

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Red Foley, the first country music star to find big success in the pop field as well, was installed in the Country Music Hall of Fame Friday night.

Jack Greene, a drummer turned singer, swept the top prizes for his hit song "There Goes My Everything" as the Country Music Association made its first country and western awards presentations.

Foley, who brought gold records to country music with "Chattanooga Shoeshine Boy" and to gospel music with "Peace in the Valley," was one of four new Hall of Fame members.

"Gentlemen" Jim Reeves, who died in a plane crash near here in 1964, also made the Hall of Fame at the climax of the awards banquet, a highlight of the 42nd anniversary celebration of the Grand Ole Opry.

The late J. L. Frank, an early promoter of country music who gave the world the singing cowboy, also won the profession's highest honor. He gave country and western music its name, and his discoveries included Gene Autry and Roy Acuff.

Steve Sholes, an executive of RCA Victor Records, was named to the Hall of Fame for his role in pioneering the recording industry in Nashville.

Greene, a drummer for singing star Ernest Tubb before he tried singing himself, was named male vocalist of the year. His single of "There Goes My Everything" won the top award in its category as did the album of the same name. The million-seller won the song of the year award for its composer, Dallas Frazier.

Loretta Lynn was named top female vocalist of the year.

Eddy Arnold, a charter member of the Hall of Fame, was named country music entertainer of the year. Arnold's wife accepted the award for the singer, who was performing in Hollywood's Coconut Grove.

Chet Atkins, guitarist, was named instrumentalist of the year.

Special awards were given to the Armed Forces Radio and Television networks and to the Department of Defense in honor of the country's armed forces.

Suit Is Filed To Halt Video Show of 'Foxes'

NEW YORK (AP) — Playwright Lillian Hellman has filed a $500,000 suit seeking to prevent the television showing of the motion picture version of her play "The Little Foxes."

The suit filed in State Supreme Court Friday charged that the Columbia Broadcasting System "wilfully and knowingly" aired the film last Sept. 23 despite a contract which allegedly forbade showing of the complete movie.

The defendants—CBS, Samuel Goldwyn, Inc., and Samuel Goldwyn Productions—were given 20 days to reply.

Test Backing

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Latex foam backing on carpeting shouldn't crumble like a cookie.

The Rubber Manufacturers Assn., Tufted Textile Manufacturers Assn. and American Carpet Institute are working to establish specifications for foam on broadloom carpeting.

In the meantime, the Goodyear Chemical Division says, there are four steps you can take to determine the quality of latex foam backing on a rug or carpet you're thinking of buying:

1. Look at it. Backing should be at least three-sixteenths of an inch thick. A fourth of an inch is better. And the tiny foam cells should be fairly uniform in size.

2. Feel it. Good foam backing will keep the carpet fairly rigid. It won't hang limp.

3. Bend it. Good foam backing won't crack.

4. Rub it. If an excessive amount of filler material has been added to cut costs, the foam will rub off like an eraser.

Plan Meet to Set Hearing On Ulster Sewer District

Supervisor Thaddeus Musialkiewicsz, Town of Ulster, today said he has called a special meeting of the Town Board for Wednesday, Oct. 25 at 7:30 p. m. to set a date for a public hearing on the proposed Ulster Sewer District.

The proposed district would encompass the area from the Kingston City line north to Leggs Mills Road with the westerly boundary being the Route 9W bypass including the Sunrise Park area, Carle Terrace to the St. Catherine Laboure Church and school, with the westerly boundary being the Esopus Creek.

Musialkiewicz said the Town Board held an informational meeting Oct. 11 at Chambers School at which time the proposed cost of the project was explained and the amount of state and federal aid that be expected was discussed. The board also explained the approximate cost per $1,000 of assessed valuation and the operation and maintenance charges based on water usage.

The supervisor noted that reaction of the taxpayers at the meeting earlier this month appeared to be favorable. At Wednesday's meeting the board must pass a resolution to take the next step fixing a date for a public hearing.

It was explained that only residents residing within the proposed district boundaries are involved in the proposed project.

Struck by Stray Bullet Near Town of Gardiner

While in the backyard at his home adjacent to the Wallkill River at 10:20 a. m. Sunday, Edward Schoeller, 83, of Box 9, Gardiner was accidentally shot by a stray bullet fired from the 22 rifle of a hunter, according to Highland State Police.

Trooper J. F. Henne said Schoeller was taken to Vassar Hospital in Poughkeepsie and treated for a bullet wound of the abdomen. His condition was described as good.

According to investigation by Sergeant Stanley Kowalik and BCI Investigator Roger Gardner, John Shackelford, 25, of Hurd Road, Clintondale, was hunting near the Wallkill River not far from the Schoeller home, when he fired his rifle. The bullet, troopers said ricocheted after hitting a rock and struck the elderly man.

Poughkeepsie Couple Hurt In Crash at Clintondale

Two Poughkeepsie residents were seriously injured at 4:45 p. m. Sunday when their car was reportedly forced off Bedell Avenue at Route 44-55, Clintondale and crashed into a tree.

State Trooper Jerry Henne of Highland, said Lajos Reesey, 76, of 93 Garden Street, Poughkeepsie, was driving west on the road when an unidentified vehicle forced him to turn off the pavement. His car skidded about 115 feet before hitting a tree, authorities said.

Reesey and his wife Gabriella, 68, were both taken to Vassar Hospital in Poughkeepsie, and treated for internal injuries. Their conditions were listed as critical. Trooper John Crodelle investigated the mishap.

Brinnier Wants Better Trained Poll Workers

A request for additional training periods for election inspectors in the Town of Saugerties, was called for today by William D. Brinnier, Republican candidate for county legislator.

"During the eight days of registration, as a candidate and as a committeeman, I found myself visiting many of the election polls in Saugerties. It became apparent to me, in my discussions with the election inspectors," he said, "that many of them are desirous of additional training and education in the operation of the polls on Election Day, Nov. 7, and particularly in the operation and handling of the voting machines."

BOCES Board Taps Pakanen

Jack O. Pakanen, president of the Board of Education of the Saugerties Central School District, was elected to serve on the Board of Cooperative Educational Services for Ulster County at a meeting held last week.

Pakanen will represent the Saugerties Central School District in BOCES and was elected for a four-year term.

A member of the Board of Education of the Saugerties Central School District for the past six years, he has served as president since 1965.

BOCES, is an organization of eight component school districts in Ulster County: Kingston, Saugerties, Onteora, Rondout, Ellenville, New Paltz, Highland, and Wallkill. Educational services are provided for member schools of the County, with headquarters in New Paltz. The board also operates a vocational Training Center at Kingston.

State Council Names Arnold

Dr. Dexter O. Arnold, superintendent of Saugerties Central Schools, was recently elected to serve as a member of the board of directors for the New York Council of School District Administrators.

A newly-formed organization of all chief school administrators within the state, the new council is an amalgamation of the Council of School Superintendents, cities and villages, State of New York, and the New York State Association of School District Administrators. Paul E. Vogan serves as president of the combined organization.

Dr. Arnold, who has served as superintendent in Saugerties since January, 1963, is a former president of the New Hampshire Association of School Superintendents. Prior to his New Hampshire service, he served as principal and teacher in New York State Schools. With the New York State Council of School Superintendents, Dr. Arnold has been a member of the data processing committee and the committee studying the implications of double-entry bookkeeping. During the past year he has represented superintendents of Judicial District III on the commissioner of education's advisory council.

Reindeer Event At Methodist Church Nov. 11

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Saugerties Methodist Church will sponsor a fair with the theme "Reindeer Roundup" Saturday, Nov. 11 from 2 to 8 p. m. There will be many booths from which to buy items including fancy work, aprons, articles from India, baked goods, candy, cheese, refreshments and attic treasures.

A roast beef dinner will be served at 5 and 6 p. m. Tickets for the dinner are on sale now and available from any member of the WSCS. The public is invited to attend.

Candidate

C. FREEMAN LASHER

In seeking the office of county legislator from the Town of Saugerties, C. Freeman Lasher says, "I feel that I am well qualified to serve the residents of our town in a very capable manner. I have had experience in business, financial and civil affairs for many years.

"I firmly believe that with four representatives at the county level of government, Saugerties will be in a very favorable position to continue its forward progress in our fast growing area.

"I firmly pledge to each and every resident of Saugerties that if you will support me in the coming election, I will do my utmost to see that our county government is conducted in an efficient and economical manner with the interests of the people of Saugerties always in mind."

Lasher was born in Asbury, Town of Saugerties, and operated a family dairy farm in Asbury until 1960. In 1961, he purchased Kelly's Paint and Gift Store which he now operates in Saugerties.

Lasher is a trustee of the Saugerties Savings Bank and a member of the Saugerties Chamber of Commerce. He is a member and Past Master of Ulster Lodge, 193, F&AM, and other Masonic organizations including Cyprus Temple Shrine, Albany. He is past district deputy grand master of the Greene-Ulster Masonic District, and first vice president of the Ulster County Shrine Club. Lasher is a member and past member of Asbury Grange 1408. He is also a charter member of Asbury-Katsbaan Fire Company, and a member and secretary of the board of fire commissioners of Saxton Fire District.

Lasher is married to the former Marguerite Murray and still resides at the family farm in Asbury, in the northerly section of the town.

Backs Bond Issue

Paul Petrillo, representing the American Automobile Club, told the Kerhonkson Lion's Club Thursday it was important to support the $2\frac{1}{2}$ billion dollar bond issue for mass transportation. Petrillo said that some of this money would probably be used to re-locate 209, a controversial subject with many Kerhonkson citizens.

Advises Restraint

NEW YORK (AP) — Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore said Sunday the United States must persevere with restraint in Vietnam.

The prime minister told Americans: "You must demonstrate whether you as a people have got that resolution, stamina, that perseverance and, most important of all, infinite patience and capacity to hold back your desire to settle this quickly and get it over with."

Yew appeared on the NBC-TV "Meet the Press" program.

He said he could not say what might cause Soviet or Red Chinese intervention, but he added: "I am quite certain at some point they will decide that their own national interests are at stake, and they will respond."

Poster Contest Winner at Mt. Marion

Four winners of the recent poster contest held at Mt. Marion School in recognition of National School Lunch Week have been announced.

They are: fifth grade, Susan Cadmus and Robert Diers; sixth grade, Terry Post and Leon Fisher.

The prize for the best poster was a free lunch. The contest was judged by the art teacher.

All students that purchased lunch during the week had an opportunity to win free ice cream as an extra dessert.

Firemen Present School Program

About 400 boys and girls from the kindergarten, first and second grrade classes of the Grant D. Morse School witnessed the presence of the Centerville fire truck and firemen last week.

The activity was planned in celebration of National Fire Prevention Week. Four separate presentations were arranged.

The youngsters had the opportunity to examine the truck and equipment and to see and hear firemen Scotty Myers, Leonard Sinnott and William Mauterstock talk.

A fire drill was also held during which all students evacuated the building.

Albany Fire Destroys Bus

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Fire swept a garage at suburban Bethlehem Central School today, destroying one school bus and damaging several others, police said.

Non one was injured.

Damage to the structure was not extensive, police said.

School officials said classes would be held today although pickups would be late because of the necessity of doubling up some bus routes.

Cause of the fire was not determined immediately.

Jersey Man Injured

Lloyd Stitham, 48, of Jersey City, N. J., was injured at 7:30 p. m. Saturday when his car went out of control on Route 209 near Ellenville, hit an embankment and overturned. State Police said the man was treated at Ellenville Community Hospital for lacerations and abrasions of the forehead.

Today In History

Plattekill

Nathaniel Dawes, master of the Plattekill Grange, welcomed the many members and guests who joined in the local celebration of the centennial of the National Grange at the Grange Hall Saturday night.

The program, presented by Mrs. Phil Rappalyea, lecturer, featured songs, costumes, tableaux and activities illustrative of rural life in the olden days. Musical numbers were given by a centennial chorus with solos by Ralph Grismer, Philip Rappalyea and Henry Barclay. Mrs. Linwood Underhill in appropriate costume appeared in tableau in the song The Old Spinning Wheel. The Virginia Reel was danced by six couples to music by the harmonica played by Denton Kimble. The early history of the organization was depicted by a group of local Past Masters representing the seven founders of the Grange. Mrs. Marian Woodruff, Past Lecturer, directed a group of members carrying placards showing many of the Grange accomplishments through the years such as: tariff reform, rural free delivery, parcel post, G.L.F., Rural Electrification, Farm to Market Roads, rural telephone services, U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, and Agricultural Research, 4-H Clubs, Social Security for Farmes. A group of Junior Grange members appeared in an exercise, What Is the Grange.

Finally, in a choral reading, of Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman's Forecast of Rural and Urban Life in the rural America in the next century, a vision of a new countryside, with new urban and rural balance was given by Grange youth members, David Jean and Christopher Dawes, Barbara Gardner, Loretta Martin and Jeffrey Devoe. Three candles were lighted, one for the past, one for the present and 3rd for the future, a tall one by Gregg Harris, master of the Junior Grange, denoting the dawn of the second century in the National Grange progressive program.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Everett, Ulster County Grange Deputies and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Krutzfeldt, from Hurley attended the 50th anniversary celebration of Asbury Grange Saturday night. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyer former deputies from Greene County.

The ancient Egyptians and Chinese used crude oil as a medicine.

The Viet Summit of '66:

Exercise in Futility for Year

An AP News Analysis
By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

A year ago this week President Johnson met at the summit in Manila with America's allies in Vitnam, seeking a road to peace. President Ho Ch Minh of Communist North Vietnam said "No." Today, the Manila summit seems as forgotten as if it had never happened and peace prospects look dimmer than ever before.

Offered Withdrawal

The government chiefs of the United States, the Philippines, Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, South Korea and South Vietnam offered withdrawal of outside forces from the south within six months of the time the North withdrew and halted infiltration and violence ebbed. The United States accompanied this with an offer to attack Asia's ancient problems and include North Vietnam in an economic program.

The proposals had a ring of challenge, since the Communists long had insisted the United States intended to keep its military presence in South Vietnam forever.

The ink was hardly dry on the final communique of Oct. 25 when Hanoi denounced the summit as a "council of war" and called the offer "cynical and insolent."

What had the look of a search for peace became an exercise n futility for the ensuing year. There was no lack of peace plans and proposals. What was lacking was the machinery for getting the show on the road.

Canada came up with a step by step plan envisioning physical disengagement of both sides, possibly at the demilitarized zone, a freeze of military activities in South Vietnam, cessation of actual hostilities, repatriation of prisoners, and finally, withdrawal of outside forces and dismantlement of bases.

No, No, No

Ho said no.

The United States indicated it would be agreeable to a withdrawal supervised by the International Control Commission to points 10 miles on either side of the demilitarized zone, which would create a 26-mile buffer strip.

Ho said no.

Prime Minister Dudley Senanayake of Ceylon sent envoys to Hanoi to invite North Vietnam to a Colombo meeting, possibly to discuss prospects for a cease-fire.

Ho said no.

Secretary-General U hant of the United Nations sent an aide-memoire to all parties in the conflict proposing three steps to negotiation: a standstill truce, preliminary talks and the reconvening of the 1954 Geneva conference.

Ho said no.

South Vietnam's regime said it would be willing to meet with a representative of North Vietnam.

Ho said no.

Britain expressed readiness to cooperate with her cochairman, the Soviet Union, in reconvening the Geneva conference.

Ho said no.

The United States asked repeatedly if Hanoi would give some signal, some token gesture, in return for a cessation of the bombing of the North.

Ho said no.

The mood of Hanoi in the year since the Manila summit has become stonier, as its leaders eye developments in the United States and a rising tide of debate over Vietnam policy. The Hanoi leaders indicate acute awareness that 1968 is a presidential election year in the United States.

If the bombing is stopped without conditions and for good, Hanoi says, talks—but only talks—are possible.

Any and every approach from the United States is denounced as a trick. Hanoi refuses to believe that the United States ever wants, willingly, to withdraw its forces from South Vietnam.

Perhaps the bombing of the North will stop sometime in the near future. The pressure for such a move is growing steadily.

The initiative then will be with Hanoi to decide whether there will be talks. Will talks mean real negotiations and eventual settlement and peace?

From the cocky look of the Communists' propaganda, the odds seem to be that once again, Ho will say no.

Stops Tormenting Rectal Itch

Exclusive Formula Promptly Stops Itching, Burning and Relieves Pain of Piles In Most Cases

New York, N.Y. (Special): The embarrassing itch caused by hemorrhoids is most torturous. But science has found a special formula with the ability, in most cases – to promptly stop the burning itch, relieve pain and actually shrink hemorrhoids. And all without narcotics or stinging astringents of any kind.

The secret is Preparation H®. There is no other hemorrhoid formula like it. Preparation H also lubricates, soothes irritated tissues and helps prevent further infection. In ointment or suppository form.

Godfrey Quits Runyon Post

NEW YORK (AP) — Radio and television star Arthur Godfrey resigned Friday as president of the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund in an apparent squabble with columnist Walter Winchell, its founder.

John Daly, director of the Voice of America, followed Godfrey and announced his resignation as a member and director of the fund.

Godfrey quit after Winchell demanded a new board of directors for the fund. He claimed Winchell "made a rare appearance" at the annual meeting of the fund armed with proxy votes for a new board.

Winchell said Godfrey "is now leading my long list of ingrates." The columnist claimed he gave Godfrey his first break in television.

The performer said his resignation "is by no means an indictment of the organization."

Bell on Panel Of Symposium

H. Clark Bell, Constitutional Convention delegate from the 38th district, has been invited as a panelist to a symposium on the proposed constitution on Tuesday, 8 p. m., at Mount Saint Mary College, Newburgh.

The symposium is being sponsored by the History and Political Science Dept. of the College. Other panelists will include William J. Rooney of the Bronx and D. Clinton Dominic, III, of Newburgh, both delegates to the convention. A representative of the Citizens for Educational Freedom Committee will also speak.

Bell has been speaking throughout the Dutchess and Ulster Counties advocating defeat of the proposed constitution. He has contended it is undemocratic to remove from the people their right of pick and choose.

He has urged all of the good progressive portions of the proposed constitution be submitted to the people on an individual submission basis which would allow selective voting in 1969.

Blame Bee

LOCK HAVEN, Pa. (AP) — A bumble bee caused a tractor-trailer to run off a highway near this central Pennsylvania community and dump a bulldozer it was carrying down a 125-foot embankment.

Police said the driver escaped injury—except for the bee sting.

Perrine Restoration Appears to Be Certain

Work on the restoration of historic Perrine's Bridge over the Wallkill River between the towns of Esopus and Rosendale now appears to be certain. Restoration and preservation of this old covered bridge has been the objective of interested persons for many years.

John Grady, president of the Perrine's Bridge Committee, Inc., which has been instrumental in promoting the campaign for preservation of the bridge, has expressed the appreciation of the committee for the adoption by the Board of Supervisors of the Mabie-DeFelicis resolution making ing available up to $25,000 of county funds as matching funds with the New York State Historical Trust for the restoration and preservation of the bridge.

"This is the culmination of many years work by groups to preserve this historical bridge," Grady said. "In the near future the Perrine's Bridge Committee, Inc., hopes to be able to solicit bids for the restoration and have the work started," Grady said.

"It is proposed by the committee, through the public contributions, to secure funds for a picnic area and to provide parking facilities in the area of the span for recreational purposes," Grady said.

Grady paid tribute to Assemblyman Kenneth L. Wilson, who, he said, had given much of his time and effort, and who should be "highly commended for his liaison work between the Committee and the State Historical Trust in making the site a historic preserve."

Return to Job

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — Construction workers on academic buildings at the State University campus here returned to the job today, ending a week-long jurisdictional strike.

Settlement of the dispute was announced Wednesday by Harry Livingston, a state mediator. Details were not disclosed.

Thirty five electricians, members of the Local 724, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, had picketed the project on the ground that non-union employes were doing work union members were qualified to handle.

Members of the other trade unions honored the picket lines.

Work on dormitory buildings continued during the week-long protest in the academic section of the complex.

Ward's Second Annual

Young American Award Program Committee

The second annual young American Award Program has been announced by David W. Mountford, local Montgomery Ward store manager who annually sponsors the program.

In making this announcement Mountford said "the wonderful success of our program last year has made it mandatory to repeat it again this year. Everyone concerned with the award, students, parents, educators, and committeemen were convinced that this is the type of positive action which is needed to show our teen-agers that we respect them and their achievements."

Treat Chairman

Mountford also announced that Richard L. Treat, general manager of The Kingston Daily Freeman has accepted the chairmanship of this award committee. He said, "although Dick Treat is a comparative newcomer to the Kingston area, he has been extremely active in many worthwhile causes. We feel highly complimented that he has offered the time out of his already busy schedule to take the helm of the Young American Award committee. Thriugh his efforts, we can now announce that the following eminent members of our community will also serve with him on the committee:

Howard C. St. John, local attorney and president of the Ulster County Savings Bank.

The Most Rev. James McManus, Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of New York, and Episcopal Vicar of Ulster County.

The Rev. Arthur Oudemool, pastor of Old Dutch Church in Kingston.

Lawrence Swars, general manager of Radio Station WKNY.

Dr. George B. Erbstein, president Ulster County Community College.

This committee will be the sole judge of which area high school students are to receive public recognition as Young American Award winners. All of the area high school principals have been invited to submit candidates whom they feel are worthy of receiving this honor. These students will be judged on their scholastic, extra-curricular and overall school activities. Each month one student will be named the Young American Award winner, then in June, one finalist will be selected from the monthly winners, and this student will be named the Young American Award winner for 1967-68. Each month the student winner will be honored at a dinner party to be held in area restaurants, and in June at a final award banquet, all students will join in honoring the finalist.

Red Hook Youth Winner

Last year, the student named the Young American of the Mid-Hudson Valley, was John Glowienka of Red Hook High School. John received a silver bowl, symbolic of his award, at a banquet in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

The Young American Award program is currently being carried on throughout the U.S. as an effort on the part of Montgomery Ward and Company to give recognition to the praiseworthy accomplishments of our youth. As Wards' Board Chairman, Robert Brooker pointed out last year, "Our most precious possession is our youth for they will decide the future of America as possibly the future of the world. There is a tendancy to overpublicize the behavior of a small portion of our young population that is reluctant to adjust to society. It is that small group of "unadjustables" that creates the distorted picture of young America today."

Brooker continued "Montgomery Ward believes there are more well-behaved, promising young Americans now than at any time in the history of our nation. More parents are rearing better children into more productive citizens than is generally recognized or publicized."

The Young American Award panel of judges will meet shortly to study the list of candidates who have been submitted for the October monthly award.

Fog Blamed For Crash In Vermont

NORTH TROY, Vt. (AP) — Federal and state aeronautics officials today tentatively blamed heavy fog atop 4,000-foot-high Jay Peak for a plane crash which killed two women and two men from New York State.

The single-engine White Piper, en route from Montreal, about 60 miles away, to Newport, plummetted through dense woods into the west side of the mountain Sunday.

Officials said the impact of the crash made a huge crater and instantly killed the pilot, Edward Greenspoon, 29, of North Woodmere, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. David Brunner, both 27, and Eva Lewin, 21, all of New York City.

The crash occurred about a mile south of route 105.

A hunter notified authorities of the crash after he said he heard the sound of a plane fighting for altitude in the heavy fog, then suddenly, silence.

Oldest Fraternity

Phi Beta Kappa, organized in 1776 at William and Mary College, is the oldest American college Greek letter fraternity, but it was not continuously active. Kappa Alpha Society, founded in 1825 at Union College, is the oldest in point of continuous existence.

Pumpkins Stolen

WINSTON-Salem, N.C. (AP) — E. J. Durham was riled Sunday when he discovered his entire pumpkin crop—two giant pumpkins of 150 and 80 pounds—had been stolen from his front porch. He had planted only four hybrid seeds on his farm 10 miles from the city, and had promised seeds from the crop to his friends.

Know-How is the Answer When it Comes to Grades

- Extracting facts from a textbook quickly.
- Making the memory carry a bigger load.
- Speeding through homework.
- Notebook short cuts.
- Breezing through a quiz.

These are some of the skills a student must master if he is going to get good grades in school. Techniques have been developed. They can be taught.

As a public service, this newspaper is presenting the updated Reading Laboratory formula for an easy study program.

THE MISSION: Reaching Scores of Forgotten Migrants

HOPEFUL — Cuddling against the side of a educational unit, a small boy patiently waits his turn at instruction.

By RAY W. TYSON

For more than a year now, three mobile educational units have been reaching scores of migrant workers in southern Ulster County.

Nightly, Monday through Thursday, small groups depart from the White Rock Hotel in Clintondale and travel to the various farm labor camps scattered throughout that area. Each unit contains two teachers and two aides—their mission is reaching the forgotten.

Better Citizens the Goal

Under the auspices of Southern Ulster's Migratory Assistance Corporation, the program got its start in June of 1966. Funding is dispersed through the State's Board of Co-operative Educational Services. Creating better citizens is the desired result.

Headed by Harold F. Taylor, a former Ellenville teacher, the wide-ranged plan is the first successful attempt of this type in Ulster's history. Hopefully, the need for such units will someday be unnecessary, says Taylor.

According to Will Boone, the unit's educational coordinator, the program was instituted when it became obvious people in need of educational services would not travel to permanent sites.

Boone said, "At first the entire concept seemed hopeless. Price estimates ran more than $7,000 per unit. Also we had to think of educational expenses and overhead."

Surplus Overlooked

But government surplus had been overlooked. In the end the units were put together for approximately $500 per unit. Presently three buses have been purchased for demonstration and exhibits.

The primary stress is vocational. Sewing, handicrafts, barbering etc. have gained priority. However, adult educational goes hand-in-hand with the former.

Converted Bus

A typical units is merely a converted bus. Various machines have been installed along the aisle where teachers offer their know-how to persons of all ages. Cooperation with the grower couldn't be better, Boone said.

The units are available between 6:30 p. m. and 10:30 p. m. weekly. Marlboro, Modena and Highland are the localities served. Students are transported to the classes by special volunteers, if their camp is too far away.

Although the units are supported entirely from State funds, the Ulster assistance group is sponsored by Federal monies channeled through the Office of Economic Opportunity. During 1966, $88,000 was alloted the migratory aide planners. This year $10,000 was cut from the budget. Next year's proposals will be submitted in March.

Hope to Expand

A spokesman said, "We hope to expand our facilitiies and add new items to our program. We pray they won't cut more money from our allotment."

Current migrants are not the only persons helped. Former migrants, resettled now in the county, are given special encouragement to enter the mobile classes. In fact, all the aides were once in the migratory strain, Taylor disclosed.

As he previously mentioned — hopefully the need for such units will someday be unnecessary. But until then, these dedicated workers carry on.

MOBILE AID — This migrant child might not be prepared for the future under normal circumstances. But mobile education, literate as well as vocational, is seeing to it that this girl is not forgotten.

Videothon Pushes Chest Drive Over Quota

Last Saturday night's second Ulster County Radio-videothon provided the final push for this year's Ulster County Community chest campaign to reach and exceed its quota of $320,000.

A star-studded cast for prominent celebrities and area citizens combined their talents to present 17 hours of continuous entertainment the result of which, was over $24,000 raised for the chest appeal.

George W Tamke, general chairman of this year's drive said, "I am pleased beyond words at the wonderful response our community has demonstrated toward the entire chest appeal.

"Our team this year was one of the hardest working groups I have ever had the pleasure of work with. Charlie Raible, Community Chest president and Bill Pearson, my associate chairman, as well as the entire chest cabinet, worked hard and long to make this achievement possible. Without the help of these men and the entire chest soliciting team, our quota would never have been reached."

Tamke went on to say "I would like to make particular mention of the fact that Charlie Raible's tremendous effort last year really provided the foundation for this year's success. Without the $286,000 his team raised, I question whether we could have reached the amount we did this year. As to the exact amount of money raised this year, we will plan to announce a final figure at the end of this week since many of our traditional contributions are still coming in. At present we have a little over $321,000."

PREDICTED SUCCESS — All smiles for the Community Chest were evident when New York Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller and Community Chest campaign chairman George W. Tamke, taped an introduction to Saturday's 16-hour radio-videothon. The event, as predicted, added the needed amount of money to the 1968 drive to raise $320,000 to support 13 agencies.

Referring to the radio-videothon, Tamke said, "I can't recall when such a show with so much talent was presented under one roof. Some people have estimated that we probably had a quarter of a million dollars worth of talent working for Ulster County this past Saturday."

Tamke was joined by radio-videothon chairman Donald MasIsaac and producer Ernie Ward in commending "the hundreds of volunteers who contributed their time and talent."

MacIsaac stated that "high tribute should be directed to the Kingston Cablevision and the four radio stations for the tremendous support they provided.

"Bill Krajci and his entire Cablevision team worked around the clock to assure the fine picture we had on Channel 5. They are to be commended for their effort. Radio Stations WKNY, WGHQ, AM-FM and WBAZ also provided personnel and facilities in generous number to assure that the program went on as planned. MacIsaac said, "the names are are really too numerous to acknowledge individually but everyone associated with this production knows of the work they did and are grateful for it."

All of the previously announced celebrities showed up at the George Washington School for the radio-videothon and did their assigned work. Sen. Jacob K. Javits read news, sports and weather concluding with the comment, "your newscaster has been Jack K. Javits."

Congressman Joseph Y. Resnick also delivered news, sports and weather as did Sen. Robert F. Kennedy who flew in from Albany for the event.

Sen. Kennedy's appearance resulted in a great press from the crowd of about 500 people who were assembled in the school auditorium.

The second annual radio-videothon concluded at 2:34 a. m. Sunday and many exhausted participants and workers were glad to bring the curtain on a successful drive. Over 37 organizations and several hundred people were represented. More than 250 telephone solicitors working in two hour shifts also were included in this tremendous effort.

Jumped Bail Here, Found in Oregon

A former Brooklyn man, a summer visitor to Woodstock in 1965, who jumped $250 cash bail following indictment for second degree assault has been apprehended by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Oregon and will be returned to Ulster County.

He had been accused what was described as a sadistic act on a Woodstock man, Barry Walsh.

Assistant FBI Director John F. Malone of the New York City office and District Attorney Joseph P. Torraca today announced the arrest of Robert Owen Bornn, 21, at Eugene, Ore. Bornn the subject of an intensive investigation throughout the United States was located by FBI agents Friday, where he had been living under the name of Robert Veldman.

Bornn was indicted by an Ulster County Grand Jury in connection with the alleged assault on Walsh near Meads Mountain House at Woodstock. He was released on bail and fled the jurisdiction of the local court. A bench warrant was issued in February, 1966 after forfeiture of bail had been sought by the district attorney's office. Torraca requested the assistance of the FBI to locate Bornn.

Bornn was transported to Portland, Ore. by the U.S. Marshall and will appear before the U.S. Commissioner today. He will be held in the Multnomah County Jail in Portland pending arrival of Ulster County authorities. Bornn has waived extradition.

There was also returned by the Grand Jury an indictment charging illegal possession of burglary tools. The latter indictment was returned in September, 1965, the assault indictment in June, 1965.

At the time investigating officials reported Bornn had tied Walsh in a wheelchair at the point of a pocket knife and then subjected the Woodstock man to what authorities described as torture. Investigated officers reported Bornn allegedly burned Walsh with lighted cigarettes, cut his stomach and arms with a razor blade and then poured turpentine and glue over parts of Walsh's body and ignited it. No motive was advanced for the act.

Gallup Poll Shows Johnson a Loser

PRINCETON, N.J. (AP) — President Johnson would be unable to defeat the leading three Republicans mentioned as presidential candidates if any election was held today, according to the latest Gallup Poll.

The poll, conducted between Oct. 6-11, found that Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y., would fare better than Johnson but would not be able to defeat former Vice President Richard M. Nixon or New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

Pollsters asked the following question of 1,585 persons in 320 localities across the nation:

"Suppose the presidential election were held today. If (candidate's name) were the Democratic candidate and (candidate's name) were the Republican candidate, which would you like to see win?"

A Nixon-Johnson race showed 49 per cent for Nixon, 45 per cent for the President and 6 per cent undecided. It was the first time that Nixon has shown greater strength than Johnson in the Gallup Poll.

Despite his insistence that he is not a candidate, Rockefeller holds an even wider lead over the President—54 per cent to 40 per cent with 6 per cent undecided.

The latest poll also showed Gov. George Romney of Michigan defeating Johnson, 48 per cent to 45 per cent with 7 per cent undecided.

In races against Sen. Kennedy, Nixon holds a lead of 48 per cent to 47 per cent with 5 per cent undecided and Rockefeller's edge is 47 per cent to 46 per cent with 7 per cent undecided.

A survey to determine who voters favor as the GOP candidate showed that Nixon and Rockefeller were gaining support while Romney failed to recover the support he lost following his Sept. 5 statement about having been "brainwashed" by the Johnson administration on Vietnam.

TB Hospital Closes

After 35-years service, Ulster County's Tuberculosis Hospital today closed its doors in order that the building can be transformed into an Infirmary Annex, it was disclosed.

The hospital, located at Golden Hill, Kingston, opened in 1931 as a 50-bed hospital and clinic. Six patients, presently at the hospital, are being taken to the Homer Folks State TB Hospital, Oneonta.

Since its opening the hospital has had seven directors—Frederic H. Boss, M.D.; George Webber, M.D.; Joseph Jacobson, M.D.; Herbert F. Schwartz, M.D.; Laszlon Arany, M.D.; and John B. Plass, M.D., the present head. Dr. Plass will continue to serve as director of the Ulster County Chest Clinic.

The present site, once converted into the Infirmary Annex, will be used primarily for Medicaid and Medicare patients. It will be operated by the Dept. of Social Services.

'Buck Fever'

PUEBLO, Colo. (AP) — Fourteen-year-old Jerriann Bocchietti, on her first deer hunting trip Sunday, got over a bad case of "buck fever" in time to drop a four-point buck.

Jerriann was hunting with her father, Charles Bocchietti, Pueblo, and several of her dad's friends when the buck bolted from a grove of trees.

"I missed the first shot," she said, "and got a bad case of buck fever before I hit him in the side on the second try." After missing the first shot she accidentally ejected two live shells before seating a third round.

Jerriann's buck weighed 200 pounds after it was dressed.

Her older hunting companions could do no more than look at it and sigh. They didn't even get a shot.

MRS. THEODO RE DeGRAFF
(Photo Workshop)

Sickler-DeGraff

Miss Patricia Marie Sickler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sickler, 16 Hunter Street, Kingston, was married Saturday, Oct. 14, to Theodore DeGraff, son of Mrs. Vonda DeGraff, 31 Third Avenue, this city, in St. Mary's Church.

The Rev. Edward I. Farrelly officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Nan Goldrick provided traditional wedding selections. The altar was decorated with white carnations and chrysanthemums. White satin bows marked the family pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white gown of Chantilly lace and silk faille crepe fashioned with a scalloped sequin trimmed neckline, fitted empire bodice and long tapered lace sleeves. A sheath floor length skirt was styled with a detachable lace train with a watteau effect. Her veil of scalloped pearl trimmed silk illusion was bouffant and fell from a cap of triple pyramid lace. She carried a satin covered prayer book with stephanotis, carnations and white orchids. The bride presented carnations at the Blessed Mother's altar.

Miss Patricia Scully, cousin of the bride, 195 Smith Avenue, Kingston, was maid of honor. She wore a petal pink sheath gown styled in an empire fashion in peau taffeta with a matching Dior coat and flirtation veil headpiece. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink glamelias.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Linda Reilly, Port Ewen; Sheila Sickler, Linderman Avenue, Kingston; Darlene Sickler, cousin of the bride, 190 Broadway, this city. Their gowns were fashioned identically to that of the honor attendant in lemon yellow, powder blue and nile green colors. They carried cascade bouquets of glamellias to match their gowns.

Miss Deborah Inge, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a petal pink gown styled similarly to the other attendants and carried a white braided wicker ring with pink glamellias.

Samuel DeGraff, 31 Third Avenue, Kingston, was best man for his brother. Usners were Joseph Rougier, Abruyn Street, Kingston; Clifford Kellerhouse, Pine Street, West Hurley; Robert Sickler, brother of the bride, Hunter Street, this city. John Grant, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer.

After the wedding a reception for 120 guests was held at the Moose hall, Prince Street, Kingston.

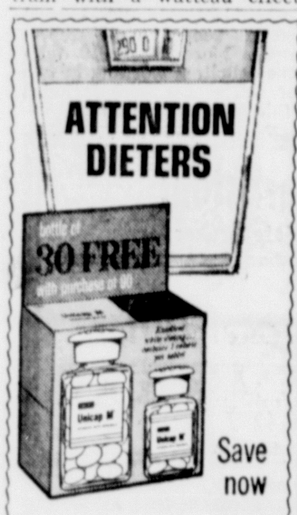

For her wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Canada, the bride selected a two-piece red suit with black accessories and a corsage of miniature red roses.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's School and Kingston High School.

Her husband is a graduate of Immaculate Conception School and is employed at Island Dock Lumber Inc.

Mr. and Mrs. DeGraff will reside at Spring Lake Trailer Park, Lucas Avenue, Kingston.

MRS. DANIEL P. TERPENING
(Gentile Studio)

Nuptials Announced

Miss Madalyn Louise Smith, 82 Prospect Street, Kingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Smith, 313 West Second Street, Oswego, became the bride of Daniel Paul Terpening, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Terpening, Salem Street, Port Ewen, Saturday, Oct. 21, at West Baptist Church, Oswego.

The Rev. Pastor Higgs officiated at the double ring ceremony. Miss Carol Morley sang traditional wedding selections, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Vera Clark. The altar was decorated with baskets of gladioli.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of angel skin peau de soie with a gentle scoop neckline. Re-embroidered Alencon lace edged the long tapered sleeves and floor length skirt. Her A-line skirt was enriched with tiny clusters of pearls and re-embroidered lace, carrying the motif to her flowing detachable train which draped from the back with self-fabric bows of peau de soie. A bouffant fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a tiered regal crown of petal points. She carried a cascade bouquet of white chrysanthemums intertwined with lemon leaves.

Mis Charlene Smith, sister of the bride, Oswego, was maid of honor. She wore an empire gown with a gold leaf cap headpiece accented with lace and carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums and pompons.

Attendants were Mrs. Edward Southgate, sister of the bride, West Third Street, Oswego; Miss Fay Brown, Sleightsburg, cousin of the bridegroom. Their green gowns were fashioned identically to that of the maid of honor.

Philip Terpening, Port Ewen, was best man for his brother. Ushers were Carl Carlson, cousin of the bridegroom, Ulster Park; Charles Smith, brother of the bride, Oswego.

After the wedding a reception for 75 guests was held at The Birches, Old East River Road, Fulton.

The bride, a graduate of Oswego High School, is employed by the New York Telephone Company, Kingston.

Her husband, a Kingston High School graduate and an alumnus of Albany Business College, is a teller at Rondout National Bank, Kingston.

When they return from their wedding trip through Canada, they will reside at 211 Salem Street, Port Ewen.

Learn Key to Grades: Study Each Teacher

READERS: This series, amplified with additional information, is available in permanent form as a book. Use coupon below.

By the Reading Laboratory

(Excerpted from the World Publishing Company Book, "Study Faster and Retain More.". Illustrations by Roy Doty.)

Obviously, the key to better grades is the teacher.

The old cliche says, "If you can't fight 'em, join 'em," and since there's no point in working at cross-purposes with your teacher, learn how to work with him.

Working with a teacher is not the same as apple-polishing. You have to work with people all your life; start making a science of it.

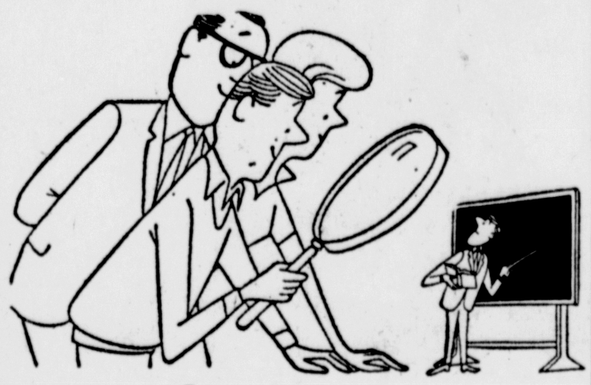

Here are the major things to look for when studying a teacher:

NO. 1

● What part of the course does he like best? What part does he like least? Watch out for small points that your teacher spends a lot of time on — he likes those points. They may be on a test.

● Does he like arguments in the classroom? (Not fights, of course, but intelligent discussion of both sides of a problem). Some teachers don't — usually because they're pressed for time. But try yours out. Bring up a question that contradicts one of his own statements. If he likes it, do it again. If he doesn't, it may be best to keep quiet when you disagree. There's no point in irritating him.

● What kind of tests does he give? Essay questions? True-False? Multiple choice? What kind of answers does he like? Good understanding of main idea? Tiny details? You'll have to adjust your studying to his tests.

● See if he has "good days" and "bad days." Mondays are just as rough on teachers as they are on you. Don't go out of your way to give your teacher a hard time on his bad days.

● Make a private appointment with your teacher. It can be helpful to both of you. He'll be glad to see you but be sure you have something specific that you want to talk over; he may not have time for just small talk.

● Does he mark for class participation, or does he just count tests? This will usually depend on the size of his classes; the best way to find out is to ask your teacher.

● Does he like to give pop quizzes? Check for this with other students who have already had your teacher.

Kingston Nursery School Children Enjoy Outings

Kingston City Firemen Francis Diamond, Gordon Purhamus, Bill Schwerdtfeger and Harry Horrbeck played host to children from Kingston Nursery School on Wednesday, Oct. 11, when they visited the Fair Street Firehouse.

The firemen demonstrated equipment and explained fire prevention rules to the children who were accompanied by Miss Carolyn King, certified nursery school teacher, and Miss Maryann Lynch, assistant.

The morning visitors were Bonnie Andretta, Tamar Bloom, John Cielo, Paul Conrad, Michael Kapreilian, Edward Karabec, Donna Kent, Sharon Modjeska, Kim Nicolosi, Inga Sardi, Sigrid Sardi, Katja Vestergaard and Steven Wadler.

The afternoon visitors included Skipper Bunce, Cheryl Camhi, Jonathan Cohen, Deborah Eichhorn, Matthew Farber, Patti Jeanne Kramer, Marilyn Sue Gally, Michael Lumish, Sharon Magaldino, Arnold Millens and Gregory Monashefsky.

Also Ellen Murkoff, Stephen Ritchie, Debcrah Ronder, Mark Severson, Harold Sossner and Lydia Zamm.

Deputy Chief Charles Hoehing of the Kingston Police Force visited the nursery school classes recently. He urged the youngsters to play away from the road area, to cross streets with adult supervision only, not to "hide" in the leaves and not to play with firearms.

The nursery school, which is sponsored by Jewish Community Center, 96 Maiden Lane, is planning a costume party for Tuesday, Oct. 31. The nonsectarian school is supervised by a committee of parents, including the Mmes. Morton Cohen, Joseph Conrad, Morris Kapreillian, David Gally, Harry Lumish and Marvin Millens.

Tour of Historic Hudson River Homes

A rare opportunity is offered to visit three 18th Century homes and observe the houses furniture, paintings and views of the Hudson River and Catskills.

The homes to be shown include Rokeby, owned by Mrs. Susan Aldrich, located just off River Road south of Barrytown. Montgomery Place owned by Major and Mrs. John White Delafield (8th direct descendent in family), located just off River Road, north of Barrytown to Annadale. The Calendar House west of Tivoli owned by Mrs. Osborne.

Tiny Tips

Shelling Almonds

Pour boiling water over shelled almonds, letting them stand for five minutes, or until skins are wrinkled. Drain and then slip off the skins by rubbing the nuts between your thumb and forefinger.

For 'Lower' Ceiling

If you live in a house with high ceilings that make your furniture look low and insignificant, "lower" the ceiling by painting it a darker color than the walls.

KHS Gains Initial Win, Stops Cardinal Farley, 21-0

By ED PALLADINO
Freeman Sports Staff

"We finally put everything together."

That's how Kingston High football coach Bill Hurley described his squad after the locals had trounched winless Cardinal Farley Military academy, 21-0, before a small turnout of about 1,000 Saturday at Dietz Stadium.

In picking up their first verdict in four starts, the Maroon players scored once in the second quarter and put the contest on ice with a two touchdown salvo in the final session.

Quarterback Mike Hoffman, giving his best performance to date, hit end Fred Kachura with a 48 yard bomb for the first score. The KHS quarterback took pigskin in from the one for a second eally. Defensive end Russ Wilber climaxed the successful afternoon with a 31 yard scamper after swiping a Farley pass late in the fourth and final session.

Only One threat

The Cadets, who have dropped five straight, made their only deep penetration on the first series of plays. They put the kickoff in play on the 40 and moved to the KHS 12, picking up four first downs on the drive.

However, the KHS line, anchored by big Bob Clausi, stiffened and didn't permit the visitors any liberties the rest of the way.

A 61 yard kick by Leo Halleran of the Cadets gave Kingston possession on the 38 early in the second period. Hoffman guided the home side to paydirt in only four plays.

An 11 yard pass from Hoffman to tight end Tim Bowens moved the pigskin to the Farley 48. The play come on third down.

The Scoring Play

On the next play, the KHS quarterback threw to Kachura, his split end. Fred grabbed the ball on the 30 and ran unmolested into the end zone. Bowens made the first of his three points from placement and very suddenly, it was a 7-0 game.

Just before half ended, the Maroon squad was near paydirt once again, only to lose the ball on downs 16 yards away.

The Cadets kicked off to start the second half and the home side went from the 33 to the Farley five. Once again the drive fizzled and came to a halt.

Defensive back Marshall Byrd swiped a pass on the 47 early in the fourth stanza and he ran it to the CF 43. A piling on penalty moved the pigskin to the 28. From there, the winners scored in seven plays.

Hoffman was the workhorse. He made a 14 yard run for a first down and brought it to the three on a fourth down play for another first down. Two plays later, the KHS quarterback scored.

Farley quarterback Bill Murray, who was rushed on his pass attempts for the greater part of the sunny afternoon, was intercepted two plays after the kickoff.

Russ Scores

Wilber moved in front of Rory O'Rourke, the intended receiver. He picked the ball out of the air on the 31 and easily carried it for a touchdown.

Still moments later, Byrd picked off his second pass of the day and took it to midfield. The game ended with the winners in possession at that point.

GRID JOTTINGS — Hurley was forced to go with a makeshift lineup. Regular halfback Greg Rios and fullback Dana Clearwater are nursing knee injuries and the KHS coach was forced to start Ed Adams and Bruce Brown in place of his regulars. Both reserves turned in sound jobs . . . Bowens, back at his tight end position, caught four passes and dropped two more as Hoffman was on target most of the afternoon . . . Clausi did a bangup job on defense and the KHS linemen didn't permit Murray time to get set. He had only one completion in 15 attempts . . . Linton is at Dietz Stadium for a Saturday afternoon contest . . . The Farley jayvees toppled Kingston, 19-13, in a morning game at the Rhinecliff field. Harold Wynkoop ran 52 yards and Bill Brady three yards for the KHS scores.

ATTACK FROM THE REAR — Pawling halfback Paul Teeple is nailed from behind by an unidentified Ellenville defender in Saturday's game at the Blue Devils' field. Also in on the play are Bill Young, Ellenville (51) and George Utter (68), Pawling. The visitors beat Ellenville, 35-12. (Freeman photo by Kruh).

Middies Rip Mamaroneck

Unbeaten Middletown scored quick and often during the first half and coasted to a 49-6 triumph over Mamaroneck of Westchester County Saturday at Wilson Field.

The Middies gave the home fans their best offensive show of the season in scoring seven touchdowns. Dick Field, who had two of the TD's booted seven straight extra points to account for 19 points by himself.

Quarterback Paul Hughes tallied twice from near the goal line and also threw scoring passes of 26 and 66 yards to John Peterson.

The defending DUSO champions are in schenectady for a Friday night game with Mont Pleasant.

Pawling Decisions Ellenville, 35-12

Pawling was scored upon for the first time this season on an 82-yard kickoff return by Ellenville Halfback Tom Murray, but the Tigers wound up with a 35-12 victory at the Blue Devils' field Saturday afternoon.

The win ran the Tigers' undefeated string to five this season while Ellenvxille suffered its third setback in five outings.

Murray scored both TD's for his team, running his personal record to 12 for the season. Jim Cunningham scored a pair of touchdowns for Pawling as did Chuck Swalagin. The other Pawling TD came on an interception pass by Terry Aiken. Kevin Aiken, Terry's brother, kicked five extra points.

Pawling scored the first time they got their hands on the ball on a 72-yard march. The big ground gainer in that drive was a 30-yard burst by Rolly Bauer, the Tigers' hard running fullback.

Cunningham bolted over from the one yard line for the score. Aiken's kick made it 7-0, Pawling.

Rugged Defense

Ellenville couldn't get going against the big tough Pawling defense. Leading the defense was tackle Paul Mancuso. The Blue Devils kicked on fourth down, got a good roll on the ball which came to rest 57 yards from the line of scrimmage. The ball was fumbled by Pawling on the four and the Blue Devils prepared to record the first score against Pawling. They failed, coming up inches short on a fourth down pass.

Swalagin, who's only 118 pounds, got the Tigers out of immediate trouble with a burst to the 26. Two plays later he raced 39 yards to the Ellenville 35. That drive failed but Ellenville couldn't get going and the Tigers wound up with the ball on their own 47. Bauer blasted to the 30. Aiken hit Cunningham with a 26-yard pass to the 4 and Swalagin took it in from there. The Tigers led 14-0 at halftime.

The score was crucial for Pawling. Coach Bud Coombs has been concerned about his team's unscored upon record. He said he wanted to know if they could bounce back after the demoralizing score. Shouts from the host of Pawling fans of "they scored on us, they scored on us" who had come 60 miles to see their Tigers could have hardly comforted Coombs. He needn't have worried.

Cunningham grabbed the kickoff on the 32 and raced the length of the field for the score. Aiken's kick jacked the score to 21-6.

A few plays later, Terry Aiken, who plays with glasses, intercepted a Dave Bagliebter pass and weaved 27 yards to paydirt. Brother Kevin toed the PAT. It was now 28-6.

Early in the fourth quarter Aiken fired a 31-yard pass to Swalagin for Pawling's last score.

Tom Murray proved the spark for the last Ellenville score. He grabbed a Bagliebter 34-yard pass with three defenders hanging on him, getting nailed at the four. Three plays later Murray leaped in the end zone for the TD pass from Bagliebter.

Haldane in Upset Over Red Hook, 25-12

Winless Haldane spoiled the Bi-Valley championship hopes of Red Hook Central gridders with a 25-12 upset triumph Saturday in Cold Spring.

Quarterback Pete Rapalje completed eight of nine passes, two of them for touchdowns as the home side breezed to an 18-6 lead and held off the Hookers in the third and fourth periods.

The Haldane quarterback threw TD passes of 30 and 87 yards to Dick McConville. The latter was a short flat toss which McConville made a nice catch and run. Rapalje tallied once himself on an eight yard run and Paul Mankin went in from the five for the other TD.

Red Hook was stymied on the ground by a tough Haldane defense. Both scores by the Hookers were the result of passes from quarterback Ed Thompson. The first was a nine yard toss to Ralph Cort in the second period. This knotted the game at 6-6.

Thompson connected with Terry White, his favorite target, with a 26 yard job late in the game.

The setback was the first for Red Hook in league action and gives them a 4-2 record for the season. The Hookers entertain powerful Pawling in a league game on Saturday.

Giants Beaten; Jets Top Miami

Green Bay scored 38 points in the second half to topple the New York Giants, 48-21, before 62,585 fans Sunday at Yankee Stadium.

Meanwhile, Joe Namath completed 13 of 15 passes for 199 yards in the first half to lead the New York Jets to a 33-14 win over the Miami Dolphins at the Orange Bowl in Miami.

The Giants, with Fran Tarkenton throwing first half touchdown passes to Homer Jones and Joe Morrison, had a 14-10 lead over the champion Packers at intermission.

Green Bay stormed back in the third and fourth periods to turn a possible upset into a rout.

Namath was superb as the Jets retained their Eastern division lead in the AFL. He was aided by Emerson Boozer's two scores, giving the swift halfback 12 TDS for the season.

Both teams are at home this Sunday. New York faces Cleveland while the Jets return to Shea Stadium to meet the Boston Patriots.

AHS Surprises Lourdes, 19-0

The unbeaten list of clubs in the DCSL is now two. Our Lady of Lourdes, riding high with four straight victories, was whitewashed, 19-0, by Arlington High Saturday in a league game at Riverview Field in Poughkeepsie.

Aroused by coach Frank King after being upset the previous week by Roosevelt, the visitors scored in each of the last three periods and put a halt to the high scoring Warrior offense.

Bruce Duncan of the Admirals swiped a Lourdes pass in the second quarter and raced 66 yards to a score. This set the pattern for the rest of the afternoon.

Arlington went 65 yards in 12 plays after putting the third quarter kickoff in play. Quarterback Mark Hinsch passed the final 28 to Bob Fenn, who took the ball on the 10 and rambled into the end zone.

Fullback Dan Hardisty, who did the heavy duty work for the Admirals, went six yards in the fourth period to cap a 53 yard, 13 play drive. The extra point was scored on Steve Pagnetti's pass to Bill Donaldson.

The winners were threatening again when the game ended. They stymied the Warrior offense time and time again and completely dominated play.

Port Chester Stops Newburgh

Powerful Port Chester threw a rock ribbed defense against Newburgh Free Academy and whitewashed the Goldbacks, 27-0, in a non-league contest Saturday at the Hilly City gridiron.

While stopping Wayne Youngs, the NFA star, the Westchesterites did their scoring in the first three quarters as they cruised to their 11th consecutive victory over a two-year span.

It was the second straight setback for coach Rip Fornal's club after a pair of opening victories.

Marlboro Triumphs Over Wallkill, 7-0

Cellar dwelling Wallkill gave Marlboro's high flying Dukes a tight tussle but came up on the short end of a 7-0 UCAL battle Saturday at thet loser's gridiron.

Though coach Jack Kroh's gridders were in complete command of the situation, they managed their only score in the opening quarter after blocking a punt on the three.

Finally, from seven yards out, quarterback Mike Pagano threw to Dan Martuscello for the TD and Charles Peters added the extra point.

The Dukes threatened on other occasions but were rebuffed by the witless home side, which produced its best effort of the season.

The victory keeps Marlboro in contention for league honors. Wallkill is witless in five circuit starts.

Poughkeepsie Scores, 27-7

Poughkeepsie's high powered Pioneers scored the first three times they received the ball and went on to topple Lakeland, 27-7, in a non-league battle Saturday in the Bridge City.

Coach Don Smith's unbeaten gridders hit paydirt in the opening session as Bill Green tallied from 11 yards out. Rudy Jones took a 34 yard pass from quarterback Bob Schiller and Jake Ellis scampered in from the 20.

After the visitors had narrowed the margin with a third period TD, the home side completed the scoring when Green took Schiller's 15 yard toss in the fourth stanza.

The home forces dominated the action from the beginning as they took a breather from their DCSL schedule.

Rondout Tops New Paltz; Onteora Stops Pine Bush

2nd Half Rally Gives Ganders 21-6 Victory

Jim Rowe scampered 95 yards with the second half kickoff and Rondout Valley broke loose from a scoreless first half to trounce New Paltz, 21-6 and retain its UCAL lead Saturday before another good crowd at the Stone Ridge gridiron.

The defensive minded Huguenots played the home side to a standstill during the first and second periods.

However, Rowe took the kickoff to start the third quarter at the five, cut to his right and outraced the seondary. He was aided by several key blocks. Quarterback John Meehan, who saw limited action because of a hand injury, threw to end Charles George for the extra point.

The Ganders put this one out of reach in the fourth period. Fullback Tom Frazier galloped 56 yards to move the ball into scoring position. Halback Tom Craig carried it across from the two and Meehan tossed to Rowe for the point.

Gordie Taylor, the Rondout speedster, went four yards for the final score after a New Paltz punt had been blocked on the 10. Gordie, who now has 13 touchdowns for the season, made the extra point.

New Paltz scored its TD against Rondout reserves when Bill Bond hit Jim Schiller from nine yars out with 25 seconds remaining.

Frazier was the workhorse for Coach Chick Meehan's Ganders. He picked up 133 yards. Taylor was limited to 67 by the tenacious Huguenot defense.

Roosevelt Tops Beacon, 27-13

Scoring at least once in each quarter, Roosevelt turned back Beacon, 27-13, in a DCSL tilt Saturday at the Hyde Park gridiron.

Fresh from their upset win over Arlington, the Presidents combined the passing of quarterback Gary Luhmann and the rushing of Perry Drake to hand the Beaconites their fourth consecutive setback.

Luhmann passed for 113 yards and connected with scores to Tom Rinaldi for eight yards and to Dan Cave for 20 yards.

Drake, who ran for 142 yards in 24 carries, tossed 37 yards on a halfback option to Bob Clark. The speedy halfback also ran over from the two.

Highlight of the day for the losers was Nate Milligan's 96 yard return with an intercepted pass.

The run came in the fourth period and the visitors scored again before time ran out when quarterback Andy Fredricks tossed 26 yards to end Tom Moore.

New Zealander Driving Champ

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Denis Hulme, world driving champion and New Zealand's latest example of how to beat a man at his own game, is a king in search of a mount.

Hulme won the driving title Sunday with a surprise third place in the Mexican Grand Prix. Jim Clark of Scotland won the auto race in spectacular fashion but had no hope of keeping the title out of New Zealand or Australian hands.

The quiet Kiwi is the first New Zealander to win the championship invented by Europeans but he's not sure he'll try for a repeat in 1968 in the same type car he drove this year.

"I'll decide in a month or two what I'll do,' Hulme said. "I don't know yet whose car I'll drive next year."

Jim Hart's Strong Arm Clicks for Cardinals

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Hart's strong arm put new wallop into the St. Louis Cardinals' attack, but Gale Sayers' sore leg left the Chicago Bears offenseless.

Hart, St. Louis' sensational rookie quarterback, fired four touchdown passes Sunday in a 48-14 bombardment of the Philadelphia Eagles.

The Cards' fourth triumph in six games kept them tied for the National Football League's Century Division lead with the Cleveland Browns, who blanked the Sayers-less Bears 24-0 for their fourth straight victory.

Green Bay's NFL champions also flexed their muscles in demolishing New York 48-21 while Minnesota fought Baltimore to a 20-20 standoff, Los Angeles and Washington played to a 28-28 tie, San Francisco whipped New Orleans 27-13, Dallas edged Pittsburgh 24-21 and Detroit beat Atlanta 24-3.

Hart hit on 16 of 29 passes for 267 yards as St. Louis poured across 45 straight points to wipe out the Eagles' 14-3 first-quarter lead. Jackie Smith grabbed a pair of Hart strikes for 74 and eight-yard scoring plays and Bobby Joe Conrad and rookie Dave Williams caught one TD pass apiece.

While the Cards were making their biggtst point splurge in St. Louis since 1962, the Browns recorded their first regular-season shutout since 1960...while Sayers, Chicago's offensive sparkplug, watched from the sidelines with a bruised left leg.

Frank Ryan's nine-yard TD pass to Gary Collins broke a scoreless tie in the third quarter and the Browns wrapped up the victory with a 17-point final period. The Bears, held to nine first downs, did not threaten until the closing minutes, when they reached the Cleveland seven as time ran out.

Quarterback Bart Starr returned to the Packers' line-up after missing two games with injuries and directed an awesome running attack that produced 38 points in the second half. Jim Grabowski accounted for 123 of Green Bay's 249 rushing yards and Elijah Pitts, who scored three touchdowns, picked up 72 more.

Minnesota, which upended the Packers 10-7 last Sunday, barely missed knocking off the unbeaten Colts behind Joe Kapp, whose 11-yard TD pass to Red Phillips produced a 20-13 edge in the fourth quarter.

But Johnny Unitas, whose 20 completions set an NFL career mark of 2,131, brought the Colts back 80 yards for the tying touchdown, climaxing the drive with a three-yard pitch to John Mackey.

Roman Gabriel's six-yard TD pass to Bernie Casey with 54 seconds to play capped a 75-yard march and earned the Rams a tie with the Redskins. Sonny Jurgensen's fourth scoring pass, a 39-yarder to Jerry Smith, gave Washington a 28-21 lead minutes before Gabirel hit for the tying touchdown.

The deadlocks were the second straight for both the Colts and Rams, who struggled to a 24-24 tie last week.

John Brodie passed for two touchdowns and Tommy Davis kicked a pair of field goals, leading the 49ers past winless New Orleans for their fifth victory in six games.

Craig Morton hit Pettis Norman on a five-yard TD pass with 24 seconds to play, giving the Cowboys the nod over Pittsburgh in another wild finish. Morton's third scoring flip of the game came just 48 seconds after the Steelers grabbed the lead on Kent Nix' 11-yard TD pass to J.R. Wilburn.

Detroit's Karl Sweetan, making his first start of the season, connected with Tom Nowatzke and Bill Malinchak for a pair of fourth-quarter scoring passes, breaking up a tight defensive battle with the Falcons.

Crusaders Get 19-6 Decision

The Hudson Valley Crusaders won their sixth game in eight starts, 19-6, Sunday over the Schenectady Stormers. About 750 watched the game at Poughkeepsie's Riverview Field.

Roger Myrick scored from two yards out to put the winners on the board in the first quarter.

In the second period, Gar Withers passed 35 yards to Murray Mulligan. A 25 yard toss from Jim Gordon to Chip McDowell completed the scoring for the Crusaders.

Chauncey Has 2 Touchdowns In 19-0 Win

A fired up Pine Bush eleven won the battle of the statistics but Onteora Central scored all the points in a bruising 19-0 UCAL victory Saturday at Pine Bush.

Two fumble recoveries and a blocked kick led to the OCS scores, with Co-Captain Dale Chauncey, fearsome 6-2 205 pound tackle, staging another brilliant individual performance for Coach Paul Jordan's Indians who are now 5-1 on the season.

Chauncey picked off a pass deflected by defender Fred Middleton and scampered 31 yards up the sideline to put Onteora on the scoreboard in the third period.

In the fourth quarter, Chauncey stormed through to block Mike Brock's punt on the Wallkill 35, swooped up the ball and ran into the end zone for his second TD. The play started on the Wallkill 45.

Fullback John Adsit recovered a fumble on the Pine Bush 27 late in the third quarter. Quarterback Mickey Bush hit George Colon for a firstdown on the 17. After two incomplete passes, Adsit ran off the right side on a fake pass formation untouched to the end zone. John Stoothoff kicked the extra point to close out the scoring at 19-0.

The hard charging Wallkill Squad had a 11-4 edge in first downs and 128-35 yard edge in rushing. But they were able to put together only one sustained drive, a 62-yard advance engineered by Jay Lourenser and Gary Sisco that came to grief with an Alan Cocks interception for OCS on the 13 yard line.

With its offensive blocking somewhat less than adequate. Onteora again proved for the second straight week that it can capitalize on breaks.

Substitute halfback Mickey Patrick suffered a shoulder injury in the third quarter and is lost for the season.

Good RBI Man

In his first two full seasons with the Detroit Tigers outfielder Willie Horton has batted in 204 runs. He drove in 100 in 1966.

NL Record

Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves tied a National League record last season when he drove in 127 runs. It was the fourth time he led the league.

Liberty Overwhelms Highland Club, 27-7

Cracking the Highland defense for 250 yards, Liberty Central remained in the UCAL race and knocked the defending champions out of all chances with a stunnnig, 27-7, win Saturday at the Sullivan County gridiron.

Quarterback Ken Cogswell guided the home side to its victory. He scored on a one yard run, converted three extra points and sent his backfield mates through the Highland line for chunks of big yardage.

Cogswell capped a 48 yard drive in the second period when he slipped over from the one and then booted the PAT. The Indians went off the field with a 7-0 lead at the interim.

The Liberty quarterback passed for 22 yards to end Joe Bagley to highlight a fourth period drive. Halfback Pete Fleckenstein carried over from the four to ignite a three touchdown period for the winners.

Fullback Bob Grimball scored moments later as the Indians marched 60 yards on the ground. The final Redskin score came when Bill Richards bulled in from the one after the visitors had been stopped by an intercepted pass.

With time running out, Highland got on the scoreboard when quarterback John Indelicato passed 46 yards to fullback Charlie Hicks and another 15 yards to Ron Perkins.

The win gives the Indians a 4-1 league record. Highland is now 2-2-1 and is out of the running.

This Volkswagen has a door on the left to let in the driver. (That's one.) A door on the right to let in the passengers. (That's two.) And a door in the back which is like the tailgate of a conventional wagon. (That's the third, and do you need any more than that?)

To look at it, you'd swear our Squareback is a station wagon. But it really isn't.

Why? Well for one thing it doesn't cost like one.

For another, it doesn't park like one. (The Squareback is only six inches longer than the bug. But has three times the storage capacity.)

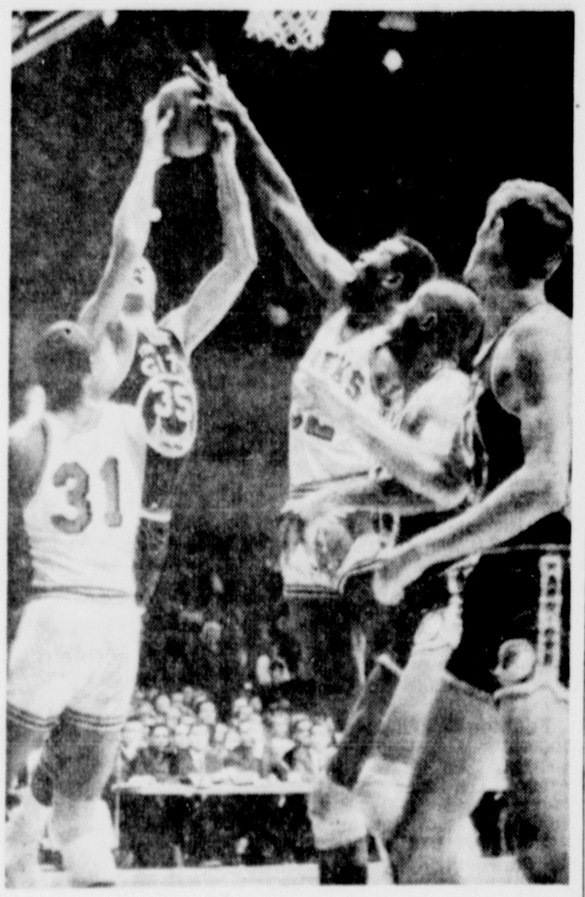

And since it's a Volkswagen you can be pretty sure it'll use about half as much gasoline as the average wagon. (Our Squareback gets up to 27 miles per gallon.)

So if you're trying to decide between a station wagon and a sedan, why not get the best of two worlds? Buy the sedan that looks like a station wagon.

Kickers' Rally Nips Dalmatinacs, 3 to 2

ST. LOUIS HAWKS' Bill Bridges (32) makes what appears to be a clean block on basket attempt by San Francisco Warriors' Rudy La Russo (35) in the last period of the Hawks-Warriors game in St. Louis. Instead a foul was called on Bridges. Watching the action are the Hawks' Zelmo Beaty (31), Warriors Al Attles (2nd R) and Clyde Lee (R). (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Reinhardt Goal Is the Clincher

Kingston Sport Club's high flying Kickers again reverted to their Jack Armstrong formula to edge a tough Dalmatinac eleven of New York, 3-2, Sunday to retain a tie for the League Division lead in the German-American Soccer Association.

Jim Reinhardt's booming 40-yard free kick goal over the goalie's head furnished the clincher 5 minutes from the finish.

The win kept the Kickers tied with Yonkers, 3-1 winners over BW Poughkeepsie, at 11 points on 5 wins, a tie and a loss.

Bavarians nipped White Plains, 1-0, and moved past them into third place with 10 points. The Plainsmen are in fourth with 9 points.

Kingston faces a crucial test at Bavarian next Sunday, then returns to Oehler's Field to meet Poughkeepsie BW on Nov. 5.

Trail at Half

Outplayed in the first half when they trailed 2-0, the Kickers didn't hit the scoreboard until the 70-minute mark when Obbie Elliott-Asare rifled a goal into the corner of the net.

A newcomer to the Kickers' lineup — Yugoslavian Kasim Selimatic — tied the score at 2-2 five minutes later when he chested a rebound off the post by Wally Grasmeier.

Reinhardt's winning goal was a terrific blast that still had plenty of momentum when it sailed over the Dalmatinac goalie's head from 40 yards out.

Visitors Wilt

The combination of a grass field and high temperatures told on the Dalmatinacs who, in the first half, looked like the best club the locals have seen in the new season.

Jake Fros got a starting assignment in place of Reiner Schwebel, who missed the game because of an out of town commitment.

The Kingston lineup:

Goalie—Timo Liekoski; RFB—Lee Roberts; LFB—Bill Newmershinsky; RHB—Tony Reinhardt; CHB — Winnie Soddermann; LHB—Jake Fros; OR—Richie Lotze; IR—Obbie Elliott-Asare; CF—Eugene Ventrigila; IL—Jon Weber; OL—Walt Grasmeir.

State U. Booters Rip Fredonia, 7-0

Angelo Targia scored three goals and the Hawks of New Paltz State reached the .500 mark with a 7-0 SUNYAC soccer verdict Saturday over visiting Fredonia State.

Coach Bob Durkin's booters are now 3-3 for the season. They play Wednesday at Adelphi and return home Saturday for an encounter with Bridgeport.

After a scoreless first period, Clem Mbadinuja put the home side in front with a goal at 12:15 of the second period. Targia received an assist on this one.

Before the quarter ended, Targia tallied after taking a pass from Dan Greaves and Mbadinuju, assisted by Abdi Yunis, connected for his second goal.

Targia beat the Fredonia goalie in the third quarter with Greaves picking up another assist. Then, Targia scored on a penalty kick and Pete Kane also put one through the nets with Yunis giving him the pass.

In the final period, Graves, taking a pass from Mal Hopper, finished the scoring with his only goal of the game.

The Hawks took 33 shots against only 12 for the losers. New Paltz goalie Ed Johann recorded his third shutout and second in succession.

First ABL Victory For New Colonels

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A pass from the Army and a spark from the bench set up the Kentucky Colonels for their first American Basketball Association victory Sunday night. Lou Dampier, former University of Kentucky star on a weekend pass from the National Guard at Ft. Knox, Ky., dropped in 2 points, in the 106-96 victory over Minnesota. His two field goals put the Colonels ahead to stay 94-93 with 3:18 left.

He had plenty of help from Steward Johnson, who came off the bench in the second period and pocketed 22 points, including four three-point baskets beyond the 25-foot range.

Only 2,000 turned out to see Dallas lose its first game in two starts, dropping a 121-101 decision to unbeaten Indiana.

Fred Lewis scored 27 points and Roger Brown 26 as the Pacers won their fifth game. Bob Verga had 31 for Dallas, which fell behind, 15-13, and never caught up.

In the National Basketball Asssociation, Cincinnati and San Francisco beat the two expansion teams, Seattle and San Diego.

Jerry Lucas and Oscar Robertson powered a second-half Royal rally for a 106-94 victory over Seattle as Lucas hit 26 points and collected 24 rebounds and the Big O added 23 points and nine assists.

Nate Thurmond was the whole story in San Francisco's 137-126 triumph over San Diego as he scored 37 points and hauled in 26 rebounds. The Warriors took a 77-70 halftime lead and never trailed in the final half.

Hadl's Three Pitches Keep Chargers Rolling

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Coach Sid Gillman of San Diego doesn't worry anymore about John Hadl giving up the foot ball, but those shapely blondes are starting to give him trouble.

It began Sunday, more unexpectedly than the Chargers' showing this year, when a gal dashed from the stands in the third quarter, grabbed up the football at the line of scrimmage and refused to give it back.

It was about the only game the surprising Chargers have lost this year as they ran their record to 5-0-1 with a 38-21 victory over Denver on Hadl's three touchdown pitches in the last half.

The victory kept them the American League's only unbeaten team and still atop the Western Division, a half-game ahead of Oakland.

The Raiders easily ran their record to 5-1 behind Daryle Lamonica's four scoring passes that carried them to a 48-14 rout over Boston and set up a clash against San Diego next Sunday.

The league's defending champions, Kansas City, fell further behind when Houston upset them 24-19, while the New York Jets continued to roll along as the Eastern Division leader with a 34-14 triumph over Miami.

Man of the Hour

Hadl, troubled by interceptions during his six-year AFL career, was the man of the hour for the Chargers. He shook off two thefts on his first three tosses against the Broncos to snap a 14-14 deadlock with scoring passes of 66 yards to Dick Post, five yards to Willie Frazier and 67 yards to Lance Alworth.

While Hadl was pulling out the game for San Diego, a gal who said her name was Beverly Hutchison of Colorado was the woman of the hour.

She came out of the east stands, vaulted a three-foot-high fence and swiped the football just as the Denver center moved over it. Stunned officials tried to get it back, and then ushers and police officers pleaded in vain after she returned to the stands.

Lamonica Responds

Oakland, keeping it a man's game, handed Lamonica the ball and he responded by throwing one TD pass and setting up two field goals for a 20-0 halftime lead. When the Patriots closed to 20-7, he demolished them with three more payoff tosses, and then expressed dissatisfaction.

"I'd rather be lucky than good," said Houston Coach Wally Lemm. "We just got the early breaks and that did it for us."

He was talking about the 24-3 lead the Oilers grabbed in the first half on Zeke Moore's 92-yard scoring kickoff return, Jim Norton's 23-yard TD return of an intercepted screen pass and Larry Carwell's 33-yard punt return that set up a 45-yard field goal. Houston's offense got its only touchdown as Pete Beathard punished his former mates with a 39-yard scoring pass.

The Chiefs, 3-3, rallied for two TDs and another field goal, but a final chance was lost on a fumble at the Houston 31 with 2:50 left in the game.

Joe Namath got the Jets clocking, hitting 13 of 15 passes for 189 yards and two touchdowns and a 24-0 halftime lead before sitting out the last half with a charley horse.

Emerson Boozer clung to his league-leading point total by catching one of Namath's scoring passes and running for another TD as the Jets ran their record to 4-1-1.

Wappingers Routs Saugerties, 46-0

Striking by land and through the air, powerful Indians of Wappingers Falls overwhelmed Saugerties High, 46-0, in a DCSL mismatch Saturday at the Roy Ketchum field in Wappingers.

Tied with Poughkeepsie for first place in the tight race, the home side scored once in the first quarter and twice in each of the other periods. Saugerties didn't pose a serious threat to the winners, who have still to yield their first points of the season.

Halback Ed Raab ignited the fuse for the Indians. He took a 32 yard scoring pass from Ed Bonnett in the opening session. He also ran 55 yards after taking a second quarter punt. This scamper broke the backs of the Sawyers, who moved the ball well during the first half.

Charles McKinney, the other halfback, scored on runs of six and 19 yards. Bill Parkton raced over from the two, Bill Gates took it in from four yards out and Parkton climaxed the happy afternoon for the home side with a 10 yard scoring pass from Bonnett.

The Fallsmen picked up more than 400 yards, running for 277 and passing for 192. Saugerties rushed for 147 yards but the SHS passing game was nullified by a strong secondary.

Another key in the triumph by the unbeaten but once tied Fallsmen was the punting and kicking off of Dan Sheppard. His talented toe kept the visitors deep in their territory most of the game.

Warwick Shocks Port Team, 33-13

Warwick Central, the Orange County League champion, spotted Port Jervis a pair of first quarter touchdowns and then buried the previously unbeaten Raiders, 33-13, in an upset Saturday at the Warwick field.

The Raiders went 67 yards after putting the opening kickoff in play with halfback Garrett Hill pushing over from the five and Carl Degroat adding the PAT.

Just moments later, defensive end Bill Clary picked off a pitchout and ran 29 yards to paydirt. After that, the game belonged to the Wildcats.

Jose Guadalupe ran three yards for a score and passed for 10 and 18 yards to Tom Barnes. Later in the game, Wade Lawes went 52 yards with an interception and Guadalupe climaxed the scoring with a drive from the one.

So dominant were the winners they picked up 324 yards on the ground while holding the Raiders to only 158.

Murle's Eagle Wins Carlsbad

CARLSBAD, N.M. (AP) — Murle Lindstrom says the Riverside Country Club nine-hole course — the only one on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour in 1967 — makes the players work on their approach game.

So, Mrs. Lindstrom, a 28-year-old mother of two from Largo, Fla., teed off on the 15th hole Sunday with that in mind. Her drive landed 190 yards shy. She picked out her three-iron and sent the ball dribbling into the cup for an eagel on the par-4 hole.

Those two strokes, sandwiched between two birdies, gave Mrs. Lindstrom the strokes she neebed in forging a five-under par, Riverside record 67 for the championship of the Carlsbad Ladies Open Golf Tournament.

Of the $11,000 distributed to the women pros, Mrs. Lindstrom takes home $1,650 for her 54-hole total of even par 77-72-67—216. One stroke back was second-round leader Sandra Haynie, who won $1,310 for her 73-72-72—217.

YOU CAN'T TELL by the faces who's winning here. Great Britain's Tony Jacklin (R) seems to have the winner's slant on his drive but his American opponent Arnold Palmer still has the edge. Palmer defeated Jacklin in Ryder Cup play, 3 and 2, as the United States team defeated the British for the 14th time in Ryder Cup play. (UPI TELEPHOTO).

Sawchuk and His Kings Getting the Last Laugh

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Los Angeles' laughing stock Kings are the National Hockey League's only undefeated team and maybe NHL's expansion draft wasn't so funny after all.

The Kings selected veteran goalie Terry Sawchuk in the draft and surrounded him with a band of inexperience youngsters, prompting the consensus that they had done the poorest job of picking. So naturally, they're leading the NHL's expansion West Division.

Sawchuk made his first start Sunday night and was brilliant, as the Kings ripped Chicago 5-3. It was the sixth straight loss for the limping Black Hawks — the second in two nights against expansion teams — and shoved Chicago deeper into the East Division cellar.

Elsewhere, New York showered 51 shots at Pittsburgh goalie Les Binkley and topped the Penguins 6-4. Philadelphia won its third straight, trimming California 5-2 and Paul Henderson's third period goal gave Detroit a 1-0 decision over St. Louis and Glenn Hall.

In Saturday night's games, New York stopped Toronto 5-3, Montreal whipped Boston 4-2, Pittsburgh slugged Chicago 4-2, Minnesota topped California 3-1 and St. Louis battled to a 3-3 tie with Los Angeles.

Sawchuk, 37, kicked out 42 shots — 19 of them in the final period — as the Black Hawks buzzed around Los Angeles' goal. The Kings erased a 2-0 Chicago lead, scoring four times in the second period. Bill Flett, Brian Kilrea, Lowell MacDonald and Brian Smith scored the goals.

Los Angeles' five goal scorers had a total of 109 NHL games experience before this season — exactly 800 less than Sawchuck has played.

Orland Kurtenbach scored two goals for the Rangers who pounded away at Binkley and finally broke the game open in the third period.

Name DiMaggio VP at Oakland

CHICAGO (AP) — Joe DiMaggio, one of baseball's all-time greats, is back in the game as executive vice president of the new Oakland Athletics.

DiMaggio signed a two-year contract to run the club for Charles O. Finley, the insurance tycoon who last week succeeded in getting his American League franchise shifted from Kansas City to Oakland.

"I'm looking forward to working iwth Joe DiMaggio, one of the greatest names in the history of baseball," Finley said Sunday. "I'm tremendously pleased Joe is joining the Athletics. His knowledge of the game and reputation will be a great help to our young players."

ZONING ORDINANCE
For The
TOWN OF HURLEY
NEW YORK
Adopted by the Town Board of the Town of Hurley
September 25, 1967 at the West Hurley Fire House

SECTION I.—TITLE AND SCOPE

A. Scope
An ordinance regulating and restricting the location, construction, alteration, occupancy, and use of buildings and structures and the use of land in the Town of Hurley and for said purposes dividing the Town into zoning districts.

B. Title
This ordinance shall be known and may be cited as "The Zoning Ordinance of the Town of Hurley, New York."

C. Enacting Clause and Purposes
This Ordinance is enacted pursuant to the Town Law of the State of New York, Chapter 62 of the Consolidated Laws, Article 16, to protect and promote public health, safety, morals, comfort, convenience, economy, town esthetics, and the general welfare, and for the following additional purposes:

1. To promote and effectuate the orderly physical development of the Town of Hurley;
2. To encourage the most appropriate use of land in the community in order to conserve and enhance the value of property;
3. To prevent the spread of strip business development and provide for more adequate and suitably-located commercial facilities;
4. To create a suitable system of open spaces and recreation areas, and to protect and enhance existing wooded areas, scenic areas, and waterways;
5. To regulate building densities in order to assure access of light and circulation of air, in order to facilitate the prevention and fighting of fires, in order to prevent undue concentration of population, and in order to lessen congestion on streets and highways, and in order to provide efficient municipal utility services;
6. To improve transportation facilities and traffic circulation, and to provide adequate off-street parking and loading facilities;
7. To realize a development plan properly designed to conserve the use of land and the cost of municipal services;
8. To assure privacy for residences and freedom from nuisances and things harmful to the senses;
9. To protect the community against unsightly, obtrusive and noisome land uses and operations; and
10. To enhance the esthetic aspects throughout the entire community and maintain its present character and natural beauty.

SECTION II. ESTABLISHMENT OF DISTRICTS

A. Names of Zoning Districts
In order to fulfill the purpose of this Ordinance, The Town of Hurley establishes and is hereby divided into the following seven (7) zoning districts:

A —Open Residence ..... one family per 1 acre; average
R-1—Residence ..... one family per ½ acre; average
R-2—Residence ..... one family per 15,000 sq. ft.; average
B-1—General Business
B-2—Highway Business
I-1—Light Industrial H —Historical

B. Zoning Map
The location and boundaries of said zoning districts are shown on the map entitled "Zoning Map" adopted on and certified by the Town Clerk. Said map together with everything shown thereon and all amendments thereto is hereby adopted and is declared to be an appurtenant part of this Ordinance.

C. Interpretation of District Boundaries
Where uncertainty exists with respect to the boundaries of any of the aforesaid districts as shown on the Zoning Map, the following rules shall apply:

1. Where district boundaries are indicated as approximately following the centerlines or right-of-way lines of streets, highways, public utility easements, or watercourses, said boundaries shall be construed to be coincident with such lines. Such boundaries shall be deemed to be automatically moved if a centerline or right-of-way line of such street, highway, public utility or watercourse is moved a maximum of 50 feet.
2. Where district boundaries are indicated as approximately following the Town boundary line, property lines, lot lines or projections thereof, said boundaries shall be construed to be coincident with such lines or projections thereof.
3. Where district boundaries are so indicated that they are approximately parallel to the Town boundary line, property lines, lot lines, right-of-way lines, or projections thereof, said boundaries shall be construed as being parallel thereto and at such distances therefrom as indicated on the Zoning Map or as shall be determined by the use of the scale shown on the Zoning Map.
4. Where a district boundary line divides a lot in a single or joint ownership of record at the time such line is established, the regulations for the less restricted portion of such lot shall extend not more than 30 feet into the more restricted portion.
5. In all other cases, where not dimensioned, the location of boundaries shown on the map shall be determined by the use of the scale appearing thereon.

D. Application of District Regulations
Except as hereinafter provided:

1. No land or building shall hereafter be used, occupied, erected, moved or altered unless in conformity with the regulations hereinafter specified for the District in which it is located.
2. No building shall hereafter be erected or altered
   (a) to exceed the maximum height;
   (b) to occupy a greater percentage of lot area;
   (c) to accommodate or house a greater number of families; or
   (d) to have narrower or smaller front yard, rear yard, side yard or other open space than is required for the District in which such building is located.
3. No part of a yard or other open space required about any building shall be included as part of a yard or other open space similarly required for another building.
4. No off-street parking or loading space required for one building or use shall be included as meeting, in whole or part, the off-street parking or loading space required for another building or use except as provided in Section VB2.
5. No off-street parking or loading space shall be as reduced in area that it does not meet the requirements of this Ordinance.

SECTION III. USE REGULATIONS

A. Permitted Uses
No building or premises shall be erected, altered, or used except for one or more of the uses designated for any district as follows:
Symbols: (P) Designates a use permitted by right, and

SECTION IV AREA AND BULK REGULATIONS

A. Purpose
In order to provide adequate open spaces for access of light and circulation of air, to facilitate the prevention and fighting of fires, to prevent undue concentration of population, and to lessen congestion on streets, no building or premises shall be erected, altered or used except in accordance with the standards set forth in this Section.

B. Density Control Schedule
The attached schedule of density control regulations is hereby adopted and declared to be a part of this Ordinance and is hereinafter referred to as the "Density Control Schedule."

C. Corner Lots
Wherever a side or rear yard is adjacent to a street, the standards for front yards shall apply.

D. Projections into Required Yards
The following projections into required yards may be permitted:
Open fire escapes—four feet into side or rear yards
Awnings or movable canopies — six feet into any yard
Cornices, eaves and other similar architectural features — three feet into any yard
Any open or enclosed porch or carport shall be considered a part of the building in the determination of the size of the required yard or lot coverage.
Accessory uses not enclosed in a building may be located in a required rear yard subject to the provisions of Secton VA5.

E. Height Exceptions
District building height regulations shall not apply to flagpoles, radio or television antennae, transmission towers or cables, spires or cupolas, chimneys, elevator or stair bulkheads, penthouses, parapets or railings, water tanks or cooling towers, or any similar structures, provided that such structure in their aggregate coverage occupy no more than 10% of the roof area of the building.

(a) None required, but if provided shall be at least 12.5 feet.

F. Compliance with Maximum Average Residential Density

1. In all districts where residences are permitted, a lot held in single ownership may be improved for residential use according to the minimum lot size per family and bulk regulations for each district as set forth in the Density Control Schedule, provided that there shall be no more than one principal building and use on each lot. Where two or more principal residential structures are permitted by this Ordinance to be located on the same lot, the minimum average density requirement must be complied with.
2. A residential lot of required or larger than required size as set forth in this Ordinance shall not be reduced in size for transfer of ownership if such lot so subdivided will form two or more lots which shall not be in compliance with the requirements for the maximum average residential density for the district in which such lot or lots are situated, except as provided in Section VK.

G. Side Yards for Semi-detached Dwellings
Side yards for semi-detached dwellings shall be required at the ends of the total structure only.

H. Distance Between Principal Buildings on Same Lot
No detached principal building shall be closer to any other principal building on the same lot than the average heights of said buildings.

A. General Provisions

1. Customary home Occupations: In any district, nothing in this Ordinance shall prevent an individual from conducting his business, trade or profession in his home or residence, provided that no more than two persons be employed in addition to the owner or tenant of the property; that no other professional shall be permitted to share, let, or sublet space for professional use; that there be no external evidence of such use except for one sign not exceeding 2 square feet in area; and that there shall not be any exterior storage of materials or equipment. The conducting of a hospital, barber shop, clinic, beauty shop, animal hospital, nursery school shall not be deemed a customary home occupation.
2. Excavations: Any proposed excavation adversely affecting natural drainage or structural safety of adjoining buildings or lands shall be prohibited. Excavations shall not create any noxious or injurious substance or condition, or cause public hazard.
   In any district, excavation relating to the construction, on the same lot, of a building or structure for which a building permit has been issued shall be permitted. In the event that construction of a building or structure is stopped prior to completion, and the building permit is allowed to expire, the premises shall immediately be cleared of any rubbish, or building materials, and any excavation with a depth greater than two feet below existing grade shall immediately be filled in and the topsoil replaced, or all such excavations shall be entirely surrounded by a substantial fence at least six feet high that will effectively block access to the area in which the excavation is located.
   For excavations for soil mining, see Subsection F of this Section.
3. Activity Standards: In any district, the following standards for activities shall apply:
   a. No offensive or objectionable vibration, odor, or glare shall be noticeable at or beyond the property line.
   b. No activity shall create a physical hazard by reason of fire, explosion, radiation, or other such cause, to persons or property in the same or adjacent district.

Section V, Supplementary Regulations

c. There shall be no discharge of any liquid or solid waste into any stream or body of water or any public or private disposal system or into the ground, of any materials of nature that may contaminate any water supply, including ground water supply.
d. There shall be no storage of any materials either indoors or outdoors in such a manner that it facilitates the breeding of vermin, or endangers health in any way.
e. The emission of smoke, fly ash, or dust which can cause damage to the health of persons, animals, or plant life or to other forms of property shall be prohibited.

4. Planned New Streets: After the planned right-of-way line for future streets, for future extensions of existing streets, or for future street widening is established on the Official Map, if any, buildings and structures shall be set back from such line as though it were a street line.
5. Accessory Buildings and Uses: Accessory buildings not attached to principal buildings shall be located no closer to the principal building than 12 feet or a distance equal to the height of each accessory building—whichever is greater.
   In a residential district, accessory uses not enclosed in a building, including swimming pools and tennis court, shall be located only on the same lot as the principal structure, may not be located in the side or front yards of such lot and shall be distant not less than 20 feet from any lot line nor less than 10 feet from the principal structure, and shall not adversely affect the character or any residential neighborhood by reason of noise or glare or safety. No boat nor truck over 1½ ton capacity shall be stored on any residential lot except in the rear yard and not closer than the required side yard to any side lot line.
6. Corner Clearance: For the purpose of minimizing traffic hazards at street intersection, on any corner lot, no obstructions between a height of two and one-half feet and ten feet above the adjacent top-of-curb elevation shall be permitted to be planted, placed, erected or maintained within the triangular area formed by the intersecting pavement lines, or their projections—where corners are rounded—and a straight line joining the pavement lines at points 50 feet distance from their point of intersection.
7. Fences and Walls: In any residence district, walls and fences up to six feet in height shall be permitted anywhere on a lot except where corner sight clearances are required for traffic safety. In any business or industry district, there shall be no restriction on fences or walls, except on a residential district boundary line where such fences or walls shall be limited to eight feet in height and except where corner clearances are required.
8. Commercial Parking Lots: Commercial parking lots shall comply with the provisions of Paragraph B, subparagraph 4, 8 and 9 of this Section.
9. Transition Requirement: Where a lot in a Business District abuts a lot in a Residence District, there shall be provided along such side or rear lot line in the Business District abutting a Residence District a wall, fence, compact evergreen hedge or a landscaped strip of trees or shrubs so designed as to form a visual screen not less than six feet in height at the time of planting. Except for landscaped areas and parking areas, a use which is not conducted within a completely enclosed building shall be screened by a six-foot solid masonry wall, chain link fence covered with an evergreen vine, or compact evergreen hedge.
   Where a lot in an industrial district abuts a lot in a residential district, such lot in the industrial district shall meet the requirements of Section V, C, 4, b. (5) and Section V, C., 4, b., (7).

B Off-Street Parking and Loading Regulations
In all districts, off-street automobile parking spaces and truck loading areas for the various permitted uses shall be required at the time any of the main buildings or structures of such uses are constructed or altered, as follows:

1. Required Off-Street Automobile Parking Spaces: The minimum cumulative number of spaces shall be determined by the amount of dwelling units, bedrooms, floor area, members, equipment, employees, and/or seats contained in such new buildings or structures, or added by alteration of building or structures, and such minimum number of spaces shall be maintained by the owners of such buildings or structures, as follows:
   a. Office, Business, and Commercial Uses:
      For retail business or service, bank, or post office, one space for each 300 square feet of customer floor area.
      For office, including professional, personal service, public utility, or public, one space for each 300 sq. feet of gross office floor area.
      For restaurant, bar, or nightclub, one space for each 50 square feet of customer floor area.
      For funeral home, one space for each five seats of auditorium capacity.
      For any commercial use, one space for each company vehicle.
      For hotel, one space for each two bedrooms.
      For motel and vacation resort, one space for each bedroom, plus one space for each four employees.
      Spaces in municipal parking lots, designed to serve non-governmental uses where provided, may be credited toward the parking requirements for these non-residential uses, provided that:
      (1) these spaces are within 400 feet of the uses to be served;
      (2) the parking needs of existing facilities (within 400 feet and computed on the same basis as for new facilities) are satisfied first, and only excess capacity is used for this purpose; and
      (3) a special permit for such use is obtained from the Zoning Board of Appeals.
   b. Light Industrial Uses:
      One space for each 400 square feet of floor area devoted to manufacture, including printing, publishing, and laundry or dry cleaning plants.
      One space for each 2,000 square feet of floor area devoted to storage or stationary operating equipment.
      One space for each 3,000 square feet of area devoted to outside storage, including used car lots and equipment rental or sales yards.
      For any industrial use, one space for each company vehicle.
   c. Public and Semi-Public Uses:
      For places of public assembly, (including churches), one space for each six seats of auditorium or stadium capacity.
      For elementary school or day nursery, two spaces for each classroom.
      For high school or college, five spaces for each classroom.
      For museum, art gallery, institution, or philanthropic use, one space for each 800 square feet of gross floor area.
      For hospital, sanitarium, nursing or convalescent home, one space for each two beds.
      For club, one space for each 200 square feet of gross floor area.
   d. Recreational Uses:
      For dance hall, one space for each 50 square feet of dance floor area.
      For golf course, bowling alley, or billiard hall, four spaces for each tee, alley or table.
      For skating rinks, one parking space for each 250 sq. feet of area available for skating.
   e. Residential Uses:
      For dwellings, one space for each dwelling unit, to be provided on a buildable portion of the lot.
      Customary home occupation or professional office in a dwelling unit, one space for each 200 square feet devoted to such customary home occupation or professional office plus the required space per dwelling unit.
      Boarding house, one space for each bedroom.
   f. For uses not listed herein, as established by the Zoning Board of Appeals.
2. Calculation of required spaces: In the case of a combination of uses, the total requirements for off-street automobile parking spaces shall be the sum of the requirements for the various uses, unless it can be proven that staggered hours of use would permit modification. Whenever a major fraction of a space is required, a full space shall be provided.
3. Dimensions for Off-Street Automobile Parking Spaces: Every such space provided shall be at least nine feet wide and 20 feet long, and every space shall have direct and usable driveway access to a street or alley with minimum meaneuver area between spaces as follows:
   a. Parallel Curb Parking: Five feet end to end with 12-foot aisle width for one-directional flow and 24-foot aisle width for two-directional flow.
   b. 30° Parking: 13-foot aisle width for one-directional flow and 26-foot aisle width for two-directional flow.
   c. 45° Parking: 16-foot aisle width for one-directional flow and 26-foot aisle width for two-directional flow.
   d. 60° Parking: 21-foot aisle width for one-directional flow and 26-foot aisle width for two-directional flow.
   e. Prependicular Parking: 26-foot aisle width for one-direction and two-direction flow.
4. Location of Required Spaces: In any residential district, required automobile parking spaces shall be provided on a buildable portion of the same lot and shall not encroach on any required yards, or required open area.
   In busness districts or industrial districts, such spaces shall be provided on the same lot, or not more than 400 feet therefrom.
   No open or enclosed parking area shall encroach on any required front yard or required open areas. Open parking areas may encroach on a required side or rear yard to within (3) three feet of a property line.
   No entrance and exit drives connecting the parking area and the street shall be permitted within twenty-five (25) feet of the intersection of two public rights-of-way.
5. Required Off-Street Truck Loading Areas:
   For funeral homes, one berth for each chapel.
   For hotels, motels and vacation resorts, one berth for floor area in excess of 10,000 sq. feet.
   For office, business, and commercial uses, one berth for 10,000 square feet to 25,000 square feet of floor area, and one additional berth for each additional 25,000 square feet of floor area.
   For manufacturing and permitted industrial uses, one berth for the first 10,000 square feet of floor area and one additional berth for each additional 40,000 square feet of floor area.
   For other permitted non-residential uses, one berth for 10,000 square feet to 25,000 square feet of floor area, and one additional berth for each additional 25,000 square feet of floor area, unless it can be proven that truck deliveries shall not exceed one vehicle per day.
6. Dimensions for Off-Street Loading Berths: Each required loading berth (open or enclosed) shall have the following minimum dimension: 35 feet long, 12 feet wide, and 14 feet high, except that berths for funeral homes may be 20 feet long, 10 feet wide and 8 feet high.
7. Location of Required Berths: All off-street loading areas shall be located on the same lot as the use for which they are permitted or required. Open off-street loading areas shall not encroach on any required front or side yard, access way or off-street parking area, except that in Business Districts off-street parking areas where they exist may be used for loading or unloading, provided that such spaces shall not be so used for more than (3) three hours during the daily period that the establishment is open for business.
   The location, number, size, and design of loading and unloading areas, for non-residential uses and the access ways thereto shall require the approval of the Planning Board prior to the issuance of a building permit or certificate of occupancy by the Building Inspector.
8. Construction of Parking Areas. Parking areas shall be paved with an all-weather surface of asphalt or concrete and suitably drained. The individual spaces shall be visibly marked with paint or other durable material. Parking areas to be used at night shall be lighted. All lights shall be shaded or so directed so as not to cause glare on adjoining residential properties and shall be so directed so as not to cause a traffic hazard due to glare or color.
9. Landscaping: At least eight percent of the area of the lot usable for off-street parking shall be devoted to landscaping with lawn, trees, shrubs or other plant material. All loading berths and parking areas of three or more spaces that abut a residential lot line, and any parking lot for more than 20 cars shall be screened by a six-foot high solid masory wall, or compact evergreen hedge or a landscaped strip of trees and shrubs so designed as to form a visual screen from the adjoining property. All parking areas and landscaping shall be properly maintained thereafter in a sightly and well kept condition.

C. Light Industrial District Regulations
The Town Board may, after Planning Board review, public notice and hearing, approve the development of a parcel of land for light industrial use and establish a special Light Industrial district for such development to be imposed on any A, and B-2 district subject to the following conditions:

1. Location and Minimum Required Acreage of Site:
   A districts ..... 5 acres
   B-2 districts ..... 2 acres
2. Application of Regulations: Individual uses and structures in a Light Industrial district need not comply with the specific building location, height, lot size, and open space requirements of the underlying basic district. The overlay superimposes the regulations for Light Industrial district upon the underlying district.
3. Use Regulations:
   a. Permitted uses:
      (1) Any use permitted by right in an I-1 district.
      (2) Any use permitted by special permit in I-1 districts subject to the favorable approval thereof by the Board of Appeals.
   b. Prohibited uses:
      (1) Residential uses, except dwelling of caretakers and any and all residential uses made and permitted prior to the establishment of such I-1 district in accordance with this Sub-Section be allowed to continue as so permitted heretobefore.
      (2) All prohibited industrial uses as so listed in Section IIIB of this Ordinance.
      (3) Any use, although expressly allowed as a permitted use, shall be prohibited if the particular application of such use does not comply with the specified performance standards for a use in the I-1 district.
4. Performance Standards:
   a. General standards: The following general standards are hereby adopted for the control of uses in any Light Industrial district and no use shall be permitted, established, maintained, or conducted therein which shall cause or be likely to cause:
      (1) Excessive smoke, fumes, gas, dust, odor, or any other atmospheric pollutant beyond the boundaries of the lot whereon such use is located. What smoke is excessive shall be determined according to the Ringelmann's Scale for Grading the Density of Smoke, published by the U.S. Bureau of Mines, when the shade or appearance of such smoke is darker than No. 2 on said Ringelmann Smoke Chart.
      (2) Noise, perceptible beyond the boundaries of the lot occupied by such use causing the same.
      (3) Any pollution by discharge of any waste material whatsoever into any watercourse, open ditch or land surface.
      (4) Discharge of any waste material whatsoever into any sanitary disposal system or sewerage system, except only in accordance with the rules of and under the control of public health authorities or the public body controlling such sewerage system. Any chemical or industrial waste which places undue loads, as determined by the Town Engineer, shall not be discharged into any municipal system and must be treated by the industrial use.
      (5) Storage or stocking of any waste materials whatsoever.
      (6) Glare or vibration perceptible beyond the lot lines whereon such use is conducted.
      (7) Hazard to person or property by reason of fire, explosion, radiation, or other cause.
      (8) Any other nuisance harmful to persons or property.
   b. Specific standards: The following specific standards are hereby adopted and must be complied with, for and by any use in any Light industrial district and before the same be permitted, established, maintained or conducted:
      (1) Storage Facilities: Materials, supplies, or semi-finished products shall be stored on the rear one-half of the property and shall be screened from any existing or proposed street.
      (2) Loading Docks: No loading docks shall be on any street frontage. Provisions for handling of all freight shall be on those sides of any building which do not face on any street or proposed streets.
      (3) Landscaping: It is hereby declared that all areas of the plot not occupied by buildings, parking, driveways or walkways, or storage shall be landscaped attractively with lawn, trees, shrubs or other plant material. Such landscaping shall take into consideration the natural growth presently on the premises and the nature and condition of the terrain as well as the situation of the lands and premises themselves and with regard to adjoining lands and premises.
      (4) Fences and Walls: Property that is adjacent to a Residential or Business District shall be provided along such property lines, with a wall, fence, compact evergreen hedge or a landscaped strip of trees and shrubs so designed as to form a visual screen not less than six feet high at the time of planting. Except for landscaped areas and parking areas, a use which is not conducted within a completely enclosed building shall be screened by a six-foot solid masonry wall, chain link fence covered with an evergreen vine, or compact evergreen hedge. Where a front yard adjoins a street, the wall, fence, or hedge shall be located no closer to the street than the depth of the required yard.
      (5) Off Street Parking and Loading: Refer to Sub-Section B of this Section.
      (6) Signs: Refer to Sub-Section E of this Section.
      (7) Buffer Strip: In addition to the fences and walls, the entire district must be separated along its outside boundary from any adjoining residential zones by a buffer strip, suitably landscaped, at least 100 feet wide.
   c. Proper and adequate water supply, swerage and waste disposal, other utility services, and accessibility to and from public streets must be provided.
   d. Special consideration must be given to the traffic generated by each proposed use in a Light Industrial district and no undue traffic volumes shall be permitted on residential streets. Such data is to be submitted with each petition for amendment. No access drive for any I-1 district shall be within 300 feet of and on the same side of the street as a school, public library, theater, church or other public gathering place, park, playground, or fire station unless a street 50 feet or more wide lies between such access drive and such building or use.
5. Area and Bulk Regulations:
   Area and Bulk requirements shall be in compliance with those for I-1 district as set forth in the Density Control Schedule of this Ordinance.
6. The Planning Board upon review of the proposed development may prescribe such additional conditions as are in its opinion necessary to secure the objectives of this Ordinance.
7. Procedure:
   Application for rezoning classification of a site shall be filed by the owner or several owners jointly, or the holder of a written option to purchase the site with the secretary to the Town Board in writing in a form required by the Town Board, and shall be accompanied by a certified check in the amount of $5.00 to help defray the cost of advertising the hearing on said petition and incidental disbursements. The applicant shall also submit the following:
   a. A plan of the site and surrounding areas drawn to scale and accurately dimensioned, showing the location of existing and proposed land use areas, lots, buildings, structures, parking and loading areas and access roads and streets, community facilities, and topography;
   b. The use and height of each proposed building or structure, yard lines, lot coverage, and the number of parking spaces in each proposed parking area, and the expected flow of traffic in and out of the area.
   c. Any additional data as may be requested by the Planning Board in order to determine the suitability of the tract for the proposed development.
   Each application shall be referred to the Planning Board. The Planning Board shall report its recommendations thereon to the Town Board, accompanied by a full statement of the reasons for such recommendations prior to the public hearing. If the Planning Board fails to report within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of notice or such longer time as may have been agreed upon by it and the Town Board, the Town Board may act without such report.
   The Town Board, by a resolution, shall fix the time and place of the public hearing and cause notice to be given as follows:
   a. By publishing a notice of the application and the time and place of the public hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the Town of Hurley as designated by the Town Board not less than ten days prior to the date of the public hearing.
   b. By giving notice of hearing to any required Municipal, County, State, or Federal Agency in the manner prescribed by Law. Upon approval of the proposed development the new district established shall be excepted from the provisions and controls of this Ordinance only to the extent specified in the approval, and such new district shall become a part of the regulations established herein, shall be enforced in the same manner, and be similarly subject to amendment, except that, if construction of the proposed development is not commenced within one year after approval of the Town Board, such approval shall be revoked and such area shall be subject to the requirements of the prior district regulations.

D. Gasoline Filling Stations
In any district where permitted, a gasoline filling station shall be subject to the following regulations:

1. Filling stations shall be permitted only on lots of 10,000 square feet or more, with 100 feet minimum frontage.
2. The area for use by motor vehicles, except access drives thereto, as well as any structures shall not encroach on any required yard area.
3. No fuel pump shall be located closer than 20 feet from any side lot line nor closer than 35 feet from any street line, measured from the outside edge of the fuel island.
4. No access drive shall be within 200 feet of and on the same side of the street as a school, public library, theatre, church or other public gathering place, park, playground or fire station unless a street 50 feet or more wide lies between such service station and such building or use.
5. All repair work, except emergency repairs and all storage shall be within a completely enclosed building which has a maximum height of 15 feet. Such repair work shall not include any body repair work or spray painting or car washing which requires mechanical equipment.

E. Sign Regulations
No sign or other device for advertising purpose of any kind may be erected or established in the municipality except and provided as follows:

1. Signs in Residential Districts: No sign or other device for advertising purposes of any kind may be erected or established in any Residential District except by permit or license issued pursuant to this ordinance and as hereafter provided or provided as follows:
   a. Permitted non-residential uses and legal non-conforming non-residential uses, but not including home occupations or day nurseries, may display signs pertaining to the use of property, having an aggregate total face area of not more than 32 square feet, and not projecting beyond the principal building of such use to which they are attached more than 24 inches, except that where such non-residential uses are set back from property lines, one sign may be erected in the ground provided that such ground sign shall not exceed 15 square feet in total face area, shall not exceed five feet in height, and such sign shall be no nearer than ten feet to any property line or road, whichever requires the greater set back. If such free standing signs face substantially at right angles to the road and/or display in more than one direction, they shall have a face area of not more than eight (8) square feet per side, with no more than two sides.
   b. Dwellings for five or more families may display non illuminated signs identifying the premises, having an aggregate total of not more than 12 square feet, and not projecting beyond the principal building on the lot more than 24 inches.
   c. Any dwelling unit in a detached or attached structure may display one name plate or professional sign not exceeding 4 (four) square feet in area.
2. Signs in General Business District: No more than two signs per business unit, having an aggregate total face area of not more than one square foot per lineal foot of principal frontage of the lot may be displayed, but not to exceed a total area of 50 square feet. Such signs shall not project more than five feet beyond the principal building on the lot, and there shall be no more than one projecting sign per business unit, provided further than such signs shall not extend more than 20 feet above the ground level or exceed the highest part of the building housing the business or service advertised, whichever is less restrictive. "Principal frontage" throughout this Sub-Section shall mean the frontage of the lot adjacent to the principal street in the case of a corner lot. Where a corner lot faces two principal business streets, only one such frontage shall be considered the "principal frontage."
3. Signs in Higway Business Districts and Light Industrial Districts: Two signs having an aggregate total face area of not more than 100 square feet may be displayed for each establishment provided that such signs shall be located no nearer than 10 feet to any property line and provided further that such signs shall not extend more than 20 feet above ground level or more than 5 feet above the height of the roof of a building at the point of location of the sign, whichever is less restrictive.
4. Representational Signs: No representational sign shall be permitted in any district except such sign as shall be approved by the Planning Board. Further such sign shall not project more than 5 feet beyond the principal structure to which it is attached, and shall not have a face area of more than 15 square feet. Only one such sign per establishment shall be permitted.
5. Advertising Signs: Hereafter, notwithstanding any other provisions of this Ordinance, signs not pertaining to the use, sale, rent, or lease of property on the same lot, and signs not representing construction or subdivision activity as allowed, are not permitted in any district, except that signs for the purpose of directing persons to a business or establishment may be erected in any district, providing such signs shall not exceed four square feet in area per establishment shall conform with Nothing in this ordinance shall prohibit the storing or parking of an unoccupied camping or travel trailer, boat trailer or the temporary parking of an occupied house trailer on any residential lot provided such trailer shall not be located closer to the lot lines than the required yard for the district in which located. For the purposes of this ordinance temporary shall mean not longer than 30 days in any year.

H. Trailer Parks or Camps

Trailer Parks or Camps are allowed by Special Use Permit in "A" districts subject to the following regulations:

1. Park Size and Capacity: Each trailer park shall have a minimum area of 175,000 square feet, and shall contain no more than one trailer for each 3,500 square feet of gross area, including land uses for access roads, recreation and service facilities, and screen planting.
2. Size of Lots: No trailer lot shall be less than 2,000 square feet in area and have less than 12 feet of frontage on an access road.
3. Clearances: Trailers shall be located on the lot with the following minimum clearances.
   Sides—15 feet on each side to lot lines and a total of 50 feet on both sides from adjacent trailers and buildings; ends—20 feet from adjacent trailers, and 15 feet from access roads and lot line; and thirty feet from exterior lot lines. In computing these clearances, lean-to's, auxiliary rooms, and similar accessories connected to the trailer, but not including temporary porches and canopies which are open on two or more sides, shall be considered as part of the trailer.
4. Automobile Parking: There shall be at least one off-road parking space for each trailer within the trailer lot or within 50 feet of the trailer. In adddition, there shall be one off-road parking space for each 5 trailers within the park located throughout the park at places of public congregation.
5. Parking Bay: Each off-road parking space shall be at least 9 feet wide and at least 20 feet long and shall have convenient and ready access to a roadway.
6. Recreation Area: A usable area set aside exclusively for recreation shall be provided within the trailer park and shall be equal in area to 200 square feet for each trailer lot in the park.
7. Screening: Each trailer park shall have no more than one entrance road on any one street frontage and shall have a landscaped area at least 20 feet wide along exterior lot lines and street frontages, suitably planted and maintained to provide visual screening from adjacent properties.
8. Notwithstanding any provision of this ordinance, owners and/or lessees of property within the Town of Hurley, upon which house trailers have been situated and established prior to the enactment of said zoning ordinance, shall retain such previous rights and prerequisites pertaining thereto, in the same manner as any other dwelling, and including the right to substitute another house trailer in the place of the house trailer presently situated and established on said property.

I. Cemeteries and Crematories

No burial or memorial plats or buildings shall be located closer than 50 feet to any residential lot line, except that when a dense evergreen hedge or a wall or landscaped strip at least six feet in height providing complete visual screening from all adjacent residential property is provided, burial or memorial plats less than six feet in height may be located no closer than 20 feet from any residential lot line. Crematories shall be located only in cemeteries.

J. Sanitary Disposal

No person shall undertake to construct any new building or structure in the Town of Hurley without first meeting the requirements for a system, or facilities for, the separate disposal of water-borne sewage, domestic or trade wastes in accordance with applicable regulations of the Town, the Ulster County Department of Health and other governmental authorities.

K. Residential Cluster Development

In order to promote the health and general welfare of the community and to preserve and make available open space, the Town Planning Board may grant a developer the right to vary the residential density within a tract to be deveolped (but not maintained) under single ownership, leaving a substantial area free of building lots. The right to vary the density shall be subject to the following conditions:

The proposed residential development must create an attractive residential environment; produce a total average density as specified in Section IVB, provide aggregate open space to be no less than that required in the district in which it is located; have population density which will offer no adverse influence; guarantee permanent retention of "open areas" and insure care and maintenance of open space.

Development must start within 1 year of the date of approval and be completed within a reasonable time; it must be consistent to the spirit and intent of the Ordinance and plans must be prepared with competent professional advice.

1. Single-Family Detached Houses: Single-family detached houses may be grouped in clusters on minimum lot sizes and minimum lot widths as follows:

	Min. Lot Size	Min. Lot Widths
A Districts	25,000 square feet	125 feet
R-1 Districts	15,000 square feet	100 feet
R-2 Districts	10,000 square feet	80 feet

2. Special Designs: In cases where a developer has designed special groups of dwellings and garages, the Planning Board after inspecting plans and elevations may approve smaller minimum lot sizes than those in paragraph (2) provided that the sanitary systems are approved by the County Health Officer, that the average density does not exceed that permitted within the zoning district in which the land occurs or that the layout is not detrimental to the health and general welfare of the community.

For each square foot of land gained within a residential subdivision through the reduction of lot size below the required minimum average density requirements as set forth in the Ordinance, equal amounts of land shall be preserved and maintained as open land and the development rights thereto shall be conveyed to the Town of Hurley for as long as these structures shall exist.

The balance of the land not contained in the lots or the road right-of-way, if provided, shall be contiguous and of such size and shape as to be usable for recreation or agriculture.

Such land shall be held in corporate ownership by the owners of lots within the development and the developer shall incorporate into the deeds of all property within the development a clause giving to the owners an interest in such open land which shall be used for recreational or agricultural purposes only. No structure save those incidental to the recreational or agricultural use shall be permitted thereon.

Open land shall be a minimum of 3 acres and shall be subject to taxation, unless it is deeded to the Town. In the case of such tracts of 5 or more acres, the developer may petition to the Town to take over the land to be used in perpetuity as open space.

Any residential development proposed under the provision of this Sub Section shall follow all applicable procedures, standards, and requirements of the ordinance governing the sub-division of land in the Town of Hurley.

L. Historical District

It is hereby declared that the preservation of historic sites, areas, buildings and land marks located in the Town of Hurley is essential to the general welfare of the community and the purpose of this added section to the Zoning Ordinance is to:

a. Safeguard the heritage of the Town of Hurley by preserving a district in the Town which reflects its cultural, social, economic, political and architectural history;
b. Protect buildings, structures, and areas in the Town of Hurley which are recognized as national historic sites and landmarks;
c. Stabilize and improve property values;
d. Foster civic beauty;
e. Strengthen the local economy;
f. Promote the use of the historic district for the education, pleasure and welfare of the citizens of the community

Pursuant to these purposes there is hereby created in the Town of Hurley a district known as the "Historical District," with boundaries as shown on the Zoning Map.

2. Regulation of Structures: No structure shall be constructed, altered, repaired, moved or demolished in the historic district unless such action complies with the requirements hereinafter set forth.
3. Duties and Powers of the Town Planning Board: All plans for the construction, alteration, repair, or demolition of structures in the historic district shall first be submitted to the Town of Hurley Planning Board which shall have the power to pass upon such plans before a permit for such work shall be granted; provided, however, that the planning board shall pass only on such exterior features of a structure as are visible from the public way and shall not consider interior arrangements. In reviewing the plans, the Board shall give consideration to:
   a. The historical or architectural value and significance of the structure and its relationship to the historic value of the surrounding area;
   b. The general appropriateness of the exterior design, arrangement, texture and materials proposed to be used; and
   c. To any other factor, including aesthetic, which it deems pertinent.

   In addition to the foregoing general standards, the following specific standards shall apply in appropriate cases:

   Alterations, Repairs and Additions to existing buildings shall either be made consistent with the spirit of their architectural style or shall alter the structure to an appropriate appearance consistent with the architectural styles of historic value existing in the historic district.

   New Construction shall be consistent with the architectural style of historic value in the historic district, except in such instances of new construction as the Board shall determine to be inappropriate because structures adjoining the site of such proposed new construction are of a significantly dissimilar period of architecture in which cases the Board may approve such periods of architecture as it deems proper for the site and the best interests of the historic district.

   Demolition shall be prohibited in the case of all structures erected prior to 1850 unless the Board of Appeals is satisfied that the retention of such structures constitutes a hazard to public safety which hazard can not be eliminated by economic means available to the owner.

   Demolition shall be prohibited of any structure erected subsequent to 1850 if the Board of Appeals shall determine it to be of a particular architectural or historical significance.

   Moving of structures of historic or architectural value may be permitted by the Planning Board as an alternative to demolition.

   The Building Inspector shall not issue a building permit until a certificate of approval of the plans has been issued by the Planning Board.
4. Procedure for Review of Plan: Application for a building permit to construct, alter, repair, move, or demolish any structure in the historic district shall be made to the building inspector. The application shall state that the property is in the historic district and plans shall be submitted showing the structure in question and also giving its relation to adjacent structures.

   Upon the filing of such application, the Building Inspector shall immediately notify the Planning Board and shall transmit to such Board the application and any supporting plans or documents. The Planning Board shall consider such application and shall approve or disapprove the plans and, if it shall approve such plans, shall issue a certificate of approval and transmit the same to the Building Inspector.

   If the Planning Board shall disapprove the plans, it shall so notify the Building Inspector who shall thereupon deny the application for a permit.

   Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed to prevent ordinary maintenance or repair of any structure within the historic district.
5. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the Planning Board or Build-inspector acting under this Sub-Section shall have the right to appeal to the Zoning Board of Appeals for a variance as provided by the Zoning Ordinance or general law.
6. Uses Permitted: As shown in Section IIIA, subject to the approval of the Planning Board as set forth herein.
7. Building Height, Limit, Lot Area and Yards: The provisions of the Zoning Ordinance governing the permitted height of buildings, the required lot area and the requirements of front, side and rear yards in the R-2 Residential District shall apply in the historic district.

M. Conditional Uses Allowed by Special Use Permit from the Zoning Board of Appeals

1. General Provisions

   Conditional Uses are hereby declared to possess characteristics which require that each specific use shall be considered an individual use. Any use for which a special use permit is granted by the Board of Appeals shall be deemed a use permitted in the District in which located, except that for any addition or enlargement of such use, a separate special use permit shall be required for each addition or enlargement. A conditional use must be in conformity with the provisions of this Ordinance and shall effect only the lot or portion thereof for which it shall have been granted.
2. Required Plan

   A plan for the proposed development of a site for a permitted conditional use shall be submitted with the application for a special use permit to the Board of Appeals, and such plans shall show the location of all buildings, parking areas, traffic access and circulation drives, open spaces, landscaping, and any other pertinent information that may be necessary to determine if the proposed special use meets the requirements of the Ordinance.
3. Basis for Deliberation—General Provisions

   Before issuing a special use permit, the Board of Appeals shall take into consideration the public health, safety, morals and welfare and shall assure itself of the following:
   a. That there shall not be any detrimental effect by the establishment of such use on other uses within the District.
   b. That such use will be in harmony with the orderly development of the district and the location, nature and height of buildings, walls, fences and parking areas will not discourage the appropriate development and use of adjacent lands.
   c. That the use meets the prescribed requirements for the district in which located and the following prescribed provisions.

   In addition to the above general provisions the following uses shall comply with the following prescribed provisions.

   Retail Sale of Produce Grown on the Same Lot from a Road stand.
   a. At least 5 off-street parking spaces shall be provided.
   b. Ingress to and egress from such use shall be so arranged to provide minimum interference with through traffic on the street.
   c. Any lights in connection with such use shall be so arranged so as not to cause glare on adjacent properties.
   d. Three signs not exceeding in aggregate 50 square feet may be displayed for each establishment provided such signs shall be located no closer than 10 feet to any property line and provided further that such signs shall not extend more than 10 feet above the ground or if attached to the building shall not extend more than 5 feet above the height of the roof of the building at the point of location of the sign.

   Hospital, Nursing home, Convalescent Home, Sanitarium, Institution or Philanthropic Use.
   a. the total building area shall not exceed a lot coverage of 30%;
   b. primary access to such use shall not be a minor street or any other street designed to serve primarily as access to abutting residential properties.
   c. Off-street parking areas, outdoor storage areas shall be screened from adjacent residential properties. Any lighting shall be so arranged as not to cause glare on adjacent properties.
   d. no building shall be located within 50 feet of any lot line.

   Hotel, Restaurant, Bar or Night Club, Dance Hall or Skating Rink, Theater, Concert Hall.
   a. primary access to such use shall not be a minor street or any other street designed to serve primarily as access to abutting residential properties;
   b. such use meets the off-street parking requirements of this ordinance. Such off-street parking and lighting in connection with such use shall be screened and shielded from adjacent residential properties;
   c. No building shall be located closer than 50 feet to any lot line.

   Vacation Resort, Camp, Cottage or Cabin Development
   a. All proposed structures, equipment and materials shall be reasonably accessible for fire and police protection;
   b. the water supply and sewage disposal system shall comply with the codes and ordinances of the appropriate authorities;
   c. No structure within vacation resort or camp shall be located within 200 feet of any property line.
   d. no structure within a cottage or camp development shall be located within 50 feet of any property line.

   Electric or Gas Utility Substations, Transformer Station, Water or Sewage Pumping Station and other similar structures;
   a. such use is reasonably necessary for the service, convenience or welfare of the public and cannot be located in another district;
   b. such use will not alter or be detrimental to the character of the neighborhood;
   c. such use has adequate fences and other safety devices and adequate screening or landscaping.
4. In issuing a special use permit the Board of Appeals may require any walks, fences or landscaping or attach such condition which it deems necessary to protect the value or adjacent properties or to prevent any hindering of the appropriate use of adjacent land.

SECTION VI. NON-CONFORMING BUILDING, USES, AND LOTS

A. Continuation of Non-Conforming Building and Uses

Any lawful building, structure or use of premises existing at the time of enactment of this Ordinance, or any subsequent amendment thereof applying to such building, structure or use of premises may be continued although such building, structure or use of premises does not conform to the provisions thereof, except as follows:

1. Any undeveloped lot in a subdivision which was not properly approved by the Planning Board and/or not filed in the office of the County Clerk and whose area and/or width, and/or depth are less than the specified minimum lot requirements and average density requirements of this Ordinance shall be considered a violation of this Ordinance.

B. Discontinuance

Any building or land used for or occupied by a non-conforming use which is changed to or replaced by a conforming use shall not thereafter be used for or occupied by a non-conforming use.

C. Necessary Maintenance and Repairs

A building or structure of non-conforming use may be repaired or restored to a safe condition.

D. Change to Other Non-Conforming Use

A non-conforming use of a building, structure or land may be changed to another non-conforming use which is of the same or more restricted in nature, however, no building in which a non-conforming use has been changed to a more restricted use shall again be devoted to a less restricted use. Uses shall be deemed more restricted or less restricted in accordance with Section IIIA and Section XI. The change of a non-conforming use of a building, structure, or land to another non-conforming use shall include the right to change an accessory non-conforming sign, provided such sign is not increased in area or does not further violate provisions of this ordinance.

E. Construction Started Prior to this Ordinance

Any building or structure for which construction was begun prior to the effective date of this Ordinance, or any subsequent amendment thereof applying thereto, may be completed and used in accordance with the plans and specifications for building or structure.

F. Existing Undersized Lots

1. Any lot held in single and separate ownership prior to the adoption of this Ordinance and whose area and/or width and/or depth are less than the specified minimum lot requirements of this Ordinance for the district, may be considered as complying with such minimum lot requiremenis and no variance shall be required, provided that:
   a. such lot does not adjoin any other lot or lots held by the same owner whose aggregate area is equal to or greater than the minimum lot area required for that district;
   b. such lot has an area of at least 9,000 square feet and a minimum width of at least 50 feet at the required setback line if it is to be used for residential purposes;
   c. the following minimum yard dimensions are maintained for residences:

      front yards ..... 25 feet
      side yards ..... 8 feet
      rear yards ..... 25 feet

   d. all other bulk requirements for that district are compiled with.
2. In any district where residences are permitted, such undersized non-conforming lots may be used for not more than one single-family dwelling.
3. A lot of non-conforming size may be sub-divided if each and every subdivision of such lot is purchased by the owner or owners of the adjoining properties to increase the size of said owner or owners' property or properties.

G. Reduction in Lot Area

No lot shall be reduced in area so that it creates a non-conforming bulk or use in violation of any regulations contained in this Ordinance.

H. Exemption of Lots Shown on Approved Subdivision Plats

In Accordance with Town Law, Section 265-a any lot proposed for residential use in a subdivision whose plat delineates one or more new streets, roads or highways, and which said subdivision plat has been properly approved by the Planning Board, and filed in the office of the County Clerk, prior to the passage of this Ordinance, and whose area and/or width and/or depth are less than the specified minimum lot requirements of this Ordinance for that district shall be considered as complying with such minimum lot requirements for two years after the filing of the subdivision plat.

If at the time of filing of the subdivision plat referred to above there was no planning board vested with authority to approve subdivision plats, than the exemption provided for in such subdivision shall apply for a period of one year after the filing of said subdivision plat in the office of the County Clerk.

SECTION VII. ADMINISTRATION

A. Enforcement

This Ordinance shall be enforced by the Building Inspector who shall be appointed by the Town Board, in the same manner and with the same powers as now or hereafter practiced or provided under the Building Code.

No building permit or certificate of occupancy shall be issued by the Building Inspector, and no permit or license for any purpose shall be issued by any official of the Town, if the same would be in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance.

B. Building Permit

No building or structure shall be erected, added to, or its exterior structurally altered until a permit therefor has been issued by the Building Inspector in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance.

All applications for building permits shall be accompanied by two copies of a plot plan, drawn to scale and accurately dimensioned, showing the location of all existing and proposed buildings and structures on the lot, and such other information as may be required by the Building Inspector to determine compliance with this Ordinance. One copy of such plans, when approved by the Building Inspector shall be returned to the owner upon the payment of a fee of $1.00.

In each case where a building or use is proposed in a Light Industrial District, or in a residential cluster development, not including new streets, the Building Inspector shall refer the site plan for such proposal to the Planning Board for review before issuing a building permit. The Planning Board shall either approve, approve with modifications, or disapprove said site plan stating the reason therefore in writing in its records, and shall send a written notice of its decision to the Building Inspector, who then shall act accordingly, either issuing a building permit, postponing issuing such permit pending compliance with the decision of the Planning Board or denying such permit. If the Building Inspector does not receive any written communication on the case by the Planning Board within 45 days after he refers such case to said Planning Board, he shall assume that the site plan meets with their approval.

SECTION VIII. ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS

A. Establishment and Duties

Pursuant to Town Law the Town Board shall appoint a Zoning Board of Appeals consisting of (7) seven members, shall designate its chairman and also provide for compensation to be paid to said members and provide for such other expenses as may be necessary and proper. A member of the Board of Appeals shall not at the same time be a member of the Town Board. The Town Board shall have the power to remove any member of the Board of Appeals for cause and after public hearing.

1. Term of Appointment: Of the members of the Board of Appeals first appointed, one shall hold office for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, two for the term of three years, one for the term of four years, two for the term of five years from and after his appointment.

   Their successor shall be appointed for the term of five years from and after the expiration of the terms of their predecessors in office. If a vacancy shall occur otherwise than by expiration of term, it shall be filled by the Town Board by appointment for the unexpired term.
2. Staff: The Board of Appeals may employ such clerical or other staff assistance as may be necessary, and prescribe their duties, provided it shall not at any time incur expenses beyond the amount of the appropriations made by the Town Board and then available for that purpose.
3. Rules of Procedure, By-Laws, Forms: The Board of Appeals shall have the power to make, adopt, and promulgate such written rules of procedure, by-laws, and forms as they may deem necessary for the proper execution of their duties and to secure the intent of this Ordinance. Such rules, by-laws, and forms shall not be in conflict with, nor have the effect of waiving, any provisions of this Ordinance or any other ordinances of the Town of Hurley. Such rules, by-laws, and forms, and any subsequent amendments or supplements thereto, shall be submitted to the Town Board by Board of Appeals for approval and filing for public view. The Town Board shall move to approve, reject, or modify such rules, by-laws, and forms within 30 days after submission. Failure of the Town Board to so move shall be construed to constitute approval thereof.
4. All meetings of the Board of Appeals shall be held at the call of the chairman and at such other times as such Board may determine. The chairman, or in his absence, the acting chairman, may administer oaths and compel the attendance of witnesses. All meetings of such Board shall be open to the public. The concurring vote of a majority of all members of the Board of Appeals shall be necessary to reverse any order, requirement, decision or determination of the Building Inspector or to decide in favor of an applicant in any matter upon which they are required to pass under any ordinance to effect any variation in the Zoning Ordinance. The Board of Appeals shall decide an appeal or any other matter referred to it within sixty days after the final hearing.
5. The Board of Appeals shall keep minutes of its proceedings showing the vote of each member on every question. If a member is absent or fails to vote, the minutes shall indicate such fact. Every rule, regulation, every amendment or repeal thereof, and every order, requirement, decision or determination of the Board of Appeals shall immediately be filed in the office of the Town Clerk and shall be a public record.
6. Referrals to the Planning Board: At least 45 days before the date of hearing held in connection with any appeal or application submitted to the Board of Appeals, said Board shall transmit to the Planning Board a copy of said appeal or application, and shall request that the Planning Board submit to the Board of Appeals its advisory opinion on said appeal or application. The Planning Board shall submit a report of such advisory opinion prior to the date of said public hearings. The failure of the Planning Board to submit such report shall be interpreted as a favorable opinion for the appeal or application.

B.—Public Notice and Hearing

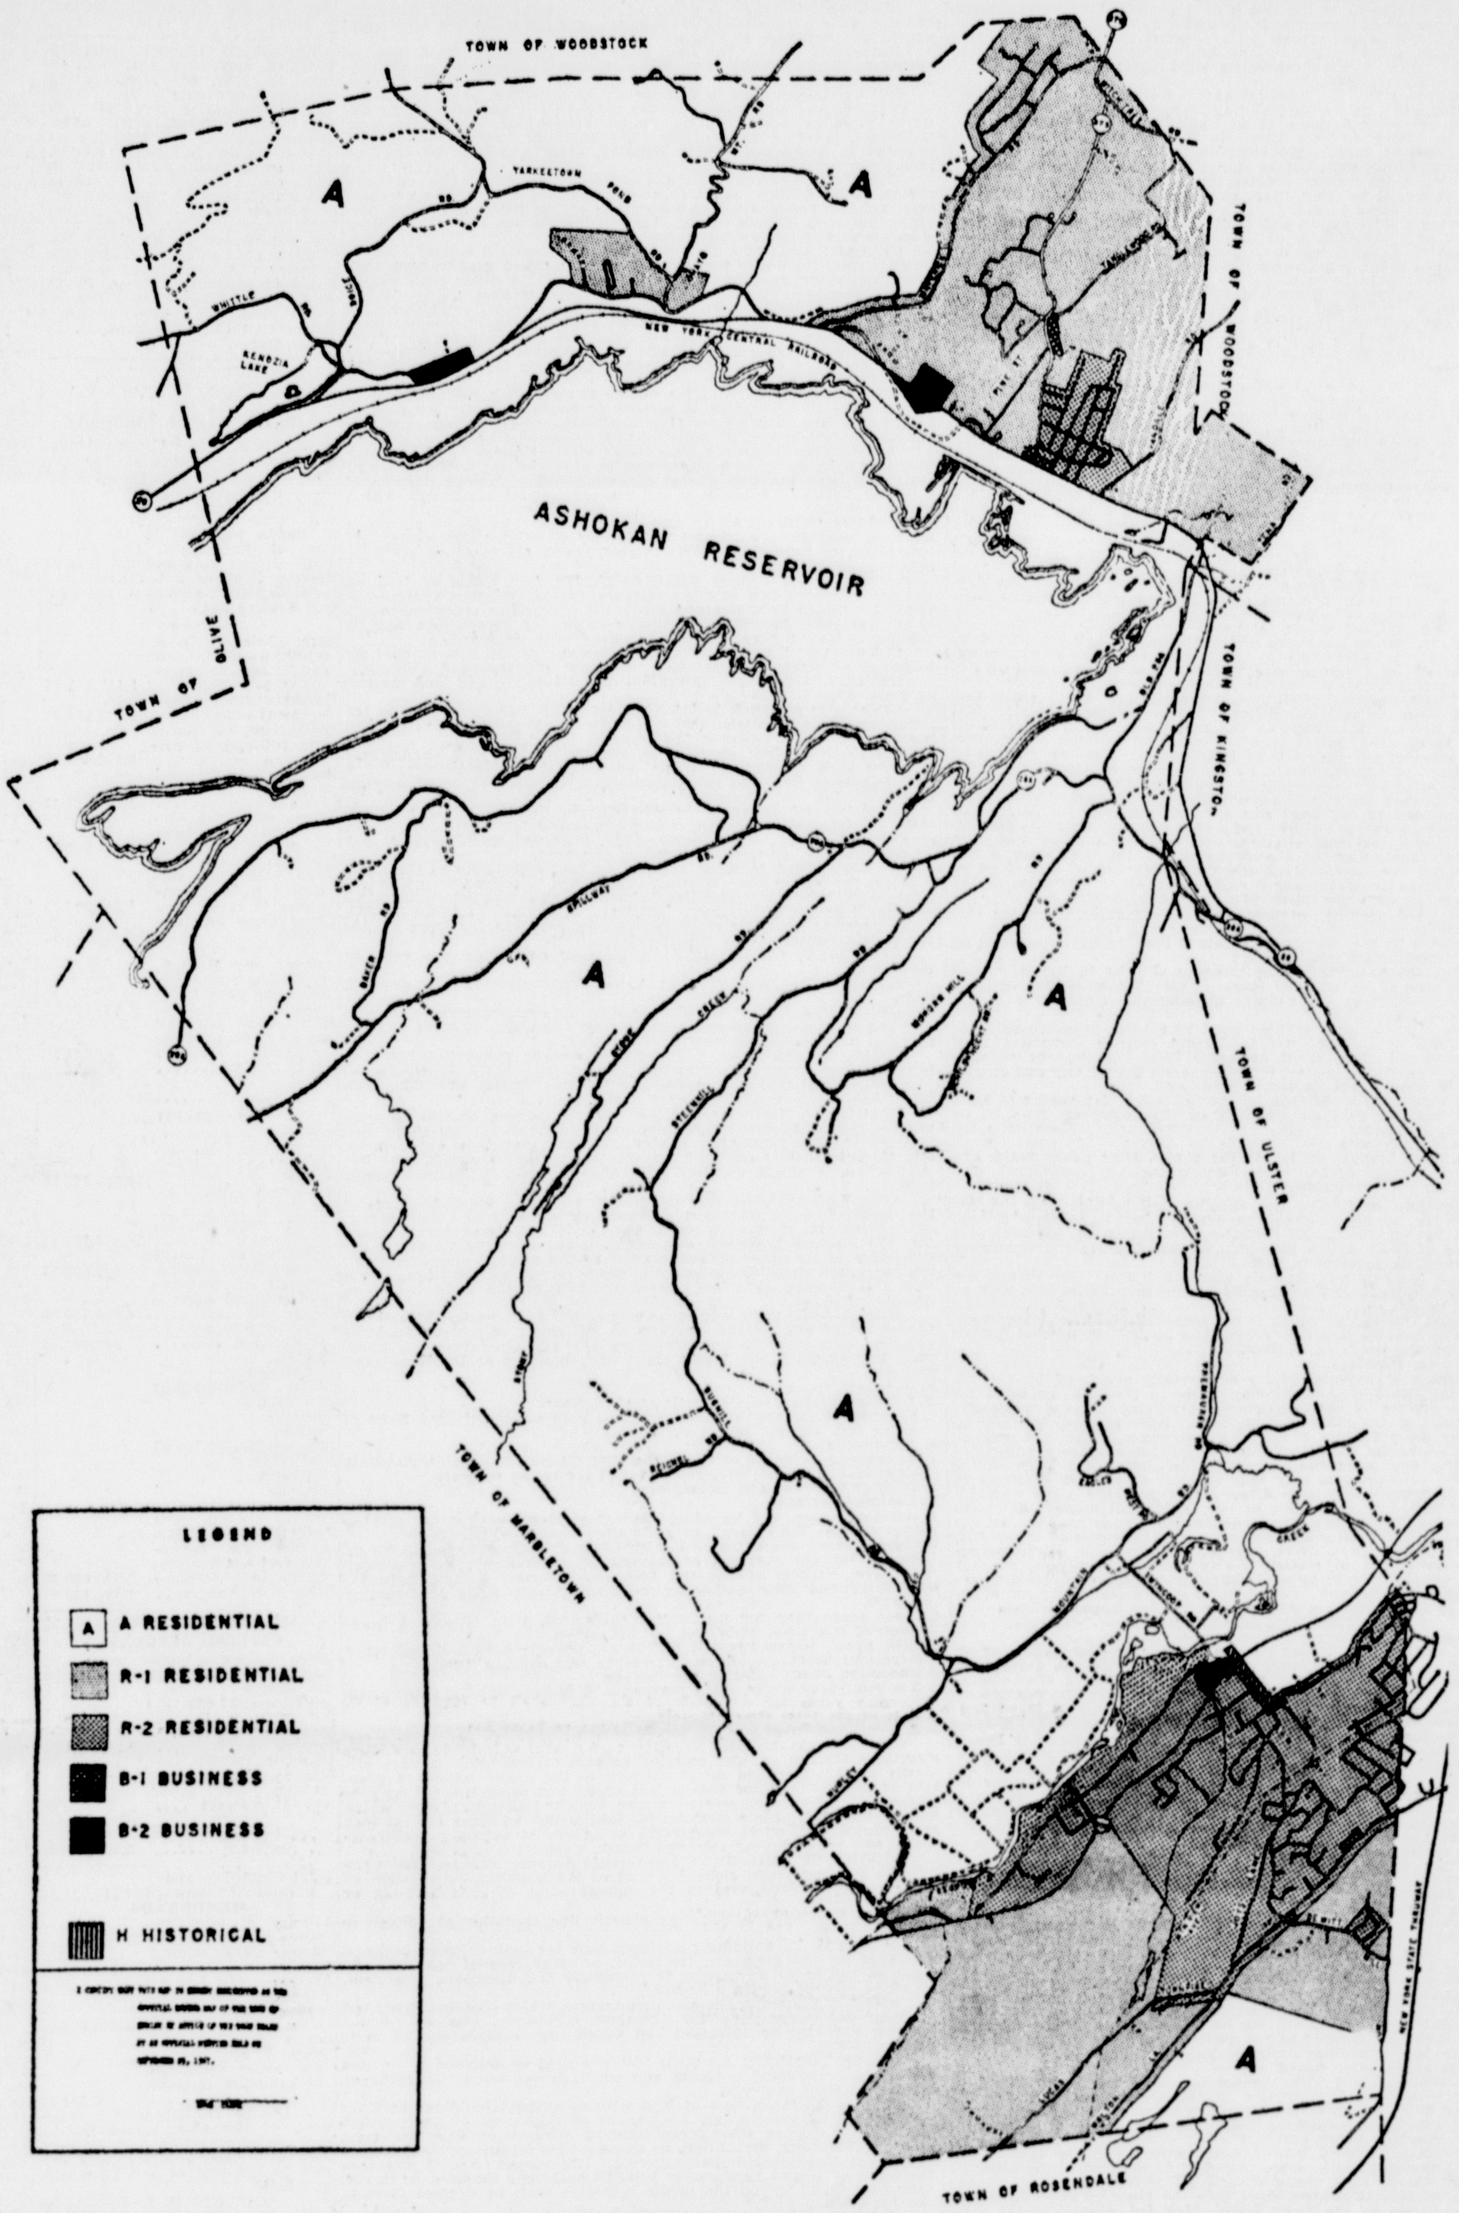

Public notice of any required hearing by the Board of Appeals shall be given in accordance with Town Law as follows:

1. By publishing a notice of any appeal or application and the time and place of the public hearing in the official newspaper of the Town of Hurley not less than ten days prior to the date of such hearing.
2. By giving written notice of hearing to any appellant or applicant, and any other such notice to property owners in an affected area as may be required by the Board of Appeals, and to the Planning Board not less than five days prior to such hearing.
3. By giving written notice of hearing to any required Municipal, County, Metropolitan, Regional, State or Federal agency in the manner prescribed by law.

C. Appeals

1. The Board of Appeals shall hear and decide appeals from and review any order, requirement, decision, or determination made by the Building Inspector under this Ordinance in accordance with the procedure set forth herewith:
   a. Notice of Appeal shall be filed with the Building Inspector and the Secretary to the Board of Appeals in writing, in a form required by such Board, within 30 days of the date of the action appealed from, specifying the grounds thereof.

b. Upon filing of a Notice of Appeal and payment of a filing fee of $5.00 by the appellant or applicant, the Building Inspector shall forthwith transmit to the Board of Appeals all the papers constituting the record upon which the action appealed from was taken.

c. The Board of Appeals shall set a reasonable date for the hearing of each appeal, of which hearing date the appellant shall be given notice and at which hearing he shall appear in person or by agent or by attorney.

d. An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from, unless the Building Inspector certifies to the Board of Appeals, after Notice of Appeal shall have been filed with him, that by reason of facts stated in the certificate, a stay would, in his opinion, cause imminent peril to life or property, in which case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Appeals or by a court of record on application, on notice to the Building Inspector and on due cause shown.

e. Following public notice and hearing, the Board of Appeals may reverse or affirm, wholly or partly, or may modify the order, requirement, decision, or determination appealed from and shall make such order, requirement, decision, or determination as in its opinion ought to be made in the premises and to that end shall have all the power of the Building Inspector. If the action by the Board of Appeals is to reverse the action of the Building Inspector in whole, the filing fee shall be refunded to the appellant. The Board of Appeals shall decide the same within sixty days following the final hearing.

D. Variances

1. Where there are practical difficulties or unnecessary hardships in the way of carrying out the strict letter of this Ordinance, the Board of Appeals shall have the power, after public notice and hearing, to vary or modify the application of any of the regulations or provisions of the Ordinance relating to the use, construction, or alteration of buildings or structures, or the use of land, so that the spirit of the Ordinance shall be observed, public safety and welfare secured and substantial justice done.

2. All applications for variances shall be filed with the Secretary to the Board of Appeals in writing, shall be made in a form required by the Board of Appeals, and shall be accompanied by payment of a filing fee of $5.00, and a plot plan, drawn to scale and accurately demensioned, showing the location of all existing and proposed buildings and structures on the lot.

3. Any variance which is not exercised within one year from the date of issuance is hereby declared to be revoked without further hearing by the Board of Appeals.

4. Criteria for granting variances:

a. A variance to the provisions of this Ordinance shall be granted by the Board of Appeals in order to vary or adapt the strict application of any of the requirements of this Ordinance in the case of exceptionally irregular, narrow, shallow, or steep lots, or other exceptional physical conditions, whereby such strict application would result in practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship that would deprive the owner of the reasonable use of the land or building involved, but in no other case. No variance in the strict application of any provision of this Ordinance shall be granted by the Board of Appeals except by the adoption of a resolution fully setting forth the reasons for the following findings.

(1) That there are special circumstances or conditions applying to such land or buildings and not applying generally to land or buildings in the vicinity and under identical district classification, and that said circumstances or conditions are such that strict application of the provisions of this Ordinance would deprive the applicant of the reasonable use of such land or buildings or of privileges enjoyed by other properties in the vicinity and under identical district classification.

(2) That the granting of the variance is necessary for the reasonable use of the land or building and that the variance as granted by the Board of Appeals is the minimum variance that will accomplish this purpose.

(3) That the granting of the variance will be in harmony with the general purpose and intent of this Ordinance, and will not be injurious to the vicinity or otherwise detrimental to the public welfare.

(4) That any variance granted shall be subject to such conditions as will assure that the adjustment thereby authorized shall not constitute a grant of special privilege inconsistent with the limitations upon other properties in the vicinity and district in which subject property is situated.

b. In no case shall a variance be granted solely for reason of additional financial gain on the part of the owner of the land or building involved.

E. Special Use Permits

1. The Board of Appeals shall have the power, after public notice and hearing, to grant Special Use Permits for the conditional uses specified in this Ordinance.

2. All applications for Special Use Permits shall be filed with the Secretary to the Board of Appeals in writing, shall be made in a form required by the Board, and shall be accompanied by payment of a filing fee of $5.00, and a plot plan, drawn to scale and accurately dimensioned, as required in Section V.N.

3. Whenever the board of Appeals grants a Special Use Permit, appropriate conditions and safeguards and/or time limitations may be attached thereto.

4. Any Special Use Permit which is not exercised within one year from the date of issuance is hereby declared to be revoked without further hearing by the Board of Appeals.

F. Relief from Decisions

Any person or persons, jointly or severally aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Appeals may apply to the supreme court for relief by a proceeding under article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules of the State of New York. Such proceedings shall be governed by the provisions of article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules, except that (a) it must be instituted as therein provided within thirty days after the filing of a decision in the office of the Town Clerk, (b) the court may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same with his findings of fact and conclusions of law, if it shall appear that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter, and (c) the court at special term shall itself dispose of the cause on the merits, determining all questions which may be presented for determination under the provisions of section twelve hundred ninety-six of said article. Costs shall not be allowed against the Board of Appeals unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence or in bad faith or with malice in making the decision appealed from.

SECTION IX. AMENDMENTS

A. Procedure

The Town Board may, from time to time, on its own motion, or on petition, or on recommendation from the Planning Board, amend the regulations and district established under this Ordinance after public notice and hearing in each case. All petitions for any amendment of the regulations or districts herein established shall be filed in writing in a form required by the Town Board.

Every proposed amendment, unless initiated by the Planning Board shall be referred to the Planning Board. The Planning Board shall report its recommendations thereon to the Town Board, accompanied by a full statement of the reasons for such recommendations, prior to the public hearing. If the Planning Board fails to report within a period of 45 days from the date of receipt of notice or such longer time as may have been agreed upon by it and the Town Board, the Town Board may act without such report.

C. Public Notice and Hearing

The Town Board, by resolution, shall fix the time and place of the public hearing and cause notice to be given in accordance with state and federal laws.

D. Protest by Owners

If a protest against the proposed amendment is presented to the Town Board, duly signed and acknowledged by the owners of twenty per cent or more of the area of land included in such proposed amendment, or by the owners of twenty per cent or more of the area of the land immediately adjacent extending 100 feet therefrom, or by the owners of twenty per cent or more of the area of land directly opposite thereto extending 100 feet from the street frontage of such opposite land, such amendment shall not be passed except by the favorable vote of at least four member of the Town Board provided the per cent of such vote is not contrary or in conflict with state law.

E. Changes by Planning Board

The Planning Board with the permission of the Town Board in accordance with Town Law, Section 281, may, simultaneously with the approval of any plat, make any reasonable change to the regulations established under this Ordinance with respect to the land so platted. Before the Planning Board shall make any such change, there shall be a public hearing preceded by the same notice as in the case of the approval of the plat itself. Once the filing of the plat in the office of the County Clerk, such changes shall be and become part of the regulations of this Ordinance, shall take the place of any regulations established herein by the Town Board, shall be enforced in the same maner, and shall be similarly subject to amendment.

F. Publication and Posting

Every amendment to the Zoning Ordinance, including any map incorporated therein, adopted in accordance with the Town Law shall be entered in the minutes of the Town Board and a copy thereof, exclusive of any map incorporated therein, shall be published once in the official newspaper of the Town of Hurley and a copy of such amendment together with a copy of any map incorporated therein, shall be posted on a sign board maintained by the Town Clerk pursuant to Subdivision 6 of Section 30 of the Town Law. Affidavits of the publication and posting thereof shall be filed with the Town Clerk.

SECTION X. INTERPRETATION AND APPLICATION

A. Legislative Intent

In their interpretation and application, the provisions of this Ordinance shall be held to be minimum requirements adopted for the promotion of the public health, morals, safety, and general welfare.

B. Non-Interference and Precedence

This Ordinance shall not interfere with, abrogate, annul, or repeal any ordinance or any rule, regulation, or permit previously or hereafter enacted, adopted, or issued pursuant to law, provided that, unless specifically excepted, where this Ordinance imposes greater restrictions its provisions shall control.

C. Violation

An violation of this Ordinance is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not exceeding $50.00, or by imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment. Each week the violation continues shall be deemed to be a separate and distinct violation.

D. Separate Validity

If any section, subsection, paragraph, clause, or other provision of this Ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, subsection, paragraph, clause, or other provision shall not affect any of the other provisions of this Ordinance.

E. Effective Date

In accordance with the procedure set forth in Section 264 of the Town Law this Ordinance shall take effect when duly published and posted as required by said law.

SECTION XI. DEFINITIONS

Except where specifically defined herein, all words used in this Ordinance shall carry their customary meanings. Words used in the present tense shall include the future. Words used in the singular number include the plural, and words used in the plural number include the singular, unless the context clearly indicates the contrary.

The word "shall" is always mandatory. The word "may" is permissive. "Building" or "structure" includes any part thereof. The word "lot" includes the word "plot" or "parcel." The word "person" includes an individual person, a firm, a corporation, a co-partnership, and any other agency of voluntary action.

The phrase "used for" includes "arranged for," "designed for," "intended for," "maintained for" and "occupied for."

ACCESSORY BUILDING: A building detached from and subordinate to a main building on the same lot and used for purposes customarily incidental to those of the main building.

ACCESSORY USE: A use customarily incidental and subordinate to the principal use or building and located on the same lot with such principal use or building.

ALTERATION: As applied to a building or structure, a change or rearrangement in the external structural parts or existing facilities of such building or structure, or any enlargement thereof, whether by extension on any side or by any increase in heights, or the moving of such building or structure from one location to another.

AREA, BUILDING: The total of areas taken on a horizontal plane at the main grade level of the principal building and all accessory buildings exclusive of terraces and uncovered steps.

ATTIC: That space of building which is immediately below and wholly or partly within the roof framing. An attic with a finished floor shall be counted as one-half story in determining the permissible number of stories.

BASEMENT: A story partly below finished grade, but having at least one half of its height measured from floor to ceiling, but not less than four feet, above average finished grade. A basement shall be counted as one story determining the height of a building in stories.

BILLBOARDS: A sign or structure which directs attention to an idea, product, business activity, service, or entertainment which is conducted, sold, or offered elsewhere than upon the lot on which such sign is situated.

BOARDING HOUSE: A building, other than a hotel, containing a general kitchen and a general dining room, in which at least three, but not more than six sleeping rooms are offered for rent, with or without meals. A lodging house, tourist house or rooming house shall be deemed a boarding house.

BUILDING: Any structure which is permanently affixed to the land, has one or more floors and a roof, and is intended for the shelter, housing, or enclosuer of persons, animals or chattel.

BUILDING, ACCESSORY: See "ACCESSORY, BUILDING."

BUILDING, DETACHED: A building surrounded by open space on the same lot.

BUILDING, MAIN: A building in which is conducted the principal use of the lot on which it is located.

BUILDING, PRINCIPAL: A building in which is conducted the main or principal use of the lot on which said building is situated.

BUILDING, SEMI-DETACHED: A building attached by a party wall to another building normally of the same type on another lot, but having one side yard.

BUILDING GROUP: A group of two or more principal buildings and any buildings accessory thereto, occupying a lot in one ownership and having any yard in common.

BUILDING LINE: The line, established by statute, local law or ordinance, beyond which a building shall not extend, as specifically provided by law.

BULK: A term used to describe the size, volume, area, and shape of buildings and structures, and the physical relationship of their exterior walls or their location to lot lines, other buildings and structures, or other walls of the same building; and all open spaces required in connection with a building, other structure, or tract of land.

CAMP: Any parcel of land on which are located two or more cabins, tents, shelters, or other accommodations of a design or character suitable for seasonal or other more or less temporary living purposes, including summer colony, resort and day camp, but not including a trailer park, boarding house, hotel or motel.

CELLAR: Any space in a building the structural ceiling level of which is less than four feet above average finished grade where such grade meets the exterior walls of the building. A cellar shall not be counted in determining the permissible number of stories.

CLUB, MEMBERSHIP: An organization catering exclusively to members and their guests, or premises and buildings for recreational or athletic purposes, which are not conducted primarily for gain, providing there are not conducted any vending stands, merchandising or commercial activities except as required generally for the membership and purposes of such club.

COMMERCIAL VEHICLE: A vehicle of more than one ton capacity used for the transportation of persons or goods primarily for gain or a vehicle of any capacity carrying a permanent-affixed sign exceeding one square foot in area or lettering of a commercial nature.

COMMUNITY POLE: A sign owned and maintained by the Town Board or by a group of business men as approved by the Town Board and which sign contains several directional signs for the purpose of directing persons to business and community establishments within the community.

CONTRACTOR'S YARD: Any space whether inside or outside a building, used for the storage or keeping of construction equipment, machinery, or vehicles, or parts thereof, which are in active use by a construction contractor.

COTTAGE OR CABIN DEVELOPMENT: Any parcel of land on which are located two or more cottages, cabins, or other accommodations of a design or character suitable for seasonal or other temporary living purposes, including a summer colony or resort, but not including a trailer park, boarding house, hotel or motel.

COVERAGE: That lot area or percentage of lot area covered by buildings or structures, including accessory buildings and structures.

DEVELOPMENT: The utilization of a lot or tract of land for two or more uses.

DISTRICT; MORE RESTRICTED OR LESS RESTRICTED: In the following list each district shall be deemed to be more restricted than the districts which follow it. R-1, R-2, H, A, B-1, B-2, I-1.

DRIVE-IN-MOVIE: An open lot or part thereof, with appurtenant facilities devoted primarily to the showing of moving pictures, on a paid admission basis, to patrons seated in automobiles or on outdoor seats.

DUMP: A lot or land used primarily for the disposal by abandonment, burial, burning or any other means and for whatever purpose, of garbage, sewage, trash, refuse, junk, discarded machinery, vehicles or parts thereof, or waste material of any kind.

DWELLING: A building designed or used principally as the living quarters for one or more families. The terms "dwelling," "one- family dwelling," "two-family dwelling," "multi-family dwelling," "multiple dwelling," or "dwelling group" shall not be deemed to include motel, hotel, rooming house or other accommodations used for more or less transient occupancy. (See RESIDENCE)

DWELLING, ONE-FAMILY: A building containing one dwelling unit only.

DWELLING, TWO-FAMILY: A building containing two dwelling units.

DWELLING, MULTI-FAMILY: A dwelling containing three or more dwelling units and occupied or designed for occupancy by three or more families living independently of each other.

DWELLING GROUP: A group of three or more, but not over nine, attached single or two-family dwellings with party walls between.

DWELLING UNIT: A building or portion thereof providing complete housekeeping facilities for one family.

FAMILY: A 'family' consists of (a) one person, or two or more persons related by blood, marriage or adoption, or (b) not more than five persons not necessarily related by blood, marriage or adoption, and in addition any domestic servants or gratuitous guests, who live together in a single dwelling unit and maintain a common household.

FINISHED GRADE: The elevation at which the finished surface of the surrounding lot intersects the walls or supports of a building or other structure, if the line of intersection is not reasonably horizontal, the finished grade—in computing height of building and other structures or for other purposes—shall be the average elevation of all finished grade elevations around the periphery of the buildings, except that this average shall not exceed one-half of the floor to ceiling height.

FLOOR AREA: The aggregate sum of the gross horizontal areas of the several floors of the building or buildings, measured from the exterior walls or from the centerlines of walls separating two buildings. In particular, the "floor area" of a building or buildings shall include:

a. Basement space
b. Elevator shafts and stairwells at each floor
c. Floor space for mechanical equipment, with structural head room of seven feet and six inches or more
d. Penthouses
e. Attic space (whether or not a floor has actually been laid) providing structural headroom of seven feet and six inches or more
f. Interior balconies and mezzanines
g. Enclosed porches
h. Accessory uses, not including space for accessory off-street parking However, the "floor area" of a building shall not include:
a. Cellar space, except that cellar space used for retailing shall be included for the purposes of calculating requirements for accessory off-street parking spaces and accessory off-street loading berths.
b. Elevator and stair bulkheads, accessory water tanks and cooling towers.
c. Floor space used for mechanical equipment, with structural headroom of less than seven feet and six inches.
d. Attic space, whether or not a floor has actually been laid, providing structural headroom of less than seven feet and six inches.
e. Uncovered steps; exterior fire escapes.
f. Terraces, breezeways, open porches, and outside balconies and open spaces.
g. Accessory off-street parking spaces.
h. Accessory off-street loading berths.

GASOLINE FILLING STATION: An area of land, including structures thereon, or any building or part thereof, that is used primarily for the sale and direct delivery to the motor vehicle of gasoline or any other motor vehicle fuel or oil and other lubricating substances, including any sale of motor vehicle accessories, and which may or may not include facilities for lubricating, washing, (which does not require mechanical equipment) or otherwise servicing motor vehicles, but not including auto body work, welding, or painting.

HEIGHT OF BUILDING: The verticle distance measured from the average finished grade along the wall of the building (or adjacent to the side of the structure) to the highest point of such building or structure.

HIGH TENSION LINE: Any electric line operating at voltage in excess of 69 Kv.

HOSPITAL: A building containing beds for four or more patients, and used for the diagnosis, treatment, or other care of ailments, and shall be demed to be limited to places for the diagnosis, treatment, or other care of human ailments.

HOTEL: A building, or any part thereof, which contains living and sleeping accommodations for transient occupancy, has a common exterior entrance or entrances and which may contain one or more dining rooms.

HOUSE TRAILER: A vehicle which is used or designed to be used for living or sleeping purposes and which is customarily standing on wheels or rigid supports!

JUNK YARD: An area of land with or without buildings used for or occupied by the storage, keeping, or abandonment of junk, including scrap metals or other scrap, used or salvaged building materials, or the dismantling, demolition, or abandonment of automobiles or other vehicles or machinery or parts thereof. The deposit on a lot of two or more old or second hand motor vehicles no longer intended or in condition for legal use on the public highways shall be deemed to make the lot a "junk yard."

KENNEL: Any place at which there are kept six or more dogs more than four months of age or any number of dogs that are kept for the primary purpose of sale or for the boarding, care of breeding of which a fee is charged or paid.

LOT: a defined portion or parcel of land considered as a unit, devoted to a specific use or occupied by a building or a group of buildings that are united by a common interest, use or ownership, and the customary accessories and open spaces belonging to the same.

LOT, CORNER: A lot situated at the junction and adjacent to two or more intersecting streets when the interior angle of intersection does not exceed 135 degrees.

LOT, DEPTH OF: The mean distance from the front street line of a lot to its rear line.

LOT, THROUGH: A lot which faces on two streets at opposite ends of the lot and which is not a corner lot.

LOT COVERAGE: See "COVERAGE."

LOT FRONTAGE: A lot line which is coincident with a street line.

LOT LINES: The lines bounding a lot as defined herein.

LOT WIDTH: The horizontal distance between the side lot lines measured at right angles to the lot depth at a point midway between the front and rear lot lines; or the width of a lot measured along the rear line of the required front yard.

MOTEL: A building or group of buildings containing individual living and sleeping accommodations for hire, each of which is provided with a separate exterior entrance and a parking space, and is offered for rental and use principally by motor vehicle travelers. The term "motel" includes but is not limited to every type of similar establishment known variously as an auto court, motor hotel, motor court, motor inn, motor lodge, tourist court, tourist cabins, roadside hotel.

NON-CONFORMING BULK: That part of a building, other structure or tract of land which does not conform to one or more of the applicable bulk regulations of this Ordinance, either following its effective date or as a result of subsequent amendments thereto.

NON-CONFORMING USE: Any use of a building, other structure, or tract of land, which does not conform to the use regulations for the district in which such use is located, either at the effective date of this Ordinance or as a result of subsequent amendment thereto.

NURSING OR CONVALESCENT HOME: A building with less than 15 sleeping rooms where persons are housed or lodged and furnished with meals and nursing care for hire.

NURSERY SCHOOL: Any place, however, designated, operated for the purpose of providing daytime care or instruction for two or more children from two to five years of age inclusive, and operated on a regular basis, including kindergartens, day nurseries, and day care centers.

PREMISES: A lot together with all the buildings and uses thereon.

RESIDENCES, RESIDENTIAL: A building, or any part of a building, which contains living and sleeping accommodations for permanent occupancy. "Residences," therefore, includes all one-family, multi-family, boarding, fraternity and sorority houses. However, "residences" shall not include the following:

(a) transient accommodations, such as hotels, motels, and hospitals; or
(b) that part of a building containing both residences and other uses which is used for any non-residential uses, except accessory uses for residences.

RIDING ACADEMY: Any establishment where horses are kept for riding driving or stabling for compensation.

RIGHT-OF-WAY: The property of a circulatory facility. (See Width).

ROAD STAND: A light structure with a roof, either attached to the ground or movable, intended for the sale of local produce to the general public.

SETBACK: The distance in feet from the street line to the principal building on a lot.

SIGN: Any structure or part thereof, or any device attached to a structure or painted or represented on a structure which shall display or include any lettering, wording, model, drawing, picture, banner, flag, insignia, device, marking, or representation used as or which is in the nature of an announcement, direction or advertisement. A "sign" includes a bill board, neon tube, flourescent tube, or other artificial light or string of lights, outlining or hung upon any part of a building or lot for the purposes mentioned above, but does not include the flag or insignia of any nation or of any governmental agency or of any political, educational, charitable, philanthropic, civic, professional, religious or similar organization, campaign, drive, movement, or event which is temporary in nature.

SIGN, ADVERTISING means a "sign" which directs attention to a business, commodity, service or entertainment conducted, sold, or offered elsewhere than on the premises and only incidentally on the premises if at all.

SIGN, BUSINESS means a "sign" which directs attention to a business or profession conducted on the premises. A "For Sale" sign or a "To Let" sign relating to the property on which it is displayed shall be deemed a "business sign."

SIGN, ILLUMINATED means a "sign" designed to give forth any artificial light, or designed to reflect such light deriving from any surce which is intended to cause such light or reflection.

SIGN, DIRECTLY ILLUMINATED: A sign which incorporates any artificial lighting as an inherent part or feature or which depends for its illumination on transparent or translucent material or electricity of radioactivated or gaseous material or substance.

SIGN, FLASHING: An illuminated sign on which the artificial lighting is not maintained stationary or constant in intensity and color at all times while in use.

SIGN, INDIRECTLY ILLUMINATED: A sign illuminated with an artificial light which is separated from or is not an intrinsic part of the sign itself.

SIGN, REPRESENTATIONAL: Any three-dimensional sign which is built so as to physically represent the object advertised.

SIGN AREA: The area within the shortest lines that can be drawn around the outside perimeter of a sign including all decorations and lights, but excluding the supports if they are not used for advertising purposes. All faces of the sign shall be counted in computing the area. Any neon tube, string of lights, or similar device shall be deemed to have minimum dimensions of one foot.

SINGLE OWNERSHIP: Possession of land under single or unified control, whether by sole, joint, common or other ownership, or by a lease having a term of not less than 30 years, regardless of any division of such land into parcels for the purpose of financing.

STORY: That part of a building comprised between a floor and the floor or roof next above it. (See "Attic," "Basement," and "Cellar.")

STORY, HALF: That portion of a building situated above a full story and having at least two opposite exterior walls meeting a sloping roof at a level not higher above the floor than a distance equal to one-half the floor-to-ceiling height of the story below.

STREET: An existing public way or private way which affords a principal means of access to abutting properties and is suitably improved; or a proposed way shown on a plat approved by the Town Planning Board and/or recorded in the office of the County Clerk.

STREET WIDTH: The width of the right-of-way or the distance between property lines on opposite sides of a street.

STRUCTURE: A static construction of building materials, including buildings, stadiums, sheds, display stands, storage bins, signs, reviewing stands, gasoline pumps, mobile dwellings, (whether mobile or stationary at the time), and the like.

TRAILER, HOUSE: (See "HOUSE TRAILER").

TRAILER, TRAVEL: A vehicular portable structure designed as a temporary dwelling for travel, recreational and vacation use.

TRAILER CAMP, TRAILER PARK: A tract of land which is used or intended to be used for the parking of two or more house trailers.

USE: This term is employed in referring to:

a. The purpose for which any building, other structures or land may be arranged, designed, intended, maintained, or occupied;
b. Any occupation, business activity, or operation conducted (or intended to be conducted) in a building or other structure or on land.

VACATION RESORT: Any area of land on which are located two or more cabins, cottages or a hotel or group of buildings, containing living and sleeping accommodations hired out for compensation, which has a public lobby serving the guests, and may contain one or more dining rooms and recreation facilities of a design and character suitable for seasonal or more or less temporary living purposes, regardless of whether such structures or other accommodations actually are occupied seasonally or otherwise.

WAY: A thoroughfare, however designated, permanently established for passage of persons or vehicles.

YARD, REQUIRED: That portion of the open area of a lot extending open and unobstructed from the ground upward, along a lot line for a depth or width as specified by the bulk regulations of the district in which the lot is located. No part of such yard shall be included as part of a yard or other space similarly required for buildings on another lot.

YARD, FRONT: A yard extending along the full length of the front lot line between the side lot lines.

YARD, REAR: A yard extending along the full length of the rear lot line, between the side lot lines.

YARD, SIDE: A yard situated between the building and the side line of a lot and extending from the front yard rear line (or from the front lot line, if there is no required front yard) to the rear yard front line (or rear lot line).

By order of the Town Board of the Town of Hurley
RAYMOND C. CROSWELL, Town Clerk

Lions to Hear About Bond for Transportation

F. ROY MADGWICK

Associate Director F. Roy Madgwick, of Mid-Hudson Pattern for Progress, Inc., a citizen's regional planning organization, will discuss implications for the region of the state's proposed $2.5 billion transportation bond issue before members of the Hurley Lions Club, Wednesday, at Williams Lake Hotel, Rosendale.

Pattern's staff is preparing a report on the transportation situation in the seven counties it serves, with special emphasis on the possible remedies offered by the bond issue. The report is scheduled to be released October 27.

The state's bond issue proposal will appear on the ballot November 7.

Weekend Vandalism in City

Wanton vandalism, including the destruction of 10 windows over the weekend at the Meagher School, has again struck Kingston.

Police said the school, located at 21 Wynkoop Place and formerly School No. 5, reported the damage to headquarters this morning. Investigating officers stated the windows were shattered by thrown objects.

Diane Fisher, 91 West Pierpont Street, complained to authorities Saturday that her auto was damaged by a thrown rock while she was traveling along Broadway, police declared. Miss Fisher told police the rock was hurled by a youth who appeared to be around 20 years of age. Officers said the suspect was gone before patrolmen could reach the scene.

Saturday afternoon, John Pavlidis of 76 St. James Street, telephoned headquarters and informed authorities that two car tires had been slashed on his auto. Pavlidis estimated loss at nearly $75 and said the incident occurred while his auto was parked in front of his home.

A Clinton Avenue woman, disturbed Saturday night by the smashing of bottles along her street, reported the mischief to police, officers stated. The woman, who requested not to be identified, told investigators she heard youthful voices prior to the incident.

Sunday, police investigated a broken glass door at Schuttle's Market on Franklin Street. The proprietor, Julius Schuttle, said the window was smashed with a rock.

A spare tire and tennis racquet were reported stolen from a car parked behind the Governor Clinton Hotel by the owner, a Amityville, Long Island man. Harry Wilson, 272 Grand Central Avenue, Amityville, disclosed the valuables were taken Sunday night. Police said they are looking into the matter.

The residence at 88 West Chester Street was pelted with eggs Sunday evening, police said. Officers declared that the entire front proch was covered with mess.

Mrs. I. A. Gallagher, 17 Fort Street, requested Monday that investigators check her house for damage suffered by unknown persons over the weekend. Police said Mrs. Gallagher works and is away from home during the day.

At Newburgh Session

State Teachers Oppose Charter

The Southeastern Zone of the State Teacher's Association, meeting Saturday in Newburgh, has voted to oppose the proposed State Constitution.

The zone, comprised of Ulster, Orange, Dutchess, Rockland, Putnam and Sullivan Counties, based its objection primarily on repeal of the controversial Blaine Amendment.

Repeal of this amendment means that private schools will be able to receive state aid.

A spokesman for the teachers said the proposed constitution would establish a formula of aid that was dangerous and that it weakened the basic idea of public education. In addition the people of New York should not have to vote on a single package item, the spokesman added.

Seventy delegates from the six county area attended Saturday's meeting, which was conducted at the Holiday Inn near Newburgh.

Three Men Held On Harrassment

Three Port Ewen men were arrested on warrants Friday night on a charge of harrassment or interference with the duties of a police officer. One of them, Rawlston Longendyke, demanded a hearing before Justice of the Peace John O. Beaver of Esopus and after testimony was found guilty and fined $25. The other two, George Longendyke and his father, John, had their cases adjourned to Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

The arrests followed an alleged interference with an investigation being conducted by County Investigator Harold T. Bowers of the sheriff's staff.

Bowers reported he was questioning one of the men when the trouble started as he sought to take one of the men to their house to continue the investigation. Bowers said he was attempting to question one of the men about a robbery which had taken place in the area. After securing warrants, Bowers, Deputy Sheriff Donald Van Aken and troopers returned and executed the warrants.

Kuchel Likes Rockefeller As Candidate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — U.S. Sen. Thomas Kuchel, R-Calif., says New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller—"a superb American"—is the Republican party's best possible presidential candidate in 1968.

Kuchel said on a television program taped on Los Angeles for broadcast Sunday that Rockefeller has "...a unique background, the experience, the capacity to administer and to lead."

Kuchel said he hopes the Republicans nominate a presidential candidate in 1968 who "does not make an issue out of basic American policy in Southeast Asia."

Later Sunday, in a speech in Beverly Hills, Kuchel said a "cardinal objective" of U.S. foreign policy should be the continued unification of Jerusalem, both as a capital of Israel and a world religious center.

"The recent (Middle East) conflict has shown that the people of the United States believe overwhelmingly that they have a direct commitment to the safety, integrity and prosperity of the people of Israel," Kuchel said.

"In my opinion the United States has errored in trying to conceal that point from the Arab nations, friendly or otherwise. The time has come to make our position unmistakably clear.

"This is not to imply that America has no role to play among the Arab peoples, nor that they should be abandoned to the Socialist camp," Kuchel said.

"I have long believed that the self-interest of the peoples (of the Middle East) was the principal force that would bring them together in...peaceful existence," Kuchel said.

"Maureen's little brother has never been able to find the key to her diary—she hides it under the soap in the bathroom!"

UAW Readies OK On New Ford Pack

DETROIT (AP) — Top officials of the United Auto Workers today prepared for a ratification vote on a new contract with the Ford Motor Co. which could cost Ford close to a billion dollars in the next three years.

Ford executives made plans to get cars rolling off assembly lines if the strike, now in its 47th day and longest in the company's history, ends some time this week.

The union's Ford Council meets tonight and ratification votes by members are planned for Tuesday and Wednesday at the Ford plants in 25 states.

The council, made up of key officials in Ford locals, meets again at 8 p.m. Wednesday, to pass on the vote.

Walter P. Reuther, UAW president, said he expected his men to be returning to work by Thursday with more expected Friday. Malcolm L. Denise, Ford vice president for labor relations, said employes could be back on the job Wednesday "at the earliest."

Denise and Reuther headed the opposing bargaining teams in 13 days of intensive negotiations before the contract was agreed on early Sunday.

Reuther said the union's gains represent "our share of the increase in productivity and cannot possibly form the basis for increasing prices."

The nation's four major domestic automakers have all increased prices for 1968-model cars and have indicated the prices could be changed depending on the cost of new contracts with the UAW.

Denise declined to answer specifically when asked whether Ford would increase car prices, saying only, "One cannot ignore cost when pricing one's product."

Ford said the new contract will raise wages 45½ to 90½ cents an hour over its three-year span. The union estimates that its 20,000 skilled tradesmen at Ford will average $1.02 more hourly.

At the rate of $1 an hour increase in wages, fringe benefits and premium pay, the new contract would cost Ford $2,000 more per year for each of its 160,000 workers, thus close to a billion dollars in the three years of the contract.

Here are the major gains in the new contract — Guaranteeing workers, depending on seniority, as much as 95 per cent of their annual wage, less $7.50 weekly work-related expenses, regardless of layoffs.

— An immediate raise of 20 cents an hour added to the $3.43 the average Ford workers now gets.

— Skilled workers get an additional increase of 30 cents an hour, making a 50-cent total.

— All workers get a 3 per cent raise during each of the last two-years of the three-year pact. Depending on a workers' seniority, the raise will be between 9½ and 17½ cents.

— Ford has agreed to guarantee at least six cents an hour in cost of living increases during the last two years of the contract. No new cost of living allowances will be paid during the first year of the contract.

Equal pay for Canadian and American workers, one of the union's top demands, was "the only major thing we didn't win," Reuther said.

DR. SAUL GOLDFARB

Designated Dental Group Representative

Dr. Herbert G. Spieske of Albany and Dr. Saul Goldfarb of Kingston, have been designated as representatives of the Third District Dental Society of the State of New York to the House of Delegates of the American Dental Association, it was announced by Third District President Robert F. Rudisill of Latham.

Alternates are Dr. Jeremiah Sachs of Kingston and Dr. Edwin F. Smith of Albany. Members of the House of Delegates serve for one year.

Newly elected to membership in the Third District Dental Society are Dr. Richard Goliber of Albany, Dr. Harold W. Wilson of Delmar, Dr. Stanford Fried of Catskill and Dr. John Pacer of Windham, according to Dr. Spieske who is executive secretary of the dictrict.

District dentists will meet Nov. 14 at Kozel's Post Road Tavern in Hudson for dinner and a clinic to be conducted by Dr. Joseph Lobene of Boston University on the topic of periodontia.

Rampage on Reservation Leaves One Dead, One Hurt

LAWTONS, N.Y. (AP) — Police sought a motive today for a stabbing incident on the Cattaraugus Indian Reservation that left one man dead, another injured seriously and a youth accused of manslaughter.

The body of Ralph White, 27, was found Saturday in a wooded area near this hamlet 25 miles south of Buffalo. There were four knife wounds in the chest, Erie County deputy sheriffs said.

Gilbert Johns, 45, was found standing in the parking lot of a nearby restauant, where he had staggered with nine knife wounds in the back, they said.

Johns was listed in serious condition Sunday at Our Lady of Victory Hospital in Lackawanna.

Several hours after the knifings, David Thompson, 16, was arrested at his home in North Collins and charged with first-degree manslaughter in White's death. No other charges were filed immediately, deputies said.

Thompson was taken to the county jail in Buffalo after his arraignment before a peace justice Sunday.

Deputies said Johns told them he and White were drinking cider in the field when they were joined by two or three other persons. He could not recall what happened after that, they said.

A 12-inch butcher knife was found Sunday about 1,000 feet from where White's body was found, investigators said.

White lived on Reservation Road, where Thompson also resides. Johns' home in on Versailles-Plank Road.

Police sought a motive today for a stabbing incident on the Cattaraugus Indian Reservation that left one man dead, another injured seriously and a youth accused of manslaughter.

Prowler Reported

Saturday morning while Deputy Sheriffs Gerald Miller and Henry Newman were on patrol a call was received from Eddyville that a man wearing nothing but white shorts was upstairs in the D. Ossmer home. The man was found in an upstairs bedroom when a member of the family went to the room to investigate a noise.

Investigator Bowers reported that when a light was turned on the room, the man dashed from the house and disappeared. At the time, Bowers reported a daughter was downstairs "having a snack", in the kitchen. The investigation

Bloomin' Lily

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — Mrs. John Salazar has a flower that's confused about its holidays.

She said she went out in her Albuquerque backyard recently to check on pumpkins and found an Easter lily in full bloom.

Mercy Mission

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Two Georgia osteopaths—Dr. Lloyd Dale Gauvin of Decatur and Dr. A. Andrew Trimble of Chamblee—will join 35 other persons Nov. 5 on an expedition to treat an isolated Indian tribe in the Sierra Madre Mountains in Mexico.

Authorities said the group would meet in El Paso, Tex., and fly 300 miles in private planes to reach a tribe of Tarahumara Indians.

The trip is being planned under the auspices of an organization, Doctors of Osteopathy Care or "Docare."

Sources said only about 5,600 are still living in the tribe of Inca descendants. The tribe reportedly has a high infant death rate and the members have an average expectancy of about 45 years.

Dear Abby

Wisdom from Experience

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

[© 1967 by Chicago Tribune-N. Y. News Synd., Inc.]

DEAR ABBY: Be fair, and give the other side of the question of whether to institutionalize a Mongoloid child. There are so many who say, "All the retarded child needs is to be kept at home, and assured that he is loved."

But, Abby, have yo ever seen a mentally deficient child who has grown to adulthood? A 30-year-old man who still makes baby noises, but must be shaved, bathed, and taken to the bathroom? He is not very "lovable." O, his mother "loves" him all right, but her heart aches and twists as friends try to conceal their embarrassment. And the terrible shadow of, "What will happen to him when I am gone," looms ahead and grows darker with the years.

Not all mentally deficient children are so seriously retarded that they would be better off in an institution, but once it becomes established that he must be cared for as a baby all his life, the sooner he is placed in a reputable institution, the better.

When our doctor suggested that I place my child in an institution, I cried, "I CANNOT put my child in an institution! What will she think?"

The doctor replied, "She wouldn't care. She wouldn't know the difference."

And it's true. She has been there for 19 years. She is safe and happy there. I let her go when she was young enough to adjust. I love her, as I love my other children. And I have no regrets.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem and no one in my family can come up with an answer. My brother has been separated from his wife and two children for over five years. He lives in the same town with them, but is now living with another woman. He and this other woman have just become parents of a baby boy. My problem is, how do I receive this poor little innocent child? Do I just ignore the precious baby and pretend he doesn't exist?

I do not live in the same state with my brother and am not in contact with him, but as far as I know there is no divorce in sight so it will be some time before he can make things legal with the woman he's living with, if that's his plan. I don't know what in the world they are thinking of. Surely not of that poor innocent child.

How in the world should I handle this mess? I don't want to do anything to hurt my brother's legal wife and children, but what about the illegitimate baby?

PERPLEXED

DEAR PERPLEXED: As I see it, the "mess" is your brother's and the woman with whom he is living. Their child isn't "illegitimate"—his parents are. Since you are not in contact with your brother, you probably shouldn't "do" anything.

DEAR ABBY: Altho this problem might sound funny to some people, it is serious to me.

My boyfriend has a very coarse beard. He shaves just before he picks me up, but by the end of the evening his face is like sandpaper. Needless to say, it sure does tear up my face.

Right now he is in the service, so I see him only a few days at a time, then my face has three months to heal, but what am I going to do when he gets out of service and we decide to get married? Must I go around with a face that is irritated and burning and practically bleeding?

Possibly one of your readers (men who have had this problem, or women who have found a solution) can help me.

HAMBURGER PUSS

DEAR PUSS: I will pass on to you any suggestions I receive from my readers. In the meantime, easy on the cheek-to-cheeking.

Horoscope By SYDNEY OMARR

It's In The Stars—

("The wise man controls his destiny . . . astrology points the way.")

Forecast for Tuesday October 24, 1967

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19): Your sense of responsibility comes to fore. You feel a need to get at the facts. Many seem today to depend on you. Utilize best judgment. Make up your mind—follow through.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Accent on short journeys, ideas, calls and messages. Key is awareness, willingness to share and exchange. Be alert. Day is active. Surprises due. Don't be caught off guard.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Some who care for you may make money request. Be analytical. Accent diplomacy. Be fair but firm. Don't give anything away. Get assurance that you will be repaid.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Be perceptive. See people, situations as they actually exist. You may be given important assignment. Know that you are capable. Confidence today can be key to success.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Seek facts which appear hidden. Means dig deep. Don't be satisfield with superficial indications. One at a distance gets "in touch." Review past experience.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Argument with friend could clear air, turn out favorably. Don't be depressed by minor disagreements. Money question will be settled. Follow through on hunch.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Stress independence of thought, action. Don't wait to be told what to do. Do it! Day to show off your worth, unique abilities. Prestige can rise. Your talents can be rewarded.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Indirect approach likely to achieve best results. Check your facts. Then present them in quiet manner. Encourage confidence by exhibiting quiet assurance.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): What you seek is not obvious. But you can discover it. What is required today amounts to persistence. Get to the heart of matters. Discuss "touchy" subjects with loved one.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Accent on marriage, partnership, the way you respond to challenge. Emphasis today on your ability to be adaptable. If questions arise, consult expert—including legal adviser.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Follow through on ideas. Your personal magnetism rating today is high. Many are attracted. Turn on charm. You can get almost anything you need. Know this—act accordingly.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): You may have to temporarily pull in financial reins. Take stock. Know what you're getting for your money. You have chance to succeed if careful with funds.

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY you are affectionate, emotional at times and prone to act on impulse. You require love in manner that most people need food and water. Your life is complete when you find one to share it with—otherwise there is lack of completion.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Cycle high for CANCER, LEO, VIRGO. Special word to TAURUS: short journey could prove significant.

Bidding Changes in 35 Years

By Oswald & James Jacoby

(Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Oswald: "There was a long period in contract bidding when certain jumps to game were regarded as strong slam invitations. I am glad to see that we are getting away from that. It seems rather obvious that the way to approach a slam is slowly but surely—not helter-skelter."

Jim: "This is possible because we have added a lot of gadgets."

Oswald: "When I held today's South hand with the late Louis Watson back in 1932, we had no trouble bidding the slam. He didn't bid four clubs, and I didn't bid four no-trump. This was too early even for Blackwood. I did respond one spade. He raised me to four, and I bid six. West opened the king of clubs and held the first trick. The rest of the way was easy."

Jim: "The bidding in the box shows how we would handle the same hand today. North's jump to four clubs is a fragment bid designed to show enough to bid the spade game with a singleton club as part of the strength."

Oswald: "South's four no-trump is of course Blackwood. He can use it safely because he isn't worried about his worthless doubleton in clubs. North has taken care of that problem by means of his fragment bid."

Jim: "Couldn't you have been more scientific back then and invited the slam by means of a five heart bid?"

Oswald: "I suppose so, but we were not science-minded in those days. The theory was that if we leaped into a slam, we might not get the best defense. Thus, if North held two clubs and one heart, my six spade bid might be met by some lead other than a club, whereupon I would have stolen the slam."

The young animal doctor, a man whose practice was limited to the canine family, was explaining to a dog owner the importance of caring for a pet.

Three excited teenagers, after listening to a lecture about the various kinds of canine animals which could be trained as household companions, decided they would ask their parents for permission to own a dog.

After reading a detailed study of canine habits written by a famous dog trainer, the patient bachelor was able to teach his dog many new tricks.

Belinda Did Not Lack Plot

BY CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Whatever the ailments of Sunday night's "Johnny Belinda," ABC's remake of a 20-year-old movie and an even older play, it did not suffer from a lack of plot.

Indeed, all of its melodramatic elements would have kept any soap opera going for at least a full season, and it was pure concentrate of soap opera with which we were presented.

In two hours, less time out for commercials, we saw a little workhorse of a deaf mute, called "Dummy" by a callous father and stern aunt, learn sign language and turn into a pretty girl. Then she was raped, had a child, and shot and killed the baby's father when he tried to take the child from her. And before the big dramatic murder trial climax and happy ending, there was even time for another killing plus a tender romance.

Mia Farrow played the wistful, silent girl with the same wide-eyed, dewy stoicism she gave to her role of Allison in "Peyton Place," and she never really said much in that series either.

"Johnny Belinda" is the first of a series of programs adapted from successful old movies produced by David Susskind and his Talent Associates.

Several seasons back Susskind was busily turning out this sort of thing and even then nothing memorable resulted. But we have come to expect better things since Susskind was reponsible for some of the most exciting evenings of drama we have encountered in recent seasons.

The program was, however, a handsome, lavishly mounted production. A horse-and-buggy period piece, it was set in rural Nova Scotia, and although obviously a studio job the farm—with chickens and horses and cows—was most realistic.

Ian Bannen, an attractive TV newcomer, played Dr. Richardson, the young doctor who gently taught Belinda to "speak" with her hands and brought her in contact with the world. He was impressive and believable in the part.

David Carradine swaggered his way enthusiastically through the part of the bad guy who assaulted the girl, fathered the child and got his comeuppance.

But from start to finish the program seemed more an exercise in play-acting than drama involving human emotions.

CBS Eric Severeid, in mid-September, interviewed Eric Hoffer, a 65-year-old longshoreman turned philosopher. Later President Johnson quoted from the interview and subsequently invited Hoffer to visit him at the White House. All of which persuaded CBS it would be a good idea to rerun the interview on Nov. 14.

Synod In Final Week

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The Roman Catholic Synod of Bishops went into its final week today with action on its most important topics still ahead.

The tasks:

—Finish debate on liturgy changes.

—Hear and pass on a committee's report on doctrine and theology, the main issue being modern trends and tradition.

—Vote on whether to propose to Pope Paul VI changes in the Church's mixed marriage rules.

—Attend a meeting of the Pope and Orthodox Patriarch Athenagoras, who is scheduled to arrive for a historic, three-day Christian unity visit Thursday.

—Draft an appeal for world peace.

There was speculation the peace appeal might coincide with a new move by the Pope for an end to the Vietnam war. There have been indications in the Vatican press that a new papal attempt to foster peace in Southeast Asia was in the offing.

The most awaited developments are those dealing with doctrine and theology and the mixed marriage vote.

The synod elected a committee Oct. 12 to formulate a document on doctrine.

In debate on that topic the synod heard clashing views on the extent to which modern theological trends were endangering traditional Church teaching. A document prepared for the bishops by the office of Alfredo Cardinal Ottaviani, a Vatican conservative, was criticized by many in the synod as too pessimistic.

The 12-member committee is dominated by progressives and its report is expected to stress a more open view.

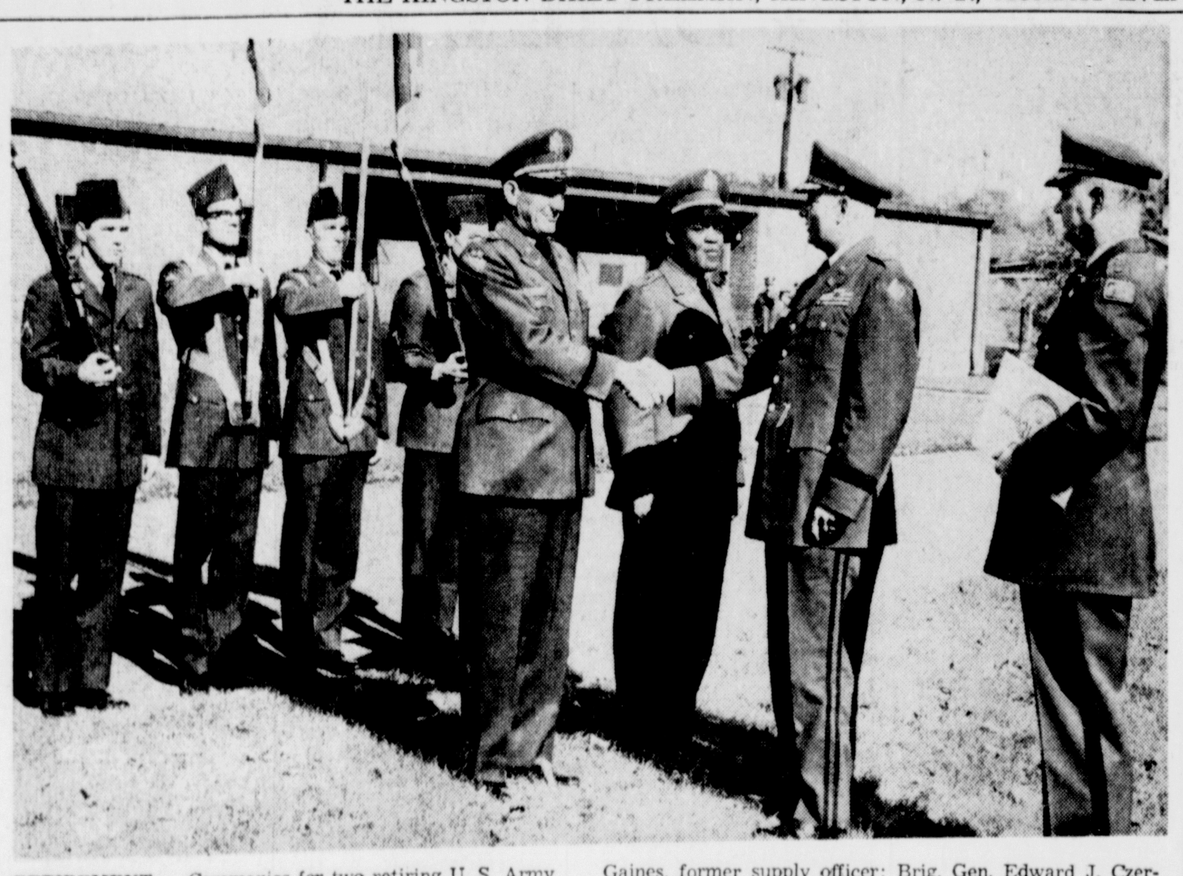

The bishops can ask to start a new debate on the report before they vote on it.

Vatican observers were expecting the vote on mixed marriages to show greater differences of opinion than were revealed in the synod's only other two votes—on canon law and seminaries.

A large number of bishops came out for some liberalization of the Church's restrictions on Catholics marrying outside their faith, but there were sharp differences over how far the changes should go.

The bishops will be asked eight questions in the mixed marriage vote. One of these is whether the Church should ease its requirements for assurances that the children of mixed marriages be raised as Catholics.

Another is whether it should drop its rule that for validity such marriages must be performed before a Catholic priest and two witnesses.

Viet Declaration

Governors Plot Own Course

ABOARD SS INDEPENDENCE (AP) — Republican governors, who blocked action on a Democratic resolution of support for the U.S. stand in Vietnam, may issue a war policy declaration of their own in December.

The declaration might be sounded when the Republican Governors' Association meets Dec. 8 and 9 at Palm Beach, Fla., said Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe.

"I wouldn't be surprised to see it," Volpe said. "It would express support for our fighting men in Vietnam."

At the stormy windup of the 59th National Governors Conference, Volpe joined 17 other Republicans in voting to bar action on a resolution of war support. GOP governors contended the resolution was White-House inspired, politically motivated and not the proper business of a conference on state affairs.

Volpe, new chairman of the national conference, said he hopes Vietnam will not be debated again when the nation's governors convene in Cincinnati for their next meeting on July 20, 1968.

But Volpe said Republican governors meeting at Palm Beach could reaffirm support of Americans fighting in Vietnam without appearing to endorse the Johnson administration's conduct of the war.

The GOP governors caucusing aboard the Independence asked the Republican policy committee to draft platform planks for the 1968 convention expressing a moderate view on domestic issues and offering an alternative to Johnson's conduct of the war in Vietnam.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York said preliminary drafts of the GOP platform might be available for the December Republican governors parley.

The governors also are demanding that one of their number share the chairmanship of the platform committee at the 1968 convention with Sen. Everett M. Dirksen, R-Ill. Dirksen has been outspoken in support of Johnson's Vietnam policy.

Dirksen had no comment on the governors' demands.

Also aboard the Independence, the new governor's conference executive committee met and made plans for two overseas trips next year. In late January, 8 to 10 governors will go to Israel for a five- or seven-week visit as guests of the Israeli government. And in early April, 20 governors will begin a tour of Japan and the Orient.

Volpe said it is possible some governors on the Oriental trip will visit Vietnam, but he said any such stopover would be arranged through the White House. It has not been decided which governors will take the trip, Volpe added.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon will throw his hat into the ring for the Republican presidential nomination around Jan. 15, Nixon associates aboard the Independence said. They said he plans to announce his candidacy after making appearances in four key presidential primary states: New Hampshire, Wisconsin, Nebraska and Oregon.

Michigan Gov. George Romney has bought a half hour of national television time for Nov. 15 and said it is possible he might announce his candidacy on that broadcast.

Medical Group Backs Aims for Clean Air

The Medical Society of the County of Ulster has endorsed the goals and work of the Ulster County Action for Clean Air Committee, and has called attention to Cleaner Air Week to be observed Oct. 22 to 28.

The endorsement was in the form of a resolution adopted unanimously at the Society's regular October meeting, according to Dr. Frederic W. Holcomb Jr., secretary.

The resolution notes that the Medical Society will join with the Ulster County Tuberculosis and Health Association, industry, public health officials of the Ulster County Health Department and the Health Department of the State of New York, with private citizens and other agencies "in actively supporting the goals and work of the Ulster County Action for Clean Air Committee."

Noting that "there is increasingly strong medical evidence of the deleterious effects of air pollution on respiratory health," the resolution states that "preventive measures must be taken now to keep Ulster County's air from being further contaminated."

Governor Rockefeller has proclaimed October 22 to 28 as "Cleaner Air Week" in New York State.

Jewels, Cash Taken From Walker Home

Theft of jewelry valued at $780 together with $76 in cash was reported to the sheriff's office Friday afternoon.

The property was taken from the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Walker at Sleightsburg sometime during the afternoon. Ulster County Investigator Harold T. Bowers and Deputy Sheriff Donald Van Aken reported a party had been going on at the Walker home prior to the discovery.

A watch, diamond ring, opal ring and other jewelry was reported missing. The matter is still under investigation.

Shallow Sea

So shallow is the sea between Japan and Korea in places that a comparatively slight upheaval of the bottom would make it possible for people to walk across dryshod.

Narcotics Group Speaker in South

ALBANY — District Attorney Joseph P. Torraca has been named speaker to the International Narcotics Enforcement Officers Association Conference to be held in Louisville, Ky., Oct. 22 through the 27.

Torraca will address the panel on discussion of law enforcement Wednesday, Oct. 25.

Other speakers at the 8th Annual Conference of the International Narcotics Enforcement Officers Association include U. S. Commissioner of Narcotics Henry Giordano; W. I. Stephenson, commissioner of police, Jamaica, W. I., Marcel Carrere, chief of the Nartotic Central Bureau of the Surate National in Paris, France; Major Charles Tubman, Chief of Detectives, Republic of Liberia and Baron Von Deden, district attorney of the Netherlands.

Donald E. Miller, chief counsel to the U. S. Bureau of Narcotics will also address the group on the subject of Marijuna; Dr. Robert R. Galati, director of the New York State Identification Intelligence System will present a special program entitled N. Y. S. I. I. S. vs. Crime.

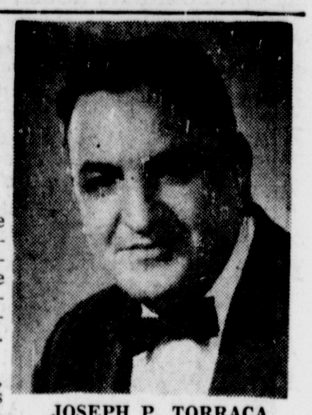

Donald K. Fletcher of Smith, Kline and French Laboratories will present Drug Abuse Education.

Also addressing the group of narcotic officials and public health officers who will be attending from throughout the world will be Dr. Theodore G. Klumpp, president of Winthrop Laboratories, who will talk on the new drug substitute for narcotics entitled Talwin.

Torraca is a member of the executive committee of the New York State District Attorneys' Association and is responsible for initiating what has become known as Operation U.N.C.L.E. locally. The program, United Narcotic Control by Law Enforcement is a cooperative program between law enforcement agencies for narcotic control.

In Ulster County, Torraca has spearheaded movements involving activity by State agencies, the Kingston Police Department, the State Police, the Ulster County Sheriff's Department and his own office.

For his efforts, the local district attorney has been recognized by the New York State Bureau of Narcotic Control as the head of operations in a county that's doing something about narcotics.
